

HUNTINGDON, TUESDAY, JULY 18, 1848.

Democratic Whig Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT: GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: MILLARD FILLMORE.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER: NEB MIDDLESWARTH.

V. B. PALMER, Esq., is our authorized agent for receiving advertisements and subscriptions in the cities of Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York, and for collecting and receiving for the same.

The son of Mr. Charles Hopkins, drowned at Barre Forge recently, was aged two years, not ten, as was erroneously stated in our last.

Our latest accounts from Harrisburg represent Ex-Governor Shunk as rapidly sinking under his disease.

We have received the first No. of a new Whig paper just started in Washington, Pa., by SETH T. HERB, Esq. entitled "The Commonwealth." It is a large and beautiful paper, and is, of course ably edited. We wish friend Herb abundant success, both pecuniarily and politically.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Whig party of Huntingdon county, as will be seen by a published call in another column, are again requested to assemble in County Convention, to perform the important duty of nominating a WHIG COUNTY TICKET. That this call will be responded to by every district in the county we do not doubt. That a somewhat different policy from that which prevailed on at least one former occasion of this kind will be adopted, is our sincere hope. Let those who undertake to represent the people, in the performance of this duty, take care that their wishes, and not the views of particular candidates for office, govern their action. Let the general welfare of the Party, and not the selfish and interested views of the few, predominate. In short, let the errors of the Past be carefully avoided, and the Future promises nothing but victory to the Whig Standard in Huntingdon county.

To our friends in the different townships we would therefore respectfully suggest: select as your delegates men of known devotion to the cause—of sufficient intelligence to understand the sentiments of their district, and of honesty enough to faithfully carry out those sentiments. When such delegates are selected, pledges or instructions are not necessary. It is better to leave them untrammelled; for we have high authority for saying that the man who cannot be trusted without pledges, is not safe when he gives them.

The resignation of Governor Shunk makes it necessary to go into an election for Governor in October. This fact lends additional importance to the coming campaign. To elect a Whig Governor, in addition to placing honest old ZACHARY TAYLOR in the Presidential chair, would render our ancient Commonwealth, what nature has designed she should be, one of the most prosperous and important States in this Union. Let us, then, fellow Whigs of Huntingdon county, prepare so to act in the coming County Convention, as to infuse the greatest harmony and concert of action into our ranks; and thus enable us, in October and November to roll up such majorities as will carry dismay into the ranks of the spoilsmen and gladden the heart of every true friend of the interests of Pennsylvania and the Union at large. We can do it, if we will.

Adjutant General.

Among the first duties of Governor Johnston, will be the appointment of an Adjutant General, to take the place of G. W. Bowman, Esq., whose term of office expired on the 15th inst. We know of no gentleman who could be selected for this office more universally acceptable to the people, than would be the appointment of Capt. SAMUEL D. KARNS. Capt. K. has labored long and faithfully for the Whig party, and is justly deserving any distinction that can be conferred upon him. On account of his gentlemanly demeanor, generous disposition and superior social qualities, he is deservedly popular with men of all parties. We therefore hope to hear of his appointment as Adjutant General of Pennsylvania.

Pa. Volunteers.

The two Pennsylvania Regiments of Volunteers have arrived at Pittsburgh. Capt. Miller's company, second Regiment, passed through this place on Sunday evening last, on board the packet Wm. Colder. As it requires some time to muster the men out of service, it is not certain when the remaining companies will pass through.

Foreign News.

By the foreign news given in another column, it will be seen that there has been a most desperate and bloody struggle in Paris, between the insurgents and the government troops. Every Republican, however, will be gratified that the Republic has been sustained, although at an immense cost of human life.

The rain has at length ceased, and our farmers are now engaged taking in their splendid grain crops. In some instances, we regret to learn, the grain has been materially injured by growth.

The editor of the Globe says he heard "audible hisses" at the close of our remarks on the evening of the Fourth. So did we, and we saw who gave them too—the editor of the Huntingdon Globe and another gentleman.

Politics and Temperance.

