

LATER FROM MEXICO.

Gen. Scott on the Advance—Order of March—Arrival of Gen. Pierce at Puebla—Escape of Major Gaines and Midshipman Rodgers—Skirmishes with Guerrillas.

By telegraphic despatch from Richmond, the Evening Bulletin has received intelligence from New Orleans to the 20th inst. The steamer Galveston arrived at New Orleans from Vera Cruz on the preceding day. She left Vera Cruz on the 12th inst., touching at Tampico on the 14th, and Brazos on the 15th.—Her news is both interesting and important, and comes so direct, that its authenticity cannot be questioned.

Gen. Pierce with his command of 3000 men, reached Puebla on the 6th.—During the whole of his march from Vera Cruz he was harassed by the guerrillas; but so judicious were his arrangements, and so prompt was he anticipating and repelling the attacks of these roving banditti, that he did not lose any of his men, or a single article belonging to his train. He was warmly welcomed by Gen. Scott.

The soldierly appearance of Gen. Pierce's command, when entering Puebla, is much commended by Kendall in his letters.

As soon as a junction was formed with Gen. Pierce, not a moment was lost by Gen. Scott to put his army in motion for an advance movement on the capital. On the same day, the 6th, (this is the last advice which the Galveston brings.) Gen. Scott issued the following orders:—

Gen. Twigg's division, forming the advance of the army, to leave Puebla on the 7th—the following day. General Quitman's division on the 8th; General Worth's division on the 9th; and General Pillow's division on the 10th. It is currently reported that Gen. Scott would leave Puebla with the advance on the 7th.

General Pierce will remain in command at Puebla, although one statement has it that Col. Childs is assigned to that duty.

Mention is made in one of Mr. Kendall's letters, of the death of Lieutenant Hill, of the 2d dragons, and of Dr. Hamner, of the South Carolina regiment.

Major J. P. Gaines and Mid. Rogers, so long confined in the city of Mexico, succeeded in effecting their escape, and reached Gen. Worth's quarters, at Puebla, on the 4th. They report that preparations, on an extensive scale, were making to place the capital in a proper state of defence, although the Mexicans did not intend to await the attack of Gen. Scott. Santa Anna had left, or was on the eve of leaving the capital, at the head of a large and well appointed army, for the purpose of again measuring swords with the American General. His men were in excellent spirits, and so strong in numbers and confidence that they felt sanguine of success. Santa Anna's force is variously estimated from fifteen to twenty thousand men. It is not likely that he has more than fifteen thousand men with him. The anticipated battle, it is thought, would be fought some eight or ten miles this side of the capital.

The train which left Vera Cruz on the 6th, under the command of Major Lally, of the 9th infantry, has been constantly harassed by the guerrillas in his march into the interior. Lieut. Col. Wilson was to have commanded, but is down with the yellow fever.

The Sun of Anahuac, of the 12th, has some interesting reports from the army train. Near the National Bridge, Major Lally's train had a severe brush with the guerrillas. Captains Baldwin and Caldwell, of the Voltiguers, were wounded, and so was also Capt. Cummings. Twenty-five Mexicans were reported as among the killed, and eight Americans. Major Lally had sent to Vera Cruz for reinforcements, as a hard fight was expected at the National Bridge. Major L. had also a skirmish with the guerrillas at the ruined village of Santa Fe. The loss was trifling on both sides.

The Vera Cruz correspondents of the New Orleans Delta, under date of the 12th, say that several merchants of that city had received letters from Puebla, positively announcing that Gen. Scott would leave Puebla on the 7th inst.—The correspondents of the Picayune say that he would not leave until the following day—the 8th—with General Quitman's division.

Great credit is given to Captain Luff, of the Rifles, for his conduct in several engagements with the guerrillas, who were repulsed several different times.

The Sun of Anahuac, of the 11th, says the Secretary of the Spanish Legation arrived at Vera Cruz and resigned. Also gives rumors that a messenger, guarded by two hundred Mexican cavalry, had arrived at Puebla with despatches to General Scott from the capital. The health of Vera Cruz is improving.

Nothing later or more definite heard from Gen. Taylor's camp.

The New Orleans Times has a report of Santa Anna having positively left the Capital and marching on Puebla, with fifteen thousand men and fifteen pieces of cannon. This confirms Maj. Gaines' statement.

