News from the Army.

We are indebted to the Picayune for an extra under date of July 6th. The Mexican forces were supposed to be concentrated in the vicinity of Monterey, under the immediate command of Paredes; while the U. S. troops under Gen. Taylor, seemed preparing to take up their march to penetrate as far as Monterey. A letter from Point Isabel, under date of the 5th inst., says:

"I left Matamoras last evening, and started from Gen. Smith's camp, on this side of the Rio Grande, at 9 o'clock with a volunteer officer, to ride across the prairie. I saw 'Old Rough and Ready' just before leaving. He was riding out hunting the newspapers. The old gentleman hardly ever is seen attended by any of his officers or men in his rides, but goes 'poking about,' as I heard a volunteer remark the other day 'just like other folks.'" Gen. Smith was to begin to remove his camp to-day some 12 or 15 miles up the river on the Mexican side. The General looks remarkably well and is in fine spirits. The mosquitoes showed themselves in large numbers for the first time at head quarters last evening. The volunteer camp was perfectly shrouded with smoke raised by the men to keep off the intruders. A rumor obtains in the camp that a portion of the Louisiana volunteers are soon to be disbanded, and, though they have been assured that such will not probably be the case, they are quite uneasy about it—a few because they want to go home and fear the rumor is not well founded, but most of them because they desire to stay and "see the thing out." "When can we move?—Can we ever get a fight out of them?" are the questions constantly put to persons coming from Gen. Taylor's quarters.

That a large portion of the army will soon move towards Monterey can no longer be doubted, as boats enough of light draught have arrived to warrant General Taylor in taking possession of the country between the mouth of the river and that place."

A letter from Matamoras, to the New York Sun, under date of July 2d, says:—"The camp has been thrown into confusion by the arrival of a scout who reports that General Arista is within fifty miles of us, at the head of ten or twelve thousand men, coming to attack us. We are in readiness for action at a moment's notice, and if this letter terminates abruptly, you will know the cause. Rough and Ready is always ready."

VERY GOOD.—At a dinner given at Matamoras, to the Committee of the Louisiana Legislature, Lieut. Britton, of the 7th infantry, said that a very brave soldier in the ranks was in the habit of drinking tom-tom. His Colonel remonstrated with him—"Tom, you are a bold fellow and a good soldier, but you will get drunk."—"Colonel," replied Tom, "how can you expect all the virtues of the human character combined for seven dollars a month? He proposed the health and promotion of the gallant Tom."

The Carlisle Herald states that a member of Capt. Washington's artillery was killed last week near Bedford. While crossing one of the mountains he fell from the caisson upon which he was riding, and the wheel passed over his head causing instant death. He was buried with military honors. Another of the men met with a serious accident, but was recovering at the last account. The company has received a considerable number of recruits on the route.

THE TRUE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—The moderator of the General Assembly of the Church in opening the last meeting of the Assembly, said:—"The principles of our Free Church are germinating in England, in B-Ingim, in Germany, in Switzerland, and in France more especially. One great Free Presbyterian Church appears rising in the distance, to comprise the French speaking population of Europe."

Speaking of the effect of the movement in Scotland, he said:

What proofs have we seen—what tokens do we discover of the vigorous growth of the vital godliness which is the fest of the heavenly origin of professed faith?—More anxiety to hear the Word—more earnestness in devotion—more interest about the progress of Christ's cause—something more of a retiring from the follies and the vanities of the world—a greater augmented liberality, as well as a greater proneness to fall back on scriptural principles, may be discerned among ministers, office bearers, and church members."
