

FROM HARRISBURG.

Both Houses met in Convention on Monday last, and elected ARNOLD PLUMER, Esq., of Venango County, State Treasurer—the vote being for PLUMER (Loco) 75; for JOHN BANKS (Whig) 53. A resolution passed the Senate, on motion of Mr. JORDAN, of Dauphin, instructing the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State, to exert their influence to secure the honorable discharge of Pennsylvania Regiments now in service in Mexico. Nothing of importance was done in the House or Senate.

On Tuesday, Mr. Benner introduced a bill to provide for the registration of births, marriages, and deaths throughout this Commonwealth.

In the House Mr. Eshleman introduced a bill to provide for the abolition of Militia Trainings.

Mr. Evans's (of Chester) resolution instructing the Committee on Judiciary to report a bill to abolish the death penalty, coming up on second reading—

Mr. E. addressed the House in extenso in favor of its adoption, and also on the subject of capital punishment, and the necessity for its abolition.

On motion of Mr. Frick, the resolution was amended so as merely to request them to inquire into the expediency of repealing the law—yeas 46; nays 43.

INAUGURATION.—In pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution, the Governor elect took the oath of office in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at twelve o'clock, he being conducted thereto by the heads of Departments, citizens and strangers.

The Speaker of the Senate administered to him the customary qualifications, after which he delivered an address made up principally of a dissertation upon republican governments in general, and our own in particular; and reiterates his oft repeated opinions in reference to monopolies, special grants of chartered privilege, &c. &c.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 19, 1848.

SENATE.—Mr. SMITH, offered the following resolution, which was read twice and agreed to.

Resolved, That the Auditor General be requested to furnish the Senate, as soon as practicable, with a statement in tabular form showing the valuation of all property, trades, professions, &c., made taxable for State purposes, in the several counties of this Commonwealth, for the years 1845 and 1847; the amount of tax assessed therein, and the amount received therefrom, for the years 1841, 1842, 1843, 1844, 1845, 1846 and 1847, together with the amount now outstanding and due to the Commonwealth; also, the amount paid out of the State Treasury to the common schools in the several counties during each of the years herein specified.

A message was received from the Governor, informing the Senate that he had appointed Jesse Miller, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A communication was received from the Auditor General, accompanied by a statement relative to the condition of the Banks of the Commonwealth.

HOUSE.—A number of private bills were read in place. The war resolutions of Mr. Hill were made the order of the day for Thursday week.

The resolution offered by Mr. H. S. EVANS relative to the infliction of death penalty, pending the amendment offered by Mr. FRICK, was taken up.

Mr. S. W. ROBERTS, moved to amend the amendment by adding the following preamble:

WHEREAS, In the opinion of this House, the ends of justice would be promoted by the abolition or commutation of the punishment of death in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BLACK, moved the postponement of the resolution and preamble till the first Wednesday in February next.

Mr. F. SMITH, opposed the motion. He was prepared to vote now. Notwithstanding the clergy of Philadelphia, on a former occasion, had denounced all who voted against abolishing the death penalty as infidels in a christian land.

Mr. S. W. ROBERTS, stated his reason for offering the preamble. He believed that the penal laws ought to be revised in relation to the death penalty for many reasons, one of which was the difficulty of procuring verdicts of conviction from juries of the country. His intention was to place himself in a proper position before the people. He was opposed to the infliction of the death penalty from conscientious convictions and wished for an opportunity of recording his vote directly in accordance with those convictions.

Mr. BLACK thought the question of great importance and one which required profound consideration. It was one concerning the whole people, and was not one for the especial consideration of the bar or any other portion of the community. It was one which was proper for and belonged to all. He was opposed to taking the vote now, directly on the question, and he thought the preamble was not in accordance with the spirit of the original resolution.

Mr. BLAIR also opposed the postponement. He contended that the vote on the preamble would be a clear expression of the sense of the House on the whole matter. He said there would be no use in voting on the preamble now, and being called on to vote it down at some subsequent stage of the matter.

The motion to postpone was not agreed to.

Mr. DIEHL offered to amend the preamble, by striking out all after the word resolved, and inserting "that it is the opinion of this House, that some action by this House on the subject of the death penalty, is desirable,"—which was accepted as a substitute by Mr. S. W. ROBERTS.