The Mount Savage Iron Works are to be sold under execution, on the 7th of October next, at the suit of English bond-holders and others.

HENRY CLAY AT CAPE MAY.

On Thursday, 19th inst., a committee of gentlemen from New York and New Haven arrived at Cape May for the purpose of inviting HENRY CLAY to visit their respective cities. Deputations were also there from Philadelphia and Trenton for the same purpose. On the part of the committees, Mr. Dean of New York, addressed Mr. Clay, setting forth the purpose of their visit, in a truly eloquent speech, to which he replied as follows:

He commenced by alluding to the presence of other committees, on similar errands to the one from New York—especially from Philadelphia, Trenton and New Haven—and then continued:

Fellow Citizens—The eloquent address which has just been delivered, has had the effect almost to induce me to adopt the language which was used on a more solemn occasion, "Thou almost persuadest me" to go to New York. But in all that uprightness of my nature which I have endeavored to practise, I must tell you the objects and motives which have brought me to the shores of the Atlantic. I returned to my residence, after passing the winter at New Orleans, on the 23d or 24th of March last, and a day or two afterward melancholy intelligence came to me. I have been nervous ever since, and was induced to take this journey, for I could not look upon the partner of my sorrows without experiencing deeper anguish.

[Mr. Clay was here completely overcome by his feelings, covered his face with his hands and was silent for several minutes. At length with an effort he recovered himself and resumed.]

Every thing about Ashland was associated with the memory of the lost one; the very trees which his hands assisted me to plant, served to remind me of his loss. Had the stroke come alone, I could have borne it, with His assistance, and sustained by the kindness of my friends and fellow citizens, with meekness and resignation. But of eleven children four only remain. Of six lovely and affectionate daughters not one is left. Finding myself in a theatre of sadness, I thought I would fly to the mountain top, and descend to the ocean wave, and by meeting with the sympathy of friends, obtain some relief to the sadness which encompassed me. I came for private purposes, and from private motives alone. I have not desired these public manifestations, but have rather desired to escape from them. My friend and traveling companion, Dr. Mercer, will tell you, that in Virginia, in every section of the State of my birth, I have been implored to remain, if only for a few hours, to exchange congratulations with my friends, but I invariably refused and only remained in each place sufficiently long to exchange one vehicle for another. You may imagine that I made a visit to Philadelphia.—When I arrived in Baltimore, I learned that the most direct route to this place, was by the Delaware. I had no public object in view in taking that route, and yet indifferent I am not nor cannot be to these manifestations of popular regard nor to anything which connects me with the honor welfare and glory of my country.

Gentlemen of the Committee of New York: I have truly and sincerely disclosed the purpose of the journey, but I cannot but deeply feel this manifestation of your respect and regard. It is received with thankfulness, and excites the warmest feelings of my heart, that I, a private and humble citizen, without an army, without a navy, without even a constable's staff, should have been met at every step of my progress with the kindest manifestation of feelings—feelings of which a President, a Monarch, or an Emperor might well be proud.

No—I am not insensible to these tokens of public affection and regard. I am thankful for them all. To you, gentlemen of the Committee of New York, who, in behalf of the 400,000 individuals whom you represent, have taken so much trouble, I am deeply thankful for this manifestation of your regard, but I must reluctantly decline the honor of your invitation. And you gentlemen of the other committees, to your fellow citizens of Trenton, New Haven and Philadelphia, I must beg of you to excuse me, and trust to their affection to do so, for if I do not place myself on the affection of my countrymen, whither should I go, and where should I be?—on the wide ocean without a compass and without a guide?

I must beg of you, gentlemen of all these committees to retrace your steps, charged and surcharged with my warmest feelings of gratitude—go back charged with warmest thanks from me, and tell my friends that nothing but the circumstances in which I am placed, nothing for we may as well mingle a laugh with our tears, and borrow the words of the Irish Ambassador, "situated as I am, and circumstanced as I am"—prevents the honor of meeting you.—Tell them—and I hope that general response will be considered as a specific answer to each of the Committees—that you are charged with the expression of the best feelings of my heart.—And you gentlemen of New York, be assured that among the recollections of this journey this visit will be paramount, and the circumstances which led to it.

