Both branches of the Legislature have agreed to adjourn on Tuesday the 15th inst. Just 99 days from the day they convened.

and those who intend to change their place of residence this Spring, will please give us notice thereof, so that we can send their papers correctly.

The sale of the Main Line of our Public Works was re-commenced yesterday in Philadel-phia, and is to continue for twenty days, if not sold sooner.

At the annual commencement of Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, on the 20th ult., the degree of M. D. was conferred on 116 graduong whom we notice the names of the folg young gentlemen of this county: Elias McMullen, Miller Stewart, and Matthew

The Loco-Foco State Central Committee has called a State Convention, to assemble in burg on the 4th of September next, to no candidate for Canal Commissioner.

Women in Office .-- In Woolwich township women in Office.—In Woolwich township, Gloucester county, N. J., the people in town meeting, last week took for candidates two very respectable maiden ladies, Sally Brown and Betsy French, and elected them Justices of the Peace by imphant majority.

Mr. Calhoun, it is said, speaks openly unhandsome treatment he has received. Mr. Mc Duffie and Mr. Holmes denounce the whole com position of the Cabinet as feeble and inefficient, and altogether unworthy.

MORSE'S TELEGRHPH .- The Philadelphia Times says that Morse's Magnetic Telegraph is to be extended from Baltimore to New York, as rapidly as the wire can be laid and protected. The line be, tween Philadelphia and New York will be put into operation first. A private company has the work in charge.

Wealth of Mr. Astor.—His present wealth is computed at $25,000,000, and it is yearly increasing at the rate of about 4 per cent. nett. Last year the city tax upon his real estate alone (including near 1,600 building lots, nearly all covered with houses) was over $54,000.

Beautiful. Extract.—The following excel-lent saying should grace the mantlepiece of every leading politician. It would do much to remind him of his humanity:

'Blessed,' saith the wise Sancho, 'blessed those who expect nothing, for they shall no disappointed.'

HEAVY ROBBERY .- Mr. David Yearsley. THATY MOBBERY.—Mr. David Yearsley, merchant, Nauvoosa, Illinois, was robbed in Philadelphia a few days ago of $4,280. Mr. Yearsley was a passenger in the western train of cars, which arrived about 9 o'clock in the evening, and lost his meney, he supposed, at the depot in Broad street, He had his wallet safe in his pocket a short time before the arrival of the train at the terminus.

Thomas R. Green of Springfield township, in this county, was found dead in one of the apartments of the privy of the new Court House in this borough, on Saturday evening last, where it is supposed, he had been since the Tressley of the week. orough, on Saturday evening last, where it is sup-osed he had been since the Tuesday of the prece-ling week. The Coroner held an inquisiton on the body, and the result was a verdict that the deceased came to his death by a fit of apoplexy.

The deceased was missed on Tuesday the 18th Appointments to Office.

Ult., (Court week)—on which day he ordered his horse out at the tavern where he had lodged, and then disappeared before his horse was in readiness, and did not return to the tavern. When found, he was lying in such a position that his body prevented the nomination of John H.

taken great credit for Mr. Polk, from the circumstaince that he attended church in a plain carriage since his arrival at Washington, the New Bedford Mercury, very appropriately remarks upon this great Democratic glorification, that Mr. Adams used to go on foot to church while he was President of the United States, while at this time, it is considered a wonderful stretch of "republican simplicity" to go to church in a plain carriage.

The Whigs and the Senator.

The Harrisburg intelligencer says—"We per eive that some of our Whig contemporaries are disposed to doubt the policy of the course pursued by the Whig members of the Legislature in the recent election for U.S. Senator. If those editors, and our Whig friends generally will reflect that the issue was directly presented in the candidates between Free Trade and the Tariff of 1842, they can have a difficulty in reading on their minds as can have no difficulty in making up their minds a to the course the Whigs should have adopted under to the course the Whigs should have adopted under the circumstances. There was no doubt in the minds of the Whigs in regard to the position of Mr. Woodward on the Taiiff. He had refused to answer a letter addressed to him by Messrs. Gibbons and Darsie on this subject, and the impression made from this and other circumstances, were subse from this and other circumstances, were subsequently confirmed by Mr. Ross of the Senate, who stated in his place, that it was notoriously known where Mr. Woodward resided that his opinions on the Tariff were precisely those of John C. Calhoun! With such a candidate presented on the one hand, and an avowed and determined friend of Those of our subscribers who have changed, the Tariff of 1842 on the other pledged besides for the me sure of Distribution, who can hestite to justify and approve the course of the Whigs! They did precisely right, and just what almost every Whig in the Commonwealth would have done in their situation."

