

Arrival of the Steamer Britannia.

By this steamer, at Boston, we have a copy of Wilmer & Smith of the 19th of June.

The ruptures between Mexico and the United States, of necessity, attracted much attention, and has interfered, more or less, with business. The fear of shipping in American bottoms has, like the baseless fabric of a vision disappeared, but Lloyd's stillings ridiculously to their high premiums. The feeling is not confined to England. The Paris paper, La Presse, asserts, as a fact, that many American orders have been countermanded in France, in consequence of the rupture between the two republics.—Wilmer & Smith's Times.

The Corn Bill.

All fears for the safety of the Corn Bill are over. The most critical stage—that of the Committee, has passed triumphantly, and with a numerical strength greater than was anticipated.

The House of Lords went into Committee on the Bill last Monday. On the first night the Duke of Buckingham moved an amendment, the effect of which, if carried, would have entailed upon the country a permanent sliding scale, varying from 4s. to 10s. per quarter. This is the import duty which Corn will have to pay until February 1849, when a nominal duty of a shilling per quarter is to be imposed for registry. The Duke, in proposing his amendment, did so in a tame, hum-drum speech, which showed that he had no faith in its success. The result proved that he was right. The votes showed a clear majority of 33 against it. There was a large muster of peers on either side, and as proxies are not admissible in committee, the supporters of the Government were for more numerous than previous calculations pointed at.

(From the London Times of June 15.)

War Between Mexico and the United States.

The despatches of General Taylor are remarkable for their succinct energy, and the absence of those verbose and grandiloquent strains which we are accustomed to meet with in narratives of American exploits. He writes like a man of sense, skill, and courage; and we have not the slightest wish to detract from the honors he has gallantly earned under the flag of his country. Whatever opinion we may entertain of the causes of this war, and of the political motives in which it originated, the behaviour of the American general and his troops deserves to be judged of by a much higher standard than the policy of the government which it is their duty to serve. The conduct of the Mexican army, on the contrary, demonstrates the utter inability of that government to protect any portion of its dominions from invasion; and it degrades the descendants of the Spanish Americans still lower in the rank of nations.

Italy.

The Pope departed this life on the 1st inst. His Holiness had been indisposed during the last week of May, but on the 28th or 29th of that month he was deemed by the physicians perfectly recovered. His death was sudden, and may possibly give rise to rumors such as followed the disease, similarly, of several of his predecessors. In ordinary times the demise of the Pope would not occasion any sensation in the political world, but such is not the case in the present instance. Pope Gregory XVI. was a good, kind, and benevolent man, sincere in his religious principles, and more tolerant than most others who had held the keys of St. Peter. He was fully aware of the coming crisis in his States; he foresaw, and would by concession have obviated the coming storm, that cannot otherwise be prevented bursting upon Rome at least; but he was overborne by the cardinals, who, to the repeated entreaties of France and Austria, and it is said England, refused concurrence in even the slightest emigration of the civil and political condition of the subjects of the Holy See. The member of the Sacred College most likely to succeed Pope Gregory XVI. is the Cardinal Franzoni, Perfect of the Congregation of the Propaganda. He is, however, considered friendly to the Jesuits, and will be, of course, fiercely, opposed by France—a power which, through a wily and talented Representative to the Roman Court, is alleged to be playing a game in Italy upon which the Governments of Europe, Great Britain included, would do well to keep an eye.

Cardinal Franzoni was born at Genoa on the 10th of December, 1775, and is, of course, in the 71st year of his age. Cardinal Acton might not improbably be selected, and would, in that case, be only the second Englishman that has ever held the Papal dignity.

Great agitation continues to prevail in different parts of this country, especially in the Papal States, and it is to be feared that outbreaks will take place.

Sweden and Norway.

Stockholm, June 5, 1846. Emigration is rapidly on the increase from this part of the world to the United States. A vessel lately left Skien with 250 emigrants, leaving 700 prepared to follow the first opportunity. The greater part of the emigrants are artisans and agriculturists, and many of them are tolerably well to do in the world.

