

POLITICAL.

[From the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GEN. JAMES IRVIN.

BY ERASTUS BROOKS.

We remember General Irvin as a member of the memorable Sessions of Congress of 1841-'42. Of this Congress there were three Sessions, and each remarkable for the importance of the subjects discussed, and the excitement attending the discussions. The Abolition storm raged, and memorials were literally poured into Congress from all the free States, remonstrating against the odious rule of the majority, practically declaring that men might not even pray for the redress of what they regarded, and what, no doubt, is a public grievance. The Compromise Act, which, ten years before, had been born of the Nullification excitement, was only passing through the last stages of its legal existence. The whole country, too, was Bankrupt. The vices and follies of previous years had stamped misery and misfortune upon the face of the people. The country had been reveling in speculation, until her dissipations made Men, Corporations, and State rock, as it were, like a ship upon the billows.

Never had a Congress met under greater excitement—never, indeed, in time of peace, did party passions run so high. The so-called "Democratic party," had been so long in power, that they seemed to regard the country as theirs, by a sort of proscriptive right. They had ruled, and they had ruined, and by virtue of long precedent and bad example, they claimed the right to rule on, and ruin more. It was two weeks or more, under the resistance of the will of the majority by the minority, before the popular branch could be organized. Day after day Congress met—day after day, preliminary questions were discussed, but in all, through all, the Demon of Discord stalked abroad, and threatened something worse than the rising and subduing of stormy passions.

The French Assembly of Paris during the Revolution, when the Jacobins and the Constitutionalists were battling together, was no more the scene of strife than occasionally our own legislative chambers. Some there were who had been elected as Whigs, not being chosen to reign, were determined to rule without a choice, and the prevalence of that sin "by which the angels fell," had complete mastery over such men as Henry A. Wise and a few of his compeers. They could not rule and they would not serve.

It was in such an assembly as this, made up of the factious opposition and a few discordant spirits, together with an able and powerful body of Whigs, that Mr. Irvin was introduced into the House of Representatives. I remember well his courteous demeanor, his constant attendance and the general respect manifested for him, both by his colleagues and his associate members. He was there not altogether unheralded by fame, since the people who sent him to represent them had done so, alike from personal respect and undoubted confidence in the ability and honesty of the man of their choice. He had beaten in fair fight the strongest man of the opposition and that in a district which for many years had been signalized by its devotion to men and opinions not at all in harmony with their present choice. His own immediate constituents had always voted for him with increased favor, than that of men of kindred opinions associated and his own numerical support was always more with him. Where Gov. Porter received a majority of 1147 in 1841, Gen. Irvin received a majority of 342 in 1843. Never was favor and confidence more worthily bestowed than in the person of the Whig candidate for Governor. In Congress, he was devoted to his constituents and State, and though not one of those garrulous members whose feet and tongue more nearly illustrate perpetual motion than any thing else ever invented, or likely to be discovered, yet he ever had a word in season when a reasonable word was necessary in defence of the right. Nor was he as some have said amongst that class of men whom the poet paints as "reputed wise for saying nothing," though in Congress no members are more serviceable or more intelligent than those who are rather heard by their votes than their speeches.

We remember a speech of Mr. Irvin in behalf of the Tariff of 1842, and eminently is this gentleman and the whole Whig Party identified with this wise and patriotic law.—We commend the speech to those who would see the mutual dependence between labor and capital, and the advantages of the protective policy to the working man. It is indeed a speech for every Pennsylvanian to read, since it strikingly illustrates the benefit of Protection to a State like this, and is a truthful and eloquent exposition of the affairs of the State.