Advertising.

We copy the following from the Germantown Telegraph. The remarks apply with equal force so far as the "JOUNNAL" is concerned. Business en, here and elsewhere, read and profit by it.-

men, here and elsewhere, read and profit by it.—
The editor of the Telegraph says:

"There is scarcely a day passes in which we do not receive some testimonial of the advantages of advertising in the Telegraph; and indeed we could now publish a column of them if we were so inclined and our space would admit of it. The following, however, from an advertiser in the city, received a few days since, is somewhat to the point and will suffice:—
"I have spent some $300 for advertising since I opened my store last September, and the consequence is, that I am doing as much business in a week, as my predecessor did, or any of my neighbors in the same business are doing on the slow-go-motifie principle of penny wise and pound foolish in a month; and have every ressen to be satisfied with my advertisements in your paper, as I have secured a number of customers from Germantown, Montgomery and Bucks counties. I am determined to keep the ball in motion by advertising liberally, which is the only way of building up a good business.

"Write Him Down." &c.

We have decided to say but little, if anything, in regard to the very pretty family quarrel in which the several factions of the Loco-Foco party are engaged; but we cannot overcome the temptation to publish some of their choice 'sayings'. The Charpublish some of their choice 'sayings.' The Charleston Mercury is out 'pellmell' against Polk, and of course, has opened its batteries upon the editor of the Globe, who approves of the appointment of Buchanan, and eulogises the 'Inaugural.' The editor of the Mercury joins issue with his cotemporary, and says the "Democracy" have been gulled long enough by such extravagant laudations. He continues:

Putting green spectacles on a horse and feeding him on shavings may do for once, but in the long run even an ass would rebel against it."

This season for a rebellion on the part of the 'Mercury man' ought 'certainly to be perfectly satisfactory to Messrs. Polk, Buchanan, Blair & Co.

Gov. Shunk's Vetoes.

The Governor seems disposed to walk a little in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor in the way of vertains hill. way of vetoing bills. On Wednesday (the 19th ult.,) he sent back with his objections a bill which ult...) he sent back with his objections a bill which had passed hoth Houses to 'perfect the validity of certain records in Cambria and Eric Counties.—
(What does that mean?) Mr. MAGEHAN, from the Mountains, assailed the veto with considerable savageness, and bore so hard on its author that the savageness, and one so hard on its author that the Speaker stopped him on the ground that the Gov-ernor was protected by the Constitution from ani-madversion. This caused considerable excitement, and Mr. Speaker 'suffered a few' from Messrs. Ma-GEHAN and COOPER, insomuch that he had finally to back out of his arbitrary and superserviceable decision. The veto was sustained, and the bill voted down on Saturday; and the Governor flushed with success in the first trial, sent back on the same day a bill relating to the Duncannon Iron Works, that it unconstitutionally comprehended two acts of incorporation. How much wiser a Governor, is incorporation. How much wiser a Governor is than a Legislature.—Pa. Republican.

Appointments to Office.
The U. S. Senate adjourned on Thursd Jying in such a position that his body prevented the opening of the door, which had to be taken of its hinges. He was buried on Sunday morning.

MILEAGE.—'Oliver Oldschool' says, in a recent letter, that Mr. Kennedy, of Indiana, a democrat of the McNulty school, charges four hundred dollars of more mileage than Mr. Smith, a whig member from more mileage than Mr. Smith, a whig member from that State, although Kennedy's residence is but thirty miles farther from the Seat of Government than Smith's. The democratic member computes his mileage by way of Lake Erie, Buffelo, &c., a rout he never travels, while the Whig member char-south the never travels, while the Whig member char-south enever travels, while the Whig member char-souther and the state of the New York, and WILLIAM SHALEM, of New York, and WILLIAM SHALEM, rout he never travels, while the Whig member charges according to the ground he actually goes over, while the Kennedy's mouth is ever full of professions of love for the 'dear people,' he takes good care that his pockets shall be full of their money. But this species of affection for the people 'is the badge of all his tribe.'

