GENERAL TAYLOR.

We have at length the evidence, over Gen. Taylor's own signature, that he is a Whig—a firm believer in the principles and policy of Henry Clay. At the great Washington and Taylor Festival in Philadelphia on the 22d inst; Gen. Barrow of Tennessee, in the course of an address which he delivered, introduced and read the following letter:

GEN. TAYLOR'S LETTER TO THE HON. JOS. R. INGERSOLL.

HEAD QUARTERS ARMY OF OCCUPATION, CAMP NEAR MONTEREY, MEXICO, August 3, 1847.

Hon. Joseph R. Ingersoll:

Dear Sir:—I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your esteemed letter of the 7th ultimo, which has just reached me, in which you say, "I had the honor of being called on last evening to address a mass meeting of the Whigs of the City and County of Philadelphia. At that meeting your name was frequently mentioned in connection with the office of Chief Magistracy. I stated to that meeting, as I had before stated in my place in the House of Representatives at Washington, that you were a Whig—not indeed an ultra partisan Whig—but a Whig in principle." All of which is entirely correct; and after the discussion which occurred in both houses of Congress at the last session, growing out of the capitulation of Monterey, in which discussion you thought proper to defend my conduct in regard to that transaction, when assailed, somewhat, if not entirely on party grounds, in the House of which you were a member—for which you have my sincere thanks—which was done in such a way by those who disapproved that measure, I can hardly imagine how any one who was present and heard the speeches on that occasion, or read them after they were published, could well mistake the complexion of my politics.

At the last Presidential canvass, without interfering in any way with the same, it was well known to all with whom I mixed, Whigs and Democrats, that I had no concealments in the matter, that I was decidedly in favor of Mr. Clay's election, and would now prefer seeing him in that office to any individual in the Union, certainly much more so at any time to myself. Independent of his great talents and long experience in government affairs, I consider his views and those of the Whigs, for the most part are more nearly assimilated as regards political matters to those of Mr. Jefferson than their opponents—in whose political creed I was reared, and whose opinions in matters of state, I have never lost sight of, as well as endeavored to conform to them as near as circumstances would permit. My commission as a Lieutenant in the Army was conferred by him, a short time before he retired from public life.

Although no one can appreciate more highly than I do the too favorable opinion I fear you have formed as regards my fitness for the first civil office in our country (which I consider, should I reach it, is rather too much an experiment,) as well as duly grateful for your aid in bringing me so prominently before the nation for the office in question, yet I cannot permit the present opportunity to pass by without repeating to you what I have said to others on the subject of the Presidency—which is, that I am no politician. Near forty years of my life have been passed in the military service of the republic, near the whole of which in the field, the camp, on our western frontier and in the Indian territory, I may well say constantly on duty, the two last in Mexico, or on its immediate border; during which time I have not passed one night under the roof of a house. You may therefore very readily suppose, under such circumstances, I have had but little time to devote to the consideration or investigation of great political questions or subjects, or to their discussion, nor have I attempted to do so or to be mixed up with political men or measures in any way, not even having voted for one of our Chief Magistrates since I joined the army, having for the most part been serving or stationed beyond the limits of the States. I must say I have no wish for the Presidency, and cannot consent to be exclusively the candidate of a party. And if I am one at all, or to be made so at the coming election, it must be borne in mind that I have been, or will be made so by others, without any agency of mine in the matter. Independent of my wishes, I greatly doubt my want of the necessary qualifications, to discharge the duties properly, of an office which was filled and adorned by a Washington, a Jefferson, as well as several others of the purest, wisest, and most accomplished statesmen and patriots of this or any other age or country. I almost tremble at the thoughts of the undertaking. Yet if the good people think proper to elevate me at the proper time, to the highest office in their gift, I will feel bound to serve them, if not from inclination, from a principle of duty, and will do so honestly and faithfully to the best of my ability, in accordance with the principles of the Constitution, as near as I can do so, as it was construed and acted upon by the first Presidents, two of whom, at least, acted so conspicuous a part in aiding in contemplating that instrument, as well as putting it in operation.

But very many important changes may take place at home and abroad, between now and the time for holding the election for our next Chief Magistrate so much so as to make it desirable for the general good, that some one with more experience in State Affairs, should be selected as a candidate than myself, and could be elected, I will not say I would yield my pretensions, for I have not the vanity to believe I have any for that distinguished station, but would acquiesce, not only with pleasure, in such an arrangement, but would rejoice that the republic had one citizen more worthy and better qualified than I am to discharge the important duties appertaining to that position; and no doubt there are thousands. Be this as it may, if ever I occupy the White House, it must be by the spontaneous movement of the people, without any action of mine in relation to it; without pledges other than I have previously stated; a strict adherence to the provisions of the constitution. So that I could enter on the arduous and responsible duties appertaining to said office untrammelled; so that I could be the President of the country and not of a party.

