

LATER FROM VERA CRUZ.

GEN. SCOTT AT PUEBLA.

PEACE COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED BY THE MEXICANS.

RICHMOND, Va., July 30.

Arrivals at New Orleans bring Vera Cruz dates to the 18th inst. General Pearce had taken his departure for Gen. Scott's headquarters, with 2500 men, encountered a Mexican force of 1400 Mexicans near the National bridge, which was defeated with a loss of 150. Gen. Pearce had returned to Vera Cruz for reinforcements.

Gen. Scott was still at Puebla, and Gens. Cadwalader and Pillow at Perote. The Mexicans had been defeated at Lahoma.

Two commissioners had been appointed by the Mexican government to confer with Mr. Trist.

Santa Anna was now believed to be favorable to peace.

Col. De Russy had been attacked by 1200 Mexicans at Huejutla, surrounded and placed in great peril. He, however, succeeded in gallantly cutting his way through the enemy, with the loss of twenty killed and ten wounded.

Despatch No. 2.

RICHMOND, July 30.

The report of the battle between Gen. Pearce and the Mexicans was founded upon a rumor spread by the passengers that arrived in the cars, and does not appear to be confirmed by the account furnished to the Picayune by the captain of the steamship Orleans. This vessel left Vera Cruz on the 14th, at which time Gen. Pearce had marched with 2500 men and 150 wagons towards Puebla.

The Orleans arrived at Tampico on the 15th, where the Captain was informed by Col. Gates that Colonel De Russy had departed up the river, with 120 men, partly Baltimoreans, in search of the prisoners released by the Mexicans, and landed 60 miles above, near Hujuetla where he was completely surrounded by twelve or fifteen hundred Mexicans; but after a desperate struggle he succeeded in cutting his way through, and returned towards the river, where he was posted, awaiting reinforcements. Col. Gates despatched the Orleans back to Vera Cruz, with a requisition upon Governor Wilson for four companies of infantry, and at the same time sent 150 men up the river to the relief of Col. De Russy.

The Orleans arrived at Vera Cruz on the 16th, and found the city in a state of great excitement. Gen. Pearce had encamped ten miles from the city; when his scouts came in and reported a large force of the Mexicans at the National Bridge, marching towards Vera Cruz.—Every thing was got ready for the expected attack, and the shipping was removed from between the city and Castle.

Gen. Pearce came in, and mustering a reinforcement of 700 men, again marched out to meet the enemy. The requisition of Colonel Gates could, therefore, not be complied with, but 25 marines were put on board, and the Orleans started for Tampico, where she arrived on the 18th, where the captain was informed that Col. De Russy's detachment had returned, and when near Hujuetla, in a narrow defile, he had been again surrounded by the Mexican force of twelve or fourteen hundred, who commenced a heavy fire in all directions, but fled through the chapparal after six or eight rounds of grape. Col. De Russy continued at intervals for several days to fight his way back to the river, where he was received by Col. Gates' reinforcements. His party reached Tampico on the night of the 16th, with a loss of twenty killed, ten wounded and two missing, as well twenty horses and sixty pack mules. Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Lannahill were killed. Several balls passed through the clothes of Colonel De Russy. Capt. Wyse had three horses shot under him.

The Mexican loss is reported at 150. Lieut. Whipple had been lassoed near Vera Cruz.

Lieut. Parker, of the Navy, died on board the steamship Mississippi on the 12th.

Captain William Duff died on the 16th.

The sun of Anahuac, of the 13th, says that a private express from Puebla had arrived, bringing intelligence that Generals Cadwalader and Pillow had arrived at Perote with the trains escorted by them. They had been attacked at Lahoma, and completely routed the enemy, with little loss to their troops. This express left Puebla on the 3d. News had been received there the day previous that three commissioners had been appointed to meet Mr. Trist at San Martin Tesmalucan on the 8th, (when he leaves Puebla,) to learn through him the terms offered by the President.

A letter from the city of Mexico, dated the 2d, says that no doubts are entertained that the treaty will immediately be concluded by the commissioners, & that the peace party is so strong that Santa Anna will probably pronounce for peace. The names of the commissioners given, are Garotise, Baronda and Ternel.

