

GEN. SCOTT'S DESPACHES.

The official despatches from Gen. Scott, giving an account of the operations of the army under his command, have been received at Washington and published. They are very voluminous. These despatches show, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, that at Contreras the United States force did not number 4,000 rank and file, while the Mexicans had on the spot 7,000 men with at least 12,000 more hovering within sight and at striking distance. The enemy had 700 killed, 813 taken prisoners—among them 88 officers and 4 generals. They also lost many colors and standards, 22 pieces of brass ordnance, thousands of small arms, 700 pack mules, many horses, &c. Our loss in killed and wounded did not exceed on the spot 60 men. At Churubusco, the battle was long, hot, and varied, and the American troops were led by General Shields, who took 380 prisoners, including officers, and completely overwhelmed the enemy. Gen. Scott says that in a single day the American troops defeated in various battles about 32,000 men, made about 3,000 prisoners, including 8 generals, two of them Ex-Presidents, and 205 other officers. The killed and wounded Mexicans amounted to 4,000 of all ranks, while entire corps were dispersed and dissolved. They lost 37 pieces of ordnance, more than trebling our siege train batteries, with a large number of small arms, and a full supply of ammunition of every kind. Our loss amounted to 1053—killed 139, including 16 officers; wounded 876, with 60 officers. Gen. Scott states that after so many victories he might but with little additional loss have occupied the capital the same evening. But Mr. Trist as well as himself, had been admonished by the best friends of peace against precipitation, lest by wantonly driving away the Government and others, dishonored, they might indefinitely postpone the hope of accommodation—and remembering also that the mission of our troops was to conquer a peace, they were halted at the gates of the city. The armistice then ensued, and with results already known to the public. Gen. Scott speaks in warm but liberal terms of praise, not only of the distinguished leaders of the army, but of the rank and file.

The despatch of Gen. Scott, dated Sept. 18, details the storming of Chapultepec, and the capture and occupation of the city. We subjoin the closing part of this despatch, one paragraph of which we opine will not be well relished by the Washington Union and sundry other partisan journals, which, in order to screen the Administration from merited censure, have frequently attempted to blind the public to the disproportionately small forces with which our Generals have, on almost every occasion, had to meet the enemy:

"This army has been more disgusted than surprised that, by some sinister process on the part of certain individuals at home, its numbers have been, generally, almost trebled in our public papers—beginning at Washington.

Leaving, as we all feared, inadequate garrisons at Vera Cruz, Perote, and Puebla—with much larger hospitals; and being obliged, most reluctantly, from the same cause (general paucity of numbers) to abandon Jalapa, we marched (August 7-10) from Puebla with only 10,738 rank and file. This number includes the garrison of Jalapa, and the 2,429 men brought up by Brigadier General Pierce, August 6.

At Contreras, Churubusco, &c., (Aug. 20,) we had but 8,497 men engaged—after deducting the garrison of San Augustin, (our general depot,) the intermeddling sick and the dead. At the Molinos del Rey (September 8) but three brigades, with some cavalry and artillery—making in all 3,251 men—were in the battle. In the two days—Sept. 12 and 13—our whole operating force, after deducting again, the recent killed, wounded, and sick, together with the garrison of Misococ (the then general depot) and that of Tacubaya, was but 7,180; and, finally, after deducting the new garrison of Chapultepec, with the killed and wounded of the two days, we took possession (Sept. 14) of this great capital with less than 6,000 men! And I reassert, upon accumulated and unquestionable evidence, that in not one of these conflicts, was this army opposed by fewer than three and a half times its number—in several of them, by a yet greater excess.

I recapitulate our losses since we arrived at the basin of Mexico.

AUGUST 19, 20.—Killed, 137, including 13 officers. Missing, (probably killed) 8 rank and file. Total, 1,052.

SEPTEMBER 8.—Killed, 116, including officers. Wounded, 665, including 9 officers. Missing, 18 rank and file. Total, 789.

SEPTEMBER 12, 13, 14.—Killed, 130, including 10 officers. Wounded, 703, including 68 officers. Missing, 29 rank and file. Total, 862.

Grand total of losses, 2703, including 383 officers.

On the other hand, this small force has beaten on the same occasions, in view of their capital, the whole Mexican army, of (at the beginning) thirty odd thousand men—posted, always, in chosen positions, behind entrenchments, or more formidable defences of nature and art; killed or wounded of that number, more than 7,000 officers and men; taken 3,730 prisoners, one-seventh officers, including 13 generals, of whom three had been Presidents of this republic; captured more than 20 colors and standards, 75 pieces of ordnance, besides 57 wall pieces, 20,000 small arms an immense quantity of shots, shells, powder, &c., &c.

Of that enemy, once so formidable in numbers, appointments, artillery, &c., twenty odd thousand have disbanded themselves in despair, leaving, as is known, not more than three fragments—the largest about 2,500—now wandering in different directions, without magazines or a military chest, and living at free quarters upon their own people."

