Sheriff Armitage
And his friends have the proud satisfaction of knowing that he passed, unharmed, through a contest that was characterized by the bitterest opposition of the most unprincipled party that ever disgraced any country. He passed through the fiery ordeal with honor, crowned with victory. His political and personal enemies carried on the most cowardly and skulking warfare against him, and resorted to the most low, base, and contemptible means that malignant slanderers, despicable cowards, and unblushing hypocrites could invent and propagate. Not a stone was left unturned to defeat him; and yet he leads his competitor nearly five hundred votes.

If some of the Whigs of the county, who had been induced to vote against him, could have heard the savage, demonic yells and shouts of victory which burst from the throat of Locofocoism in this borough when the votes of this district and of Walker were announced, they would perhaps have regretted that they contributed by their ballots to bring about that jubilation. They sung through our streets,
"That Coon, that Coon of twenty five,
That coon we'll skin alive," or something like this, with the most savage ferocity, disturbing the slumbers of the peaceable and well disposed portion of the community. But, "that coon of twenty five" they now find to have a whole hide on him; and we advise his Locofoco and "Mongrel" calumniators to "stand off." That "coon" will bite.

What's the Matter.
It is now more than two weeks since the election, and the returns must all have been in Harrisburg long ago; but as yet the Locofoco organs—official and "second fiddle"—have not published the full returns! "Hurrah for a majority of from 5,000 to 8,000!" is the cry of all the Locofoco papers and braggadocios;—but where are the official returns? Why are they withheld on the eve of an important Presidential election? Are their effect upon that contest dreaded? Are the Locofocos scared? And would they spoil the cry of "5 to 8 thousand majority!" Who can force any other conclusion?
The Harrisburg Telegraph gives the official returns of all the counties except Bradford, Elk, Greene, Indiana, Jefferson, McKean, Pike, Potter, Tioga, Venango, Warren, Wayne and Wyoming; and adds the reported majorities of the 13 counties above named, and from its statement, Shunk's majority over Markle appears to be only 3,865!
Give us more light—the people are anxious to know if Mr. Shunk is or is not a minority Governor. How many votes were cast for Mr. Lemoyne?

Another Great "Kalkilashun."

Our neighbor of the veritable Globe excepts to the statement of the probable result of the Presidential election which appeared in our paper week before last. And who cares if he does! He straightway fell to work, and furnished the world with a statement which, he says, "will be recognized as having some claims to candor and fairness." He sets down 15 States as "certain for Polk and Dallas," with 173 electors; gives Clay 5 States, with 45 electors; and sets down Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio and Georgia as doubtful. Unfortunately for our neighbor, this half dozen of doubtful states have recently held elections, and all of them have gone for the Whigs, some of them by much greater majorities than the Locofocos claim in Pennsylvania, and the Globe places Pennsylvania among the States "certain for Polk and Dallas." In 3 of the States "certain for Polk and Dallas," to wit, Virginia, Louisiana and Indiana, with 35 electors, elections have been held during the present year, and they too, have gone for the Whigs. Among the "certain for Polk and Dallas," along with Pennsylvania we find New York and Tennessee. The latter two are almost certain for Clay as any State in the Union, and Pennsylvania can scarcely any longer be considered doubtful. Before the late election, some of the knowing Locofocos conceded that if Shunk's majority was under 10,000 the State would go for Clay. The above "kalkilashun" is equalled by only one other that was ever given to the world, and that we insert below. It appeared in the Globe on the 25th of September last—also original.

"CONGRESSIONAL."

Counties.	Henderson.	Blanchard.
Huntingdon,	1200 maj.	500 maj.
Centre,	300 "
Mifflin,	300 "
Juniata,	250 "
	1750	500
	500

Henderson's majority, 1250. The Centre county exponent of Hartford Conventionism may get 500 majority in Old Huntingdon, but we think no more, and as to Centre county, what say you, brother Shugert, how much? Shall we put down for you 1500, 1200, certainly not less. Mifflin 300, Juniata, 250, in all 1750, leaving 1250 majority for Captain Henderson. He ought to beat his yankee opponent 2000, and by hard work can."