With considerations of great respect and esteem, I remain your obedient servant,

Z. TAYLOR.

We have some little glimmerings of peace. I have this moment received a note from Gen. Scott, commanding at Saltillo, about seventy miles in advance of this place towards the city of Mexico, of which the following is an extract:—"I have but a moment to say I have received information through J. Sanchez, that Gen. Scott was still at Puebla on the 17th ult.; that the Mexican Congress had convened, and that it had conferred the power on Santa Anna to negotiate for peace, subject to the approval of Congress, and that an armistice had been proposed." This can be relied on, and must be gratifying to all lovers of peace, of which number I profess to be one of its most ardent admirers and advocates.

Army Order.

We find in the papers from Mexico the following order of Gen. Scott, which is strikingly illustrative of his humanity and soldierly feelings:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Mexico, January, 20, 1848. GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 27.

It is represented that some of our gallant men who have recently died in the general hospital have not been buried in due solemnity. The General-in-Chief is certain that no blame can be attached either to the chaplains of the army or to the Catholic Priests of the city. On due notice, they, no doubt, would promptly have performed the duties of their holy offices at the graves of the deceased. It is ordered that the body of no soldier, no matter what his rank, if not executed as a felon, shall be buried in future, without the customary military honors, unless the presence of the enemy render the ceremony impracticable; and also without giving notice to some clergyman, at hand, according to the religion of the deceased.

Patients who die in general hospital will be promptly reported, by the senior surgeon of the hospital, to Gen. Smith if the deceased belongs to the regular army, or to the senior officer of the volunteers present if the deceased be a volunteer, who respectively, will take care to make all proper arrangements for the funerals.

By order of Major General Scott. H. L. SCOTT, A. A. A. G.

HORRIBLE!—A woman, named REBECCA MULLEN, was burned to death in East-town township, Chester county, on the night of the 10th inst. She was a woman of intemperate habits, and in fact so were the whole family. On the night of the occurrence, before retiring, the family partook freely of whiskey, and it is supposed retired in a state of intoxication. One of the persons who slept up stairs, was not in bed long before he found his room filled with smoke and an unpleasant odor. He immediately proceeded to ascertain the cause, when to his astonishment he found the body of the woman above named, sitting on a chair in the kitchen burned to death. The body presented a horrid spectacle and when touched it immediately fell from its position. She had been in the habit of arising to smoke a pipe, and it is supposed she did so on this occasion; but in consequence of being intoxicated was unable to observe sufficient care. Her dress is supposed to have caught from a spark of her pipe, candle or match; and the others in the house being asleep she was unable to obtain assistance, and consequently came to her death in this horrible manner. An inquest was held on the body and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.—Village Record.

SUSPENSIONS.—The Fall River Monitor says three of the manufacturing establishments in that place have stopped their works entirely, and others are running but a part of their machinery. The strike among the operatives continues—some of the "ring leaders" have been arrested for attempting to obstruct the laborers.

SAD STORY.—The Ship Fever.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, relates the following melancholy effect of ship fever:

Two brothers and their wives and families arrived here from Ireland a few days ago, with sufficient funds to enable them to purchase farms in the State of Illinois, where they proposed locating as soon as the interior navigation was open.

The one had eleven children and the other nine. One of the brothers died within thirty-six hours after landing, and his wife caught the contagion while nursing him, doubtless having its seed in her system, and died three days afterwards. The other brother was obliged to take his children, and by addition he now has twenty young ones depending on him for support, and looking to him for protection. When it is considered that he is in a strange place, this is a peculiarly melancholy case, and he fears he will be obliged to return to Ireland, for he remains here with so great a charge on hand, his little stock of means will be exhausted before spring opens. This is but one instance of the thousand hardships which the poor and unfortunate emigrants have to contend against in their efforts to improve their fortunes in the New World.

The Native American branch of the Taylor Convention met at the Shakspeare Hotel, on the 22d inst., and nominated Colonel THOMAS HUMPHREYS, of Montgomery county, as their candidate for Canal commissioner.—Pa. Intel.

ASTHMA, or difficulty of breathing, is caused by a collection of morbid humors in the air-cells of the lungs, which prevent them from being duly expanded—hence difficulty and laborious breathing, cough, great oppression of the breast, pain in the head, and many other distressing complaints.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are always certain to give relief in Asthma, because they purge from the body those humors which are the cause of every malady incident to man. From four to six of said Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time carry off the most violent fit of Asthma, and if used occasionally afterwards, will keep the system sound.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeits this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by GETTING UP BEFORE THE WORLD IS Aired—Beau Bummel, once the "bright particular star," of English fashion, being on one occasion asked the cause of a trifling hoarseness with which he was afflicted, attributed it partly to his having got up "before the world was aired," and partly to his having breakfasted in the room with "a damp stranger." In such a climate, hoarseness or slight cough may be very good subjects for a joke, but in this country, where the thermometer sometimes rises or falls forty degrees in twenty-four hours, even these apparently unimportant symptoms are not to be neglected with impunity. It is a predisposition to the consumption or pulmonary disease. Consumption will tread close upon the heels of the indications. There is no difficulty, however, in escaping the danger, if the proper precaution is taken by a timely use of Wright's Balm of Wild Cherry. One bottle of this invaluable panacea usually relieves the worst case of cold, and restores the sufferer to health.
