

The Fourth of July in Old Huntingdon.

Another yearly National Sabbath has come and gone. A beautiful index of double import it points both to Past and Future. To the Past—a memorial of that new Creation finished on the memorable Fourth of July, 1776, just evolved from the conflicting elements of opinions, principles and feelings which so long were "without form and void" during the Colonial separation period of our Country's History—a memorial too of the dawn of red and freedom from British bondage. To the Future—a type of peace, tranquility and prosperity, pointing not only to Civil Freedom but also to sweeter liberty, when a Nation may sing the songs of a new Independence, having entirely broken the yokes of another King—old Alcohol, and escaped a blacker bondage than Egyptian. It must indeed be a "chosen people" that is permitted to enjoy such Sabbaths.

The day of Jubilee was one of happy feeling in Huntingdon,—of joyous satisfaction expressed and visible, though not of that violent and exciting nature which mostly ends unpleasantly. The inhabitants all rested from their usual labors and avocations and enjoyed the hours in Social and Intellectual delights, together with a spice of "creature comforts."

The very appropriate Union-Celebration of "Citizens," "Sons" and "Sunday Schools" did honor to the Town and Nation. Who could suppress or express the strong and pleasing emotions which must rise in the bosom of every one beholding the scenes of the day? There was the long procession, "a banner'd host" decked with garlands and regalia, winding in graceful curves through the village. Mark that procession—The Sons of Temperance were there, in beauty and in strength with sober tread and manly bearing, speaking home to the heart of the spectator the language of Epochs from which all must judge that a brighter era has dawned upon our "loved land"—that society has been making rapid progress, throwing off and trampling the old, tattered garments and modes of thought, feeling and action with base habits fit only for mire and drunkenness and immorality, yet moving nobly forward assuming new robes of beauty and utility in texture and in mould adapted to beings having claim to mind and morals. How pleasing the change since the "Fourth," Fifty, Twenty, Ten years ago! Then the language of the times was portrayed in such unsightly, disgusting characters that the mere relation now would corrupt the morals of the children. The veil which hides the Past is not without its uses.

The Sunday Schools were there, in smiles and sweetness with purity and brightness. Teachers and groups of little ones together linked like rich flowers and buds on the cluster Rose bush. How appropriate for them to Celebrate our National Sabbath! For the Sunday School is the best nursery of Church and State, where are cradled and nurtured the very best members of the Ministry and of Congress. It is an institution which can be made to effect more, in changing the whole aspect of the world for the better, than any other established since the first promulgation of Christianity. Its influence like odours unseen spreads through all the circles of Society. The Sunday School of to-day embraces and moulds several generations of the Future. Let every Sunday School throughout the Union learn to observe and celebrate these National Sabbaths through revolving years to come.

The "Huntingdon Brass Band" was there, discoursing melodies, thrilling and uniting all hearts with sympathetic influence induced by the "linked sweetness long drawn out," so potent in magic of the heart!

Change now the scene from Procession to the Assembly—from the moving multitude, to the gathered throng, seated in silence in the ample Hall of Justice. There are the gilded banners with their impressive mottoes, arranged around that multitude of old and young now in calm—the silvered locks and sunny curls giving a mingled beauty to the scene. Then in solemn silence all wait in prayer, then the waves of music swell, then the good old "Declaration" and the Eloquence of Orators,—then the participation in feasts of "fat things" and the mingling currents of the "flow of soul," and then the varied throngs break up with tranquil satisfaction, the laughing groups and squads separate and retire, and soon all is rest, whilst the stillness of a Sabbath eve pervades the village and fills every bosom with sacred sweetness. Type of Eternal Sabbath—Monument of Present Progress—memorial of Past Conceptions!

THANKS.
At the mention of the "Huntingdon Journal" by one of the Cass orators the other night, the audience gave three cheers! And they were about the only hearty cheers we heard during the evening. For this kind consideration, our Cass friends will please accept our sincere thanks. We felt sure that mere party differences would not prevent them from appreciating our new and beautiful head, and the other improvements we have recently made in the Journal.

GEN. TAYLOR AMONG THE VOLUNTEERS.—The Springfield (O.) Republican learns from the best of private authority, that four hundred returning Volunteers reported themselves at Newport Barracks, a few days since. Being anxious to express their opinions as to the Presidency, they took a vote among themselves, which resulted as follows:
Taylor, 398
Scattering, 211

John Van Buren is always ready at a repartee. At the great Barnburner meeting in New York, on Tuesday, a voice in the crowd cried out, "Three cheers for Cass!" "Don't my friend," said John Van Buren, "they will think you are whistling at a funeral, if you do that."

