Hathaway's

Patent Cooking Stove. RIGHT SIDE UP!!

WOULD respectfully inform the public, that I shall continue as heretofore, to act as Agent for the sale and delivery of the justly celebrated Hathaway Cooking Stove, manufactured by A. B. Long & Co., who have at a heavy expense secured the exclusive right of Patentee of Huntingdon and other counties.

No bombastic eulogy is deemed essential to add to the already acquired celebrity of this stove. It is necessary, however, to observe that the high reputation this stove has gained by practical use, has induced the manufacturers of other and inferior articles, to borrow (not to use a harsher term) the name of HATHAWAY, and prefix it to an "Improved," in order to make their inferior trash go off as genuine, and thereby impose upon the public. I, myself, sell the only REAL HATHAWAY stove that is or can be sold in this country, and would therefore admonish the public against the imposition above alluded to. I am happy in being able to say, confidently, that during the last three or four years, in which I have been constantly dealing in and putting up these stoves, I have found them to give universal and unbounded satisfaction. Any communication in relation to stoves addressed to me at Lewistown, Mifflin county, (my place of residence) will meet with the earliest possible attention.

A few good sound horses will be taken in exchange for stoves. JAMES A. PEIRCE, Lewistown, Mifflin Co., Nov. 19, 1845

SELDOM KNOWN TO FAIL.

TESTIMONIALS.

Messrs. SANFORD & PARK.—Dear Sirs:—With regard to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, for which you are wholesale agents, we have sold, since last October, eighty-two bottles in retail, and have heard from a great portion of them as producing the desired effect.

Several important cases in this vicinity, which came under our personal knowledge have been cured!—where other remedies have been tried for years without effect.

In fact, we think it one of the most invaluable remedies for consumption of the lungs and all other complaints for which it is recommended; and do think, that the suffering of the afflicted demand that you should give it a general circulation, and make its virtues known. Yours truly, WEAVER & KNEPPER, Druggists. Wooster, O., May 20, 1843.

[From the Cincinnati Daily Times of May 30th 1843.]

"Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry."—We should judge from Messrs. Weaver & Knepper's letter, published this day among our advertisements, that this popular remedy for coughs, lung complaints, and diseases of the breast generally, was really a valuable medicine, and worthy of serious attention from the public. We are informed by the wholesale agents, that they are almost daily receiving similar letters from all parts of the West.

We would advise our readers who are laboring under an affection of the lungs, to make immediate trial of this truly excellent medicine. The most intelligent and respectable families of our city have adopted it as a favorite family medicine; and persons predisposed to consumption who have used it, speak in the highest terms of its efficacy.

Read the following from Dr. Jacob Hoffman, a physician of extensive practice in Huntingdon county:

Dear Sir:—I procured one bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from Thomas Read, Esq., of this place, and tried it in a case of obstinate Asthma on a child of Paul Schwebel, in which many other remedies had been tried without any relief. The Balsam gave sudden relief, and in my opinion the child is effectually cured by its use. Yours, &c. JACOB HOFFMAN, M. D. Dec. 23, 1841.

It is unnecessary to remind all who would get the true article, to inquire particularly for "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and take nothing else. Price one dollar per bottle. For sale in Cincinnati, by SANFORD & PARK, General Agents.

Also, by Thomas Reed & Son, Huntingdon; Mary Orr, Hollidaysburg; Gemmill & Porter, Alexandria. Dec. 17, 1845.