A new feature has been introduced into the Locooco tactics in this county. The Taylor men are not only to be on all occasions denounced as Tories, by the leading orator of the party—the prosecuting attorney—but that officer is hereafter to publicly attack every friend of the old Hero who takes a drink, as a common drunkard—utterly unworthy the notice of the friends of that early and leading Temperance man, Gen. Cass. The editor of the Globe is to re-echo these charges in his paper, with such additions as his pure mind and long experience as a temperance reformer may suggest. And to better qualify them for this duty, the prosecuting attorney and his worthy co-laborer of the Globe, are to attend all Taylor meetings, held at public houses, in the capacity of spies; secretly station themselves either at the windows or behind the bar-room door, and take down the names of all who may see proper to indulge in anything stronger than water. These names, or at least those among them against whom they may harbor ill-will, or who take an active part in the meeting as speakers or in preventing Locooco disturbance, are to be publicly proclaimed, with appropriate comments, at the first Cass meeting that can be drummed up, and then published in the columns of the Globe. Thus these two worthless hope, if they can do nothing more, to at least vent their personal spleen on all who dare to publicly resent their former sneaking and cowardly personal assaults, or who take an active part in advancing the cause of the glorious old Hero of Buena Vista. We know of no one who envies them their honorable position.

Without intending it, the Rough and Ready Club meeting in this borough, on Wednesday evening last, turned out to be a grand Taylor demonstration—much larger than the Cass meeting which cost so much labor. The meeting was called to order in Carmon's rooms, but the crowd was so great that a platform was at once erected at the door, from which the concourse of people present were addressed by T. H. Cremer, Esq., Major George Raymond, Col. A. K. Cornyn and John Williamson, Esq. The eloquent and forcible speeches of these gentlemen were greeted with great applause. The proceedings throughout were enlivened by martial music and spirit-stirring Taylor Songs by the Glee Club. The air was frequently rent by cheer after cheer for old Zachary, Fillmore and Middleswarth.

Major Raymond, in the course of his remarks, threw quite an effective shower of grape into the ranks of the Cass men, by reading the "Circular of the Democratic Taylor Central Committee," issued Sep. 3, 1847, in which Gen. TAYLOR is endorsed as a good democrat, and every way qualified to fill the Presidential chair. This address is signed by upwards of thirty leading Locoocos of Pennsylvania, and among them no less a personage than ISRAEL PAINTER, the now Locooco candidate for Canal Commissioner! We shall publish this document in due time. During the reading of the Circular, the leading Cass men present suddenly came to the conclusion that it was growing late, and therefore mizzled with great unanimity! The eulogy of Gen. Taylor by Whigs, they could stand; but to hear one recently so prominent in their party as was Major Raymond, reading an endorsement of old Rough and Ready by the very leaders of their party, carried as much terror into their ranks, as did Capt. Bragg's battery into the camp of the Mexicans.

The Barnburners in Pennsylvania.

There was quite a demonstration of the friends of Van Buren at Pittsburgh, on Friday evening, Geo. W. JACKSON, Esq., in the chair. Mr. E. D. GAZZAM reported a set of resolutions, approving of the proceedings of the Utica Convention, and making various suggestions to complete a fuller organization of the friends of "free soil" throughout the State. The resolutions were adopted by acclamation. Mr. Wells and other gentlemen spoke. The meeting was large, and good order prevailed.

A meeting of friends of Mr. Van Buren in Wayne county was held at Honesdale on the evening of the 4th inst.

PURVISAS AMON of Prompton, was appointed President; Harrison Gregory of Bethany, and John Kelly of Honesdale, Vice Presidents; George M. Reynolds and Abram Swarts, Secretaries.

On motion of Samuel E. Dimmick, a committee of seven was appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.—The Chair named the following persons said committee—S. E. Dimmick, John F. Lord, Justice Sears, Francis Drake, Isaac Osborn, James Baker and Eliphath Wood.

The meeting was addressed by Frederick Saxton and S. E. Dimmick. Strong resolutions in favor of Van Buren, approving the doings of the Utica Convention, and lauding the Hon. David Wilmot were adopted. The following was adopted:

Resolved, That we highly approve of the holding of a National Convention, by the friends of Martin Van Buren and Free Soil, at Buffalo, on the 9th day of August next, and suggest the holding of a State Convention in this State, some time in September next.

