The Position of the Whig Party.

We heartily subscribe to the following remarks of the York Pennsylvania Republican of Wednesday last.

Main article text starting with 'That the Whigs have been defeated in the great canvass which has just closed, is a fact; that they have polled a much larger number of votes than in 1840 when they elected their candidates by overwhelming majorities, and that their Principles survive the wreck as worthy of support as ever and full of beneficial qualities for the country whenever they may be applied to practice, is not less true.'

yet enjoying all the glory of victory, but not the plunder! The Whig platform is broad enough for us—it is endorsed by many precious memories and associations, and founded on the immutable principles of justice and truth. Just in proportion to the distance which the country wanders from it, does it approach the Serpentine bog of disgrace and ruin.

holds against capture in the meantime, and bearing testimony to the truth always. It is not by giving up that great ends are gained; Bacon and the spider—our own forefathers, teach us better than that; and the poet eloquently and truthfully tells us that, "They never fail who die in a great cause; the blood may soak their gore; Their heads may sicken in the sun; their limbs Be strung to city gates and castle walls! But still their spirit walks abroad. Though years Elapse, and others share a dark doom, They but augment the deep and sweeping thoughts Which o'erpower all others, and conduct The world at last to Freedom."

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION RETURNS, OFFICIAL.

Large table showing election returns for Governor and President in 1840 and 1844, categorized by county and candidate.

Above we give the official returns of the Presidential Elections in this State in 1840 and in 1844. The increase in the popular vote since 1840 is 41,943, the whole vote of this year being 331,230, of that 287,655. The majority for Polk now over Clay is 6,373—over both Clay and Birney 3,209. In 1840 Gen. Harrison had 343 majority, and the Birney vote then just equalled Gen. Harrison's majority. Of the increased vote of four years the Whigs have 17,184—the Locofocos 23,569. In October Mr. Shunk received for Governor 160,403—in November Mr. Clay for President 161,203; so that Mr. Clay had 800 votes more than Shunk. We have also added the official returns of the Governatorial Elections of 1841 and 1844. This table will be found useful for future reference.
