

GREAT FLOODS.

For some days past, says the Pittsburg Journal, the rain has been constant in this section of the country, and our rivers have been swollen to an unusual height, higher we believe than at any period since 1832, and one foot higher than on the 25th November.

We can scarcely doubt that much valuable property has been destroyed on the Allegheny and Monongahela. There was yesterday 23 feet of water in the channel of the Monongahela.

The Allegheny rose rapidly, and yesterday afternoon, the "Island," and all the adjacent portion of the city was under water. The river backed water over the second lock of the canal, and the cellars of Ann street and Robinson street below Craig, were inundated.

The Freshet in the Ohio River.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.

The waters of the Ohio have now swelled to the highest point attained during the great flood of 1832, and the lower part of the city is entirely inundated. At least five thousand families have been rendered homeless by this disastrous flood, and great distress must ensue in consequence.

A public meeting of the citizens has been called to provide the means for alleviating their destitute condition. The stores south of Pearl street are flooded, and Broadway is overflowed. It is useless to calculate the damage, or to endeavor to give an idea of the distress among us.

Business has been almost entirely suspended. Half the lumber in the city is afloat, and boats have even been carried off the stocks in this ship yards.

The snow is eighteen inches deep, and more is now falling.—Phila. Inq.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16, 1847.

The river is still rising at the rate of half an inch an hour. The steamboat Hibernia, from Pittsburg, which arrived this afternoon, reports that the Ohio is rising rapidly from Wheeling down to this point. The towns of Marietta and Parkersburg are both literally inundated, and reports from Louisville represent the scene along the river to be distressing, scarcely a house that is not surrounded by water.

The city of Cincinnati presents a sad spectacle also. The water and gas works have both suspended operations, the water having flooded the establishments.

The "Union Star" establishment is offered for sale. The location is a pleasant one, and the printing materials are good.

A panther was killed in Bucks county last week. It was supposed to have escaped from a cage of wild beasts.

A man may as well expect to be at ease without wealth, as happy without virtue.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday 19th inst., at Rock View, by the Rev. S. H. Reid, Mr. ABRAHAM HARNISH to Miss ANN ELIZA, eldest daughter of Daniel Neff, Esq., of Porter township.

On Thursday 16th inst., by the same, Mr. ANDREW KOLB to Miss BARBARA SPENKLE, of Morris township.

On Thursday 2nd inst., by the Rev. Adam Height, Mr. WILLIAM PEIGHTAL to Miss CATHARINE KEMP, both of Henderson township.

FROM MAINE to Mississippi, from Oregon to Florida, the wonderful effects of Wright's Balsam of Wild Cherry in curing all diseases of the lungs, are as familiar as household words. Where there is a constitutional predisposition to consumption, it keeps the insidious destroyer at bay, and we venture to affirm that no one ever died of that complaint, who had recourse to this remedy when the first symptoms of its approach appeared. Thousands who have sought a better climate in the hopes of being relieved from B. onchitis and Consumption and who have laid their bones in a foreign land, with none but strangers to pay the last offices of respect, might now be living in health, encircled by friends and kindred, had they betaken themselves to this infallible remedy, instead of going into voluntary exile. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Croup, and all those diseases of the organs of respiration which invariably lead to death if neglected, can be removed by a few bottles of Wright's Balsam.

See Advertisement on fourth page.

APPOXY.—This dreadful complaint is generally preceded by pain in the head, especially on turning suddenly round, dimness of sight, stupor, loss of memory, and other unpleasant symptoms, which indicate a loaded and corrupt state of the blood.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain preventive of apoplexy, because they expel from the body those stagnant and corrupt humors, which are the cause of this and every malady incident to man. They also aid and improve digestion, as well as purify the blood, and therefore drive disease of every name from the body.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits.

The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by T. K. SIMONSON, Sole Agent for Huntingdon; Charles Porter, Alexandria; Blair & Robinson, Chade Gap; Blair & Co., Frankton; Orbinson & Co., Orbinson; A. O.