Cross-Firing.
The Cass orators exhausted all their ammunition the other night to prove that Gen. Taylor is not a Whig. The Globe of last week occupies more than a half column to prove that the old Hero is a rank Whig! Which of the stories are we to believe?

BRADY TOWNSHIP IN THE FIELD.

Taylor Meeting.
Pursuant to previous notice, a large and respectable meeting of the Whigs of Brady township was held in the School House at Mill Creek, on Saturday evening of July 1st, 1848. The meeting was called to order by Capt. John Watson, and organized by appointing SAMUEL R. STEVENS, President. E. PLOWMAN, MATTHEW GILL, AMOS LAUGHLIN and GEORGE HAWN, Vice Presidents. Conrad Yother and Michael Maley, Secretaries.

Capt. Watson then presented and read to the Club a Constitution and rules and regulations which were adopted for the government of the Club.

On motion, the Chair appointed the following persons a Committee to nominate officers for the permanent organization of the Club, viz: Capt. Watson, Jas. McDonald and Richard Plowman. After which the meeting was addressed by Jno. Williamson, Esq., Jas. Clark, and Col. A. R. Cornyn of Huntingdon, in their usual eloquent style. The Speakers were listened to with much attention and occasionally interrupted by bursts of applause from the audience. After the Speakers had closed, the committee appointed for the purpose, reported the following persons for officers of the Club.

President, JAS. McDONALD.
MATTHEW GILL, JAS. MILLER, EDWARD PLOWMAN, JAS. McCracken, Vice Presidents.

S. R. Stevens, J. R. McCarthy, Recording Secretaries.
John Watson, Corresponding Secretary.
L. G. Kessler, Treasurer.

On motion, the nominations were unanimously confirmed by the Club.

On motion Capt. Watson, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the gentlemen who favored us with their eloquent speeches.

On motion of Jas. McDonald, it was agreed that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Huntingdon Journal.

On motion, the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Taylor and Fillmore, three cheers for Mr. Middlesworth, three cheers for the Speakers and three cheers for the Whigs of Brady township.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the steamship Cambria we have important intelligence from Europe. In England the prospects for crops was good, and prices of grain falling. Ireland is tranquil. The Chartist demonstration in England has proved a failure. In France the Bonaparte family has caused trouble, young Louis Napoleon having been elected a member of the National Assembly. The rest of Europe remained pretty much as at previous advices.

EXCITEMENT IN FRANCE!

The chief subject of disension in political circles, and the source of serious alarm to the Republican parties, is the diffusion of the spirit of imperialism throughout the country, but more especially in the army. Several Regiments have shouted "Vive l'Empereur!" many more have cried "Vive Louis Napoleon!" When the name of Louis Napoleon was announced from the steps of the Hotel de Ville, the military who were on the place raised their caps on the tops of their bayonets in token of exultation. On the 12th inst., an immense crowd had been attracted outside of the hall of the Assembly, under the idea of seeing Prince Louis Napoleon pass to take his seat. The crowd having raised the cry of "Vive Louis Napoleon! Vive l'Empereur!" the general in command ordered the National Guards and troops to clear the place. The crowd resisted and some pistol shots were fired, by which some of the officers of the cavalry were wounded. The shots were heard in the Assembly, and shortly afterwards, at half past five, M. de Lamartine mounted the tribune very pale and in a state of agitation, and announced that a serious circumstance had just occurred in the Place de la Concorde, blood had been spilt—a shot had been fired to the cry of "Vive l'Empereur Napoleon!" The gravity of the circumstance required energetic measures. He then announced a bill excluding Prince Louis Napoleon from France, but allowing the rest of the family to remain. The announcement was received with acclamations. But the next day the Assembly thought better of it, and Louis Napoleon Bonaparte was admitted a member.

Later intelligence says that two days after he resigned his seat, and Paris was again tranquil.

"Old Whites"—"Clear the Track!"
The Nashville Whig, upon hearing the nomination of Cass and Butler by the Baltimore Convention, thus speaks:

Fetch out old "Whites!"—Fetch him Out!—We heard from him recently, and he was in tip-top condition—standing straight upon his pasterns, and bearing on the bit.

