

FROM MEXICO.

PETERSBURG, Feb. 14.

Two of the missing mails have come to hand to-day, together with expresses up to the 7th inst.

The steamship McKim had arrived at New Orleans with Vera Cruz dates to the 24th, and Tampico to the 31st ult.

The letters from Vera Cruz bring quite contradictory rumors in relation to the prospects of a peace.

A courier sent by Mr. People's, with the President's message, for the American Star, was on his return taken by the guerillas, and taken into the bushes beside the road, and stripped and shot by them.

Col. McClelland, with 300 infantry, and 200 mounted men, had started up the Orizaba road to cut off the robbers, who are represented to be in large force on the main road to the Puente Nacional.

Fifteen cases of small pox had occurred at Vera Cruz.

It is positively asserted by merchants, well informed as to the state of affairs in the interior, that General Lane was moving on Orizaba with 500 cavalry.

Dates from Vera Cruz to the 26th ult., had also been received at New Orleans, by the arrival of the barque Archimedes.

The Free American of that date says, that Capt. Whipple had arrived from the Capital, which place he left on the 19th ult.

He brings the news that Orizaba had been taken by the troops sent from the Capital for that purpose.

By the arrival of the ships Napier and Danbers, from Vera Cruz, dates to the 29th ult., had been received at New Orleans.

The train that left the capital on the 14th, had arrived at Vera Cruz on the 27th ult., without having been molested on the route.

The train comprised about 200 wagons. On the 17th they encountered General Marshall and Col. Miles, with their respective commands, at Puebla.

The American Star of the 14th, states that at the latest dates from Queretaro a quorum of the members of Congress was not in attendance.

General Anaya had been succeeded by Pena y Pena, as President, and a new one was to be chosen from the Congress assembled.

It was rumored that Mr. Trist had been in conference with the Mexican commissioners and that certain terms had been agreed upon between them.

There is no authentic intelligence on the subject.

The attack made by the Padre Jarauta upon the force under Col. Hays, consisting of 100 Rangers, and a few Illinois volunteers, is confirmed.

The attack was made by Jarauta while the Americans were resting at a hacienda, with their horses unsaddled.

The contest that ensued resulted in the death of 8 Mexicans, and Jarauta was believed to be severely wounded, as his horse was subsequently captured with much blood upon the saddle.

Col. Hays and his party had arrived at Teotihuacan.

Late From the Rio Grande. PETERSBURG, Feb. 17, 1848.

The overland express contains New Orleans papers of the 11th inst.

By an arrival from the Rio Grande, intelligence had been received from Saltillo, which indicates that there is a prospect of some warm work for the American troops encamped at El Paso, on their way to Chihuahua.

The Mexicans, it is said, have a considerable numerical force with which to oppose their progress, and are strengthened by twelve pieces of cannon.

Squire Collins, who with a small party had started for Santa Fe, had been taken prisoner by the Mexicans at Presido del Norte.

Alexander Newson, also a member of Captain Mears' company, was hung at Saltillo for wilful murder, in shooting a Mexican at Queretaro, one of the Revenue Guard.

PRICES OF GRAIN IN ENGLAND.—The Government averages, for the six weeks ending January 3, 1848, per bushel of each kind of grain, in United States money, were as follows: Wheat $1 58; Barley 93c; Rye 93c; Beans $1 24; Peas $1 40.

The London averages, for the week ending Jan. 11, were: Wheat $1 69; Barley 93c; Oats 69c.

This morning's mail brings sad tidings to the Hon. J. W. Davis, of Indiana, who is now about to take his departure for the scene of his mission—China.

On the 3d inst., his eldest son, Mr. Samuel Francis Davis, of Carlisle, Indiana, being present at the turning of a flatboat about to be launched, was struck by the falling piece of timber, both the iron bolts used in the process of turning that boat having broken.

The blow killed him instantly. His age was 23 years.—It might be considered needless to add, that Dr. Davis has, in his affliction, and that of his family the heartfelt sympathy of this community, where all who know him are his sincere and personal friends.—Washington Union of Saturday last.

Chesterfield having been informed by his physician that he was dying by inches, thanked Heaven he was not so tall by a foot as Sir Thomas Robinson.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Mr. George W. Robbins, formerly a resident of this place, met with an accident on Monday, January 17, which, we are pained to say, resulted in his death on Tuesday, January 25.

Having left home on that day with a wagon drawn by oxen he was thrown from the wagon on his return, and the wheels passed over his body, dislocated his shoulder, broke his collar bone and two of his ribs, and injured him so much otherwise as to cause his death.—Holidayburg Standard.

FIRE AND DEATH.—We learn that on Sunday the 13th inst., the house of Mr. Michael Bossler, two miles south of Williamsburg, was consumed by fire.—Mr. Philip Skelly, a near neighbor, on seeing the smoke arising, ran to render some assistance, and when about one hundred yards from the house he fell and immediately expired. The deceased was 74 years of age.

The house is supposed to have taken fire from a stove pipe. Nearly all the household goods of Mr. Bossler were destroyed.—Ib.

IRON FROM ENGLAND.—There seems to be just grounds for fears of disaster to our iron interest. The Pittsburg Gazette learns on high authority that commission houses in Buffalo have received, via New York, with orders to sell at almost any price. Every ton of iron that goes to Buffalo, via New York, says the Gazette, is so much taken from the amount that Pennsylvania should sell.

The Kitaning (Pa.) Free Press, says that offers have made by English agents to deliver in the city of Pittsburg, during the present year, not less than ten thousand tons of Scotch pigs, at less than $25. This iron is sought after in England as ballast for shipping.

