37 It is now admitted by Pathologists, that two riginal temperament, complexion, constitution, or forms of body, confers complete immunity from Hereditary diseases; that scroula, consumption and other affections having a similarity of origin occur in all: although observation convinces us, that individuals and families, possessing certain characteristics are more frequently the subject of these miladies than others. These diseases are a morbid conducts being but the effects of an alteration of the Blood and secretions,—the vicers, abuses, enlarged glauds, inflamations, c., being merely attendant, phenomena. The cause exists prior to the phenomena, and must be destroyed before perfect health can be established. This may be done by Dr. Keller's Vegetable Panseca, the most certain remedy for all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood and system of nutrition, ever presented to the notice of the afflicted.

MILFORD, Perry co., Pa., Oct. 1, 1846.

Messrs. Robinson, Collins & Co:—Sirs: This is to inform you that I was afflicted for 20 years with a violent pain in my breast, so much so that I could hardly lay in bed at night. Cough attended, followed by emaciation and other decided symptoms of consumption. I applied to several eminent physicians, and took a great deal of medicine without any relief whatever. I was advised to try Dr. Davis's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry and Tar, of which I took two bottles, which entirely relieved me of my complaint; therefore I can with confidence recommend at to all who are in a like menner afflicted, as a most valuely Medicine.
