

WASHINGTON HOTEL.

Corner of Market street and Market Square.

HARRISBURG, PA.

THE subscriber having taken this popular Hotel lately kept by Mr. Wm. T. SANDERS, begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he is now well prepared to accommodate them in a manner to insure satisfaction to all who favor him with their custom. The house has been re-furnished, altered, and greatly improved in many respects, and no pains will be spared to make visitors comfortable during their sojourn.

HIS TABLE will be constantly supplied with all the delicacies of the season: and his servants are attentive, careful and accommodating.

There is extensive STABLEING attached to the premises.

E. P. HUGHES,
Late of the Mansion House.

Harrisburg, June 4, 1845.

The subscriber on this occasion of returning his thanks to his numerous friends for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him during his proprietorship of the Washington Hotel. He also takes great pleasure in bespeaking for his successor a continuance of public favor, who is well qualified to give general satisfaction as a landlord, and every way worthy of the patronage of the travelling community.

TO SENSIBLE CITIZENS.

We know from what we see and feel, that the animal body is, in its organs and functions, subject to derangement, inducing pain, and tending to its destruction. In this disordered state, we observe nature providing for the restoration of order, by exciting some salutary operation, which escapes our imperfect senses and researches. In some cases she brings on a crisis by the bowels, in others by sweating, &c. &c.

Now experience has taught us that there are certain substances, by which, applied to the living body, internally or externally, we can at will produce the same evacuations, and thus do in a short time, what nature could do but slowly, and do effectually what she might not have strength to accomplish. When then we have seen a disease cured by a certain natural evacuation, should that disease occur again, we may count upon curing it by the use of such substances, as we know bring about the same evacuation, which we had before observed to cure a similar disease. It is in consequence of the power which the Brandreth Pills exert upon the whole system, that makes them so universally beneficial. It is because they impart to the body, the power to expel disease without leaving any evil effect.

As a general family medicine, Brandreth's Pills are, it is believed by the Proprietor, superior to every other offered to the public.

Dr. Brandreth's Pills are for sale by the following Agents in this county:

Wm. Stewart, Huntingdon.
M. Earlane, Garber, & Co., Hollidaysburg.
A. & N. Crosswell, Petersburg.
Moore & Swoope, Alexandria.
Hartman & Smith, Manor Hill.
Thomas M. Owens, Birmingham.
A. Patterson, Williamsburg.
Blair and Madden, Madden's Mills.
The above are the only authorized agents in Huntingdon county.

To Purchaser—Guarantee.

THE undersigned agent of the Patentee, of the Stove, "The Queen of the West," understanding that the owners, or those concerned for them, of other and different patent Cooking Stoves, have threatened to bring suit against all who purchase and use any of "GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVE"—"The Queen of the West." Now his is to inform all and every person who shall purchase and use said Stove that he will indemnify them from all cost of damage, from any and all suits, brought by other Patentees, or their agents, for any infringement of their patents. He gives this notice so that persons need not be under any fears because they have, while consulting their own interests and convenience, secured the superior advantages of this "Queen" not only of the West, but of the East.
