page it may be seen that it is found of rank growth cut, the land of steady habits. The anin Connecticut, the land of steady habits. The an-nexed article from the "Muskingum Democrat," proves this dark characteristic to be of still more luxuriant growth in Ohio. We copy the following communication and editorial remarks—they will speak for themselves. No comment is needed to expose the baseness and falsehood of the sentiments therein contained. We leave the series the selve therein contained. We leave them to the calm consideration of those who, whether religious or not, have some regard for decency, and respect for truth.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE MUS-KINGUM DEMOCRAT.

DEAR SIR—I have a few words to say, which I wish inserted in your paper, and hope that other democratic papers will notice the same subject. I am a Democrat and for many years have been a member of one of our Protestant churches, I pay, and so do all Domocrats, as far as I know them, pay for the support of the Preachers and Churches, as liberally as the whigs do, and yet on every occasion, when there is any severe political contest; we have the whole power and force of the Clergy, with few exceptions, arrayed against us, and in favor of the Whigs, no matter how vile and immoral their candidate may be. The money that we pay them, and the power that we assist to conferu upon them, they use for the oppression of ourselves and our families. My mind is made up, and I know a great many belonging to the different denominations, who think as I do, and I write this with the knowledge and approbation of them, and that is to refrain from contributing to their support, until they cease to be political partizans, and become men of one work. From the time of Moses up to the great renolution in France and Germany, infidelity has never been spread or propagated except through the influence of the Clergy. The course pursued by a large number of our Clergymen within the last four or five years has done more to create a spirit of unbelief in the christian religion, than all the efforts of its opposers. "Like priest like people," is the language of inspiration and has become a common proverb. We cannot expect that the great mass of the people will long remain much better than their teachers, and if they descend into the arena of politics, they must expect us to meet and treat them, as other men.—And when they have become political partizans, and labor to promote the cause and interest of politicians hostile to our interests; let those for whom they thus labor and spend their strength maintain and support them. These are my views and th

How Polk is regarded Abroad.

The following paragraph from the Mon treal Gazette, a high Tory paper, will show how the result is regarded abroad. The success of the Free Trade candidate will be hailed with joy in all countries which find a market in our country for which find a market in our country for their manufactures:

"So far as we can judge from the American papers, of which the majority that we see, being from the New England States, are in favor of Mr. Clay, the Presidential election is going decidedly in lavor of Mr. Polk. This is a very important event. It decides the opinion of the DEMOCRACY of the United States in favor of the relaxation of their commercial system, and the admission of foreign, that is of British manufactures, without reference to the PROTECTION OF THE DOMESTIC PRODUCER. In its results it cannot fail to have a most important influence on the relations between Canada and the mother country."

A Whig Murdered by Locofocos. The Jonesborough (Tenn.) Whig gives the following account of the murder peaceable and inoffensive young mechanic, who was walking in the Whig pro-cession on the 5th inst. A committee of gentlemen in Jonesborough have offered a reward of $300 for the discovery and apprehension of the murderer, SHOCKING MURDER.

SHOCKING MURDER.

William Taylor, a saddler to trade, in his 18th year, was inhumanly murdered in the streets of Jonesborough, just after dark, as he was marching in a Whig Procession, opposite Chester's Tayern, on the night of the 5th instant, by the foul and infamous party calling themselves Democrats. The procession had marched west of the Tayern, and were returning with their Transparencies, when a brick-bat thrown from the porch of the Tayern hit the young man on the top of the head, broke his skull, and 'caused his death! The young man was saying nothing, and was perfectly inoffensive.—
The blow is believed to have been aimed at James Brown, a Whig, who was at the time standing near him, and quarreling with WILLIAM K. BLAIR, who had walked the street and commencing an angry quarrel with Brown. The young man's skull upon examination, was found to be shattered litterally to pieces.

Before this brickbat was thrown from the tayern porch, where there were from 50 to 100 Locofocos, many of whom had rocks* and pistols, and some even guns, a company of us had been rocked, on the square, in front of our office, and among those who were hit were Patrick Vance, James Taylor, James Dosser, and the Editor of this paper. Three men—opposite to us, instantly put into Blair's counting room, a perfect harbour for sconndrels and assassins. Col. Jackson, Dr. Gibson, Dr. Humphreys, and others, were present when these tocks were thrown, and witnessed the call made on these men to halt, and their refusal, as well as their entrance into Blair's store.

This Locofoco abuse of every thing that is sacred and good, is not indiginous to any particular soil, nor confined to any particular locality. It is the poputaneous product of withering and corrupt Locofocoism. It is a striking characteristic of that party everywhere. From an article on our first

The slashes of Manover!---The Birth Place of Menry Clay!

Place of Henry Clay!

It is a fact worth mentioning, not less creditable to the noble Whigs of that county, than gratifying to the friends of Henry Clay, that in Hanover county, Va., the birth-place of Henry clay, there is a Whig gain, even over 1840, of 89 votes. The vote of the whole county is only about a thousand. Van Buren had a majority of 12 over Harrison in 1840. Clay has a majority of 77 over Polk now!— Take this in connexion with Clay's large majority in Kentucky, and then remember that Tennessee has repudiated James K. Polk, for the third time, and you have a result that must swell with grateful emotions the breast of every Whig, while it must be deeply mortifying and humiliating to the friends of James K. Polk, notwithstanding his ill-gotten success.—Harrisburg Intelligencer.

"PORK AND DOLLARS!"

"PORK AND DOLLARS!"
Remember that the Locos promised the People that if Polk was elected they would liaveplenty of "Pork and Dollars."
We saw a poor shoemaker yesterday who looked as it he needed both these articles. He stated that he had worked in Lancaster, and voted for Polk and Dallas—but since the election, his "boss," a Locofoco, no longer had work for him. He applied to his brother locos of this place for the promised "Pork and Dollars," without success. They sent the pobr cobbler away empty handed, as his vote was no longer needed.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

ELIZABETHTOWN.N. J., Feb. 20, 1843.
About two months ago I was seized with a violent Cold, which soon caused raising of blood. I tried various remedies, but none did any good; but, on the contrary my cough increased and it was feared it would result in Consumption. By accident, Dr. Wistar's Family Medical Guide met my eye, which recommended Balsam of Wild Cherry. I purchased a bottle, used it, and in one week ceased raising blood—my Cough entirely disappeared, and my health was completely restored, enabling me to attend to my business as usual.
