Afraid of the Bilers.

During the height of the opposition between the two steamboat lines, running from the Kennebec to Boston last summer, and just as the rival boats were making ready to start, a wagon hove in sight in which was an old lady, with an accompaniment of band-boxes and bundles, evidently equipped for a journey. The respective agents of the two lines sprang towards her. "Take the Marshall, marm 1—fine boat." Try the Penobscot, new boat, built last summer, commanded by the favorite of every body—Capt. —," &c. &c. The boys and loafers around echoed the claims of their favorites in concert. "Hurrah for the Penobscot." "Go the John Marshall." The old lady, who had probably never seen a steamboat before, and whose chief notion of the varmints was connected with their boiler bursting propensities, was almost beside herself with terror at the hub-bub chief notion of the varmints was connected with their boiler bursting propensities, was almost beside herself with terror at the hub-bub—

"O, Lordy, I wish I'd never stirred a step—If I'd a known there was to be such an awful time as this, I'm sure I would'nt. The pesky bilers—I know they'll burst, every body's looking after me, and nobody's attending to 'em.—There, go right away all of you, I'm going straight back. I could'nt rest a wink for fear of them pesky bilers."

"You need give yourself no anxiety on account of the boilers in the Marshall," said the agent of the Mr., "they are new and sound, and couldn't be made to burst."

"Are you sure of it!" said the old lady, evineing symptoms of a favorable disposition towards the Marshall—"you an't a tryin' to practize on the creduality of a poor lone woman, I hope."

"No fear of me—sound as a teakettle," was the reply.

The old lady was about descending from the wagon to embark in the Marshall, when No. 2 stepped up.

"Madam," said he, in a serions tone, "no doubt the Marshall's boilers are sound enough, but the best boilers are dangerous things. We knew that a great many people had been killed by them—especially of late—and took the boilers out of the boat three weeks ago!"

"You did," said she; "that's the boat for me, then. James (to the boy in the wagon) pass out the basket, and the boanes out of the boat three weeks, and the parasol—and don't forget the new shoes and doughnuts under the seat. Horrors of the Final Judgment.

And the gay glory of time shall depart; and sportful liberty shall be bound for ever in the chain of obdurate necessity. The green earth with all her blooming beauty and bowers of peace shall depart. The morning and evening salutations of kinsnen shall depart; and the ever-welcome voice of friendship, and the ever-welcome voice of friendship, and the tender whispering of full hearted affection shall depart, for the sad discord of weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth.—And the tender names of children, father, and mother, wife and husband, with the communion of domestic love and mutual affection and the inward touches of natural instinct—which family compact, when undivided by discord, wraps the livelong day into one swell of tender emotion, making earth's lowly scenes worthy of heaven itself;—all, all shall pass away; and instead shall come the level lake that burneth, and the solitary dungeon, and the desolate bosom, and the throes and tossings of horror and hopelessness, and the worm that dieth not, and the fire that is not quenched.—Ed. Irving.

MEMORY.—The remembrance of the loved and lost, the absent or alienated, how it comes upon us like a dream of the past, and mingles with the present, as the shadows of twilight steal quietly upon the vivid hues of day. How often does a word, a look, a tone, bring back the memory of long-lived, familiar faces, and the voice of those long passed away, seems mingling with accents which we have scarcely learned to recognize, so brief has been the period since we have known their tongues:

How sweet the charms that memory throws Around the scenes of earlier years, How brighly retrespection shows

CHINA & QUEENSWARE HOUSE,

HE subscribers, successors to S. Tyn-DALE, would call the attention of the erchants and Residents of Huntingdon and vicitny, to their stock of CHINA AND QUEENSWARE, itiny, to their stock of CHINA AND QUEENSWARE,

Which we have no hesitation in saying is the largest in the United States, and which, in the greater part, is made for, and imported by ourselves.

Any person having used Queensware or China for a number of years, will notice the general deterioration in the quality—this is owing to the great ly reduced prices. In some of the manufactories where a good name has been established, and pride taken in their character, no such inferiority is observed—from such houses have we constantly endeavored to make our stock, and we are determined to sell our wares as low as any quality, whether equal or inferior, can be sold in the U.S.

There is a prejudice against Chesnut Street, raised from a falsa notion of higher prices. Our rents on this street are lower than on any other business street, and nothing else could possibly make a difference. But no house can succeed here that does not keep the best qualities of goods and this does not sait all—hence the prejudice.

We have every kind of Ware, from common Painted Tens, Edged Plates, Mocha, Granite Printed, Flowi g Bue, &c. &c. to the finest China and Glass.