The question then being on adopting said preamble, as substituted, the yeas and nays were called, and were yeas 38, nays 54.

THURSDAY, JAN. 20, 1848.

Nothing of general interest transpired in either House.

Mr. BLAIR presented the memorial of John McCahen, and others, relating to the sale of certain real estate. Also, one for a law relating to the execution of last wills and testaments. Also, one for a rail road from, at, or near, Huntingdon to Broad top mountain.

FROM WASHINGTON.

There has been no important results transpired in Congress during the past week. We clip a few items of interest from various sources:

THE LOAN.—A bill providing for a Loan of $18,500,000, was reported by Mr. Vinton in the House of Representatives on Wednesday last, and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union. This is the first step in an important measure.

In the Senate the discussion on the Ten Regiment Bill is still continued.—On Monday last Mr. BUTLER of South Carolina, a Locofoco, made an able speech on the Bill. He showed that the Mexicans had the best title to the east bank of the Rio Grande when we marched our troops there. He, of course, will support Mr. Calhoun's positions. He proposes an amendment by which some thirty men can be added to each company, now in service, without so vast an increase of Executive patronage as the 540 officers, which would be created by the additional regiments, would give the President. There is some probability that his amendment may pass.

In a short discussion on Mr. Mangum's resolution calling for Gen. Scott's plan about the further prosecution of the war with Mexico, Gen. Cass declared that he now thought we should swallow THE WHOLE OF MEXICO without doing much harm to our system!! It is thus that, step by step, the leading Locofocos are coming into the support of what they at first ridiculed, the absorption of the whole of Mexico. The resolution lies over.

On Tuesday Mr. Badger made a powerful speech on the same subject. He proved the claims set up to our right to the Rio Grande to be nonsense, if not worse. He proved, by documents furnished by the President to Congress, that on our part it was a deliberate scheme of conquest, and pictured the injury likely to follow from it, upon ourselves rather than the Mexicans. The same army that would dictate submission to the Mexicans would come back and dictate to this Senate and to Congress. He might have said that this is the case even now.

The Locofocos have refused to pass Mr. Mangum's resolution asking for Scott's plan of the war. There is a despatch from Gen. Scott of Sept. 18, which is in part published among the documents accompanying the President's last annual message. Much of it is suppressed. Gen. Cass, however, a few days since, read a portion which had been suppressed, stating that Gen. Scott wanted 50,000 men. It is now pretty certain that Gen. Scott said, unless we intended to conquer all Mexico, and to hold her in subjection, 30,000 men would be sufficient. They now refuse to give this letter, even in secret session.

The President has refused to furnish Congress with a copy of the instructions given to Mr. Slidell, our Minister who was first rejected by Mexico. He is determined to keep them as secret as his correspondence with Santa Anna.

The Locofocos say the President should not give these instructions about Treaties, &c., to Congress. Yet in the Union of the 4th of October last, we have published from the State Department, an authentic copy of the terms on which Mr. Trist was to act. Why not let us have the same of Mr. Slidell's.

SENATE, Jan. 20. The resolution previously offered by Mr. Mangum, was taken up, asking the President for Gen. Scott's communication to the War Department, and for all his plans for prosecuting the war, and whether General Scott's order for fortifying all the important points in Mexico was directed by the President, which after some discussion was adopted.

Mr. Foote then took the floor in favor of the Ten Regiment Bill, and during his speech took ground in favor of annexing the whole of Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27, 1848.

Gen. Scott's troubles are deeply mysterious, and none but the Cabinet know the facts.

The remains of Major Graham have arrived here, and will be buried to-morrow, Major Bliss, Gen. Taylor's adjutant is here.

The Dublin corporation has voted £150 for a portrait of the late Mr. O'Connell.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Twelve Days Later—Arrival of the Cambria.

We clip the following items of news from the North American:

The Cambria arrived at her dock, at Jersey City, on Tuesday night, coming up the bay in the midst of a heavy gale, without stopping at Quarantine. She has had a stormy passage.

By this arrival we have our files of London papers to the 31st December, and Liverpool to the 1st instant.

