

Miscellany.

CAPTAIN MAY.—The New Orleans Bulletin says:—"At the time Lieut. Crittenden was sent by Gen. Taylor during the late battle with a flag to a detached body of 1000 to 1500 of Mexicans that were being cut to pieces by our fire, Colonel May was on the eve of charging them with his dragoons, but as Lieut. C. was passing with his white flag displayed, May rode out and crossed his path to inquire the object of his mission—"I am going to tell those fellows to surrender in order to save their lives."—"Wait till I have charged them."—"Impossible, the old man has sent me and I must go on."—"But, my good fellow," said May entreatingly, "for God's sake, just rein up for five minutes, and give us a chance at them."—"Would do anything to oblige you, Colonel, but I have the old man's orders and there is no help for it," and he gave rein to his horse, whilst the Colonel returned to the head of his squadron, in the worst of all possible humors against those things called flags of truce. The Dragoons, we understand, made several charges during the action, though the whole number present was only four troops."

A PATRIOTIC CLERGYMAN.—Capt. Walker is enlisting men for his company of "Rifles" at Annapolis. The correspondent of the Charleston News gives the following anecdote:—"The son of a Rev. Mr. Collins made up his mind to go, and went and asked his parents permission, being a minor. The father endeavored to dissuade him from his intention; but finding him fixed in his determination; went with his son to Capt. Walker's rendezvous, enlisted his son and saw him sworn into service, telling him, when he was duly apprenticed for five years to "Uncle Sam."—"Now, my son, I wish you to understand me; you have taken the oath to support the flag of your country, and if, when you meet a foe you should ever run—run by home, and don't stop there for I will never own you again."

SCENE AT THE ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—We copy the following article from the Delta of the 21st inst:—"Last night, after the curtain had dropped on the first act of the Soldier of Fortune, Sol. Smith came forward and announced to the audience that he had been furnished with news of importance from the army, just received in the city, which they might wish to hear in anticipation of the morning papers. This proposition was received with loud applause, and the news was read. After the perusal, immense and deafening cheering arose from all parts of the house, which was followed by three cheers for General Taylor. After this, the orchestra played "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle." The enthusiasm was tremendous."

DRIED STRAWBERRIES.—"Spring time of year is coming," and Strawberries will come with it. The correctness of the following is worth testing by experiment:—"Last summer, by way of experiment, when strawberries were plentiful, I attached threads to their stalks, and hung up a few which were over-ripe to dry. I placed them inside a window facing the south, where they remained from June last to the present time, (March 28.) They have just been tasted and the result is most satisfactory. The sweet refreshing acid which is peculiar to the strawberry in full perfection; the flavor of the fruit, without any watery taste, is delicious; it dissolves in the mouth as slowly as a lozenge, and it is infinitely superior to the raisin, which so soon brings on a feeling of satiety.—The strawberry thus dried is a stomachic. The experiment may be tried when the fruit is so ripe as to be scarcely worth gathering, without any further expense or trouble than being hung up.—London Paper."

"I say, Jemmy, lend me your last Journal."—"I can't do it, you wouldn't lend me your new coat to-day, you know."—"Nonsense—that's another thing; I only wanted to read it to the ladies."—"Can't come it, Jerry—I only wanted to wear your coat to go to the ladies."—"Well, I'll not ask you again, I know—I'll go and subscribe first."—"So you ought to," said Jemmy, and went on reading his paper."

The troublesome war with Mexico monopolizes all kindred themes of interest. We know of an old lady, an inveterate reader of newspapers, who complains that "somehow or other she don't enjoy her murders of a morning any more," by reason of the wholesale slaughter of which she reads in the bulletins from the army!

GEN. TAYLOR'S FIRST BREVET.—In November, 1812, President Madison conferred upon Captain Zachary Taylor the Brevet Major, for his gallant defence at Fort Harrison.

A young damsel was telling one of her admirers after church that she had been trying "all meeting time" to get him to look at her, but without success. Said he, "I'm sorry, but really I didn't catch the eye detr."

Our sorrows are like thunder clouds, which seem black in the distance, but grow lighter as they approach.

NOTICE. DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.—The copartnership heretofore existing, under the name of WM. SWAIM & SON, was dissolved on the 21st of July last, by the decease of the said Wm. Swaim, and the business is now, and will be in future, conducted exclusively by the subscriber, who has had the sole charge of the manufacturing of the Panacea and Venetian Blinds for the last 14 years. The Panacea will be put up as usual in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters on the glass—"Swaim's Panacea, Philada." and the only change made is the name of JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork, and a new label for the side of the bottle, composed of geometric lath work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadelphia. Four dies of different patterns form the body of the work, and in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, separated from the borders by two circles of lath work. The words "Swaim's Panacea," are engraved conspicuously on two turned strips, and a large semi-circular die forms the upper margin. The borders are composed of plain lath work strips, outside of which is engraved in small letters the entry of the copyright. JAMES SWAIM. Philadelphia, August, 1846.

