Steamboat Disaster.

We are indebted to a friend, says the Pittsburg American, for the following extra from the Detroit Advertiser, received by a letter this morning:

ADVERTISER-EXTRA. Tuesday Afternoon, Aug. 12.

We are indebted to a friend in this city, who came passenger in the London which arrived here at half past 1 o'clock, P. M., for the following particulars of the loss of the Steamboat Kent.

STEAMER KENT SUNK. Several Lives Lost.

Dear Sirs--At half past 3 A. M. this day, below Point au Pelloe on Lake Erie, the 'London' steamer from Buffalo, and the 'Kent' steamer on her downward passage, came in contact with a dreadful crash, and the result of the concussion was the loss of the latter boat, and we grieve to add several lives.

Without any formal proceeding on the subject our passengers have endeavored to ascertain the cause of this dreadful accident and we have no doubt it occurred in consequence of the error in the pilot of the Kent in attempting to pass on the wrong side of the London, which brought her directly across her bow, and at this the Engineer of the London as soon as he saw the course of the Kent, shut off his steam, yet his boat had too much headway, and the Kent was cut down in front of her wheel house.

We remained 5 hours with the wreck gathering floating parcels of baggage &c., and attempting to tow the hull ashore, but she gradually 'sunk' by the head and we were compelled to perform the sad office of hoisting her flag half mast and leaving her to her fate.

The London is not at all injured. Our passengers have done something to relieve the necessities of the sufferers--the ladies dividing their wardrobes and the gentlemen opening their purses.

I have no heart to dwell upon the scene which we had broken the machinery of the London, and were going to the bottom; and were only relieved from the apprehension of a watery grave by the sight of the Kent, rapidly sinking at our bow. Every effort was made to save her passengers, and all who were in sight were saved; several of those from the cabin being transferred to our boat without even their clothes. But sad to say, a number were lost, being unable to gain the upper deck in time. Among these we reckon:

- Rev. James E. Quay, Bedford, Michigan. Mr. Chauncey Osborn, Genesee, N. Y. Mr. Seth Deming, Berlin, Conn. Master Bruce Deming, Galena, W. T. James Lowden, Ypsilanti, Michigan. Two young ladies and a boy from near Ypsilanti, names not known.

All the officers and hands of the Boat and 70 passengers, including 10 children, were saved.

- SAVED. John Honeywell, Troy, Mich. Mrs. Moore, do do. Miss Reickarts, do do. Willet Stead, Jackson county, Mich. Daniel Tremble, Macomb, do. D. D. Winchester, Rochester, N. Y. Wm. P. Griffin, Bedford, Mich. Wm. Watson, Bloomfield, Mich. Mary Watson, do do. Nancy Watson, do do. Samuel Watson, do do. Esther Watson, do do. Aaron Watson, do do. James Walter, Scotland. Oliver Heath, Flint, Mich. Benjamin Wood, Southfield, do. George Anderson, Canton, do. M. Easton, Michigan. Catharine Corbee, Ireland. Bernard McGreave, Gravelly Bay, C. W. Josiah Easton, Michigan. Henry Nicholson, wife and child, Commerce, Michigan. Sarah Shear, Novi, Mich. Mary Gage, and two children, Novi, Mich. Dalvin R. Knapp, wife and child, Commerce. W. J. Eastward, London, C. W. Maria Eastward, Penna. Christian Bailey, Prairie Route, Mich. Wm. McNulty and wife, Plymouth, Mich. Wm. W. Brown, Jefferson county, N. Y. Wm. Rine, Chatham, C. W. David Tuttle, Vermont. Miss H. C. Rollins, Vermont. Miss R. J. Tuttle, Vermont. J. A. Hopper, N. Y. James Edgington, and wife, Seneca co. N. Y. Benj. R. Gibson, do. Wm. Roppins, Onondaga, N. Y. T. Markley, [Pedlar]. Chas. Tuttle, Milwaukee. A. W. Murray, and wife, Detroit. Catherine Dening, Galena, W. T. Wm. Anderson and child, Canton, Mich. M. Monahan, Ireland. I. E. Brooke, Toronto, Canada. Wm. E. Parsons, Centreville, Mich. Elias Lester, Genesee co., N. Y. George P. Tyson, Oakland, Michigan. Israel T. Reynolds, Penn. Thos. Burnet, Stouben co., N. Y.