He concluded by alluding to the presence of other committees, on similar errands to the one from New York—especially from Philadelphia, Trenton and New Haven—and then continued:

Fellow Citizens—The eloquent address which has just been delivered, has had the effect almost to induce me to adopt the language which was used on a more solemn occasion, "Thou almost persuadest me" to go to New York. But in all that uprightness of my nature which I have endeavored to practise, I must tell you the objects and motives which have brought me to the shores of the Atlantic. I returned to my residence, after passing the winter at New Orleans, on the 23d or 24th of March last, and a day or two afterward melancholy intelligence came to me. I have been nervous ever since, and was induced to take this journey, for I could not look upon the partner of my sorrows without experiencing deeper anguish.

DAD BREATH, A DISAGREEABLE TASTE IN THE MOUTH, and other unpleasant symptoms, are the result of indigestion. When the food, instead of being properly dissolved, remains in the stomach until it becomes in a manner putrid, a deleterious fluid, called Septic Acid, is generated, which, mixing with the fluid of the mouth, is certain not only to give a bad breath, but is also the true cause of wasting of the gums, a deposit of tartar, and decayed teeth.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of all bilious and putrid humors, and purify the blood, they also restore the digestive organs to a healthy tone; and are therefore certain to remove a bad breath, and prevent a premature decay of the teeth.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits.—The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Porgery. The genuine for sale by BRICK! BRICK!!

THE subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that he continues to manufacture, in the borough of Petersburg, the very best quality of BRICK, which he will dispose of on the most reasonable terms. All orders will be filled at the shortest notice. Those wanting the article for building, paving or any other purpose, would do well to give me call. ABRAHAM STEVENS. Petersburg, Aug. 31, 1847.

SADDLE, HARNESS AND TRUNK MANUFACTORY.

Frederick Krell, RESPECTFULLY returns thanks to his friends and the public for past favors, and takes this opportunity to inform them that he still continues at the old stand, one door east of Carmon's Tavern, and nearly opposite the Post Office, where he is at all times prepared to manufacture all kinds of Harness, Saddles, Trunks, Mattresses, Sofas, Cushions, etc., at the shortest notice and most reasonable prices. All kinds of hides and skins, and country produce, for which the highest market prices will be allowed, taken in exchange. Huntingdon, Aug. 31, 1847.

GREAT ATTRACTION!!

Welch's National Circus!! From the Olympian Amphitheatre, PHILADELPHIA.

THIS splendid equestrian company composed entirely of STAR PERFORMERS, will exhibit under their splendid Water Proof Pavilion, commodiously furnished for the comfortable reception of 3000 persons at HUNTINGDON, Friday, Sep. 24, 1846—AFTERNOON AND EVENING: Admission—25 cents.

Independent of Willis's celebrated Brass Band, the company will be saluted, on their arrival, by Mr. Wallace's String band, playing airs from the most popular operas.

In the evening the pavilion will be illuminated by the patent sythe Gas, invented by B. F. Caston, Esq., of the United States Navy Department, Washington. It is an entirely new method, giving a superior light; free from all nauseous effluvia, the fault of all other attempts, and casting a light scarcely less brilliant than the moonday sun. Consulting this company will be found Mr. J. G. Caldwell, who will ride his much admired acts of the "Russian Envoy," the "Terrors of a Sorcerer of Siam," and the beautiful episode of the "Sprite and his lost wing," on 2, 3, and 4 horses. Madame Louisa Howard, the great NATIVE FEMALE EQUESTRIAN, whose admirable performances, on a single horse charm and delight all who behold her, justifying public opinion in awarding to her the high position she has so successfully held amidst a host of rival stars.

Clown—Dan Rice, the "mirth provoking Dan," whose infinite JEST and FUN, unstained by rudeness and vulgarity, places him far beyond the reach of IMITATION. Mr. Horace Nichols, the Prince of Ring Masters.

The Rivers' Family, whose union of talent, is without a parallel in the world. Charles Rivers, the most finished artist in his arrangement and execution of scenes and gymnastic games. Frederick Rivers presents every kind of Foreign act, that can surprise by novelty, and Master Richard Rivers, (the "imitable"), will perform his act on a single horse, as performed before the President and Senators of the United States, and by all present declared the most perfect union of WONDER AND GRACE the world ever knew.

Master T. Neville, who has acquired the rare art of riding, and executing the most difficult feats backwards, on a single horse.

Mr. Wm. Stout will ride his fine classic acts, on 2, 3 and 4 horses, forming a pyramid of five persons, whom he will bear above his horses at lightning speed.