Look at one of these "kalkilashuns" and then at the other, and you will know how much reliance to place in either.
As the Globe clique consider themselves great at figures, we give them this QUESTION.—If a fellow can come within 1600 of the result of one Congressional district, how near can he come to that of 223, composing the United States?

ANSWER.—356,800!!!
Cipher it out, boys.

The impaired memory of the Locos.
It is really amusing to see the Locofoco editors "dishing up" the returns of late elections for their readers. They skip over a period of four years as though it were but a span. Poor fellows, we pity them. At the Presidential election in 1840 they got so completely "licked" that their nerves were so severely affected that they lost their memory for four long years. They are now just becoming conscious of what is transpiring around them. The ever memorable "licking" we gave them in 1840 made so indelible an impression upon their minds as they are not likely to forget until after the worse drubbing that awaits them at the Presidential election in 1844. When returns reach them, the first thing they do is to compare them with the Harrison and Van Buren vote of '40, and if they are not as badly beat now as they were then, they shout victory!—if the Whig majority is not so overwhelmingly great as it was four years ago, "the Locofocos consider the result as highly auspicious," and as "showing the downward tendency of the Whig party." Even the general elections of 1840 are forgotten by the Locofocos; and in this State they do not even recollect the gubernatorial election of 1841, when they had a majority of 23,000; but, happily, they can recollect 1840, when they were beaten; and because "Old Shunk" was a meager plurality, when they boasted he would get 20,000 majority, they shout "glorious victory!" Go it now, Locos, for after the election you'll feel sick and sore.

Keep it before the People,
That on the passage of the bill, March 13, 1828, for the relief of surviving officers of the revolutionary war, Mr. Polk voted IN THE NEGATIVE. Cong. Deb., vol. 4, part 2, page 2,660.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE,
That March 18, 1830, he voted AGAINST the revolutionary pension bill.—Same, vol. 5, part 1, page 620.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE,
That, March 19, "Mr. Polk spoke some time against the bill," and voted against it.—Same, page 635.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE,
That, February 7, 1831, he voted against the bill for the relief of revolutionary soldiers.—Same, vol. 7, page 740.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE,
That, May 2, 1832, he voted against the revolutionary pension bill.—Same, vol. 8, part 2, page 2,713.

The evidence we have of the above facts, so unpleasant to Locofoco editors and orators, is contained in the Journals of the Lower House of Congress, above referred to. They may be seen in this borough. They belonged to the late Robert Allison, Esq. Let all who have doubts, examine the records and see for themselves. We make no assertions without backing them up with proof.

John Dougherty, in endeavoring to make out that Polk will carry Ohio, says—"it is said Mr. Todd, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is a Deist!" So it seems the pious and moral Locofocos of Ohio, who oppose Mr. Clay for his "irreligion" and "immorality," took up a Deist as the leader of their hosts! Their hypocrisy "sticks out a foot."

The Globe and the Roorbachs

On the 2nd inst. the "Huntingdon Globe" charged us with having published "an article purporting to be from Roorbach's travels in the United States, stating that Col. Polk sold slaves, burnt them with his brand, &c." It was roundly asserted that we had given wings to the story (then) two weeks since, and that although the contradiction was almost as early as its publication, we withheld the contradiction for the public.

This charge came at such a time and in such a shape that it left no room to suspect mistake or inadvertence on the part of the Globe; and, in view of this, we stated on the 12th that we never published the article referred to, nor any thing like it; and as we were fully convinced that the charge was made against us wilfully, maliciously and for political effect, we denounced it as a falsehood and its publisher as an infamous liar and an unmitigated scoundrel—terms which, although harsh and unpleasant, were richly merited by his conduct towards us.

In our paper of the 12th we also published an exposition of the "Roorbach Imposition," taken from the Ithaca Chronicle extra, in which the "Forgery" was charged upon WILLIAM LINN, Esq. of that village, a LOCOFOCO OFFICE OLDER, the candidate of that party for justice of the peace, to which office he was elected, and which he now holds; and also examiner in chancery, appointed by a Locofoco Senate, on the recommendation of our Governor Bouck.