Gen. Scott's last letter to the Department is dated Oct. 22d, and encloses official reports of the gallant defence of Puebla, by Col. Childs, against the assault of Santa Anna, and the affair at Huamantla, in which Capt. Walker was killed. The following paragraph indicates the future operations of General Scott:

"After establishing the new posts as indicated in my circular letter of instructions, (of October,) I hope to have the means of occupying Atlixco, some eighteen miles from Puebla, and Toluca, the State capital of Mexico, forty miles hence, and perhaps Orizaba; but probably shall not attempt any more distant expedition without further reinforcements, or until I shall have received the views of the department on the plans submitted in my report."

The last reports in the newspapers are, that the General has taken the three places indicated above.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

[Telegraphic Despatches for the North American.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11

By the arrival of the steamer James L. Day at this port, the Picayune has received dates from Vera Cruz to the 6th inst.

Lieut. SEARS, a bearer of Despatches from General Scott, came passenger in the Day. He arrived at Vera Cruz from the Capital under the escort of a Spy Company employed by the General-in-Chief, which will, it is expected, prove of great use in keeping the communication open.

General LANE was still in possession of Puebla and quartered in the heart of the city. His garrison there is to consist of 2000 men.

The Battalion of the 1st Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, heretofore stationed there, had been ordered to escort a detachment of 750 men a part of the way to the National Bridge, which place the latter are to fortify and garrison.—This will form a depot, and also prove an efficient check to the offensive movements of the guerillas.

Gen. CUSHING with a command of 1200 men is to remain in garrison at Jalapa. It is thus seen that Gen. Scott with the greatest foresight is preparing to hold all the strong points now in our possession and thoroughly establish his line of communication between the capital and seaboard.

On the 26th ult. Santa Anna was at Tehuacan. This, if true, puts at rest the former reports of his movements and escape.

The old feud between the celebrated guerilla leaders Father Jarauta and Zenobia has broken out afresh and the men under their respective commands have caught the savage character of their leaders. An emeute occurred between them, which was very sanguinary. The Jarauta party finally proved victorious, leaving thirty of their opponents killed upon the spot. The "field of Mars" seems more pleasing to the Padre than the "monkish cow," which we were recently told he had again taken up.

Lieut. SCOTT of the Army, who was bearing despatches to Washington, died of apoplexy, on his route from the Capital to Vera Cruz, when near the latter city.

The body of the gallant and lamented Capt. WALKER has been recovered. It was found after having remained unburied for two days.

The Picayune publishes a list of the killed and wounded during the siege of Puebla.

KILLED.—First Pennsylvania Regiment.—Earick, John Price, E. H. Jones, Jno. H. Gilchrist, John Herrod, F. B. Johns, H. Kraizolman, James Phillips, Wm. A. Phillips, S. D. Sewell, William Smith, D. S. Berney, A. Vandycke, Jos. Wilson, Samuel Troger.

WOUNDED.—Same Regiment.—George Rusheberger, James McCutcheon, John Hoover, David Lindsey, Henry Lynch, Mansfield Mason, James Bowden, R. Wilson, Jno Dowlan, Charles Coltanan, John B. Herron, D. W. Farlott, James Ellis, Dominic De Vandy, Luke Floy.

MISSING.—Capt. John Herron, Thos.

B. Furnman, S. E. Marshall, W. C. Mimbiddle, R. Reed, Sylvester, Bosyle, John McClellan, James Lambert, John Longstaff; M. Stemmar, Dr. Bunting's Hospital Surgeon, Wm. Deal, and John Biers, of the second Pennsylvania regiment, were severely wounded.

Deal's conduct is highly spoken of by Dr. Bunting.

All in the village Hospital who were capable of firing a musket, did good service during the action by keeping up a fire from the roof of the building.

Second Despatch.

The Mexican Spy company that brought the despatches from Gen. Scott, number one hundred, and are under the command of Col. Bomangest.

They started from Puebla on the evening of the 14th ultimo, and were attacked during that night by Torrejon with a large force, and shortly after by Col. Vamos. Their loss in the two engagements was but fifteen, whilst they killed upwards of one hundred and fifty of the attacking parties. Gen. Scott is said to have at least four hundred and fifty of these Mexican spies in his command.

Paredes says that "Santa Anna issued orders for his (Paredes) arrest and imprisonment or expulsion from the country, but that the officer entrusted with the order was too sensible to execute it."

LATER FROM MEXICO.

ESCAPE OF SANTA ANNA.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 18.

The New Orleans papers of the 11th furnish additional particulars brought by the arrival of the steamer James L. Day.

The correspondent of the Commercial Times states that just as the steamer was getting under way news reached Vera Cruz from Tampico, announcing the astounding fact of the embarkation of Santa Anna at Tampico, on board a British steamer, and had escaped out of Mexico.

