From the Brazos.

The Telegraph arrived at New Orleans, from Brazos, on the 27th, bringing dates to the 27th. The following items we clip from the papers:

The 3d Regiment Pennsylvania volunteers, on board the ship America, arrived at the Brazos on the 22d, and were landing at the time the Telegraph left.

The Rio Grande was rising rapidly at last accounts—a fortunate event for the army, as the greatest difficulties have been felt in forwarding supplies from the low stage of water heretofore.

the mouth of the Kio Grande, and were to embark on the 1st prox. for New Orleans.

The volunteers with General Taylor, it is said, will return home when their time expires. Robert White, of the Louisville Legion, at Monterey, had his head maimed by the explosion of a rocket. The rank and file of the 1st Ohio Regiment are making arrangements to present Major Giddings with a sword.

The Monterey Pioneer says:—Persons recently from Monterey, inform us that in coming down; they beheld strewn along the roadside, where had been massacred the teamsters who had fell into the hands of Urrea's assassins in the attack on the wagon train, the decayed and mutilated remains of upwards of fifty of the unfortunate men. Where they fell, there still they are suffered to remain, their flesh made the food of vultures and wolves, and their bones scattered about by these beasts and birds of prey. Train after train has passed them by, with no more notice than a passing commentary upon their sad fate—none have stepped forth to give them burial. Humanity sickens at man's inhumanity to man—death parts friend from friend, & brother from brother, & in one brief hour all the ties which bound them together are forgotten. Such is a consequence of war—it deadens the sensibility and brings man to a levie with the unreasoning brute.

Gen. Taylor's movements are chronicled in the Matamoras Flag. He has headquarters, says that paper, at the Walnut Springs, a few miles outside Monterey. The old hero has but a meagre force under his immediate command, the main body of his army being with General Woo', at Agua Nueva.—The 1st Mississippi regiment, ("General Taylor's movements are chronicled in the Matamoras Flag. Five companies of Kentucky calvalry were in Carmago a few days ago, but were to return to Monterey as an escort to a train—this regiment has also but a brief time to remain in service, and will soon be returning. It is pleasing to hear the returning volunteers—those who have battled under him—speak of old Rough and Ready. With one accord they all unite in his praise, and his biavery and militarty skill, as displayed in the battles and brilliant movements of the field, have excited feelings within their breasts which can never be effaced. Napoleon never had more the love and confidence of his troops than has Gen. Taylor. We have heard volunteers say, not in a spirit of braggadocia, but in cool sober carnest, that under him they would cheerfully go into battle, with odds against them of six to one, and feel assured of victory. Many with whom we have spoken, disclaim ever having looked to the possibility of a defeat at Buena Vista—vietory, nothing but victory, was thought of. The countenance of General Taylor during the long engagement, wore throughout, the appearance of triumph, and all who noticed him augured victory from his look.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—A singular and serious accident occurred last week at Cincinnati. In company with a gentleman in a buggy a young lady was returning to the city from a country jaunt. Her long dress, flying over the side of the vehicle, caught in the splinters of a broken felloe of the hind wheel, and dragged her violently and suddenly out upon the pavement. In the fall her scull was fractured and her recovery is doubtful.

FROM NEW MEXICO.

PITTSBURG, May 4, 1847.

The Western Mail has just arrived, bringing a month later dates from New Mexico. Mr. Sublette, from Santa Fe, which place he left on the 24th March, furnishes the details of the battle of Sacramento, fought eighteen miles north of Chihuahua. The enemy's force numbering 4,223 men, including some of the finest regular troops, well armed. The American force was 924, all told.

The less of the enemy was 200 killed, a great number wounded, and forty prisoners.' American loss 1 killed and 8 wounded and one mortally. Col. Samuel C. Owens of Independence, was killed. The Mexican Colonel, Cuelta, was taken prisoner.

The enemy were entrenched on immense piles of volcanic rocks, but were gallantly driven from their position.—Chihuahua was occupied on the 1st of March by a detachment of the 1st artillery, under Capt: Whiteman.

On the 27th ult., there was a terrible fire in St. Louis. A great number of houses were burned. Loss $50,000.

Lieut. HAMMOND, whose death is announced as among those who fell in the desperate conflict between the na-tives of Culifornia, and the Americans nder Gen. Kearney, was the son of the Ion. R. H. Hammond, of Northumber land county, in this State, now a Pay-master in the army, at Vera Cruz.

DROWNED HIMSELF .- Mr. John Parthe more, of this borough, committed suicide on Wednesday afternoon, by drowning himself in the canal. He precipitated himself from the Bridge over the Canal Basin, near Gov. Porter's Furnace, and before he could be rescued, life was extinct. No cause is assigned for this rash act.—Pa. Intel. *

THE NEXT CONGRESS .- Prior to the Virginia Election the Whigs had elected S1 members of the coming Congress, to 58 locofocos. The result of that election increases the Whig strength to 87, and the locofoco force to 66. In the States yet to elect, according to a reasonable calculation in the N. Y. Tribune, the Whigs will probably elect 32 mem: bers, and the locos 49. If this calculation is realized therefore the next House of Representative will consist of 118 Whigs to 115 Locofocos. The Senate while to 115 Locotocos. The Senate will of course still be locofoco. Considering that Mr. Polk had a majority of about seventy in the last House, we should think this result indicates pretty strongly what the people think of his miserable administration.

