The Second Brigade Moving.

The Second Brigade Moving. More Volunteers for Mexico! It will be seen by the following letter, kindly formished us for publication by Brigadier General S. Mirks Gazza, that the spirit of patriotism and love of country, burns brightly in the breasts of the citizen solders of Clearfield; and that Col. G. R. Barnezr, and the Volunteer Battalion under his command, have unnanimously tendered their ser-vices to aid in carrying on the war against Mexico. It will be seen, too, by the annexed proceedings, that the "Warriosmark Fencibles," under com-mand of Capt. JANES BELL, are also ready and willing to take up the line of march' for the scene of action, there to battle in defence of their coun-try's rights. try's right

The "sleeping, slumbering fire" of our young men in this place has also been aroused, and they are now actively engaged in getting up a "Spartan band" to march to the seat of war, and "do battle for Home and Country !" Gen. Green also informs us that the Alexandria company have tendered their services. Old Hunt-ingdon will do her duty in the emergency. CLEARTERD, June 10, 1846. GEN. S. MILES GIENEN : My Dear Gen.—Yours dated May 20, was duly received. 1 delayed an-swering it until after the meeting of my Battalion

My Dear Gen.—Yours dated May 26, was duly receited. I delayed an-swering it until after the meeting of my Battalion for Inspection, which was to take place on the Sih of Jane. On that day 1 submitted the question of volunteering our services, to the Battalion, and I have the plessure of informing you that without a dissenting voice I was instructed to tender the ser-vices of the Battalion, to the Commander in Chief, for the present emergency. I fear it will be impos-able to fill our Companies, as required, by the 22d instant, but the effort will be inade. I report myself to you ready for the service when ever required by my country, and willing to be or-dered to the Banka of the Rio Grande, at any time. Whatever portion of my command can be prepared for the service, according to the regulations of the War Eugentent, will also await orders. Yours truly.

will also await orders. Yours truly, G. R. BARRETT, Lieut. Col. 3d Vol. Battalion 2. Brig. 10. Div. P. M.

EXPANSES OF WAR .- It has been estimated that the Revlutionary war cost more than $140,000,000. The last war with England [it is estimated, cost not less than $200,000,000. The present Mexican war 5200,000,000 The present Mexican war costs $500,000 per day—yes, PER DAX! which is at the rate of $182,500,000 per year!!! So much for war.

year!!! So much for war. All the money of the Government now on hand is fast running out. Before the tising of the present Congress an im-mense issue of Treasury notes will be called for, and then Taxes follows as a necessary consequence.-Yet in the mildst of all this Mr. Polk and his parfy, through their organ, are crying out-"Down with the Tariff !"

The ANTI-WEBSTER INVESTIGATION.-"Potomac" writes to the Baltimore Patri-ot that Mr. C. J. Iagersoll is in a rage. Before Mr. Schenck's Investigating Com-mittee Mr. Louis F. Tasistro has appeared. He swares that he was approached by a page or a messenger of the House who told oim that Mr. Ingersoll wished to see him in the committee room. He went to the room of the committee on Foreign Relations, and, not finding Mr. Ingersoll there, he returned to the House and saw Mr. Ingersoll sitting on one of the sofas in the lobby. They entered into conversation on the sofas in the lobby. They entered into conversation on the subject, and, he swares Mr. Ingersoll ur-ged him to write to Ex-President Tyler, whom he spoke highly of, and advise him to come out in this matter against Mr. Web-ster.
