MURDER OF JOE SMITH.

The Court of Quincy, Illinois, says a Western paper, has commenced the investigation of the murder of the Mormon leader and his companions.

It is estimated that the late Mormon troubles will cost the State of Illinois not less than $20,000, and that the last year's expenses from the same cause will not, in the aggregate, fall short of $50,000.

Another eruption of Mount Vesuvius was hourly expected, at the last accounts. The mountain was full of lava, and the springs were all dry.

A FIRE—ALMOST.

An insane lad, who has been in and about this place for several days, entered M. Criswell & Co's. Forge, late on last Thursday night, and deliberately went to work and made a "bon fire" of all the combustibles he could gather; and when discovered, which was only in time to save the building from being wrapt in flames, he was standing by apparently delighted with the blazing fire!

Courtsnip of a Bashful Clergyman.

The Rev. John Brown, of Haddington, the well known author of the Self-Interpreting Bible, was a man of singular bashfulness. In token of the truth of this statement, I need only state that his courtship lasted seven years.

The blessing was asked—the kiss was taken, and the worthy divine, perfectly overpowered with the blissful sensation, most rapturously exclaimed: "O, woman! But it is gude—we'll return thanks."

Six months made the pious couple man and wife, and, aided his descendant, who humourously told the tale, a happier couple never spent a long and useful life together.

The Perfection of Pocket-Picking.

A few days ago a lady, travelling by one of the numerous omnibuses between Liverpool and the village of Waterloo, got seated beside a member of the swell mob, equipped for his vocation with a cloak, and a false pair of hands, the latter being demurely folded before him.

A Royal Letter.—The letter A is a fair way to be dubbed right Royal. Her Majesty's first Christian name is Alexandria, her husband's Albert, and their four children are called Adelaide, Albert Alice, and Alfred.

Earthquake in Western New York.

The Journal of Commerce says that on Tuesday morning last a very perceptible shock of an earthquake was experienced in the towns of Alden, Albion, Alexander, Attica, Batavia, Bethany, Darien and Elba. A gentleman from Albion states that about 8 o'clock in the morning, while he was at breakfast, something seemed to strike the side of the house, jarring it all over, rattling the dishes on the table.

The sound then passed on with a deep rumbling noise like a car passing over a rail road. At the west end of the town, a large brick house was cracked thro' in the centre, and some of the stones in the abutments of the canal fell out.

The Stander.—The Louisville Journal states that Gen. J. M. McCalla, the author of the late foul slanders against Mr. Clay, in regard to gambling, &c., recently made application to the session of the First Presbyterian Church of Lexington, of which he was an elder, for a certificate of good moral character.

The following paragraph we find in the Pittsburg American of the 24th ult. We hope to see some explanation of the matter if there is error in the information.

A MOST UNWARRANTABLE TRANSACTION.

At the last term of the U.S. Court, a man named Tod, we believe, from Beaver county, was convicted, and sentenced for a term of years to the Penitentiary, for passing counterfeit coin.—A short time since, a person conducted in a carriage, owned by a gentleman in this city, arrived at the Penitentiary and produced a pardon from Governor Porter for the said Tod.

G. W. Henderson, charged with belonging to the gang of Tod, was yesterday convicted for the same offence. If he is a good Locofoco, and attached to the Dorr principles, of the largest liberty, he will no doubt be soon clear also of all the meshes of old father antic, the law.

Providence Theatre Burned.

The Providence Theatre was consumed on Friday morning. The fire broke out about 1 o'clock. The building had been occupied the evening previous by Dr. Lardner, who delivered there the last of his course of scientific lectures.

CURIOUS APPLE.

Scions of an apple tree have been received, says the Boston Cultivator, from Ticonderoga, N. Y., where alone it is propagated, bearing a kind of apple which has neither core nor seeds!

Drowned.

A boy named Stephens, about 14 years old, and a girl named Bucher aged about 16, were drowned by the sinking of a skiff in a dam on Augwick Creek, in Cromwell township on Sunday night last.

THE ELECTION OF POLK!

What a chapter for contemplation the election of James K. Polk, the Grand Son of a Revolutionary Tory, who took protection under Lord Cornwallis, wore a red coat, and played the Spy and Traitor to his Country!