Officers and hands of the Kent all saved--Capt. Lang; Engineers, Isaac Davis, Henry Davis; Clerk, D. Forsyth; Pierce Scummons, Henry Harvey, John L. Hall, Robt. McClutney, William H. Smith, John McCreave, Sam. Scott, David Elliot, Jane Riley, chambermaid--12, and 10 others.

Arrival of the Hibernia.

The steamship Hibernia, Capt. Ryrie, arrived at Boston on Sunday, at noon having made the passage in less than twelve days. She brings ten days later intelligence.

The news is not of much importance. The Annexation of Texas to the United States had not at all excited surprise.

The Royal Mail-steamship "Acadia" Captain Harrison, arrived at Liverpool on the 29th ult. at seven o'clock, A. M. after a very good voyage of 12 days 14 hours from Boston. It having been notified by telegraph that she had on board Mr. M. Lane, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States, a number of persons assembled at the Pier to witness his landing, as a mark of respect. During his stay in Liverpool he occupied apartments at the Adelphi Hotel, and proceeded on the following Friday to London.

The wife of George Catlin, Esq., the celebrated painter and delineator of Indian customs, died in Paris on the 20th ultimo.

Mr. Jenifer, the Minister at Vienna, from the United States, has received his order of recall.

Mr. O'Connell was still holding numerous repeal meetings in Ireland. The great Wexford Demonstration took place on the 23d ult. The progress of Mr. O'Connell from Bay to Wexford is described as one long triumphal procession. The last named town was crowded with people awaiting Mr. O'Connell.

Horrible Murder.

There has been a shocking murder committed in Washington city--a man shot down in mid-day in the public street.

"It appears that a difference had existed between the parties, consisting of Wm. R. Elliott, brother-in-law of John C. Rives, and Bailey and Kendall. About half past 4 o'clock, they met in the drug store of Mr. C. James, on the corner of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, when some conversation took place, which resulted in Bailey striking Elliott for an alleged insult. Elliott immediately left the store, and Kendall and Bailey departed in another direction. About 6 o'clock, Elliott returned to the same vicinity and looking to the opposite side of the street, saw Bailey and Kendall approaching. They had no sooner come within twenty paces of him, than he fired, with a revolving pistol, at Kendall, with which he had provided himself during the period of their separation. The ball penetrated the thorax, and produced death instantaneously. Elliott then fired at Bailey, and wounded him in the arm. Bailey stooped to pick up a stone, and in this way missed the ball. But Elliott again fired, and it is said twice; and Bailey then pursued him into Fuller's Hotel; but Elliott eluded him by jumping out a back window, and thus made his escape."

Friends of the Tariff--be Warned.

The Washington Union of Thursday week has the following significant paragraph:

"The National Intelligencer seems at a sore loss to know whether 'it will be in the power of the Executive to command' (that is, in the courteous phrase the National Intelligencer uses) 'majorities to enable it to break up the protective system.' Of course it is impossible for any one to know, especially as there are fifty seven Representatives yet to be elected. But it is highly probable that there will be majorities in both Houses sufficient to effect a decided reform of the revenue system."

To which the Intelligencer responds in words of warning, as follows:

FOREWARNED, FOREARMED!--Take notice, all ye whom it may in anywise concern, that the purpose of breaking down the Tariff at the coming session of Congress is thus distinctly acknowledged by the government paper, if a majority can be secured in each house for the purpose! Mechanics, Farmers, Merchants--all ye who have an interest in the continuance of the present national prosperity and progress--learn from this disclosure that, unless you come forward as one man to prevent it, the axe will be laid to the root of that national prosperity by those whom you have set out to watch over!

Mexico and War.