The coronation of the King and Queen is to take place in October with great pomp. A son of their Majesties had been appointed lieutenant in the royal navy.

Russia.

St. Petersburg, June 3.—Recent despatches from Caucasus set forth the details of some operations which have been very advantageous to Russian armies.

Letter from Gen. Taylor.

The following brief, expressive and soldier-like letter from Gen. Taylor, to the mayor of New York, will be read with peculiar pleasure:

Head-quarters, Army of Occupation, Matamoros, Mexico, June 16, 1846.

Sir:—I have had the honor to receive your communication of the 23d of May, inclosing the resolution of a large public meeting of the citizens of New York, in one of which the meeting is pleased to refer in complimentary terms to the services of the army in this quarter.

I need hardly say that the officers and soldiers of the army of occupation, are deeply sensible to this evidence of sympathy and confidence from the citizens of New York. While conscious that they perform only their duty in whatever professional service they may render to their country, they yet derive new confidence and new strength from such manifestations of approval from the mass of their fellow citizens. Please sir, accept my thanks for the very courteous terms in which you have communicated the proceedings of the meeting.

I have the honor to be, Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Z. TAYLOR.

Bt. Brig. Gen. U. S. A. Com'd'g,
His Honor, A. H. Mickle,
Mayor of the city of New York.

The Nauvoo Eagle says the Committee of new citizens has returned from a visit to nine counties, with assurance of ample assistance in the event of further violence. The Mormons continue to leave as fast as possible; those who have crossed the river recently, waiting only for means to move forward to join their companions on the prairies. The citizens of Nauvoo have recovered from the recent panic, and business has been resumed by the merchants there.

STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY

CALLED

HUNT'S LINIMENT.

IS NOW UNIVERSALLY ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE

The Infallible Remedy.

For Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Breast and Chest, Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth Ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Frosted Feet, and all Nervous diseases.

THE following certificate of the restoration to health and the perfect cure of a deformed and crippled child, who was thought to be beyond the reach of hope, shows that, no matter how appalling the case may be, there is a remedy in HUNT'S LINIMENT, that will conquer the most desperate cases, and that, if the disease be curable, this celebrated external remedy will do it. It has never failed in giving immediate relief if timely applied, as proved by the abundance of high and unimpeachable testimony, the particulars of which are to be found in the pamphlets which are to be had of every agent.

Oswining, June 10, 1845.

GEORGE E. STANTON, Esq.—Sir—I feel called upon by the tie of gratitude, to offer the following testimony in favor of Hunt's Liniment. My grandson, Clarke E. Evans, who is now ten years of age, has been for the last eight years a cripple, caused by falling from a chair when he was two years old, and wrenching his spine. From the time of the occurrence, we have tried every means to restore him to his natural shape, but all without avail. We took him to New York and placed him under the care of a physician of skill, and after remaining there some time, we brought him home no better than when we took him there. For several days at times he was so helpless that he could only walk by placing his hands upon his knees for support, giving him the appearance of a deformed hunchback. He was also taken to Newburg and prescribed for without any better success. At times he would be strong enough to go out doors, but after playing an hour would come in perfectly exhausted, and for several days would be again perfectly helpless. We had lost all hope of ever again seeing him restored to his natural strength or shape—but a kind Providence placed your external remedy in my hands. I have used four bottles, and I am rejoiced to say that the boy is now as straight and strong as any boy of his age. Any of my neighbors will testify to the truth of this statement. I take sincere pleasure in stating these facts for the benefit of those who are suffering under the like calamity.

Yours, respectfully,
RACHEAL SHUTE.

This is to certify, That I am personally acquainted with the subscriber, Mrs. Shute, as well as the boy alluded to, and frankly bear witness to the deformity of which he was seriously afflicted, apparently for life.—Dated Sing-Sing, June 9, 1845.

HENRY HARRIS,
Justice of the Peace.

For particulars of cures, see the certificate accompanying each bottle.
