

FOREIGN NEWS.

From the Philadelphia papers of the 9th.
Arrival of the Steamship Britania.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Britania arrived at Boston on Sunday the 7th. She brings seven days later intelligence from Europe.

Intelligence has reached England of the regular organization of Chartist forces in Scotland.

There has been less excitement in political circles during the last week, and trade, although not active, has been a little more steady. The money market remains quiet, and the corn trade has assumed a firmer tone, prices having advanced beyond our last quotations.

The stock of money continues to accumulate, and is greater than for some years. At this period the rate of discount is still low, being three and a half per cent. for the best bills. On the whole the prospects in commercial affairs have assumed a decidedly better appearance, and we consider that there are just grounds to expect that they will continue to improve.

In France, commerce is at a complete stand. The wars and general commotion on the continent have not assumed a less alarming aspect.

The whole of that part of Europe which skirts the Rhine and borders on France seems quite disorganized.

In Saxony, a frightful incendiary insurrection seems to be going on, which the government cannot succeed in putting down.

In Alsace, a complete insurrection of the peasantry exists.

The Schleswig and Holstein duchies are at this moment the seat of open war. The whole of the Prussian troops have now advanced into the Danish territory. The artillery was to cross the Eider on the 13th inst. A skirmish was reported to have taken place since, near Eickenforde, in which the Danes were defeated, but, if true, it must have been an inconsiderable affair.

In Prussia there seems a growing feeling that the Polish Prussian provinces should be relinquished, but the uncertainty which yet prevails respecting the movements of Russia, leave all these questions, which virtually affect the political existence of eastern Europe, in a state of abeyance.

IRELAND.—The deplorable state of Ireland, apparently on the verge of a civil war, continues to occupy the attention of all classes. The differences between the Repealers, headed by Mr. O'Connell, and the party led on by Mr. Mitchell, become greater every day.

The rent has fallen to £25, and it is evident that a numerical majority of the Irish people are in favor of outrageous measures. In the meantime the people of every part of the country continue to supply themselves with arms.—Great and influential bodies continue to pour in addresses to the Lord Lieutenant, expressive of their determination to support the government—but the train of discontent seems now to be laid so extensively, and with such mischievous effect, that we doubt whether the whole weight of the government, with even the support of the O'Connells, will be able to prevent some great explosion.

Public demonstrations in support of the Government continue to be held in several parts of the country.

FRANCE.—The COMMUNISTS.—STATE OF PARIS.—Lamartine has proposed an alliance offensive and defensive, between the French and Swiss Republics.

On Sunday the 10th, Paris was the scene of an extraordinary commotion. A. M. Banqui, enraged at the publication, by the authority of the Provisional Government, of some papers found at Guizot's impeaching his political character, declared them to be forgeries, denounced Lamartine, Marrast, and the moderate members of the Provisional Government, and swore to overthrow it and establish a new one, from which all but the extreme radical members of the existing government were to be excluded.

It seems that a plot was actually formed to intimidate the Provisional Government, reject M. Lamartine, M. Marrast, and other moderate members therefrom, and form a new Government, consisting of Ledru-Rollin, Cabot, Blanqui, Albert, Louis Blanc, Flocon, Arago, Raspail and Pierre le Roux. A meeting was accordingly got up at the Champs de Mars, on Sunday, with this ulterior object. Blanqui harranged the mob. However, Lamartine and Marrast having got previous intelligence of the plot, circumvented their designs. The National guards, as well as the mobiles, were called out, and the critical state of things which prevented a complete reign of terror, furnished the government with a pretence to call in the military, all classes now deeming the lately proscribed troops of the line as the defenders of order, life and property. Of the national guards of Paris no fewer than 120,000 assembled on the quays and boulevards, joined by 40,000 of the bani-

