

THE HUNTINGDON JOURNAL.

"One country, one constitution, one destiny."

Huntingdon,
Wednesday morning, Nov. 27, '44.

V. B. PALMER, Esq. (No. 59, Pine street below Third, Philadelphia) is authorized to act as Agent for this paper, to procure subscriptions and advertisements.

The Huntingdon Journal has a larger circulation than any other newspaper in Huntingdon county. We state this fact for the benefit of Advertisers.

A Chance for Investments.

We call the attention of persons wishing to invest capital in Real Estate, to the immense amount of property offered by William Dorris, Executor of Christian Garber, dec'd., and to a number of Orphans' Court Sales—advertised in this paper.

SHERIFF ARMITAGE entered upon the duties of his office last week.

Thanksgiving Days.

The acting Governor of Ohio has appointed Thursday the 19th day of December next to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving throughout that State.

Governor Bouck has appointed Thursday, the 13th day of December next to be observed as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer by the people of the State of New York.

Gov. Marmaduke of Missouri has appointed Thursday the 28th inst. as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer throughout that State.

The Governor of Maine has set apart Thursday the 5th of December as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, in that State.

The Presidency in 1848.

A number of Whig papers have raised the name of Gen. Scott as a candidate for the Presidency in 1848. We consider this step altogether premature. The Locofocos and their foreign allies have decided in favor of a Southern dynasty which will dominate over this country for four long years, and before the expiration of that term there may be many political "ups and downs," and the Government will be so prostrated that it will require the "best doctor" to restore it. Better wait awhile for the "sober second thought" of the people, which according to Mr. Van Buren, "is seldom wrong, and always efficient."

At a late Locofoco rejoicing in Zanesville, Ohio, Mr. J. Russell, of that place, was killed by the premature discharge of a cannon. His family is left in a very needy condition.

The way in which the Locos carry Elections.

Further evidences of fraud and perjury at the late election are daily coming to light. Even in this county, where we had some little confidence in the purity of the ballot box, we hear of fraudulent and double voting.

In this district, cosmopolites and wandering Jews voted on their mere AFFIRMATION that they had paid a State or county tax somewhere in Pennsylvania within two years, and considered this enough to entitle them to the franchise, although it was known that they were peddlars who have no permanent residence in the county—pay no taxes—and bear none of the responsibilities of citizens.

A certain Doctor who "kills or cures" by steam also voted by steam at the Presidential election. He voted in Snyder township in the morning, then rode to Antes and voted there in the evening. The offender is a sober, cool, calculating fellow, and nothing but deliberate villainy prompted him to the act. Legal proceedings have been instituted against him, and nothing but an Executive pardon can save him from justice.

In Antes township Polk tickets were deceitfully folded, two together, and voted. Three more tickets were in the box than names on the list of voters. All these tickets were counted, contrary to law. The deceitfully doubled tickets should have been thrown out, which would have made a difference of six against Polk.

And we are informed that in Woodberry township an unnaturalized foreigner voted. He got his vote into the box by swearing that he was naturalized in the court of this county. Since the election, search has been made and no record of his naturalization can be found. This scoundrel will also be prosecuted.

Deception, fraud, and subornation of perjury are characteristics of the leaders of the Locofoco party. These hypocritical preachers of morality, honesty, &c., put on long and sanctimonious faces before elections, and caution the people against fraud, deception, and every species of rascality, and then practice the same themselves.

Knowing that the Locofocos practice such barefaced frauds in a Whig county like Huntingdon, what may we expect from them in their own strongholds, where they have entire and un molested control over the ballot-boxes.

TENNESSEE.

"By the E——!" said the old Lion of the Hermitage, "the people NKOW HIM too well," when he heard that Jenny O'Polk was defeated in Tennessee.

Yes the people of Tennessee know Mr. Polk, and they know Mr. Clay—and so do the people of Kentucky. Mr. Clay has done what our candidate has ever done. He has carried his own State and that of his opponent.

"Ha, ha, ha, such a nominee As Jimmy Polk of Tennessee!"

The Tory Press.

"The triumph of the Locofoco party in the late contest, has served to develop the hidden and secret contempt, entertained by that party, of the people. Previous to the election the tory press wreathed its face in smiles, and employed honied phrases to the sovereign people, but no sooner does fraud and foreign influence decide in favor of the GRAND SON OF A TORY, than the real character of these presses is exposed, and that same people whom they attempted to flatter and deceive, are denominated as the low, vulgar, and ignorant."