The federalists use Gen. Taylor's name pretty much as a tavern keeper places the portrait of a statesman or warrier upon his sign—not one-tenth so much on account of their love for the man, as for the profit they may realized—Pennsylvanian.

Gentlemen:—The bill, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Huntingdon and Broad Top Mountain Railroad and Coal Company," has been presented for the Executive approval.

This bill provides for the construction of a Rail Road from the borough of Huntingdon to Stonersville, in Bedford county, and for making branch Railroads to coal mines. These are works for which charters have been uniformly granted. But the bill further provides for investing the company with corporate privileges for purposes which are throughout the Commonwealth carried on profitably by individual means and enterprize.—They are authorized, with a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, which may be increased to seven hun-They are authorized, with a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, which may be increased to seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to purchase and hold five thousand acres of land in Huntingdon and Bedford counties, with the improvements thereon, and with power further to improve the same, and to engage in the business of mining and selling coal, and of transportation, not only on the Railroad, but also on the Pennsylvania canal; and for this purpose to construct cars, boats, engines and machinery:

Thus a privileged association is to be created, not only to construct a Railroad, but with full power and authority to engage in the business of transportation, of mining, and selling coal, and of farming five thousand acres of land, with a requirement of the stockholders to pay the amount of stock they may subscribe, but with an absolute exemption to pay the debts of the company out of their individual estates.

When it is remembered that all our internal and external trade is conducted by the skill and energy of the people, under the guards of individual responsibility—that millions upon millions of bituminous, and millions of tone of an thradite coal, are amunally mined by the citizens of the State, without the shield of special privileges, and that every cultivated acre of this broad Commonwealth is farmed by freemen, who ask for no protection but that of Heaven, and for no privileges but those which the charter of our rights secures to all, it is hard to believe that there is either policy or justice in granting corporate privileges to a mining, transporting and farming association in Huntingdon and Bedford counties.

to a mining, transporting and farming association in Huntingdon and Bedford counties.

I have frequently expressed to the General Assembly my convictions of the great truth, that the grant of exclusive privileges to some, is repugnant to our whole system, the intent of which is, to make firm the equal rights of all: For my principles in regard to this vital subject, I respectfully refer to the several messages which I have had the honor; at the present; and at previous sessions to transmit to the Legislature; upon returning bills without my signature, for granting corporate privileges to associations for purposes within the compass of individual ability.

The inherent rights of man are placed by the Constitution beyond the reach of legislative power. How can that which belongs equally to all, be increased in some, without usurpation? Hence, all attempts, under a free system, to create distinctions amongst men, are repugant, contradictory and unconstitutional. With these reasons for withholding my approbation, I have directed the bill to be returned to the House of Representatives, in which it originated.

Destructive Fires

PITTSBURG, May 4, 1847. Last evening the steamboat Ambas-sador was destroyed by fire about 12 miles below this city. The loss will probably amount to $20,000, and the boat was insured for $8,000. There were from 700 to 800 tons of freight on board, which were burned. The loss of this is heavy, but it was probably insured.

A fire occurred at Dayton, Ohio, Saturday, which destroyed three large pork houses and seven stores. There were 18,000 bbls. bacon and large quantities of grain and other articles destroyed—the value variously estimated from 30 to $60,000.—Cor. Pa. Inquirer.

FIRES AT PITTSBURG, AND ALLEGHENY City.—On Friday night, Green's planning mill, at Allegheny City, was totally destroyed by fire, with four small dwellings. On the same night, a fire broke out in the cabinet shop of Messrs: Roberts & Kane; at Pittsburg, which was totally destroyed, the fire communicating to several other buildings, viz: Jones & Birkhamer's block shop; Hon: Charles Shaler's dwelling, Jas. Elliott's Blacksmith shop, and the paint shop of Wm. Lees—all of which were totally destroyed.

The Capture of Vera Cruz.—Gen. Winfield Scott deserve as much credit for the little loss of life with which he has capured Vera Cruz as for the capture itself. He has shown us what the science of war can do, and how it can preserve our men, as well as destroy an enemy.

The military tharacter of our two illustrious Major Generals is as differferent as their educations has been, but both achieve great and brilliant results by very different means. Gen. Scott could hardly have been persuaded to run the terrible risk run at Buena Vista, or at Monterey, but in the end he would have obtained about the same results with a saving of life, if with less glory. Rough and Ready is full of fight, any where and every where, and so is Scott, but he loves to do his work scientifically.—N. Y. Express.

H ANCE'S Sarsaparilla Vegetable or Blood Pills, for purifying the blood.

BALTIMORE, July 29, 1843.

This is to certify, that I was afflicted with a violent pain in the breast and right arm, which I suppose proceeded from the impure state of my blood. I found them extremely gentle in their operation, and would recommend them to every person in want of a mild purgative. Patrick Roche, No. 23 Conway street, between Howard and Eutaw.

Oll YEARS' EXPERIENCE has proved that, for the cure of coughs; colds, consumptions asthma, spitting of blood, pain and oppression of the breast, there is nothing equal to Hance's Compound Syrup of Horehound.

During this time many new medicines have sprung up for the cure of the above complaints, some of which lasted only a few months, and others not as long; but Hance's Syrup has readily gone on gaining favor with all classes of society, until it has now become identified by many families as a REGULAR FAMILY MEDICINE REGULAR FAMILY MEDICINE.