The usual exhibitions and speeches took place before the Hotel de Ville, and the cause of the communists sank apparently into insignificance. A counter demonstration is of course threatened. In the course of the tumult at the Hotel de Ville, Cabot stigmatized Lamartine as a traitor to the Republic. Lamartine withdrew and having consulted with his colleagues, orders to arrest Cabot were issued in the course of the evening. There can be no doubt that the whole affair tended to strengthen materially the moderate party in the Provisional Government. Another "unlimited" circular, published in Paris, on Saturday last, in the name of M. Ledru-Rollin, contributed greatly to indispose the Parisians to countenance the communists. Its violent tendency rendered the name of M. Ledru-Rollin so unpopular that he was compelled to disavow its authenticity, and that it had been issued from his department without his knowledge and sanction. It is evident that the sensible and moderate men at the head of the Provisional government have been secretly if not openly at variance with the extreme party. It is openly asserted that the plot of Blanqui and Cabot, on the Sunday, which so signally failed, was favored, if not concerted, by the extreme party in the Provisional Government, which, if it be true, must lead to its speedy re-construction.

Thus stood matters on Monday. On that evening Blanqui harranged his club, inciting them in the most violent language, to arm and overthrow the Government. He invited the people to pay no more taxes, to raise the wages of the workmen to five francs per day, and compel the rich to minister to the wants of the sick and aged politeriens—the new classical name for the "shirtless." It is now evident that the contest between the moderate clubs and their more violent antagonists has fairly commenced. The rappel was again beaten on the morning of Tuesday the 18th. Vast numbers of national guards were kept under arms during several hours, perhaps with a view to weary them out, and the whole capital was kept in a continual state of terror and confusion. But whilst secret arrests of the communists are taking place in different parts of Paris, it is idle to count upon the permanency of tranquility for a single day.

It is evident that the government is paving the way for the introduction of more regular troops.—General Permanently in the capital.—Remain Changer, it is expected, will assume the command of the garrison of Paris if this movement can be accomplished. And indeed, troops are beginning to arrive in Paris, and it will depend, of course, a good deal upon their fidelity and attachment to the new Republic whether tranquility can be maintained.

Such is the present state of Paris; and it will be easy to conceive how slight an event may again subvert the present system, and throw society into as great a state of confusion as on the 24th of February.

GERMANY.—The state of Germany continues to exhibit a lamentable and perplexing scene of anarchy and confusion, for whilst in France the revolution concentrates all its energy in Paris, in Germany it pervades in various forms the numerous political divisions of the country and as long as the present state of popular excitement lasts, we have no hope that order or authority will be restored.

PROGRESS OF THE REVOLUTION IN ST. DOMINGO.—FIGHTING BEGUN.—The reports of another Revolution having broken out in St. Domingo are confirmed by the arrival at New York of the brig Elizabeth, in 21 days from Marigoone. It brings intelligence that "The people, throughout the whole extent of the Island, were arming against the government." The night previous to her sailing, an army was assembling at Marigoone, to which was to be joined another force of insurgents 2,000 strong, raised at Jaemel, and both together were to give battle to the Government troops. The people appeared to be much exasperated against the President.

"While lying about forty miles from Marigoone, during a calm which occurred the day after her departure, Capt. Williams heard during the entire day the sound of heavy guns landward, and he inferred that the insurgents and government forces had met, and were fighting near Port au Prince."

The insurgents are the mulattoes, the government having sided with the blacks and allowed their demands of the abolition of the Constitution of 1816 and the restoration of that of 1846.

COURT OF INQUIRY.—The New Orleans Mercury says "All the developments of this court are a rich commentary upon the means taken to rob Gen. Scott and Smith of the honors so nobly won by their foresight and skill, and which a base conspiracy attempted to steal from them. But the people of this country will yet put a correct estimate upon the whole matter, and we hope reward the actors therein, according to their deserts. One thing appears evident, and that is, that Gen. Scott will lose nothing by the investigation, and Gen. Pillow will gain less. While certain gentlemen that have testified in the matter will acquire no fresh laurels thereby.—Truth is mighty and must prevail."

An Irishman who had commenced building a wall around his lot, of rather uncommon dimensions, viz: four feet high and six feet thick, was asked the object by a friend. "To save repairs my money. Don't you see that if it ever falls down it will be higher than it is now?"

SOLDIERS GLORY.—It is stated that a regiment a month dies in the city of Mexico, among our troops.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most extraordinary medicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors, which if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies; but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure for Rheumatism and Gout. A single 25 cent box of said Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief; and perseverance according to directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeits this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by