"The Globe of last week is a beautiful specimen of Tory malignity and contempt of the people; and is also a fair specimen of that paper's regard for truth. Read the following extract from its leading editorial article:

"But let us see what counties * * * gave to Mr. Clay their thundering majorities? Lancaster, Lebanon, Dauphin, Union and Somerset, each gave him a large majority—in all about 9000. * * * We have heard that in a majority of the townships in each of these counties the people have decided against the common school system. And we believe it is universally conceded that the people in these counties are as far back in the woods and more so than any other five counties in the State, and yet the Journal has the impudence to prate about intelligence, and indulge in contemptible slang about benighted regions—Pulphoboscans and so on.

Thus wrote Lewis G. Mytinger's hireling editor in the last Globe. Lewis never writes, but he prints any thing that designing knaves indite for him, no matter whether it be a libel upon a friend, a "Rooback forgery," or an "Iron-teethed Rake," alias the "Independent Whig." Hence the slander upon the noble German counties of Lancaster, Lebanon, Dauphin, Union and Somerset.

The Globe hireling says—"we have heard that a majority of the townships in each of these counties have decided against the common school system; and herein he pays a left handed compliment to his friends in "Democratic Barree" township, in this county. Having received sundry hard wraps over the knuckles lately for his deviation from the truth, the Globe begins to lie more cautiously. It says "we have HEARD," &c. And pray, sir, who told you all this "moonshine!" Examine the reports of the Superintendent of the Common Schools, and you will hear and see a very different story. And in vindication of the character of those counties for intelligence we refer the Globe to the following table, compiled from the "Compendium of the sixth Census" taken in 1840, showing the population of the five counties mentioned, together with the number of schools in them, and the number of white persons over 20 years of age who cannot read and write:

	Pop'n.	Schools.	Adults who cannot read & write
Dauphin,	30,118	76	1044
Lancaster,	84,203	206	1116
Lebanon,	21,872	36	659
Somerset,	19,650	21	3515
Union,	22,787	49	6
	179,630	388	6,370

We are sorry that Berks county is blank under the last head—we should like to see Lancaster off against it. "Democratic Barree" with a population of 61,689, has but 26 schools. We pass over the Democratic State of Berks county, and give the following table of Locofoco counties, from the same authority.

	Pop'n.	Schools.	Adults who cannot read & write
York,	47,910	130	4216
Montgomery,	47,341	72	326
Lehigh,	9,879	56	1969
Greene,	19,147	74	2239
Northumberland,	20,027	23	73
	143,304	355	8933

The above counties we have selected on account of their contiguity to the Globe's five counties.—There are other counties "as far back in the woods" as these, and give larger majorities for the GRAND SON OF A TORY, but these will suffice for our purpose. The reader may form his own conclusion; and the Globe demagogues may work these facts into any shape they think proper.

With the aid of the 130 schools in our native county—York—the moral darkness which hangs about the "back" townships may soon be dispelled. In the days of "Old Hackery" there was not a Whig in Codorus township—in 1840 Gen. Harrison received but 2 or 3, and this year Clay has about a dozen votes there. And we see the "school master is abroad" in Pike county too—he will be death to Locofocoism. The noble Whig who stands "solitary and alone" in Lehman township, will soon have others to share his glory. Let him "cry aloud and spare not," for his is a righteous cause. He must be a man of the sternest virtue as well as of intelligence, else he would long since have been corrupted by the spoils party.

NEW YORK.—Silas Wright, the Locofoco candidate, has been elected Governor by a majority of about 10,000 over Mr. Fillmore, his distinguished opponent. As to the Congressmen, the Whigs have elected 9 members, (a Whig gain of 4,) the Native Americans 4, and the Locofocos 21, embracing all the Districts in the State. Mr. Polk's plurality over Mr. Clay, is about 5,000.

DEATH IN THE PULPIT.—The Rev. Wilson, a Baptist minister in Georgia, fell dead in the pulpit on the fifth Sabbath in June last, after preaching from these words: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they that hear shall live."

BEARS AND HARD WINTER.—The Sangamo Illinois Journal states that Bears are coming down into the North parts of Illinois from Wisconsin, and that several have been killed in Winnebago county. This movement of Bears, south, it is said, betokens of coming hard winter.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.—The people of New Hampshire at their recent election, rejected a proposition submitted to them to amend their State constitution so as to abolish capital punishment.—They also at the same time rejected propositions to amend the constitution in relation to the religious and property qualification tests.