The One of the Locofoco papers having recently taken great credit for Mr. Polk, from the circumstance that he attended church in a plain carriage.

Mayor of Rochester.

We alluded last week to the highly honorable conduct of Mr. Kerler, the Locofoco candidate for Mayor of the City of Rochester, at the recent muni-cipal election: He declined to accept the Mayor-ROBERTO RAPIDS, Ky., July, 1843.

Mr. Rock:—It gives me great pleasure to inform out of a wonderful event caused by your Essential Oil. I am engineering on the Salt River Raiload, and was proceeding with a train of cars from the throwing out of the imperfect ballot. When Mr. Keeler declined to accept the office, Mr. Allers had a right to hold on for another year, but he immediately sent in his resignation to the new City Council, which being composed of a large majority that I had a vial of Essential Oil in my coat pocket, I drew it out and anointed the bubs—invalue the alty when conferred upon him by one vote, which LEN had a right to hold on for another year, but he immediately sent in his resignation to the new Gity Council, which being composed of a large majority of Whigs, elected William Pitkin, Esq.—a firm Whig, old citizen and highly respected man—to be Mayor of Rochester for the ensuing year. The conduct of Messers. Allen and Kerlen is worthy of special notice in these days of office-hunting greeding special notice in these days of office-hunting greeding to the property of the

THE DOG THE BETTER MAN.

It is stated, in one of the Worcester, (Mass.) pa-pers, that a drunken man walking near the railroad in that place, fell across the track, and there lay.—
He was accompanied by a dog, which, after looking at the representative of fallen humanity, immediately betook itself to a tenement in the vicinity, and by barking and scratching, induced an individual to open the door and follow it till he came to the place where the dog's master lay with his head across the where the dog's master lay with his head across the track. The intoxicated man was rescued from his perilious situation, and in a few minutes the railroad care passed the place? Master and dog should forthwith change places—for the dog is the better man of the two.

The Mexican Indemnity.

A letter in the Richmond Enquirer gives the fol-lowing account of what has become of the missing installments on the indemnity stipulated to be paid to this country by Mexico:

installments on the indemnity stipulated to be paid to this country by Mexico:

"Here are the circumstances of the case, as they were told to me to-day, by a gentleman on whom I can rely. The firm of Hargons & Co., in Vera Gruz and New York, and Yoss & Co., in Mexico, are agents of our government for receiving the money already stipulated to be paid by Mexico to the United States. Trigueros, Santa Anna's fascal agent, he paid the last installment (§275,000) into the other, with which he wrote a receipt as agent of the U. S. Government. The money found its way into his own pocket, and he has absquatthated along with the rest of his master's Ministers, whose heads are not safe on their own shoulders if caught within the Republic of Mexico. Santa Anna's robberies of the Treasury of his own Government, furnished him with an illustrious precedent for this robbery of ours. Our Treasury suffers by this financial operation,' for you will remember he was sufficiently patriotic to give his own government a receipt for the money as United States agent. Thus Congress will be forced to appropriate the sum stolen, the United States being responsible for it to the claimants.

Mr. Mangum declined to certify, and the Committee of the Judiciary have given an unanimous opinion that the charge was illegal, and could not be allowed under the rules of the Senate. Then Dickenson proposed to leave the affair out to Daniel Webster. Mr. Mangum agreed, and 'the great expounder' gave our craving Senator, an exposition not at all to his liking. All this is very pretty business for a Senator of New York! As Cassius said to Brutus,

Robert Peel, say:

"The most formidable rival of the British manufactures, in this trade, is found in the rapiely increasing and improved manufactures of the United States; and gave as a proof of the progress of manufactures of the United States, the great increase of the export trade to China.

A pamphlet has just been published in London, urging upon the British Government the recessity of availing themselves of the triumph of the anti-protection party in the United States, to engross the supply of our markets with British manufactures. It urges, also very strongly, the expediency of repealing the duty on raw source.