"He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth out to meet the armed men."

"He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted: neither turneth he back from the sword."

"The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield."

"He smellth the battle afar off; the thunder of the captains and the shouting."

Talk about beating this dear, gallant old war horse! Nonsense! Why he has been trained by HONESTY, has PATRIOTISM for his rider, and is entered by the PEOPLE! Clear the Track!—Don't you see, he's coming!

SIX DEMOCRATIC PAPERS, published in New York, which had raised the Cass and Butler flag, have since hauled it down and declared for Van Buren and free soil. A similar movement is going on in Massachusetts.

Arrival of Mr. Mitchell at Bermuda.
NEW YORK, July 7, 1848.

By an arrival at this port from Bermuda, we learn that Mitchell the Irish patriot, arrived there on the 20th ult., on board the British man-of-war Scourge. He was immediately transferred to the convict ship Dromedary.

A WONDERFUL PHENOMENON.

A singular phenomenon was brought to light a week ago yesterday, in the township of greenfield, about eight miles from this city. The facts are very nearly as follows:—

The Messrs Grangers in boring to find water to supply their steam saw mill, sunk a four inch hole to the depth of 70 feet, when they struck a vein or cavity. As they withdrew the auger from the hole, to their great surprise, it was followed by a violent current of air that threw up stones as large as hen eggs, ten or fifteen feet high. For a few moments when the hole was first opened, the air was accompanied by a stream of water which was thrown ten or twelve feet high. The water, however, soon ceased coming, and the air gushed out with such force that the roar could be distinctly heard fifty or sixty rods distant. On touching fire to the air it caught, and the flames flashed twenty feet high, and came near burning the building, covering the machinery in which it is located. They finally succeeded, with considerable difficulty, in stopping it, by forcing down blankets, and driving a spile into the hole, which was their only means of stopping the air or gas, and extinguishing the flames. For several moments after the hole was stopped, the earth trembled and shook for some distance around, as though an eruption was about to take place. The people, who, by this time had gathered to the number of about one hundred, were greatly alarmed at these symptoms, and scattered with all possible rapidity, supposing that "Millerism" was about coming to a focus, or that they were about to be blown up sky high by an earthquake. From the time it was opened till it was thus closed, was about six hours, and the air gushed out all of the time with unabated force.

It has been opened several times since with the same effect. The power and force of the air does not seem to diminish in the least. The Messrs. Grangers are proposing to secure it with apparatus so as to shut it off and let it out at leisure, and test its real qualities. The people in that vicinity are all confident now, that it can be conveyed here in pipes, and successfully used in lighting the city with gas, from this great underground Gasometer. We learn that several scientific gentlemen of this city intend visiting it soon.

DIED.
On the 26th ult., in Minersville, Schuylkill county, ELIZABETH, daughter of Rev. A. A. and Susanna K. Anderson, aged 11 years.

AGUE MEDICINE!

DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, for the cure of Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Enlargement of the Liver, Enlargement of the Spleen, and all the various forms of Bilious Diseases.

This excellent compound is for sale by the proprietor's Agent T. READ & SON, Price $1 50 per bottle.

What is the matter with me, Doctor? What the cause of this sallow complexion, jaundiced eye, depression of spirits, pain in the side and shoulder, weariness of body, bitter taste in the mouth? Such is the enquiry, and such the symptoms of many a sufferer! It is the liver which is diseased, and the Cholagogue is the remedy always successful in curing it. Try it, and judge for yourself. For sale by T. Read & Son, agent for the proprietor.

Better die than live, if I am to be tortured from day to day with this horrible Ague, exclaims the poor sufferer whose life has become a burden from the racking paroxysms of an intermittent, and whose confidence in human aid is destroyed by the failure of remedies to produce the promised relief. Such has been the situation of thousands who are now rejoicing in all the blessings of health from the use of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. In no instance does it fail of effecting a speedy and permanent cure. For sale by the proprietor's agent, T. READ & SON.

How few who think aright among the thinking few, How many never think, but only think they do."

The sentiment implied in the above exclamation is on no subject more fully exemplified than on that of health. But few give it a single thought, and fewer still reflect upon it with the observation and good sense which matters of minor consequence receive. As observation teaches the fact that Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is a never failing remedy in Fever and Ague, good sense would surely indicate its prompt and immediate use. To be found at T. READ & SON'S, agent for the proprietor.

June 27, 1848.