The news from Mexico, (via Alabama) is that war had not been declared at the latest dates. That is good news, and we hope it will continue to be true news. But the same account states that Mexico has sent a large body of troops towards Texas. Now as the United States has ordered most of their disposal forces to the western borders of Texas, (sending even from Fort Adams, in Rhode Island,) it seems to be difficult to suppose that a collision can be avoided. This, it might be supposed, would be the case, when our country sent troops thither. The first report of war begun, will probably reach us across Texas. If our country expects war, she is right in preparing for it. The continuance of the contest will depend upon the force of the first blow. Peace should be the great object of our rulers--to maintain the peace we have, or to restore it, if their misconduct should have disturbed it.--U. S. Gazette.

The Native American party of Philadelphia have placed in nomination for Mayor of the city, ELHANAN W. KEYSER, Esq. He was their candidate last year.

Later from Texas.

The steamer M'Kim has arrived at New Orleans, from Galveston. There is no news of consequence. The Convention is moving forward with the State Constitution. The clause requiring the Governor to be a "native," has been struck out, but that which makes clergymen ineligible to a seat in the Legislature is retained. Houston is to be the seat of government until 1850.

We regret to learn, says the News of the first instant, that W. T. Smith, Esq., American Consul at Matagorda, was washed from his horse and drowned, a few days since, in attempting to pass the Bayou, between Indian Point and Pass Cavallo.

The Houston Telegraph, after mentioning the improvement and rapidly increasing trade of Corpus Christi, states that "the marauding party under the command of Leal, has not been seen for a long time, and it is supposed that he has been driven into some one of the Mexican garrisons by the traders, or that he has been recalled by order of Arista. It is said that Arista has expressly forbid his subalterns molesting the Texas frontiers. He is now at Monterey, and has only about a thousand troops under his immediate command. He has expressed much dissatisfaction with the present state of Mexico; but it is believed that he is not disposed to take any active measures against it at present. The Presidential election being near at hand, he probably expects by his influence, to secure the election of his favorite candidate, and trust to him to remedy the evils of which he now complains. The people in the valley of the Rio Grande, are generally indifferent whether Texas be annexed to the United States, or remains independent. Many of the citizens of Matamoros are decidedly in favor of annexation, and it is stated that some of the officers in command have declared that they would prefer to see Texas in the possession of the United States. The troops along the whole line of the Rio Grande are in a very destitute condition. The government is so poor that it can scarcely furnish them with provisions necessary for their subsistence, and little or no clothing has been furnished to them for months."

The Comanche Indians continue to be friendly. The Telegraph states that three of the Chiefs visited Bexar about the 20th ult., and stated that their people were desirous of renewing the treaty of peace.

The sloop Olive Branch arrived at Galveston on the 7th instant, from Corpus Christi. She reported the Revenue Cutter Woodbury to be at Decrow's Point on the 6th, awaiting the arrival of Major Donelson, who was hourly expected, when she was to sail for New Orleans. The Olive Branch also reported the United States troops on St. Joseph's Island, and that the steamer Monmouth had left for New Orleans on the 4th. The steamer Dayton left Galveston on the 6th, for Corpus Christi, under charter to convey the troops to the main land. The U. S. ship St. Mary's arrived at Galveston on the 7th. The Hope Howes was up to leave for this port on the 11th.

MEXICO.

New Orleans dates to the 12th, furnish nothing later from Mexico. A letter from Pensacola, however, under date of the 11th, is published in the Mobile Herald, which states that a French brig had just arrived from Vera Cruz, with dates to the 27th ult.--No war had been declared at that time; but that Americans were all leaving. It is also stated that war would not be declared at present, although ultimately it would be determined upon. Mexico, it is added, was waiting for an official notification of the consummation of Annexation. This of course cannot reach her for some time. Meanwhile the Government will look about them, and formulate their paper declarations. This is the latest intelligence by way of Mobile. We must remember, however, that we yesterday gave advice of the same dates from Vera Cruz, together with an official paper addressed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the Chamber of Deputies, recommending, with the unanimous consent of the Council, "the painful extremity of a war with the United States." The Secretary states that the Government is preparing the most efficient measures for recovering Texas, and concludes by urging the adoption of an article, "declaring war, the moment Government should know that Texas had annexed itself to the American Union, or that troops from the Union had invaded it." In brief, then, at our last accounts on the 27th of July, the matter was still undecided; but the above recommendation was before the Chamber of Deputies; also a proposition to empower the Government to borrow $15,000,000, either at home or abroad.--Penna. Inquirer.

