Wood .--- All who desire to pay us in this article, will have the kindness to br ring it in as scon as possible.

Our thanks are due to the Hon. John BLAN-GRARD for a copy of the President's Message.

The Message. We lay before our readers the mist important parts of the first message of Jas. K. Polk, its great length making it necessary to defer a portion until our next. The leading topics discussed arc-1st. A recommendation to Congress to consum-mate as speedily as possible the annexation of 2d. To give notice to Great Britain of the ter. mination of the joint occupation of Oregon at the end of one year, and to strengthen our military force in that region; in other words, to take military possession of that country. 3d. He abandons the motto of 1844-adopted by the Locofocos for the purpose of deceiving Penn-sylvania into his support-of " Polk, Dallas, Shunk, parts of Chester, Möhtgömery and Berks, and the paper alluded to being published in Berks county, is, like us, afraid of losing its "bread and butter." Texas, O egon and the Tariff of 1842." He W onderful discovery ! Astounding development!! We would just inform the Register, that this was even denies his Kane letter, in which he professed to be in favor of a Tariff for revenue, with such discriminations as would afford ample protection to the very subject which called forth the article from American industry. The Blair county people have labor of his hatids. Let him ponder it well, we care not to which of the political parties he may have heretofore belonged.

The Harrisburg Union, a paper which has been the most loud-mouthed in its support of the Tariff, (since it has became popular in Petinsylvania;) and which declared in the most unequivocal manner that Mf: Polk would sustain the act of '42, has taken the back track, and lauds the message to the skies, declaring that it fully sustains "the PRIN-CIPLES OF THE DEMOCRATIC FAITH. We expected nothing better from that source: The Harrishurg Argus; however, a locofoco p.

per of more character for horiesty and veracity, de-clares that the views of the President "are not in accordance with their own ' on the Tariff question, and expresses the opinion that he will not be sustained by the democracy of Pennsylvania. Gur limits will not allow a more extended notice at this time of the message--we shall recur to it again. Let all read it. The Report of the Secretary goes the whole