We look upon Gen. Irvin as happily illustrating the Republican character and power of our free institutions. He is a Pennsylvanian all over, born some forty-seven years since in Penn's Valley, in Centre county.—Whig Revolutionary blood runs in his veins—his maternal grandfather being one of the Revolutionary Whigs of Lancaster. His father was born in Ireland, and settled in the Valley in 1792. His poor and honest parents appreciated the advantages of education and gave him all that a country school afforded. Small were such benefits, except to a mind resolved upon advancement. Self-taught many are best taught, because they feel that Knowledge is Power. Even at thirteen these small advantages of a country school was denied him, and he was called home to serve his father in the varied occupations of a busy life. Parental affection and confidence he enjoyed largely, and contributed much to the happiness of a home every day becoming more blessed by his care and presence. Here were his triumphs, and here he won honors to be envied. His studies were in the workshop and his college among the utensils of a country store. He studied men more than books, and learned from the great book of Nature when the schoolroom was debarred his presence. Good habits, great industry, and a knowledge of business have made him a rich man, but neither parsimony on the one hand, nor extravagance on the other, ever controlled his conduct. He is kind as a neighbor, liberal as a friend, just as a citizen, and in all the relations of life a true gentleman and an honorable man. His Aristocracy, if he has any, is that of Merit and not of gold and silver. Poverty was his inheritance and riches the mere incident of continued labor. We admire the man and commend his life and example to those who, by a course of manly conduct, are ambitious to be of service to the State and country.

THE ISSUE.—The letter of Mr. Buchanan, the Loco Focos of Berks county, establishes one important point. Those who vote for Mr. Shunk vote for Mr. Polk and for the extension of slavery in the territory to be acquired by the present war. Every issue connected with the present Administration is an issue now in Pennsylvania. Our citizens must determine whether they approve the imperial power of the President to commence a war without the sanction of Congress—the creation of a debt that will mortgage every farm in the State and overspread Pennsylvania with an army of tax oppressors—and the expenditure of five hundred millions for the fetters that are to make our fellow creatures slaves. These are the issues presented by Mr. Buchanan. And upon this issue he says:

"The field is a fair one; our candidate well tried, able and honest; and he has been regularly nominated by the party. Should he be defeated, the attempt will be vain to explain the decision of the ballot-boxes, in any other manner than by admitting that the Whigs have the majority."

It will be seen that the Secretary accedes to our party its olden and honored title of Whig, thus rebuking the efforts of the Union to degrade him, Woodbury, Cass, and others by the reproach of Federalism. We do not hesitate to acknowledge the truth of Mr. Buchanan's views of the issue. Like the last political contest in this State, it will establish that, in Pennsylvania, "the Whigs have the majority."—North American.

Tolls on the Public Works.
From the annexed statement of tolls received on the lines of Canal and Railroads of the Commonwealth, during the present year, it will be seen that our public improvements are in a more prosperous condition and yield a larger revenue to the State than they have done at any former time:

Tolls received on the Public Works of the Commonwealth for 1847, up to Sept. 1, 1847.

In August 1847, $191,739 11
In August 1846, 136,313 20

Increase in August 1847, $55,425 91

Total amount rec'd from Dec. 1, 1846, to Sept. 1, 1847, $1,211,373 09

Same period last year, 847,201 58

Increase in 1847, $364,171 51

The above statement shows an increase in the revenue already over that of last year, of three hundred and sixty-four thousand one hundred and seventy-one dollars and fifty-one cents! The net revenue this year will reach, if not exceed, ONE MILLION OF DOLLARS—a sum nearly double that of former years.—That this improvement in the condition of our public works is mainly attributable to the agency of JAS. M. POWER, Esq., the faithful and efficient WHIG CANAL COMMISSIONER, is too evident to admit of a doubt. The people now see the beneficial effects of WHIG POLICY and Whig management and economy—the interest of the public debt paid off, and the credit of the State redeemed—the public works enhanced in value and yielding a larger revenue than they have ever before done—and all this owing to the wisdom of the people themselves in electing an honest Whig Canal Commissioner, whose faithful guardianship of the public interests the candid of all parties acknowledge. Elect another Whig to assist Mr. Power, and the work of Reform will be still more successfully prosecuted.—Pa. Intelligencer.

Sheriffship.
FELLOW CITIZENS:—Being encouraged by a number of my Whig and Anti-masonic friends in different parts of the County, I take this medium to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, at the ensuing general election, and respectfully solicit your support.

GREAT ATTRACTION!!

Welch's National Circus!!

From the Olympian Amphitheatre, PHILADELPHIA.

THIS splendid equestrian company composed entirely of STAR PERFORMERS, will exhibit under their splendid Water Proof Pavilion, commodiously furnished for the comfortable reception of 3000 persons at HUNTINGDON, Friday, Sep. 24, 1846—AFTERNOON AND EVENING: Admission—25 cents.