The State Treasurer has paid out nearly the whole amount of the Commonwealth's interest, which amounts to $800,000. The whole number of counties which have paid in their quota of tax, does not exceed eighteen.

We regret to learn that a boy named James McCan, aged about 13 years, was drowned while bathing in the Conodoguct creek, near this borough, on Saturday last. An attack of cramp it is supposed disabled him while swimming, and before assistance could be rendered he was a corpse. His body was found in an hour afterwards and interred on Sunday. (Carlisle Herald.)

I'm afraid, said a lady to her husband, that I am going to have a stiff neck. 'Not at all improbable, my dear,' replied her spouse, 'I have seen strong symptoms of it over since we were first married.'

A FIRE AT ARLAND--We learn from the Lexington Observer that the large bagging factory, rope walks, &c., of the Hon. Henry Clay, near that place, were entirely consumed by fire, together with fifty tons of hemp and a small amount of manufactured articles, on the morning of the 7th inst. The loss is stated to be from seven to eight thousand dollars, five thousand of which, were glad to learn, are covered by insurance in the Lexington and Etina offices. The fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

HYMNICAL RECORD.

"Here the girls and here the widow Always cast their earliest glance, And with smileless face, consider If they, too, won't stand a chance To make some clever fellow novelt In bliss, and often too--in trouble."

MARRIED--On the 14th inst., by the Rev. Geo. W. Williams, Mr. ISAAC SHOWALTER to Miss MARY ANN BURKHOLDER, both of Huntingdon Co.

In Williamsburg, on Wednesday last, by the Rev. Wm. J. Gibson, Mr. JOHN BACON to Miss NANCY SMITH, daughter of Mr. Christopher A. Smith, all of that place.

On Tuesday morning, August 19th, by the Rev. D. McKinney, Mr. STEPHEN D. ANDREWS, of Providence, R. I., to Miss REBECCA A. STONE, of Hollisburg.

We were kindly remembered on this occasion by the happy couple, having received a very liberal allowance of the wedding cake. To the fair bride we tender our most ardent wish that her every want in life may be gratified by her husband; and to the groom that he may never be subjected to the annoying and sleepless operation of a "Curtain Lecture."

OBITUARY RECORD.

From DEATH no age nor no condition save, As goes the freeman, so departs the slave, The chieftain's palace and the peasant's bower, Alike are ravished by his haughty power.

DIED--Of Apoplexy, on Friday, the 15th inst., at his residence in West township, JOSEPH THOMPSON, aged 54 years 3 months 6 days.

At the residence of his mother near Claysville, in this county, on Monday the 18th inst., JOSEPH P. HUDSON, in the 36th year of his age.

Died, suddenly, of croup, at Claysville Huntingdon Co., on Tuesday the 19th inst., ANN JEMIMA, youngest daughter of Brice Blair, Esq., aged 6 years 6 months and 5 days.

How many sudden breaches does death make in our families, and how many fond parental hopes does he blast. It was but yesterday that we passed along and beheld the subject of this notice sporting in the buoyancy of childhood, innocence and health. A few short hours and we returned to find the seal of the destroyer upon her brow and his fatal arrow quivering in her heart. So fades the lovely flower, even when its expanding petals are drinking in the refreshing dew, by the sudden and untimely frost--so sinks the setting sunlight with its gorgeous pencillings, and in the very midst of our admiration leaves us in darkness. Yet in the consolations of that religion which they profess, may they who have been thus suddenly bereaved, by this timely stroke, find again their comfort and hope. For as the flowers come again after the frost, to bloom in their beauty, and the sunlight returns after the gloom of the night to fling its gladdening beams over earth--so shall she, who is "not dead but sleeping," again awake from her peaceful slumber in the Saviour's arms and bloom in the unfading beauty of eternal youth.

That art gone to the grave but 'twere wrong to deplore thee When God was thy ransom thy guardian and guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and soon will restore thee Where death has no sting since the Saviour has died.