"All the Decency and all the Intelligence."

This is the heading of an article in the last Hollidaysburg Standard, in reply to ours relative to the Pennsylvania election. We seem to have given sundry Tory presses considerable trouble.—"Now, be asy, darlins!—and if you can't be asy, be asy as you can." We are at all times ready to defend our positions, and shall never shrink from doing so, no matter how demagogues may pervert our language.

After writing the sheerest nonsense about "the petty tyrants at certain of our Iron Works"—those in the Democratic State of Berks county, perhaps, or those in the black "Star of the North," Columbia county, Mr. John Dougherty, the sapient editor of the Standard proceeds as follows:

"It was the Agricultural counties of New York that gave the vote of the Empire State to James K. Polk and George M. Dallas. It was the farmers of Berks, Westmoreland, and other agricultural counties, that decided the recent elections in Pennsylvania; and it was the farmers of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Virginia, &c. &c., that placed the seal of condemnation on the candidate of the Monopolists. It is these whom the editor of the Journal supposes cannot read or write and who live in benighted regions.

Having thus shown that the farmers of the Union are the class of men who decided against the measures of the Federalists and monopolists, we may perhaps be excused if we hunt back the fool implication of ignorance upon our opponents; we would point them to their own holds of Whigery, Kentucky and North Carolina—two States that contain a larger number of voters who can neither read or write than any other two States in the Union.

But it is absurd and ridiculous in the extreme to suppose that Democracy is incompatible with learning and intelligence. We have shown, that the more virtuous portion of this country, the agriculturalists, are on our side, and will now point to the Scholars, Poets, Historians, and Novelists, of this Republic. Observe the school to which they belong—they are, without exception, Democrats; witness Washington Irving, N. P. Willis, Joseph C. Neal, Paulding, Bryant, Cooper, Bancroft, and a host of others who form the bright galaxy of American literature. Yet these are the men whom our Whig neighbors deem ignorant! And why? because these men advocate the elevation of the masses, and the giving to the many the power which the few had wrested from them. But there is another portion of our citizens who have come in for more than a full share of Federal ensilage. We allude to the studly and warm-hearted Irish, who, having tasted the latter fruits that flow from a property government at home, have attached themselves to the Democratic party and who are always found battling on the side of the people. These have been selected as the peculiar objects of Federal vengeance, and already all the artillery of the Universal Whig party has opened upon their devoted heads."

Every person who reads Mr. Dougherty's 8 by 10 knows that the "Great Agitator" has great powers of invention. He can invent facts to suit his purpose just exactly, no matter whether it be "North Carolina election returns complete," showing the triumphant election of Mr. Holke, the Locofoco candidate, who was never elected, or whether it be Marble Quarries—Religion, Law, or Physic. "And where in PENNSYLVANIA," said we, "is there a dark and benighted region, where men cannot read and write their names, that does not go for Polk and 'Democracy'?" John Dougherty says this is applied to "the farmers of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Virginia, &c. &c.," and then he slyly denies the truth of our assertion.—He wanders far from the true issue, and there we feel disposed to leave him, hoping that he will inform us whether he calls the lordly nabobs and planters of Missouri, Virginia, &c. farmers, or whether he applies that honorable appellation to their slaves. These farmers of the South and West, who vote once for themselves and three times for every free slave they own, are the polite fellows who "placed the seal of condemnation on the candidate of the Monopolists." So says John Dougherty, and it is truth, but not the whole truth—for the voters of the North and East helped them. We don't like to see these Tory editors shift the responsibility so soon after the election. The North and East must bear their part of the sin and the disgrace.

But let us examine another of Mr. Dougherty's inventions: "Kentucky and North Carolina," says he, "contain a larger number of voters who can neither read nor write than any other two States in the Union." Now let us see what the last Census says on this subject.

	No. of white persons over 20 years of age who cannot read and write.
North Carolina,	56,609
Kentucky,	40,018
	96,627
Virginia,	58,733
New York,	44,432
	103,165

Deduct truth from falsehood and it leaves against Dougherty 6,554.

Certain Tory editors would do well to learn that "figures won't lie," and that "facts are stubborn things." Good bye, Mr. Dougherty.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

It is our painful duty to record the fact that at the Locofoco rejoicing at Manor Hill, in this county, on Monday last, the cannon used to give tone to the occasion, exploded, killing a young man named M'Mahan, and injuring a young German stranger so severely that one of his legs has since been amputated; and also wounding Capt. John Stewart, of Barree township, though not very seriously.

