ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP BRITANNIA.

SIXTEEN DAYS LATER FRON EUROPE.

The Royal mail steamer Britannia, Captain Hewitt, arrived at Boston, at half-past six o'clock on Thursday morning, bringing Liverpool dates to the 5th inst. From the New York Herald and files of English journals received at this office, we make the following intelligence:

The accounts from Ireland are gloomy, and every day adds to the misery of the people in that unfortunate country. Before the summer is over the distress will have been greatly aggravated. The efforts of the government and of private munificence, seem to fall far short of what the exigencies of the case demand.

Numerous attempts have been made lately at Brussels to excite the lower classes against the government, by distributing incendiary pamphlets and handbills amongst them.

The French papers contain ample details of the attempt on the life of Louis Phillippe. That monarch never stood so high in the opinion of the French people, and this monstrous effort to shoot him in cold blood has elicited much warm and generous sympathy.

Enemy's Guns carried at the Point of the Bayonet!

THE BRAVE AND GALLANT MAJOR RINGGOLD,

Killed in defence of his Country!

GEN. VEGA TAKEN PRISONER!

[From the Baltimore Sun, Extra.]

Our express reached Washington in advance of every thing, and was communicated by the energetic correspondent of Baltimore Sun through Morse's Magnetic Telegraph.

The news is taken from the New Orleans Picatyone of the 17th inst., and an extra from the office of the Mobile Advertiser, of the 18th.

There have been two engagements between Gen. Taylor and Mexican Troops, the first occurring from the Sth inst., when Gen. Taylor was returning from Point Fasbel to his camp opposite Matamoras. In this the Mexicans, numbering from 5000 to 7000, were repulsed. Our army was sleeping on the were repulsed. Our army was sleeping on the field of battle, on which the next day 200 Mexi-cans were found dead, and several pieces of artillein this action. Of the two days' battle, we can only give the following particulars from the Pica-uous was the attack, that General Arista had no time to save his papers, which, with all his correspondence, fell into the hands of General Taylor. The action lasted one hour and a half, in which time six hundred Mexicans were killed or wounded and the Americans took three hundred prisoners, and eight pieces of Artillery.

The Americans lost in the action about sixty-two killed and wounded. Among the killed were Col. MeIntosh, Lieut. Occhran by the bursting of a shell, Lieut. Inge, and one or two others, whose names are not given.

Col. Kane, Lieuts. Gates, Verbank, Hooe, Luther and others, were among the wounded.

We regret to say that Msior Ringgold, who was Among the prisoners taken by Gen. Taylor was Gen. Vejit. For him two American officers were officred in exchange, but it was declined to give him up, savé in exchange for an officer of equal rank, whenever one should be taken.

Gén. Veja was allowed to be accompanied by one of his aids, a Lieut. Colonel, as a friend.

The Mexican army was so confident of victory that every preparation had been made to celebrate it, but all their preparations fell into the hands of the American the Americans.

The brave and gallant Major Brown died from a wound received in his thigh by the explosion of one of the enemy's shells. His death is deeply deplored by the Army.

In their flight many of the Mexicans took to the river, and were drownded in their attempts to swim it.

Gen. Taxlor reached his camp the afternoon after the action, leaving there his whole force. He started the next morning for Point Isabel, and prived there on the evening of the 10th, without molestation.

On the morning of the 11th he started back to his camp opposite Matamoras. We need not say that he and his army are all in fine spirits.

Further information has been received that the American Consul and all the American residents at Matamoras had been arrested and sent to Saltillo, a small town about 50 miles from Matamoras.

The U.S. Steamer Col. Harney arrived this morning, just as our paper was going to press, from Brazos Santiago. She left on the 13th inst. The news is glorious to our arms. She brings official accounts of a second battle between the Mexican and the American forces, which took place on the 9th of May, commencing at half past 3 P. M., within 3 miles of Camp Taylor.

The action was on the edge of a ravine, and one mile from the chapparel, which was noar 12 miles in width. The Mexicans commenced the action with their custom. It is the determination of the proprietor to keep such a house as will render every satisfaction to the public. His will at all times be furnished with all the delicacies of the season. Bull-frogs will be served up at any time when desired, as well as fresh fish of every kind.

Col. Kane, Lieuts. Gates, Verbank, Hooe, Luther and others, were among the wounded.

We regret to say that Major Ringgold, who was wounded on the 7th inst., died on the 10th, and was buried with military honors.

The total loss of the Mexicans in both actions was at least twelve hundred.

The Mexican forces amounted to at least 6000 men, while that of the American did not exceed 1500 men.

An exchange of prisoners took place subsequent to the battle, by which Capt. Thounton and Lieuts. Hardee and Kane were released. Lieut. Deas was not demanded.