Signior Germani, the mighty Italian equestrian will ride his incredible neronianic scenes, introducing "Les batons du diable," and his Golden Pelicans, &c. &c. He will also bring forward his two wonderful dogs, whose feats are without equal in the Arena.

Mr. W. Howard, the Spanish scenic rider, and great representative of the Red Man of the Forest. Mr. Charles Foster, who rides a great dramatic scene, and a Grand Military act, entitled HONOR TO OUR HEROES.

Or All for our Country, in which by the aid of correct costume, he will represent the Chief Patriarch praying for his country, GEN ZACK TAYLOR, at Monterey, HIRAM STIFFER, a yankee volunteer. Santa Anna the commander of Mexico, concluding with the SOLDIER OF FREEDOM, bearing the memorable resolve—"GEN. TAYLOR NEVER SURRENDERS."

Mons. Deruis, of the "Cirque Glymptique," will introduce the Arabian Dancing Mare, "HAIDER," whose beautiful dances far surpass anything of the kind ever yet brought before the public. Also the comic ponies, Romeo and Juliet, will, by their comic dexter scenes, leaps and counterleaps, prove their instinctive heat for dexterity.

Parents and guardians may with confidence bring their families as under the watchful care of the Proprietor, nothing approaching a shade of vulgarity can find its way through the choice representations of the Arena.

The afternoon and evening performances entirely varied. Aug 31-1847.

French Burr Mill Stones.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the trade, and all concerned, that he still continues the manufacture of French Burrs, of all sizes; warranted equal in quality and workmanship to any that can be made in America. If desired he will deliver Burrs at his own risk, at any point on the Railroad or Canals.

All orders addressed to him by mail, will receive the same prompt attention as if application were made in person. W. M. H. KEPNER. Harrisburg, Aug. 28, 1847-3m.

The Hollidaysburg Register will insert the above three months, and charge this office.

DR. LE ROY'S

Vegetable Universal Pills, The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system.

London, July 7, 1846.

DR. LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the places of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these pills are at the same time tonic and opening; a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operations of this most excellent of medicines, which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.

Price 25 Cents per BOX.

STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY.

HUNT'S LINIMENT.

HAS now given abundant evidence of its healing powers, and proved itself the most extraordinary and wonderful medicine in the world.—In the short space of two years, it has acquired a reputation for curing disease and relieving pain far greater than any medicine ever discovered. Its wonderful cures have astonished the Medical Faculty, who now universally concede its great value. They speak of it in the highest terms, and commend its use.

It is commended by none. On the contrary, its praise is universal. The cases of cures are so numerous that it would take volumes to recount them; and it is a fixed fact, and is not disputed, that as a Pain Extractor it has no equal. For the many astonishing cures, see the pamphlet, to be had of each agent. If you suffer with either of the diseases for which it is recommended, resort at once to its use and be cured. For the following diseases it is an infallible remedy: Spinal affections, Rheumatism, Paralysis and all Nervous affections, Salt Rheum, Croup or Hives, Ague in the Breast and Face, Weakness of the Joints, Colds, Toothache, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Ulcerated Sores, Indolent Ulcers, Burns, Frosted Feet, Corns, Bunyons, Fresh Wounds, Swellings and Bruises, Scrofulous Affections, Musquito Bites, and Poisons.

This Liniment is sold by all the respectable Merchants and Druggists throughout the country, and by the Proprietors at Sing Sing, N. Y. GEORGE E. STANTON.

HANCE'S Compound Syrup of Horehound, for the cure of coughs, colds, consumption, spitting of blood, pain in the side and breast, bronchitis, croup, and all diseases arising from a disordered condition of the lungs or neglected cold. The following sonnet was addressed to the proprietor by a young lady who was cured of Consumption: Ho! ye who pant with failing breath, And pine away and die; Hance shall "put away" your death, And light anew your eye. How sweet it melts upon the tongue, How grateful to the breast! A glorious theme for poet's song, Soothing his cough to rest. Hance! favored of the God's, art thou, A blessing to thy race, Let laurels flourish on thy brow, And wealth those laurels grace. When heroes are forgotten; kings Defunct; or, ceased to rain; Glory, for thee, shall flap her wings, Thou conquerer of pain. Price 50 cts. per bottle, or 6 bottles for $2 50. Prepared and sold by Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore st., and corner Charles and Pratt sts. [nov18-y
