ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

Seven Days Later From Europe.

The steamship Cambria, Capt. Harrison, arrived at Boston, at 10 1/2 o'clock on Saturday evening, in 14 days from Liverpool, bringing seven days later intelligence.

The news is interesting and in many respects important.

The French elections had taken place, and all passed off, as far as heard from, peacefully. The moderate republican candidates were in the ascendant in every arrondissement of Paris.

Notwithstanding the feverish state of affairs in France, and almost on every other part of the continent, as well as the political agitations going forward in every part of the United Kingdom, there is a gradual improvement taking place in the general aspect of commercial affairs.

In Spain matters seem fast progressing towards an outbreak.

Portugal, by the last accounts from Lisbon, which are to the 19th, seems on the eve of some serious movement.—Publications have been extensively made in which the abdication of the Queen in favor of her son, a new dynasty, and even a republic is spoken of.

The Provisional Government of France has abolished slavery in all the colonial possessions of the French Republic, and has also determined to disperse the German bands of marauders who are hovering on the Rhenish frontiers.

The cotton market was quiet. Bandstuffs of all kinds were in good demand, and from a variety of causes, prices had an upward tendency.

[From Wilmer and Smith's European Times.]

ONE O'CLOCK, APRIL 20.

APPLICATION FOR MARTIAL LAW IN DUBLIN.—Letters from Dublin city, dated last night, say:—The tone of the repeal organs is much abated—a result no doubt, of the new "gagging" act.—The most important item of news is a letter from the Bishop of Elphin to Lord Shrewsbury, in which the writer gives the names and residences of individuals ejected by the late Major Mahon! The letter was written in a mild spirit, and will no doubt, produce a sensible effect in this country, where it is generally supposed the deceased gentleman's conduct has been misrepresented and calumniated.

At a meeting of Magistrates of the county and city of Dublin held at Kilmainham, Lord Barbazon in the chair, a memorial to the Lord Lieutenant was adopted, praying his excellency to place the city of Dublin under the provisions of the Coercion Act.

We learn by a letter from Lord Shrewsbury to Mrs. Sarah Maury, of Liverpool, that the Pope had very graciously received the envoy of the United States accredited to the Court of Rome. The Pope, addressing him, said—"I shall be extremely happy to enter into treaty with so great a nation; especially with one in which the church has nothing to fear from the government, nor the government from the church."

ATONA, Monday, April 24, Noon.

GREAT BATTLE, AND TAKING OF SCHLESWIG BY THE PRUSSIANS.—The train from Rendsburg has brought intelligence of the taking of the town of Schleswig by the troops of the Confederation, after an engagement which lasted from 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Easter Sunday until 11 at night. The fortification called the Dannevirck, on which the Danish artillery was placed, was taken by the Prussians at the point of the bayonet, after the battery had been silenced by the field pieces of the Hanoverian contingent. Schleswig then fell into the hands of the Confederation.

The conflict was a bloody one, the Danes having a strong position, and doing great execution with their artillery and riflemen before it was carried. The Danes had from 10,000 to 12,000 men, that of the Confederation was the greatest, but it was not all engaged; four Prussian regiments of the guard and line formed the bulk of the attacking army. The loss of the Prussians, so far as can be gathered from the unauthenticated accounts, is about 300 men killed and wounded, principally of the 2d and 20th regiments. Up to Monday, 110 wounded had been brought into the Rendsburg hospital. That of the Danes is not yet known, from having fought comparatively under cover, it is not so great.

FRANCE.—Latest advices from Paris state that the election returns, from the sections as well as from the departments, continue to be most satisfactory to those who desire to see the moderate party, represented in the Provisional Government by M. Lamartine, prevail. In almost every arrondissement in Paris, M. Lamartine and the moderate party in the Government head the lists, and throughout the departments the commissaries of M. Ledru-Rollin are at a great discount. The intelligence had produced a very sensible improvement in the money market. It was reported that M. Albert had gone over from Rollin's to Lamartine's party in the Cabinet, and that M. Ledru-Rollin was only waiting for the meeting of the National Assembly to resign his post as Minister, without waiting for a dismissal.

AUSTRIAN ITALY.—REPORTED BATTLE BETWEEN THE ITALIAN AND AUSTRIAN

FORCES.—The news of the intention of the King of Sardinia to abandon the war of Independence, rather than consent to the establishment of a republic in Lombardy, is confirmed.

A dispatched arrived at Milan on the 10th, from the head quarters of the Piedmontese army, bringing the news of an attack, directed by the King of Sardinia in person, against the Austrians stationed in the neighborhood of Mantua. The Duke of Savoy (the heir apparent to the Sardinia throne) was also present at this affair. After a very warm engagement, and in which the Piedmont troops displayed the greatest courage and bravery, the Austrians were obliged to retire, and shut themselves up in the fortresses.

