One Month Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

Meeting of Parliament—Financial Statement—Debate on the American Tariff—Repeal of the Duty on Cotton Wool, Coal, Glass Auctions, and Slaves—Advance in Cotton—Money Market Easy—No news of the missing Packets—Death of the Rev. Sydney Smith.

By the arrival at Boston of the Steamship Cambria, at half past 10 o'clock on the morning of the 18th, in a short passage of 14 days, we have late and interesting advices from Europe.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

In relation to this document, we find the following paragraph in the European Times:—Our paper went to press, and was de-patched by the last steamer, on the day that the Queen opened Parliament.

WAYS AND MEANS—THE REVENUE: REDUCTION OF DUTIES.

Sir Robert Peel estimates the revenue of the past year as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Category (Income, Expenditures, etc.) and Amount (£51,000,000, etc.).

Total Estimate for the year, £53,700,000. From this, however, he deducts the £600,000 of Chinese compensation, as it is an accidental income, so that it will be—

Table with 2 columns: Category (Income, Expenditure, etc.) and Amount (£53,100,000, etc.).

Total loss to the Revenue, £3,358,000 which will nearly absorb the estimated surplus of £3,409,000.

It will be seen that the whole of the programme is based upon the renewal of the Income-tax, which brings in a revenue exceeding five millions.

Willmer & Smith say, in the European Times:—There is no part of the financial scheme which has given so much satisfaction as the abolition of the import duty on Cotton Wool. This tax has been keenly felt by the English manufacturer, for it saddled him, on the coarse description of goods, with ten and twelve per cent. more than his Continental or American competitors, and in the same degree, it has prevented him in the open markets of the world from competing with his active and energetic rivals.

THE OREGON QUESTION.

Mr. Roebuck, in the House of Commons last night, asked Sir Robert Peel for full information regarding the present state of negotiations with the United States Government on the Oregon question, justifying his question by the recent proceedings in the American House of Representatives.

THE PENNSYLVANIA INTEREST.

Willmer & Smith say:—Few things have given more satisfaction in commercial circles than the intelligence which came to hand by the last packet, that the State of Pennsylvania has paid the interest of its debt for the current six months.

THE DEATH OF THE REV. SYDNEY SMITH.

Rev. Sydney Smith died at his house in London on the evening of Feb. 22.—The Morning Chronicle remarks upon the event, that the country has lost one of the clearest and the wisest of its writers, and humanity has lost one of its most powerful and yet least pretending advocates.

IRELAND.

Repeal Association.—At the meeting on Monday the 17th, Mr. John O'Connell criticised Sir Robert Peel's financial statement—admitting, however, that it would produce vast benefit to the poorer classes in Ireland.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says, "I cannot but regard a declaration of war upon the part of Mexico as almost inevitable."

Every man who knows what war is, is afraid. Every man who regards the morals of the nation, is afraid. Not afraid of the cannon's roar, not afraid of loss of limbs, or loss of life—these are not the objects most dreaded by those who oppose war—men who lived through the war of 1812, fear the awful demoralization which is consequent upon war in its mildest forms.

Men fear war, because the pathless sea, the home and highway of the mariner, acquires dangers beyond those of the billows and foam—dangers compared to which the shipwreck is a blessing.—War between commercial powers brings on privateering, that species of legalized piracy, which is only the last step to the black flag and death's head.

Opinions of the press:—Wherever this medicine is introduced, it at once attains that high reputation which it so richly deserves. What can stop its sale, when every hand can be witnessed its wonderful cures?

To OUR READERS.—It is not often we have any thing to say upon the subject of medicine, but from the experience we have had in witnessing the numerous cures performed by Brandreth's Pills, we cannot do less than recommend them to the special notice of the public.

REGISTER'S NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons concerned, that the following named persons have settled their accounts in the Register's Office at Huntingdon, and that the said accounts will be presented for confirmation and allowance at an Orphans' Court to be held at Huntingdon, on Wednesday the 16th day of April next, viz:—

LAMENTABLE.

The following case, of domestic infelicity is too directly in point to be lost, and is too well depicted in the language of the newspaper in which we find it, to be improved by our hands:—A young planter in the upper part of the State, lately married to a beautiful and intellectual lady, after the honeymoon had passed, was pained to observe that his young bride looked thoughtful at times, and appeared to suffer much from ennui.

man!—he paid but a poor compliment to his amiable partner's intellect if he thought she could contentedly pass her leisure hours in thrumming over a piano forte!

He was mistaken. Though "music bath charms," like love, it is not the only disideratum in the world; for a while it pleases the ear and touches the heart, but ministers not to the mind! The lady seldom courted Apollo, and her husband had not yet made his domicile a paradise to "her he adored."

Let every young husband who loves his wife, and who would keep her happy, and thus preserve an amiable temper, remember the case here cited, and steadily avoid the error pointed out.

COPYRIGHT.

We perceive that our neighbors Godley, and Graham, have both taken out a copyright for their respective Magazines.—This is rather new, but on looking at the matter carefully, we think it entirely correct. The articles in each Magazine costs, we suppose, from $300 to $500.—These are frequently taken out bodily, and before the Lady's Book, or Graham's Magazine, reach half their subscribers, their contents have been made familiar to the community through the daily or weekly papers.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—Wherever this medicine is introduced, it at once attains that high reputation which it so richly deserves. What can stop its sale, when every hand can be witnessed its wonderful cures?

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—According to a number of recommendations in our possession from doctors and other individuals, and from a knowledge of the benefits derived from the use of it by some of our neighbors, we respectfully recommend it to families. We have made use of the Balsam ourselves, and found that it produced such effects as recommended.
