Mexico.

The New Orleans Picayune, alluding to the late Mexican news, says--No direct war can be declared by Mexico in the present condition of her affairs, the fool-hardiness of such a measure would be monstrous.

Mr. McLane in England. Notwithstanding the disclaimers of the Government official paper it is very evident that the impression on both sides of the Atlantic is that Mr. McLane has gone to the British Court for the special purpose of carrying on the Oregon negotiation with Lord Aberdeen, her Majesty's Minister on Foreign Affairs.

The friendly manner in which Mr. McLane has been received at the British Court, and the kind terms in which he is spoken of by the London press, are auspicious, so far as they go. They clearly denote the general desire of the British people to see the present difficulties between the two countries peacefully and honorably adjusted.

HYMNICAL RECORD.

"Here the girls and boys the widow Always cast their earliest glance, And with amiable face, consider, If they, too, won't stand a chance To make some clever fellow double In bliss, and often too--in trouble."

MARRIED--At Mount Holly, N. Y., on the 10th inst., Hon. ALEX. RAMSEY, of Harrisburg, to Miss ANNE E. JENKS, daughter of the Hon. M. H. Jenks, of Newtown, Bucks county, Pa., late member of Congress for the Bucks and Lehigh district.

This is another triumph for this popular young Congressman, and the most brilliant of all. It was accomplished, we believe, without the aid of delegate elections, or conferee meetings. Mr. R. having, on his part, achieved this victory singly and alone.

OBITUARY RECORD.

From DEATH no age nor no condition save, As goes the freeman, so departs the slave, The chieftain's palace and the peasant's bower, Alike are ravished by his haughty power.