Well, we seem to have "raised the dander" of the Globe clique; and brought about two columns of its wrath upon us. The Globe of last week does not plead mistake, nor does it tell its readers that we did not publish the Roorbach Imposition; but it makes a vain, silly, and ridiculous effort to pull us down to its own degraded level, by attempting to prove that said imposition or forgery was not perpetrated by a Locofoco, as we stated on the authority of the Ithaca Chronicle, the paper in which both the "forgery" and its denial first appeared.—Our voracious neighbor says he will not brand us "as an infamous liar and an unmitigated scoundrel" (—how kind!) but that two affidavits, one from "George G. Freer" and the other from "E. Labar," would justify him in doing so.

Mr. Freer swears that the said William Linn voted the Harrison electoral ticket in 1840, and within 30 days last he has said in the hearing of the deponent that he hoped Clay would be elected. E. Labar swears that since the nomination of Clay "deponent has had frequent conversation with William Linn on political topics, and that Linn has always argued in favor of Henry Clay and Whig principles."

It is remarkable that neither of these deponents deny that William Linn is a Locofoco office holder, elected justice of the peace by that party, and appointed examiner in chancery on the recommendation of the present Locofoco Governor of New York, by and with the advice and consent of the Locofoco Senate. Upon these facts the assertion is founded, and they are not denied. As to Freer, he proves too much! How can he swear that Linn voted the Harrison electoral ticket when the law requires the tickets to be folded so that the names of the candidates cannot be seen. But suppose it to be true, and what Locofoco paper has not boasted of the changes since 1840. Perhaps Linn is among them. Labar swears to conversations and assertions. An unprincipled character, such as Linn must be, would readily hold political conversations and make such assertions—without a spark of sincerity—for the very purpose of getting some other genuine Locofoco affidavit maker to swear to them. It is a very shallow attempt at backing out—Such is the Globe's "plain tale" to "fasten falsehood on the Journal." Try it again, Lewis, but keep in good humor—don't get mad when the truth is told about you.

HOW THEY BEAT THEMSELVES.
The Harrisburg Union, if we remember rightly, predicted a very short time before the State election, that Shunk's majority would be 25,000. It is less than 5000

It now predicts that Polk and Dallas will carry the State by 15,000. Allow 20,000 for error, as in its former estimate, and the State is ours by 5000. Well, we will be satisfied with that if we cannot get more.—U. S. Gazette.

IMPORTANCE OF A SINGLE VOTE.
The Cincinnati Atlas publishes the following remarkable instances of the importance of a single vote:

- One vote in the city of New York returned a republican member to the Assembly, which made a majority in the Legislature of that State for Thomas Jefferson, and gave him the vote of New York, without which he could not have been elected.
- The whole policy of the United States during the Jefferson and Madison administration, a period of 16 years, hung on that one vote.
- One vote elected Marcus Morton Governor of Massachusetts, in an aggregate popular vote of nearly one hundred thousand.
- One vote elected William Allen in the Chillicothe district to Congress, in 1834, and one vote subsequently made him United States Senator for six years afterwards.
- One vote elected Mr. White to Congress from Vermont, in 1822, and a member was also chosen in 1824 by a single vote, in a canvass where about 6000 were polled.
- The following case of the kind is still more remarkable.

In 1830, Dan Stone, of this city, was a candidate for the State Legislature. Walking up Main street on the morning of the election, he overtook an acquaintance going to the polls, who intended to vote the opposite ticket. Stone solicited his vote. "We are old friends," said he, "and I know you will show a friend that mark of kindness." Party spirit was then comparative quiet. The voter replied, "Well, Dan, you're a pretty clever fellow, I don't care if I do." That vote elected Stone, and gave a majority of one in the Legislature, which made Thomas Ewing United States Senator. Mr. Ewing's vote on the question of confirming the appointment of Martin Van Buren as Minister Plenipotentiary to Great Britain, enabled the Vice President to give the casting vote against it, and recalled Mr. Van Buren home. That recall made Mr. Van Buren first Vice President, and then President, and determined the general policy of the country for four years.
One vote accomplished all this.

