

FROM WASHINGTON.

Important Commercial Treaty.

WASHINGTON, June 16, 1848. The Senate yesterday ratified an important commercial treaty with New Grenada.

The President yesterday sent in the following nominations to the Senate: Hon Isaac Toucy, of Connecticut, Attorney General, vice Nathan Clifford, resigned.

Hon. A. P. Bagby, of Ala., Minister to Russia, vice Hon. Ralph Ingersoll, recalled. Calvin Ingersoll, of Conn., Secretary of the Russian Legation.

The Peace Commissioners.

Major Graham, who arrived here yesterday, reports that Commissioner Sevier is now on his way to this country, and may be expected here within ten days, bringing with him the ratified treaty.

Gen. Taylor and Free Territory.

The Boston Atlas contains the following very important announcement: Col. Johnson, of Upper Pequa, Ohio, who was selected by the Whigs of Miami, as their delegate to the convention—a staunch, undoubted Whig, who has, in a long life devoted to the cause, done it great service—a delegate to Harrisburg in 1839, and to Baltimore in 1841, and who has known Gen. Taylor long and intimately, writes, in a letter before us, that he is all we could desire upon this very point.

He writes that he has heard him declare, with much force, that he regarded slavery as a great evil to the country, and expressed a strong hope that the time might arrive when we could get rid of it altogether; and Col. Johnson declares his firmest conviction that Gen. Taylor "is the last man to countenance its being extended to any new territory that may be brought into the Union."

More Grape.

The Hon. CURCHILL C. CAMBRELING, in his speech last week at New York, told some truths to his brother democrats. In the course of his remarks he said that, "from the first roll of the drum at Palo Alto to the conquest of the city of Mexico, the President and Secretary of War had been laboring to make a President for them, and that President would be Zachary Taylor, for he is the man after the hearts of the people."

Murder in Moyamensing Prison.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15, 1848. At an early hour this morning, an inmate named Bew, killed Wm. Johnston, who was placed in the cell to prevent the former from doing himself any harm; the murdered man was literally cut to pieces.

Langfeldt, the murderer of Mrs. Rademacher, will hear his death warrant read this afternoon, by Sheriff Lelar, to be hung on the 20th of October.

DREADFUL STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.—The steamboat H. Kenny, Capt. Miller, exploded on the Tombigbee river, Alabama, on Saturday last. Thirty persons were killed or are missing, twelve are badly maimed, and two shockingly scalded. The boat sunk a few minutes after the explosion. The wounded were conveyed to the Marine Hospital, where the best medical assistance was rendered to the unfortunate sufferers.

The steamer Clarksville was burnt near Ozark's Island, on the 27th of May. Thirty deck passengers, the crew, and Captain Holmes, were lost. The cabin passengers were saved.

FEMALE CLUBS.—All the male population of Paris are formed into clubs, and now it appears the women have been seized with the same gregarious propensity. There was recently a meeting of the females' club held in one of the theatres, to organize work for women, on principles of Fraternity, and to secure to each at least one franc per day. Le Droit gives the following account of the affair:

"It would be impossible to describe the spectacle presented by the club de femmes, on Thursday evening, under the presidency of the Citoyenne N. We cannot give an idea of the tumult, the disorder, the uproar, which took place. There was nothing but cries, hisses, vociferations, pressing, crushing, even fighting. The windows and the glasses were smashed, but no speaker of either sex could obtain a hearing, not even the Abbe Chatel, not even the Citoyenne N. The sitting at length broke up in the midst of universal laughter, and was postponed to another day; but men are not to be admitted another time."

MAINE SENATOR.—The Legislature of Maine has elected the Hon. HANNIBAL HAMLIN a Senator of the United States to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of the Hon. JOHN FAIRFIELD, and occupy the Seat now temporarily filled by Mr. MOORE under an appointment from the Governor. Mr. HAMLIN has served two or three terms in the House of Representatives, and while there was a friend of the Wilnot Proviso. He is, of course, a Locofoco.

AN ARMY OF THEM.—It is estimated that 600,000 men will take a part in the Presidential election of 1848, who, in 1844, were between the ages of 17 and 21. And it is further estimated that three-fourths of them are Whigs.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Acadia arrived at Boston a few days ago, with one week later news.—The news possesses interest, but we have no room for details.

The surface of political affairs in France was somewhat more calm.—There is a lull, for a moment, in Paris, but the disposition is tending to violence and mob government. The Provinces are frightfully disaffected. A dreadful insurrection had occurred at Naples, and many lives had been lost.

A new demonstration had taken place at Vienna, which had led to the flight of the Emperor of Austria, but it was hoped that he would be induced to return.