In his late speech on the Ten Regiment Bill, Senator Niles declared himself decidedly in favor of closing this disgraceful war. Mr. Ritchie and other advocates of this gigantic scheme of National robbery, will hardly forgive the Connecticut Senator, who is a locofoco, for so frank and emphatic an admission as that "Mexico desires peace on terms not unreasonable," and that "there is no justification for prolonging this war."

A GENERAL RISING.—At a wedding party in the church, at Bath, Me. the Minister made this request: "those who wish to be married will please arise;" whereupon the heads of a bevy of young girls handsome and otherwise, shot up, they taking the remark general, which was only intended for the contracting parties, and being fully convinced of the evils of single blessedness.

Santa Anna. The personal appearance of Santa Anna when accompanied by his young and beautiful wife, and clad in panoply of Mr. Polk's pass, he landed at Vera Cruz, to head the Mexican armies in a war with this country, is thus described by Mr. Ruxton, who has recently written a work upon Mexico: "Don Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna is a hale-looking man between fifty and sixty, with an Old Baily countenance and a very well built wooden leg. Senora, a pretty girl of seventeen, pouted at the cool reception, for not one 'viva' was heard; unceremoniously congeed from the procession, which she took in high dudgeon. The General was dressed in full uniform, and looking anything but pleased at the absence of everything like applause, which he doubtless expected would have greeted him. His countenance completely betrays his character; indeed, I never saw a physiognomy in which the evil passions, which he notoriously possesses, were more strongly marked. Oily duplicity, treachery, avarice, and sensuality, are depicted in every feature, and his well known character bears out the truth of the impress his vices have stamped upon his face.—In person he is portly, and not devoid of a certain well-bred bearing which wins for him golden opinions from the surface-seeing fair sex, to whom he ever pays the most courtly attention."

The New York Tribune has learned something farther in relation to the early amiable intentions of this administration towards Mexico. It has come out in evidence before the Committee on Military Affairs, in the Senate, that Capt. Gillespie, of the army, was despatched in 1845, to Col. Fremont, then in Upper California, with a letter in cypher, directing the Colonel so to shape his course there as to excite a rebellion against the authority of Mexico, of which he could take advantage so as to effect the independence of California, and prepare her for annexation to this country—in other words to Houstonize it.

SMALL POX.—This loathsome and dangerous disease is now prevailing to an alarming extent in Erie, Pa. A correspondent of the Gazette, stongly urges the procurement of a public hospital.

Clarion county was visited by the singular phenomenon of a "thunder and lightning snow-storm" on the 17th inst. The Democrat says there were vivid flashes of lightning, followed by heavy thunder while the snow fell thick and fast.

[From the Blair County Whig.] CONFEREES MEETING.

In accordance with previous public notice, the Conferees from the Senatorial District composed of the counties of Huntingdon, Bedford and Blair, met at the usual place in the Borough of Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday the 15th day of February, A. D., 1848.

On motion of John Brothelme, Esq., JAMES WILSON, Esq., of Blair county, was chosen President, and J. Smyth Read, of Huntingdon county, selected as Secretary.

On motion of Samuel Shellenberger, Esq., NICHOLAS HEWIT, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, was unanimously chosen a Delegate to represent said Senatorial District in the Whig State Convention to be held in the Borough of Harrisburg on Wednesday the 15th day of March next, for the purpose of putting in nomination a candidate for the office of Canal Commissioner, &c.

On motion, Resolved, That the Whig editors in this district are hereby requested to publish these proceedings.

On motion—adjourned. JAMES WILSON, President. J. SMYTH READ, Secretary.

FATHER MATTHEW.—The various temperance associations in New York are taking measures to make the reception of Father Matthew, the great apostle of Temperance, one of the most imposing demonstrations of the kind that has ever been witnessed in that city. He will arrive there in April.

A FATAL EXPERIMENT.—The Livingston, N. Y. Union mentions the death by hanging, of Samuel Trist, of Nunda, aged about 16 years. He used a trace chain, and it is supposed he was trying the experiment of hanging by the neck, and for some reason could not disengage himself.

ONE WORD TO THE SEDENTARY.—Those who labor within doors are compelled to breathe an impure atmosphere, which is wholly unfit for the proper expansion of the lungs, and, owing to want of exercise, the bowels become constipated, the pores of the skin closed, and, indeed, all the functions of the body become deranged: hence proceed asthma, cough, pains in the breast and side, palpitation of the heart, rheumatic pains in various parts of the body, giddiness, and a variety of other distressing complaints, common to those of sedentary habits.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills disperse all these unpleasant symptoms. A single dose will in all cases give relief, and, if repeated a few times, will most assuredly restore the body to health.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeits this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by Brown, Shilshersburg; Hunter & Co., West Barre and Petersburg; Graff & Co., Manor Hill; D. S. Bell, McEavy's Fort; James Maguire, Saalsburg; John W. Myton, Euseville; George H. Steiner, Water Street; A. & W. Crosswell, Petersburg; Milliken & Kessler, Mill-ereck; and wholesale and retail at the principal office, 169 Race street, Philadelphia.

GETTING UP BEFORE THE WORLD IS AHEAD.—Benn Bummel, once the "bright particular star," of English fashion, being on one occasion asked the cause of a trifling hoarseness with which he was afflicted, attributed it partly to his having got up "before the world was ailed," and partly to his having breakfasted in the room with "a damp stranger." In such a climate, hoarseness or slight cough may be very good subjects for a joke, but in this country, where the thermometer sometimes rises or falls forty degrees in twenty-four hours, even these apparently unimportant symptoms are not to be neglected with impunity. If there is a predisposition in the constitution to pulmonary disease, Consumption will tread close upon the heels of the indications. There is no difficulty, however, in escaping the danger, if the proper precaution is taken by a timely use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. One bottle of this invaluable panacea usually relieves the worst case of cold, and restores the sufferer to health.