Gen. Pillow has arrived at Puebla.—An express rider from Gen. Scott at Puebla, to Vera Cruz, had been murdered after a desperate resistance. The Picayune's express rider had also been attacked and robbed of all the letters, and left for dead. The editor had received other letters, which state that peace is the order of the day, but believe that Santa Anna only wishes to gain time.

Gen. Taylor made a speech at a dinner given by the citizens of Monterey, on the 4th of July, in reply to a toast connecting his name with the Presidency of the United States.

The steamboat Ann Chase, Brown, on the Brazos, with troops, burst her boiler on the 12th, killing 9, and wounding several. James Dolen of Pittsburg, and others, had died of their wounds. The New Orleans papers of the 23d are still behind.

APPROACHING ELECTIONS.—Yesterday, being the first Monday in August, Congressional Elections were held in Kentucky, Indiana, Alabama, and Iowa; in North Carolina and Tennessee, on the Thursday following; in Maryland, October 6th; and in Mississippi and Louisiana, Monday, November 1st. The elections in these states will complete the members to the next Congress, when vacancies are all filled.

The steamship Massachusetts left N. Orleans for Vera Cruz on the 15th inst. with three hundred thousand dollars in specie for the Quartermaster's department. She took over also a company of Louisiana volunteers and one hundred and thirty men belonging to the 11th and 15th infantry.

The German Lutheran Church in Philadelphia, corner of Brown and St. John's streets was struck by lightning on Sunday afternoon last and destroyed.—The cost of the structure was $20,000, only $9,000 of which were covered by insurance. The congregation had been dismissed but fifteen minutes previous to the catastrophe, and the sexton had left the building only a moment before. Had this not been the case, a melancholy loss of life might have ensued.

DEATH OF AN OFFICER.—The Louisville papers record the death of Capt. A. R. Hetzel, U. S. A., which took place in that city on the 20th inst. He had arrived at that place but a few days previous to his death from Vera Cruz, where he had filled the office of assistant quartermaster. He was a native of Harrisburg, and a graduate of West Point.

FOUND DEAD.—On Friday last, a Mr. Shade, lock-tender at Clark's ferry, was found dead on the Clark's ferry bridge. It is supposed, that while in a state of intoxication, he climbed up to the upper part of the bridge on to some loose timbers to sleep, and while asleep rolled off. His neck was found to be dislocated, and his hat upon the timbers above.

At Lancaster on the 23d inst., Haggerty paid the penalty of the law with his life, for the murder of the Fordney family. He is said to have remained perfectly calm and composed up to the moment of execution, if not stoically indifferent to his fate.

PUGILISTIC CONTEST.—A pitched fight for $500 aside, took place on the 20th instant, about 25 miles from Wilmington, N. C. between two men from New York, one of whom is called Reid, and the other Barker. They had five rounds and toing the mark for the sixth, Reid's shoulder was found to have been fractured from a fall at the closing of the fifth round.

INSULTING COURT WITNESSES.—Among the matters presented by the Philadelphia grand jury of the July term, is that of the unrestrained abuse of witnesses by members of the bar in Court. The grand jury consider this license calculated to abridge the dignity of the court and to interfere with the proper course of justice.

HON. J. K. INGERSOLL.—This gentleman arrived at Louisville last week, en route for Lexington, to pay a visit to Mr. Clay.

DELEGATE MEETINGS

COUNTY CONVENTION.

THE Democratic Whigs of the several Townships will hold meetings, at the usual places, on Saturday, August 7th, 1847, for the purpose of electing two delegates to represent their several townships in County Convention, to be held in Huntingdon on Wednesday, the 11th day of August, 1847, to place in nomination a Ticket, to be supported at the coming election.

The Committee would urge upon the friends of truth and order, the importance of attending the primary meetings. All who love their party, its principles, its organization, and desire its success—and believe it the safeguard of our Laws and privileges, should be early in the field, and faithful and untiring in his endeavors to secure success. Neglect of a first duty will bring coldness and carelessness, in the performance of subsequent ones. Old Huntingdon has arrayed herself already among the faithful.—She must maintain her post of honor.