The President's Message was received in England by the packet ship Ashburton, on the morning of the 30th December. It seemed to have created no sensation, and was regarded as "little more than a re-echo of the sentiments pronounced by the President at the inception of the war." Some of the London papers give the document at length.

Ireland continues in the most alarming condition, although the Lord-Lieutenant had lost no time in proclaiming the Irish Outrage Bill, in the various districts where crime had been most prevalent, and it was hoped that good results would speedily follow. The report that the Marquis of Drogheda was about to leave Ireland, through apprehensions for his safety, is contradicted. Threats continued to be rife, however, against him, as well as many other of Ireland's most benevolent landlords.

The war between Oxford and the Government still goes on, and the indignant Bishops declare that they will never surrender, until Dr. HAMPTON, the new bishop designate of Hereford, shall be expelled from the bosom of the Church. The cause of this is Dr. H. some fifteen years ago published some theological opinions which were objected to as "rationalistic."

In regard to the state of trade and manufactures, the European Times of the 1st inst. says: "Since our last, although the manufacturing districts appear more actively improved, the state of trade generally has not perceptibly improved. A slight impulse has been observed in the grain markets, but produce of all descriptions continues depressed in price, and most difficult of sale. The large increased comparative stock of sugar has excited much attention, and tends to render the colonial market heavy. The value of money has declined to about 5 per cent, money at call being reduced to four per cent; accordingly, with the low prices of cotton, we may fairly anticipate a revival of trade as soon as the large stocks of the failed houses shall have been realised, or adjusted to the ordinary demands of trade."

The market for wheat was firm, and upon the whole, prices were a shade higher. Indian corn and meal were in slow request, at 37s. for best corn, and 16s. to 17s. for best meal. The price of best Western canal Flour was 31s. The trade was very dull on the 31st December, and few sales were effected.

There was a rather firmer feeling in the Liverpool Cotton market, although sales were very limited, and prices had receded during the week ending December 24, about 1d on most descriptions offered. On the 27th there was a reaction, and prices of American advanced 1d. The advices from the manufacturing districts were, on the whole, more encouraging.

The money market continued to improve. On the 22d December the Bank of England reduced the rate of interest to five per cent, and money was easier.

The Cherokee Advocate asserts, in reply to a statement of the Fort Smith Herald, that the Seminoles were rendering aid and comfort to the people of New Mexico, and that the Seminoles and all other Indian tribes on the frontier, from Red River to Fort Leavenworth, are acting up to their peace treaties with the United States in good faith, and desire the continuance of the present relations.

The Markets.

From the Daily News, PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 21, 1848.

The market continues steady, with but little inquiry for Flour and Grain. We notice sales of 200 bbls Flour at $6.25 per bbl for standard brands, and 1800 bbls Corn Meal at $3 for Penn'a.—Wheat is dull at 140c. for prime reds, and 144 a 145c. per bus. for white.—Small sales of Corn at 63c. Oats are wanted at 45 a 47c. per bus. Whiskey is scarce and has slightly improved.—Sales of bbls. at 24c., and hhdts at 23c. per gal.

From Maine to Mississippi, from Oregon to Florida, the wonderful effects of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in curing all diseases of the lungs, are as familiar as household words. Where there is a constitutional destroyer at bay, and we venture to affirm that no one ever died of that complaint, who had recourse to this remedy when the first symptoms of its approach appeared. Thousands who have sought another climate in the hopes of being relieved from Bronchitis and Consumption, and who have laid their bones in a foreign land, with none but strangers to pay the last offices of respect, might now be living in health, encircled by friends and kindred, had they taken themselves to this infallible remedy, instead of going into voluntary exile. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Plurisy, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Croup; and all those diseases of the organs of respiration which invariably lead to Death if neglected, can be removed by a few bottles of Wistar's Balsam.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.—This extraordinary medicine is founded on the principle that the human frame is subject to but one disease, viz: corrupt humors, which, floating in the general mass of the circulation, are the cause of all kinds of Fever, and when lodged in the various parts of the body, give rise to every malady incident to man.

Let it be remembered, that the human body and Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are mutually adapted to each other, and that by them all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of disease) is entirely removed, and this is an easy and natural manner.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits.—The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by