PRUSSIA.—The accounts from Prussia are very unsatisfactory. The people have no confidence in their King, who remains at Posdam, surrounded by the men whose comrades fell bravely but ingloriously. His majesty hopes to regain their confidence, and trusts that they will stand by him in case of need. But, according to the latest intelligence, this will not be in their power.

The accounts from Prussia Poland continue to be most melancholy. According to the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the Polish insurgents are committing the grossest excesses.—They have broken up, it appears, into small bands, and they are now wandering about the country, levying black mail on the inhabitants.

GERMANY.—The news from Germany is much of the same character as it was last week. It is far from encouraging. The violent but partial agitation produced by the first shock of the revolution has subsided into a general ferment, which is losing the foundation of social order, and carrying away, one by one, the pillars which support the political fabric. Republicanism raises its head here and there, but meets at present with but little sympathy. The real apprehensions are to be found, first, in the wild bewilderment, the unrepressed and irrepressible lawlessness, occasioned by the removal of government barriers, to which (however ill-constructed) the people had grown accustomed, and which had become the embodiment of their ideas of political order; secondly, in the want and distrust which are now spreading first among agricultural, not less than the manufacturing classes—from one end of Germany to the other. Hanover, Vienna and Berlin, all tell the same story in different words.

AUSTRIA.—We published, in the postscript of our latest paper, the basis of the new constitution granted by the Emperor. The Austrian Government has honorably and in good faith accepted the revolution. It has retreated and succumbed before an inevitable necessity. It is said that the Archduke Reiner is commissioned by the Emperor to effect a full and amicable settlement with the people of Lombardy. It remained to be seen whether the latter will prefer to continue nominally annexed to the Austrian Empire, but with free and independent institutions, or whether in the attempt to separate altogether, they will be weak enough to run the risk of falling a prey to the ambition of the King of Sardinia.

SICILY.—Advices from Palermo state that the Sicilian Parliament continued its sitting.

After a few words from M. Perez, M. Interdonado exclaimed that the house should begin by proclaiming the downfall of Ferdinand and his dynasty, a republican monarchy, the government of an Italian prince, and that the country should be saved. The adoption of the decree was then carried amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

The decree was as follows:—The Parliament declares—1st Ferdinand Bourbon and his dynasty are forever fallen from the throne of Sicily. 2d. Sicily shall govern herself constitutionally, and call to the throne an Italian prince, as soon as she shall have reformed her statuto.

The town was to be illuminated on the three nights following. On the 14th, all the bronzed statues of the house of Bourbon were thrown down, beginning with that of Philip V. That of Charles II, alone was spared, because he was a prince. Those statues were to be cast into canon.

DIED.

In Alexandria, on the 18th inst., of consumption, Mrs. MATILDA WILSON, aged 25 years, 5 months and 15 days.

In Lewistown, on Thursday morning last, A. O. BROWN, of Shirleysburg, in this county, aged about 28 years.

PAIN OR DISTRESS OF ANY KIND, whether of gout, rheumatism, headache, toothache, or any other kind of ache, is in all cases caused by impure humors of the blood, which have lodged upon the parts, and which nothing save vegetable purging (purifying) can remove, because by no other means can impurity be driven from the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills have no superior, if indeed they have an equal in removing every description of pain; because they carry off, by the stomach and bowels, all morbid and corrupt humors (the cause of the disease) in an easy and natural manner. Four or five of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, taken on going to bed, will in a short time drive pain or distress of every kind from the system, and restore the body to a state of sound health.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeit pills. The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by

The Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.

The market is quiet, and with light receipts of Flour and Grain, prices are steady. We notice sales during the past week of about 2500 bbls Flour at $5, 87 1/2 a $6 per bbl for Pa. standard brands; $6 for Ohio, and $6 25 for Brandywine with some lots in half bbls. at $6 62 1/2 per pair. Sales of choice and extra brands for city use at $6 50 a $6 75 per bbl. Rye Flour is scarce with small sales at $3 87 1/2 a $4 per bbl. Corn meal is required for sales of 1500 bbls. at $2 37 1/2. There is less inquiry for Wheat to-day, and prices are rather heavy, while buyers are looking for lower prices. Sales of 18000 bu. closing at 138 a 140c. for good reds, and 142c. for white. Small sales of Rye at 78c. Corn is firm, under the influence of an active demand, closing at 42c. wt., for Southern yellow, the sales during the week amounting to about 23 000 bu. Oats are dull at 37 a 38c. for Southern, and 40 a 42 for Pa. Cloverseed is in request at $3 75 a $4 for prime free.