...from the Batavia Spirit of the 7th inst. 7, 1843. It clearly shows that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has attained a high reputation in Batavia, as well as in this city.

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—This is one of the very few patent medicines of the day which we can recommend with confidence to all who are affected with Coughs, Colds, or Consumption—or who are predisposed to the latter complaint. It has been used with considerable advantage by many families in town, and in a few stubborn cases has produced highly beneficial effects.—Rocheester Daily Adv.
Editors, lawyers, clergymen, and almost every class have at last found out that Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is what "it is cracked up to be," the very best medicine to be found. It cures all affections of the Lungs when nothing else will.
The genuine, for sale by Thomas Read, Huntingdon, and James Orr, Hollidaysburg.

Miss W*, a young lady residing in Hubertst., had a severe pain in her knee, from which she suffered excruciating pains for upwards of three years, which confined her to bed almost all the time.—Dr. Mott and several others of the faculty had bled, leeches, and blistered to no effect. By taking a few boxes of Brandreth's pills, she has perfectly recovered the use of her knee. Observations on the above would be superfluous.
Purchase the genuine medicine of Wm. Stewart, Huntingdon, Pa., and other agents published in another part of this paper.

MARRIED.

On Thursday the 17th inst., by the Rev. H. G. Dill, Mr. THOMAS COY, to Miss MARY JINKENS, both of Huntingdon county.

On Sunday the 15th ult., by the Rev. Thompson Mitchell, Mr. JACOB SWYERS, to Miss ELIZABETH MYERS, both of Huntingdon county.

On Thursday the 17th inst., by John Porter Esq., Mr. JOSEPH METEER, of Barree township, to Miss ELLEN CORBIN of West township, Huntingdon county.

DIED.

On Saturday the 19th inst., in Hollidaysburg, Mr. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, aged about 30 years.

On the 9th inst., at Union Furnace, REBECCA SIMPSON, consort of Mr. Matthew Simpson.

Register's Office, Huntingdon, Oct. 12, A. D. 1844.

LEASE FOR SALE.

The undersigned, administrators of John Shoop, late of Walker township, Huntingdon county, dec'd, will sell, at public outcry, on the premises, on Thursday, the 7th day of November next, the unexpired term of eleven years of a Lease of that valuable FARM and Mill property, known as the "Swoope Mill Property," situated in Woodcock Valley, five miles from Huntingdon.

The farm contains about 230 acres of first rate lime stone land, in a high state of cultivation, with good buildings and all other necessary improvements.

The mill is a frame, 50 by 55 feet, and four stories high. The building, together with the machinery being all entirely new, built by Mr. Straugh, one of the best millwrights in the country, and finished on the best and most approved plan, with elevators, smut-machine &c., &c., with two pair of burrs and one pair of country stones, and all the necessary fixtures for making merchant work, with an abundant supply of overhead water. This property offers rare inducements to persons wishing to engage in that business, situated as it is, in one of the best grain growing valleys in the county, and only five miles from the Pennsylvania Canal.

It is thought unnecessary to describe the many advantages this property possesses, as persons wishing to purchase will doubtless view the premises. The conditions of the sale will be made known on the day of sale; and will be moderate, to suit the times.

NOTICE.

FARMS FOR SALE.—Four very superior contiguous tracts of land, adjoining Penn's Manor in Green township, Indiana county, Pennsylvania, comprising 1290 or more acres.
The neighborhood is one of the best in the county—the land is very fine—well adapted to growing wheat; there is lime-stone and coal in abundance on it. The proportion of land now under cultivation is about one-third; the remainder in woodland—timber excellent—White oak, Hickory, &c. They are distant about 12 miles from the canal, 8 miles from the county town of Indiana, and 1 mile from the village of Greenville, and very convenient to mills, meeting-houses, schools, &c.
There is a flourishing German Settlement in the immediate neighborhood. These Lands will be divided into Farms to suit purchasers. The title is perfect and the terms will be accommodating. Such an opportunity of obtaining a fine farm—on as reasonable terms as the above will be offered—seldom occurs in Pennsylvania.
