

LATER FROM MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, July 15. By the arrival of the steamer Alabama, the Picayune has late advices from the city of Mexico to the morning of the 29th ult., and Puebla to the 30th. Gen. Scott still remained at Puebla, awaiting the reinforcements on the road under Generals Cadwalader and Pillow.

The news from the capital was indefinite. Gen. Scott states that he had informed the Mexican government that Mr. Trist was with him, and authorized to enter into negotiations of peace. Santa Anna has vainly endeavored to procure a quorum of the members of Congress to consider General Scott's communication.

It is supposed that Gen. Scott will have to march into Mexico to secure peace.—The censorship of the Press prevents the knowledge of what measures of defence are contemplated. Santa Anna was to leave in three days from the 30th. It is stated that every avenue to the city is fortified, but the success of the Americans was not doubted. Gen. Pillow, it is said, had been compelled to contest the road with guerrilla parties until beyond Cerro Gordo. They took advantage of every defile to arrest his progress.—His loss is said to have been severe.

The government of Puebla has been entrusted to Col. Belton, of the 3d Artillery. General Alvarez was at Alisco on the 14th June, with 300 cavalry.

The American Star of Puebla says there are three months provisions for the troops in the city, and that the fields around supply the necessary forage.

A Mexican had been detected by his countrymen, while on his way from the Capital to Puebla with drawings of the different fortifications around the capital. He was tried and condemned to die, but escaped. The Mexicans used every means to induce our men to desert, and then used them most shamefully.

A party of eight Americans, not connected with the army, left Puebla for a hacienda on the road to Mexico to purchase mules, encountered a party of lancers, and could not escape, and was forced to fight them. All the Americans were wounded, and it is supposed one was killed. Five are believed to have been taken prisoners.

A letter from Mexico to the American Star, says the American prisoners were at liberty, and no one troubles them.—The writer sees Major Gaines daily.—The decree ordering the Americans away had not been extended to them.—It is believed that they are incarcerated at Santiago. Majors Gaines and Borland may be at liberty, but doubtful as to the rest.

The prefect of Puebla recently de camped to Ahxco, with all the city funds.

Perry's expedition to Tobasco was entirely successful.

A rumor was current at Vera Cruz on the morning of the 1st that Gen. Scott had entered the capital, and that Gen. Pillow had been captured by the guerrillas. The former is false, and no faith is placed in the latter.

Gen. Taylor's idea of prosecuting the war. The following extract from the letter of Gen. Taylor to Gen. Gaines, written in November last, presents the views of Gen. Taylor as to the manner of prosecuting the war, and the benefits to be derived from the expenditure of blood and treasure necessary to flog Mexico into a peace. It is not without interest at this time, especially the passage in italics.

"If we are in the language of Mr. Polk and Gen. Scott under the necessity of 'conquering a peace'—and that by taking the capital of the country—we must go to Vera Cruz, take that place, and then march on to the city of Mexico. To do so in any other direction, I consider out of the question. But, admitting that we conquer a peace by doing so, say at the end of the next twelve months, will the amount of blood and treasure which must be expended in doing so, be compensated by the same. I think not, especially if the country were subdued to be given up, and I imagine there are but few individuals in our country who think of annexing Mexico to the United States.

DON'T LAUGH.—The locofocery of Westmoreland county, have given the latest commentary upon the "Kane Letter," as follows:

Resolved, That we have increased confidence in Jas. K. Polk's opinion in reference to the tariff, as expressed by him in his letter to John K. Kane of Pennsylvania. We believe the tariff of '42 to have been unjust unequal and partial in its operations, and have renewed confidence in the tariff of '46.

From the 1st of May to the 16th ult. 346 deaths occurred at Vera Cruz—51 of whom were from the vomito, and 295 from other diseases. 178 of the above were Americans.

ILLINOIS CONVENTION.—The proposition for an article in the constitution of the State, forever prohibiting free colored persons from settling in the State, was rejected by a vote of 80 to 55.

DELEGATE MEETINGS AND COUNTY CONVENTION.

THE Democratic Whigs of the several Townships will hold meetings, at the usual places, on Saturday, August 8th, 1847, for the purpose of electing two delegates to represent their several townships in County Convention, to be held in Huntingdon on Wednesday, the 11th day of August, 1847, to place in nomination a Ticket, to be supported at the coming election.

The Committee would urge upon the friends of truth and order, the importance of attending the primary meetings. All who love their party, its principles, its organization, and desire its success—and believe it the safeguard of our Laws and privileges, should be early in the field, and faithful and untiring in his endeavors to secure success. Neglect of a first duty will bring coldness and carelessness, in the performance of subsequent ones. Old Huntingdon has arrayed herself already among the faithful.—She must maintain her post of honor.
