CABINET and CHAIR WARE ROOMS.

THOMAS ADAMS, HAS now on hand and still continues to manufacture the most splendid assortment of elegant Furniture and Chairs, &c. ever offered for sale in the borough of Huntingdon, embracing almost every article in the above line; which in point of durability, workmanship, fashionable style of pattern, and fine finish, will compare with similar articles manufactured in any portion of the county; all of which he is determined to sell at very reduced prices for cash or appointment to country produce, or on time to punctual dealers.

Hotels, private dwellings, &c. furnished to order at the shortest possible notice. House, sign, and fancy painting done on the most reasonable terms.

N. B.—Collins made for the citizens of the borough, at the shortest notice. Huntingdon, Oct. 16, 1844.—1c.

Disorders of the Lungs and Breast. TESTIMONIALS.

TO THE PUBLIC.—In accordance with the prevailing custom, and in order to show the virtues of this medicine more fully, the following certificates have been selected; and as it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of those afflicted, we sincerely pledge ourselves to make no assertions or "false statements" of its efficacy; nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant. The proofs are here given—and we solicit an inquiry from the public into every case we publish, and feel assured they will find it a medicine well deserving their patronage and confidence.

REMARKABLE CURES. Of all the cures that have yet been recorded, there are certainly none equal to the below mentioned, and they plainly show the curability of Consumption, even in some of its worst forms:

Let every man, woman and child read the following, and we are sure that it will satisfy all of the great virtues of the medicine.

Read the following from Dr. Jacob Hoffman, a physician of extensive practice in Huntingdon county:

Dear Sir:—I procured one bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from Thomas Read, Esq. of this place, and tried it in a case of obstinate Asthma on a child of Paul Schwebel, in which many other remedies had been tried without any relief. The Balsam gave sudden relief, and in my opinion the child is effectually cured by its use. Yours, &c. JACOB HOFFMAN, M. D. Dec. 23, 1841.

The case of Thomas Cozens is related by himself as follows, and acknowledged by all who knew him to be one of the most astonishing and extraordinary cures ever performed:

HADDONFIELD, N. J. April 20, 1843. On or about the 13th of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the Liver, which continued about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or something inwardly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this I applied to a physician, who said he thought he could do but little for me except give me some mercury pills which I refused to take feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; many other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends but none did me any good and the discharge of blood red putrid corruption still continued every few days, and at the last it became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had formerly done, and my disease continued in this way until February, when all hopes of my recovery were given up, and my friends all thought that I would die of a galloping consumption. At this moment when my life apparently was drawing near to its close, I heard of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry and got a bottle which relieved me immediately, and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed, and my cough and spitting of blood removed, and in a few days my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade (which is that of a carpenter) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

THOMAS COZENS. I am acquainted with Elias Cozens and having seen him during his illness, I think his statement is entitled to full credit. SAM. H. BRROUGHS. GLOUCESTER COUNTY, SS. Appeared before me personally, and affirmed according to law, on the 20th of April, 1843. J. CLEMENI.

It is unnecessary to remind all who would get the true article, to inquire particularly for "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and take nothing else.

Unprincipled dealers will tell you that the State of Wild Cherry, or some other cough medicine is equally as good. Regard them not—they only want your MONEY! Remember, it is "Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry" that not only relieves but cures!

Price one dollar per bottle, or six for $5. For sale only in Cincinnati, by SANFORD & PARK, corner of Fourth and Walnut. Also, for sale by Thomas Read & Son, (wholesale and retail.) Huntingdon, and Mrs. Mary Orr, Hollidaysburg. January 15, 1845.—6m.

HUNTINGDON CABINET & CHAIR WARE ROOM.

Cunningham & Burchinell RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of the borough and county of Huntingdon, the public generally, and their old friends and customers in particular, that they continue to carry on business in their new establishment, one door east of the north eastern corner of the Diamond in said borough, where they are prepared to sell, wholesale and retail, all articles in their line of business; such as Huntingdon Nov. 29, 1843.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.—Health is characterized in an individual by the absence of all pain, suffering or affection in any part of his body; by a free and regular exercise of all his functions without any exception. They consist in having a good appetite at meal times, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage; the free issue of water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or an approaching pain; quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams; no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning; no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching, pimples or spots on the skin; no piles; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when exposed to labor or other known cause; no interruption to any natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies too often the result of speculation; instead of this course let a dose of Brandreth's Pills be taken, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

All who wish to preserve their health, all who are determined to defend their life against the encroachments of disease which might send them prematurely to the grave, will, without hesitation, have recourse to the Brandreth Pills, when the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health.

Those who live in a country where contagious or other diseases prevail, should often think of this true picture of health, and observe himself with particular attention, in order to act accordingly. The wise and rightly directed will follow this advice—the unwise are left to their own destruction.

Dr. Brandreth's Pills are for sale by the following Agents in
