

Important from Mexico.

From the New Orleans Tropic extra of the 13th, we extract the following late and stirring news from the convulsed republic of Mexico:

The Mexican schooner Julia arrived here this morning from Vera Cruz, which place she left on the 50th ult., bringing us papers from that place to the 29th ult., and from the city of Mexico to the 23d ult. The Julia also brought J. Tilghman Hoffman, Esq., bearer of despatches to our Government, from whence we learn that Paredes was certainly on his march to the city of Mexico, and that our Minister Mr. Slidell, was still there. From Vera Cruz and Mexico papers we have hurriedly gleaned the following important news:

The Monitor of the 21st ult., says that the Supreme Government has appointed Gen. Bustamante Commander in Chief, and Gen. Rorregon his second in command, of the army to oppose Gen. Paredes. That paper says the Government is indefatigably working to quell the revolt, and that it has already taken the necessary measures to put the Capitol in a state of defence, and given out 3000 guns to be distributed among the citizens. On the 21st ult., the Senate concurred with the Government in giving dictatorial powers to President Herrera. El Siglo says that Paredes had seized upon the Public Treasury of the Fair at St. Juan, which had been committed to his charge. El Veracruzano of the 24th says that on the 23d a salute from the Castle of San Juan de Ulloa, under the command of Cassanova, announced the first movement of the Army and Navy in favor of the proclamation of San Louis Potosi, by Gen. Paredes, and that it was immediately seconded by the garrison of the place at whose head is the brave Ladero, with the exception of a part of the Battalion Sigero, numbering about 100 men, who left their barracks with their officers, refusing to join their companions. This body, as they were marching out, fired a volley on those who remained, killing a captain and ten veterans, and wounding three others.

It then marched to the Government palace, and was ordered to quarter in the Convent of San Francisco, where they remained at the last dates. The same paper says that at a later hour it learned that the city and garrison of Jalapa had pronounced in favor of Paredes, and that it was momentarily waiting for a similar movement in Orizava and the fortress of Perote. On the 23d, the forces of Paredes were said to be only three days march from the city of Mexico. On the 24th, the troops at Puebla under Gen. Inclan, who had received orders to march to the Capitol, refused to depart, and it was certain that notwithstanding the efforts of the General to the contrary, they would soon declare in favor of Paredes. Mexico, it is said, would in a few days open its gates to Paredes. The Vera Cruzana of the 20th, says that it learns by letters, of responsible persons, from Mexico, that the imbecile and short sighted Cabinet had mortgaged to England the department of Yucatan, on condition that she would pay its immense debt. There, says that paper, are facts that soon will be divulged. A Circular of the 24th, transmitted by President Herrera to the Governors of the different Departments, delegates to said Governors the tremendous extraordinary powers with which Congress had invested him, and already had the Capitol of the Republic began to feel the weight of such despotism, as imprisonments, irrespective of persons or characters, had become common; and even the Arch Bishop Gardano, had been obliged to fly from the persecutions that awaited him. Gen. Ampudia had gone over to the revolutionists, and the Government troops had publicly espoused their cause. Gen. Almonte was concealed, fearing persecutions. The latest intelligence is to the effect that Perote had declared itself for Paredes and that the numerous cavalry of that General were in the near vicinity of the Capitol. His artillery and infantry were between the city and Arroyo-Sarco. The cities of Orizava and Guanajuato had also declared for Paredes at the approach of his forces. Gen. Urrutia, says El Siglo of the 19th, has been defeated by the forces of Generals Campuzana and Cuesta, each party having lost about 50 persons. The same paper says that the Government Council, after long deliberations, had determined not to receive Mr. Slidell in his ordinary official capacity, notwithstanding its previous engagement to receive a Plenipotentiary from the United States with special powers to treat on the subject of Texas. This conclusion of the Government took place after Mr. Parrott had reached Mexico on his return from the United States. In the Monitor of the 25d is published Herrera's proclamation calling upon his compatriots to rally in defence of the laws. It is a long document, and concludes as follows:—"It is my duty to defend our liberties, and yours to sustain me."

Escape of Counterfeiters.—We learn by the Crawford (Pa.) Democrat of the 20th instant, that Griffith and Munson confined in the Crawford county Prison and under indictment for the passing of counterfeit money, made their escape from the jail by burning with a heated iron poker the wood work around the gratings of the window in such a manner as to enable them to bend the bars up and afford sufficient space to escape. It is said they have been traced on their way to Ohio.

The Commissioners appointed for the purpose have purchased a valuable farm in the vicinity of Harrisburg, upon which to erect an Insane Asylum; and it is expected the building will be commenced some time in the course of this year.

HYMNICAL RECORD.

Always cast their earliest glance,
And, with smileless face, consider

In bliss, and often too—in trouble."