We are anxious to extend our business, and take every transor.

nd Glass.

We are auxious to extend our business, and ke every proper weans of doing so—but not maning personal application to strangers here, we are no other means of doing it, than by the aid of ur old friends, by advertising, and by the quality and prices of our goods.

he decease of the said Wm. Swaim, and the business is now, and will be in future, conducted exclusively by the subscriber, who has had the sole charge of the manufacturing of the Panacea and Vermitige for the last 14 years.

The Panacea will be put up as usual in round bettles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters on the glass—"Swaim's Panacea, Piliada." and the only change made is the name of JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and vortiten on the label covering the cork, and a new label for the side of the bottle, composed of geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Drisper & Co., bank note engravers of Philadchphia. Four dies of different patterns form the body of the work, and in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, separated from the borders by two circles of lathe work. The words "Swaim's Panacea," are engraved conspicuously on two turned strips, and a large semi-circular die forms the upper margin. The borders are composed of plain lathe work strips, outside of which is engraved in small letters the entry of the copyright.

M'ALLISTER'S

ALL-HEALING CINTMENT.

Insensible Perspiration

Is the great Evacuation for the impurities of the body. Life cannot be sustained withoutit. It is thrown off from the blood and other juices of the body, and disposes by this means of nearly all the impurities within us. The language of scripture, "in the blood is the life."—
If it ever becomes impure it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the "insensible perspiration." Thus we see all that is necessary when the blood is stagnant or infected, is to open the pores and it relieves itself from all impurity instantly. Its own heat and vitality are sufficient, without the particle of medicine, except to open the pores upon the surface. Thus we see the folly of taking so much internal remedies.—
All practitioners, however, direct their efforts to restore the insensible perspiration. The Thompsonian; for instance, steams; the Hydropathist shrouds in wet blankets; the Homoeopathist deals out infinitissimals; the Ailopathist bleeds and doses us with inercury, and the blustering Quack gorges us with pills.

I have had physicians, learned in the profession, I have had ministers of the Gospel, Judges of the Bench, Aldermen and Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition, and multitudes 16 the poor, use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice—one united, universal voice—saying, "M'Allister your Ointment is good."

Consumpton.—It can hardly be credited that a salve can have any effect upon the lungs, seated as they are within the system. But if placed upon the chest, it penetrates directly to the lungs, separates the poisonous particles that are consuming them, and expels them from the system. I need not sny that it is curing persons of Consumption continually, although we are told that it is foolishness. I care not what is said, so long as I can cure several thousand persons annually.

HEADACHE.—The salve has cured persons of the Headache of 12 year's stand-tinually, although we are told that it is foolishness. I care not what is said, so long as I can cure several thousand persons annually.

Headache.—The salve has cured persons of the Headache of 12 year's standing, and who had it regularly every week; so that vomiting often took place.

Deafness and Ear ache are helped with like success.

Cold Fert.—Consumption, Liver Complaint, pains in the Side or Chest, falling off the hair, one or the other, always accompanies cold feet. It is a sure sigh of disease in the system to have cold feet.

The Salve will cure every case in Serofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Liver Complaint, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Broken or Sore Breast, Piles, Chest Diseases, such as Asthma, Oppression, Pains, also Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Tumors, Cutaneous Eruptions, Nervous Diseases, and of the Spine there is no medicine known probably so good.

Burns.—It is the best thing in the world for Burns, (Read the directions around the box.)

Pimples on the face, Masculine Skin, Gross Surface.—When there is grosshess or dull repulsive surface, it begins to soften until the skin becomes as smooth and delicate as a child's.

Worns.—If pavents knew how fatal most medicines were to children taken inwardly, they would be slow to resort to them. Especially 'mercurial lozenges,' earled 'medicined lozenges,' 'vermituges,' 'pills,' &c. The truth is, no one can tell, invariably, when worms are present. Now let me say to parents, that this salve will always tell if a child has worms. It will drive every vestige of them away. (Read the directions around the box.) There is probably no medicine on the face of the earth at once so sure and so safe in the expulsion of worms.

Old Sores.—That some sores are an outlet to the impurities of the Insensible Perspiration. If such sores are healed up, the impurities must have some other outlet, or it will endanger life. This salve will always provide for such emergency.

Republication of the such sores are the ended up, the impurities must have some other outlet, or it will e the breast, obstinate cough and difficult expector ration, the symp toms daily increasing in violence. I had recourse to various remedies, with no avail, until I used THOMPSON'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF TAR, which effected a permanent cure before I had taken three bottles. E.