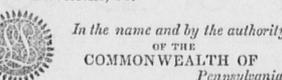

P. S.—A gentleman from Barree township has informed us since the above was in type, that Mr. M. was still living yesterday evening, but that no hope of his recovery is entertained, and that the case of the German is considered very doubtful by his physicians.

"AMERICANS SHAN'T RULE OVER US!" Was the inscription on one of the banners in the Locofoco procession from the 6th Ward in the city of New York, a few evenings previous to the late election. The fact is established by the corroborative testimony of a number of the most respectable citizens of that city.

"Can such things be, Without our special wonder?" "Americans shan't rule over us!" Ponder upon it.

More "Executive Clemency."

On Wednesday of week before last a parchment or paper was presented in the Court of Quarter Sessions of this county, with the great seal of the Commonwealth, and the signature of the Governor attached, in the words following: PENNSYLVANIA, SS.

In the name and by the authority of the COMMONWEALTH OF Pennsylvania.

DAVID R. PORTER,

Governor of the said Commonwealth.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, SENDS GREETING.

Whereas, at a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held in and for the county of Huntingdon, on the tenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, James Jones, John Jones, James Evans Jones, James Thompson, Washington Jackson Briggs, and John Briggs, Jr., were indicted for a conspiracy and malicious mischief, and found guilty on the first, second and third counts in said indictment, and were thereupon sentenced by the Court to pay a fine of ten dollars each and the costs of prosecution, and stand committed, &c. And whereas, it has been represented to me that the said defendants are fit and proper persons for the exercise of the Executive Clemency.

I do therefore, in consideration of the premises, hereby remit the fines of ten dollars each imposed upon the said defendants by the sentence of the Court as aforesaid, and the same are hereby fully remitted accordingly.

Given under my hand and the GREAT SEAL of the State, at Harrisburg, this fourteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and of the Commonwealth, the sixty-ninth.

By the Governor: CHARLES MCCLURE, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The above was filed among the records of the county, as a "perpetual memorial;" and in order to make the mercifulness of our Governor the better known we have deemed it proper to publish this further evidence thereof. We have before furnished our readers with specimens of pardons—"spurious" and proper, and with a supersedeas which the Supreme Court said was no supersedeas at all; and we now give this specimen of a remission of forfeitures.

We will add that these "fit and proper persons" for the exercise of the Executive Clemency were indicted for a conspiracy and malicious mischief—obstructing the School Directors of Tell township in the performance of their official duties—unlawful power and seditious noise, &c. Some people prefer moral and political darkness rather than light and knowledge, and it so happens that those people are always the "fit and proper persons" for the exercise of the Executive Clemency." In this case the Pardons is of no other earthly use or effect than to clear these "fit and proper persons" from the fines imposed upon them by the Court.

The Pardon was given on the 14th September, shortly before the election.

PROTECTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

Since the elections in Pennsylvania we have seen in a number of our Locofoco exchange papers, a long article credited to the "Pittsburg Weekly," against the Distribution of the Proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands and against the Protective Tariff. We make the following extracts:

"Now as a measure of mere finance, this proposition to distribute the proceeds of the public lands, is most ridiculous." "A protective tariff is laid to prevent the importation of foreign goods. Yet it is by the very duties on these goods, whose importation is designated to be prevented by a protective tariff, that the public treasury is to be supplied with funds after exhausting itself by the distribution of the land proceeds. [This is arrant nonsense.] The proposition on its face is to give away the resources of the Government and still replenish the Government by the duties on imports, and at the same time pass a law to prevent these very importations."

The reasoning in the above extract is most fallacious, for it is an indisputable fact that under the present Protective Tariff, passed by the Whig Congress of 1842, the Treasury has a large surplus revenue.—The question is, shall the Tariff be reduced, or shall the surplus, or the proceeds of the public lands, be distributed? But our object in making the above extracts was, to show how the Locofocos have SWINDLED Pennsylvania out of her Electoral votes. Before the election the cry was, "hurrah for Polk, Dallas, and the Democratic Tariff of 1842." Now, since the election is over and Pennsylvania secured, this measure is denounced as "arrant nonsense." Such is the dishonesty of Locofocoism.

On Thursday morning the 21st inst., by the Rev. William Gwynn, Mr. JEREMIAH K. BEILEMAN, formerly of Harrisburg, Pa., No. 18, MISS CAROLINE E. Z., daughter of Mr. Christian Peightel, dec'd of this borough.