The English Minister at Madrid had received his passports, and the affair had created no little excitement in England.

A furious outbreak had taken place at Seville, and Lyons was temporarily in the hands of the Terrorists.

The British House of Lords had rejected the bill for the Emancipation of the Jews.

Great excitement prevailed at Berlin on the opening of the National Assembly, and Mitchell, the Irish repealer, has been convicted.

The Fraternity Festival in Paris passed off without disturbance. Barbes, confined in prison at Vincennes, had made an unsuccessful attempt to escape, and there have been further arrests in Ireland.

LATER.—The Steamer "America" arrived at Boston on Tuesday evening, with news one week later.

Mitchell, the Irish Repealer, has been sentenced to fourteen years transportation, and great excitement prevails in Ireland.

There have been more chartist disturbances in England. The continental news is warlike. One or two battles are recorded. One between the Danes and Germans.

France is tranquil.

THE MODERN DIOGENES.—A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Express tells the following anecdote, whose raucous persons of all political sentiments will enjoy. After the ratification meeting in favor of Cass and Butler, the other evening, a procession was formed, which visited, in succession, the houses of Senators Dix, Benton and others.

When the crowd had arrived in front of Benton's house, that Senator merely looked out of the window and thanked his friends for the honor conferred by the call. But the venerable editor of the Union, with a lantern in his hand, and blithe as a lark, called out "come down, Senator, and let us hear how Missouri is going."

"Ah," said said the Senator, "is that you, father Ritchie; you remind me of Diogenes with his lantern in his hand, looking about the streets of Syracuse, for an honest man."

The New Orleans Delta says, that Gen. Taylor has had 2,000 copies of his Allison letter printed on fine letter paper, and that whenever he receives a letter from a politician asking his opinions on any political subject, without putting himself to the trouble of reading it through, he quietly sits down, folds up one of the Allison copies, and transmits it to his inquiring friend and correspondent.

A GENUINE LOCOFOCO.—An exchange paper tells a story of a gentleman in Berks county, a member of the Democratic party, whose attachment to regular nominations was happily illustrated.

"The Convention have nominated Polk," said a wag to him, who had obtained possession of the real news. "Polk! just the man we want!" "No, no, I was mistaken," said the wag; "Woodbury—Woodbury is the nominee."

"Woodbury! Good! Nobody can run so well as Woodbury. He is the best man in the party." Well, after all, it is neither Polk nor Woodbury, but Cass. "Better still! Three cheers for Cass! Who can run so well as Cass!"

Miss Rachael B. Wallace, late of Burlington, by her last Will, bequeathed to Burlington College the sum of two thousand dollars; of which the interest is to be applied, under the direction of the Bishop, to aid such candidates for holy orders as he may select, in pursuing their theological studies at Burlington College.

Sarah Jane Pinkerton, who was tried in Boston for the murder of her mother, was acquitted by the jury, on the grounds that she did not know the effects of administering the arsenic to her, supposing it would only make her sick. The Jury were absent three hours.

CASS VS JEFFERSON.—The Louisville Journal says that the first appearance of Gen. Cass upon the public stage, was signaled by a series of ferocious attacks upon Mr. Jefferson, in a series of papers written in New Hampshire, which will shortly be re-published. Yet this is the man who speaks of the Whigs as Hamiltonian Federalists!

There was a tremendous gathering of the Whigs of Philadelphia at the Chinese Museum on Monday evening of last week, at which addresses were made by Mayor Swift, Ex-Governor Jones, of Tennessee, Hon. James Cooper, and Gen. Leslie Combs, of Kentucky.

CONSTIPATION OF THE BOWELS OF COSTIVENESS, headache, giddiness, pain in the side and breast, nausea and sickness, variable appetite, yellow or swarthy complexion, &c., are the usual symptoms of Liver Complaint. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are always certain to remove the above complaints, because they purge from the body those morbid humors which are the cause, not only of all disorders of the liver, but of every malady incident to man. A single 25 cent box will in all cases give relief, and perseverance will most assuredly drive every particle of disease from the body.

Complexion.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are the best cosmetic in the world; because they cleanse and purify the body of those morbid humors which, lodged in the cuticle, are the cause not only of yellow or swarthy complexion and roughness of the skin, but of all kinds of eruptive diseases. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, as well as cleanse and purify the blood, and, therefore, give health and vigor to the whole frame, which, in turn, will be sure to give a clear and healthy complexion.

Beware of sugar coated counterfeits.—The only original and genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the signature of William Wright written with a pen on the top label of each box. None other is genuine and to counterfeit this is Forgery. The genuine for sale by