Independent of Willis's celebrated Brass Band, the company will be saluted, on their arrival, by Mr. Wallace's String Band, playing airs from the most popular operas.

In the evening the pavilion will be illuminated by the patent Sybian Gas, invented by B. F. Caston, Esq., of the United States Navy Department, Washington. It is an entirely new method, giving a superior light; free from all noxious effluvia, the fault of all other attempts, and casting a light scarcely less brilliant than the noonday sun.

Constituting this company will be found Mr. J. G. Cadwallader, who will ride his much admired acts, "the Russian Envoy," the "Terrors of a Sorcerer of Siam," and the beautiful episode of the "Sprite and his lost wing," on 2, 3, and 4 horses.

Madame Louisa Howard, the great NATIVE FEMALE EQUESTRIAN, whose admirable personations, on a single horse charm and delight all who behold her, justifying public opinion in awarding to her the high position she has so successfully held amidst a host of rival stars.

Clown—Dan Rice, the "with provoking Dan," whose infinite JEST and FUN, unstained by rudeness and vulgarity, places him far beyond the reach of IMITATION.

Mr. Horace Nichols, the Prince of Ring Masters.

The Rivers' Family, whose union of talent, is without a parallel in the world. Charles Rivers, the most finished artist in his arrangement and execution of scenes and gymnastic groups. Frederick Rivers presents every kind of Foreign act, that can surprise by novelty, and Master Richard Rivers, (the "minuteman") will perform his act on a single horse, as performed before the President and Senators of the United States, and by all present declared the most perfect union of WONDER AND GRACE the world ever knew.

Master T. Neville, who has acquired the rare art of riding, and executing the most difficult feats backwards, on a single horse.

Mr. Wm. Stout will ride his fine classic acts, on 2, 3 and 4 horses, forming a pyramid of five persons, whom he will bear above his horses at lightning speed.

Signior Germani, the mighty Italian equestrian will ride his incredible nicronianic scenes, introducing, "Les batons du diable," and his Golden Peletons, &c., &c. He will also bring forward his two wonderful dogs, whose feats are without equal in the Arena.

Mr. W. Howard, the Spanish scenic rider, and great representative of the Red Man of the Forest.

Mr. Charles Foster, who rides a great dramatic scene, and a Grand Military act, entitled HONOR TO OUR HEROES.

Or All for our Country, in which by the aid of correct costume, he will represent the Chief Patriarch praying for his country, GEN ZACK TAYLOR, at Monterey, HIRAM STRIEF, a yankee volunteer, Santa Anna the commander of Mexico, concluding with the SOLDIER OF FREEDOM, bearing the memorable resolve—"GEN. TAYLOR NEVER SURRENDERS."

Mons. Derius, of the "Cirque Glympey," will introduce the Arabian Dancing Mare, "HAIBER," whose beautiful dances far surpass anything of the kind ever yet brought before the public. Also the comic ponies, Ronnet and Juliet, will, by their comic dance scenes, leaps and counterleaps, prove their instinctive bent for drollery.

Parents and guardians may with confidence bring their families, as under the watchful care of the Proprietor, nothing approaching a shade of vulgarity can find its way through the choice repertories of the Arena.

The afternoon and evening performances entirely varied.

DR. LE ROY'S

Vegetable Universal Pills,

The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system.

Logans, July 7, 1846.

DR. LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the place of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus those pills are at the same time tonic and aperient; a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending, the operations of this most excellent of medicines, which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.

Important to Stove Dealers.

The attention of Stove Dealers in this place is invited to our assortment of Cooking, Parlor, Hall and office Stoves, and especially to Atwood's Empire Hot Air Cooking Stove,

As the best cooking apparatus ever invented, it having obtained a celebrity, wherever it has been introduced, never before attained by any Cooking Stove. The operation of baking being performed in this stove by hot Air, instead of heat radiated from the oven plates, renders it equal for baking to a Brick Oven, or to the Tin oven for roasting; making it unnecessary to turn or change the article while cooking, and removing all liability to burn. We are desirous to have the Stove introduced in this market, and to
