

Yankee Doodle in Austria.
We clip the following from a letter in the New York Herald, dated Vienna, Feb. 5, 1846:

"Vieux Temps has been performing for some time in the Imperial Opera House, and his popularity in the city where music of every kind is so closely criticised, must be highly flattering to him.—He is decidedly a great favorite, and is always warmly received. A few evenings ago I was present at one of his performances, and witnessed an occurrence well calculated to excite the enthusiasm of an American heart. Vieux Temps had finished a series of pieces with the Carnival of Venice—he was called out again, when he struck up Yankee Doodle with variation. This set the whole audience into a perfect uproar.—'Americaner?' cried out one of the Austrians; 'Bravo!' a hundred others; and you may well imagine that we Americans, three or four in number, found it rather difficult to sit still during this enthusiastic expression of feeling for our beloved country. At the close of the piece the applause was unbounded.—Vieux Temps was called out three times before the curtain fell, and twice afterwards: the audience each time receiving him standing, and greeting him with rounds of applause, while nearly all the ladies in the house were clapping their hands to the best of their ability. There is one box in this house known as the English box. I cast my eyes towards it, and found its occupants silent observers of the scene, probably reflecting on Bunker Hill, Lexington, &c."

GREAT MEN OF OUR COUNTRY.—The New-Buryport Herald states that Daniel Webster, after his return from Europe, asked a friend to guess whose were the American names better and more universally known and admired in England than all other American names put together.—His friend answered, Washington and Chief Justice Marshall. No, said Mr. Webster, I mean living persons, and they are Judge Story and Peter Parley; for while the former is known to every lawyer in England, and generally among the educated classes, the latter has entire possession of the young hearts of old England—that wherever he went into an English family, and the children were brought in and presented to him as Mr. Webster, an American gentleman, they would be sure, with scarcely a single exception, to approach him, and looking him in the face, with the utmost anxiety expressed in their words, would say, do you know "Peter Parley?"

ESCAPE OF A CONVICT.—A most daring escape from the Mississippi Penitentiary, on the 10th ult, was effected by a convict, the particulars of which we find in the Mississippi of the 15th. Five convicts were sent out into a woodland belonging to the prison, for the purpose of procuring some wood for the brick yard, and the party were accompanied by an armed guard, Mr. J. H. Weaver. As he was stooping to give some instructions to one of the prisoners one of the convicts struck him with the head of an axe and felled him to the earth, and his gun fell from his hands. The convict immediately seized the gun and a pistol and bowie knife belonging to him and fled. One of the convicts immediately started in pursuit, but the fleeing miscreant threatened to shoot him if he proceeded farther, and he returned to the guard, who was then assisted back to the prison by the remaining four convicts. The assistant keeper immediately procured some dogs from a distance of about thirteen miles, and five hours after, put them upon the convict's trail. A few miles off it was discovered that he had seized a negro and forced him to exchange clothes with him, stole a horse and started for Columbus. He was eventually overtaken about forty miles from Jackson. A reward of $50 was given to a Mr. Hall, the owner of the dogs. The name of the convict was not given.

A DREADFUL TRAGEDY.—The Baltimore Clipper says that considerable excitement was created at Kingston, Ja., on the 22d ult, in consequence of a young man named Nicholas, having deliberately murdered his brother at a card table, The Kingston Journal says,—"The details are briefly that two brothers had been gambling; the younger had won the week's earnings of the elder—the latter demanded the return of the money—it was refused, and infuriated by opposition and loss, he stabbed his unfortunate younger brother to the heart."

DIGNIFIED LEGISLATION!—On Monday a motion was made in the House of Representatives at Washington, that when the House adjourns on Thursday, it adjourn to meet again on Monday next. The ostensible reason for this, was to have the House ventilated and to have the summer matting put down on the floor. Mr. George W. Jones inquired if the Races came on at the time specified in the Resolution, and moved to strike out "Thursday," and insert: "at the time the Spring Races shall come off on the Washington Jockey Club Course." Mr. Jones's amendment was lost, and the original motion was carried. Mr. Jones was for making known the true reason for adjournment.

LOCUST SEED—must be prepared by pouring scalding water over it, and letting it stand submerged from twelve to thirty-six hours, according to the age and the character of the seed.

THE EFFECT.—A man said also was excellent, though when taken in large quantities it always made him fat. "I have seen it make you lean," said a bystander.

Hathaway's
Patent Cooking Stove.
RIGHT SIDE UP!

WOULD respectfully inform the public, that I shall continue as heretofore, to act as Agent for the sale and delivery of the justly celebrated Hathaway Cooking Stove, manufactured by A. B. Long & Co., who have at a heavy expense secured the exclusive right of Patentee of Huntingdon and other counties.

No bombastic eulogy is deemed essential to add to the already acquired celebrity of this stove. It is necessary, however, to observe that the high reputation this stove has gained by practical use, has induced the manufacturers of other and inferior articles, to borrow (not to use a harsher term) the name of HATHAWAY, and prefix it to an "Improved" in order to make their inferior trash go off as genuine, and thereby impose upon the public. I, myself, sell the only REAL HATHAWAY stove that is or can be sold in this county, and would therefore admonish the public against the imposition above alluded to. I am happy in being able to say, confidently, that during the last three or four years, in which I have been constantly dealing in and putting up these stoves, I have found them to give universal and unbounded satisfaction. Any communication in relation to stoves addressed to me at Lewistown, Millin county, (my place of residence) will meet with the earliest possible attention.

A few good sound horses will be taken in exchange for stoves.
JAMES A. PERCE.

SELDOM KNOWN TO FAIL.

TESTIMONIALS.
Messrs. SANFORD & PARK—Dear Sirs:—With regard to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, for which you are wholesale agents, we have sold, since last October, eighty-two bottles at retail, and have heard from a great portion of them as producing the desired effect.

Several important cases in this vicinity, which came under our personal knowledge have been cured!—where other remedies have been tried for years without effect.

In fact, we think it one of the most invaluable remedies for consumption of the lungs and all other complaints for which it is recommended; and do think, that the suffering of the afflicted demand that you should give it a general circulation, and make its virtues known. Yours, truly,

WEAGLY & KNEPPER, Druggists.
Wooster, O., May 20, 1843.

[From the Cincinnati Daily Times of May 30th 1843.]

"Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry."—We should judge from Messrs. Weagly & Knepper's letter, published this day among our advertisements, that this popular remedy for coughs, lung complaints, and diseases of the breast generally, was really a valuable medicine, and worthy of serious attention from the public. We are informed by the wholesale agents, that they are almost daily receiving similar letters from all parts of the West.

We would advise our readers who are laboring under an affection of the lungs, to make immediate trial of this truly excellent medicine. The most intelligent and respectable families of our city have adopted it as a favorite family medicine; and persons predisposed to consumption who have used it, speak in the highest terms of its efficacy.

Read the following from Dr. Jacob Hoffman, a physician of extensive practice in Huntingdon county:

"I procured one bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from Thomas Read, Esq., of this place, and tried it in a case of obstinate Asthma on a child of Paul Schweble, in which many other remedies had been tried without any relief. The Balsam gave sudden relief, and in my opinion the child is effectually cured by its use. Yours, &c.

JACOB HOFFMAN, M. D.
Dec. 23, 1841.

It is unnecessary to remind all who would get the true article, to inquire particularly for "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and take nothing else!