Col. Gates on ascertaining that Santa Anna was in the neighborhood, took every precaution to prevent his escape, but they proved unsuccessful.

This news is discredited at Vera Cruz but was generally believed at Tampico. The Puebla Flag of Freedom publishes a long and graphic account of the battle of Huamantla. Capt. Walker's whole force did not exceed 195.

Gen. Marshall had issued orders, in consequence of the prevalence of the fever at Vera Cruz, that all the troops arriving there should immediately proceed to Yegran.

Col. Wynkoop was to return to the Castle of Perote with his force. Four companies of his regiment were engaged at the battle of Huamantla. An interesting struggle took place between the Indiana and the detachment of the 1st Pennsylvania regiment, which should be the first to plant the American flag upon the walls of the town. Lt. Deany and private Stebbis, of the Pennsylvanians, proved successful.

The remains of Capt. Walker were at the Castle of Perote, and would be forwarded to the United States.

Lieut. Montgomery P. Young, of Philadelphia, and Lieut. James McKean, of the Second Pennsylvania Regiment, died recently at Puebla, it is presumed, of fever.

Lieut. Jacob Sperry, of the Philadelphia Rangers, had died of a lance wound received near Puebla.

Surgeon Reynolds, Lieuts. Bryan and Hunter, of the Pennsylvania Volunteers, were passengers in the steamer James L. Day.

The Harrisburg Argus expresses the opinion that the receipts for tolls on our State canals this year, exceed $1,500,000.

THE LATEST FROM THE MEXICAN CONGRESS.

—El Arco Iris, of November 3d, has the following:

"We have been informed that on the 10th ult., fifty-five members of the Congress were assembled at the city of Queretaro, and that they had already several preparatory meetings. It is also reported that the President of the Republic has called to Queretaro all the governors of the different States, in order that they may give him their frank opinions about the war. Then if they be for it, undoubtedly he will request them to point out the means of pursuing it with vigor; and if for peace, to propose the basis upon which a treaty may be made."

FROM EUROPE.—The Steamer Aeadia arrived at Boston on Saturday last, bringing 11 days later news from Europe.—Monetary affairs are improving, and Corn, Wheat and Flour have somewhat advanced. There has been a further decline in cotton, with a tendency still further downward.

MURDER.—A Jersey farmer, named Jerry Roberts, was murdered on Friday evening last, whilst returning from the Philadelphia market. He was shot in the back of the head and his skull fractured by some dull instrument.

The pockets of the victim were rifled of all the money he had received from market, being about $10. The murderer drove the wagon some distance, containing the body of his victim. A reward of $500 is offered for his detection.

DROWSINESS, Swimming of the head, a roaring noise in the ears, palpitation of the heart, &c.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain cure for the above unpleasant complaints because they purge from the body those stagnant and corrupt humors which, when floating in the general mass of the circulation, are the cause of a rush of blood to the head, giddiness, dimness of sight, drowsiness, pain of the head, and other symptoms of a congested state of the blood.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are also one of the very best medicines in the world for the cure of indigestion, and therefore will not only remove all the above unpleasant symptoms, but will most assuredly restore the body to a sound state of health.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by T. K. It is, moreover, well situated, being in a desirable neighborhood, and where there is always a good cash market for everything produced on a farm. It is situated near the Water Street and Spruce Creek Turnpike, and is about one mile from the probable route of the Pa. Rail Road. As this property could be divided so as to make two farms, bidders may possibly make arrangements to purchase in view of a subsequent division.

Dr. Keeler's Vegetable Panacea.

For the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood and habit of the body, viz: Chronic affections of the Chest, Pleurisy, Bronchitis, Catarrh, &c.—Scrofula in all its stages, Tetter, Scald-head, Cutaneous affections of the body, face and extremities, Chronic Rheumatism, Chronic enlargements of the Ligaments and joints, White Swellings, Suppurative Affections, Constitutional disorders arising from debility, Mercurial and hereditary predispositions, &c.

It is now admitted by Pathologists, that no original temperament, complexion, constitution, or form of body, confers complete immunity from Hereditary diseases; that scrofula, consumption and other affections having a similarity of origin occur in all: although observation convinces us, that individuals and families, possessing certain characteristics are more frequently the subject of these maladies than others. These diseases are a morbid condition of the whole system of nutrition—these products being but the effects of an alteration of the Blood and secretions,—the ulcers, abscesses, enlarged glands, inflammations, &c., being merely attendant phenomena. The cause exists prior to the phenomena, and must be destroyed before perfect health can be established. This may be done by Dr. Keeler's Vegetable Panacea, the most certain remedy for all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood and system of nutrition, ever presented to the notice of the afflicted.

Prepared corner of 3d and South streets, Philadelphia; and sold by John N. Prowell, and Jones & Simonon, Huntingdon, and by Druggists and Merchants throughout the county. Price—$1 per bottle, large size.