D. professor of Physic, Pa. University; T. Parke, M. D. president of College of Physicians, Philada.; Dr. Del Valle, Professor of Medicine, Havana; Jose Lourenco da Luz, professor of Surgery, Lisbon; J. M'ALLISTER'S ALL-HEALING OINTMENT.

Insensible Perspiration

IS the great Evacuation for the impurities of the body. Life cannot be sustained without it. It is thrown off from the blood and other juices of the body, and disposes by this means of nearly all the impurities within us. The language of scripture, "in the blood is the life."—If it ever becomes impure it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the "insensible perspiration." Thus we see all that is necessary when the blood is stagnant or infected, is to open the pores and it relieves itself from all impurity instantly. Its own heat and vitality are sufficient, without one particle of medicine, except to open the pores upon the surface. Thus we see the folly of taking so much internal remedies.—All practitioners, however, direct their efforts to restore the insensible perspiration. The Thompsonian, for instance, steams; the Hydropathist shrouds in wet blankets; the Homoeopathist deals out infinitesimals; the Ailopathist bleeds and doses us with mercury, and the blustering Quack gorges us with pills.

I have had physicians, learned in the profession, I have had ministers of the Gospel, Judges of the Bench, Aldermen and Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition, and multitudes of the poor, use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice—one united, universal voice—saying, "M'Allister your Ointment is good."

CONSUMPTION.—It can hardly be credited that a salve can have any effect upon the lungs, seated as they are within the system. But if placed upon the chest, it penetrates directly to the lungs, separates the poisonous particles that are consuming them, and expels them from the system. I need not say that it is curing persons of Consumption continually, although we are told that it is foolishness. I care not what is said, so long as I can cure several thousand persons annually.

HEADACHE.—The salve has cured persons of the Headache of 12 year's standing, and who had it regularly every week, so that vomiting often took place.

Deafness and Ear ache are helped with like success.

COLD FEET.—Consumption, Liver Complaint, pains in the Side or Chest, falling off the hair, one or the other, always accompanies cold feet. It is a sure sign of disease in the system to have cold feet.

The Salve will cure every case in Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Liver Complaint, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Broken or Sore Breast, Piles, Chest Diseases, such as Asthma, Oppression, Pains, also Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Tumors, Cutaneous Eruptions, Nervous Diseases, and of the Spine there is no medicine known probably so good.

BURNS.—It is the best thing in the world for Burns, (Read the directions around the box.) Pimples on the face, Masculine Skin, Gross Surface.—When there is grossness or dull repulsive surface, it begins to soften until the skin becomes as smooth and delicate as a child's.

WORMS.—If parents knew how fatal most medicines were to children taken inwardly, they would be slow to resort to them. Especially 'mercurial lozenges,' called 'medicated lozenges,' 'vermifuges,' 'pills,' &c. The truth is, no one can tell, invariably, when worms are present. Now let me say to parents, that this salve will always tell if a child has worms. It will drive every vestige of them away. (Read the directions around the box.) There is probably no medicine on the face of the earth at once so sure and so safe in the expulsion of worms.

OLD SORES.—That some sores are an outlet to the impurities of the system, is because they cannot pass off through the natural channels of the Insensible Perspiration. If such sores are healed up, the impurities must have some other outlet, or it will endanger life. This salve will always provide for such emergency.

RHEUMATISM.—Almost every case cured with this ointment.

FEVERS.—In all cases of fever, the difficulty lies in the pores being locked up so that the heat and perspiration cannot pass off. If the least moisture could be started, the crisis has passed and the danger is over. The all-healing ointment will in all cases of fevers almost instantly unlock the skin and bring forth the perspiration.

We have cured cases of Scald Head that defied every thing known, as well as the ability of fifteen or twenty doctors.—One man told us he had spent $500 on his children without any benefit, when a few boxes of the ointment cured them.

CORNS.—Occasional use of the ointment will always keep corns from growing. People need never be troubled with them if they will use it.

As a family medicine, no man can measure its value.

JAMES M'ALLISTER & Co., Sole proprietor of the above Medicine. Price 25 cts. per box.

CAUTION.—As the All-Healing Ointment has been greatly counterfeited, we have given this caution to the public that 'no ointment will be genuine unless the name of James M'Allister or James M'Allister & Co. are written with a pen upon every label.'

Agent—JAS. SXTON, Jr., Huntingdon, Pa.