The Locooco Central Committee have called a State Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor, to meet in Harrisburg on the 30th of August next. Canal Commissioner Longstreth, and Wm. Bigler, Esq., of Clearfield are the prominent candidates for nomination.

Important Rumor.

We have been informed by a gentleman from the East, that efforts are now being made to get Gen. Cass to decline in favor of Mr. Van Buren. Can this be possible?

Fire at Bedford.

A destructive fire broke out at Bedford, Pa., on Wednesday morning last, in the stables belonging to the Stage Company and others. In all five stables were destroyed. In those belonging to Col Ottinger 12 horses were burned, seven carriages and harness, together with a large lot of grain, were all destroyed. There were also four teams, four coaches and five sets of harness destroyed in the stables belonging to the Stage Company.

THE BRADFORD REPORTER, published in Mr. Wilmot's village, has run up the name of Martin Van Buren for President.

Hear the gallant Capt. Bragg.

"A LITTLE MORE GRAPE, CAPT. BRAGG!" The remark of Gen. Taylor at the battle of Buena Vista, "A little more Grape, Capt. Bragg!" has become a proverb for encouragement in trying exigencies. The distinguished officer, who commanded the battery on that occasion, was, on the 4th inst. presented with a sword by the citizens of Mobile. In his reply to the speech made on the formal presentation of the sword, Lieut. Col. Bragg said:

For all the success that has attended me in performing those duties, [in the battles of Mexico] I have been indebted to the confidence and kindness of my commander, and to the gallantry and devotion of those who served under me.

Passing by the incidents of Fort Brown and Monterey, to which you have so eloquently alluded; I may be pardoned for saying, in reference to the more memorable field of Buena Vista, that the credit which has been awarded me for the part performed by my command on that occasion, has had its origin in the disinterestedness and generosity of our noble old chief, who is ever inclined to bestow on others, the honor justly due to himself. To Gen. Taylor, and to him alone, belongs all the glory of that achievement. And I but express the universal opinion of those who served under him, in saying that no other living man could have obtained that victory. So great was the confidence reposed in him by his troops, and no other could have commanded it, that his presence on any part of the field was sufficient not only to change despair into hope, but to give assurance to victory, and dispel all doubt of ultimate triumph.

A Noble Act. The Cincinnati Gazette says that Gen. Taylor in 1814—15 was a Captain, or perhaps a Major, by brevet, and stationed with his company at Green Bay—at that time far beyond the limits of civilization. The Paymaster received from the government the necessary funds to pay off the U. S. troops, which funds, save a small amount, he exchanged for Bills of J. Platt & Co., Bankers in the city of Cincinnati—this was a "business transaction" on private account.

The Paymaster proceeded to Detroit, and there paid off the soldiers in this Locooco individual responsibility paper—he then proceeded to Mackinaw, and there paid the soldiers in like manner; lastly he reached Green Bay. Here again the paymaster with proper official solemnity, counted out to Captain Taylor the bills of J. H. Platt & Co., Bankers, for the soldiers. "Old Zack" looked at the "rags" and said—"Is this the stuff you intend to pay us?" The Paymaster assured him it was the same he paid to the men at Detroit and Mackinaw, but says he with a knowing wink, "I have United States Bank Bills for you officers." To this Captain Taylor replied—"Sir, my men can receive no money that I am unwilling to take—go back and get good money."

The Governor's Resignation.

FRANCIS R. SHUNK, Governor of this Commonwealth, having on Sunday last the 9th inst., resigned his office, WILLIAM F. JOHNSTON, present Speaker of the Senate, becomes acting and constitutional GOVERNOR OF THE STATE. The authority by which he exercises the office is contained in ARTICLE 11, Section 14th, of the Amended Constitution, in words as follows: "In case of the death or resignation of the Governor, or of his removal from office, the Speaker of the Senate shall exercise the office of Governor until another shall be duly qualified; but in such case another Governor shall be chosen at the next annual election of Representatives, unless such death, resignation or removal, shall occur within three calendar months immediately preceding such next annual election, in which case a Governor shall be chosen at the second succeeding annual election of Representatives."

Governor Shunk resigned at about 5 o'clock on Sunday the 9th, which is just seven hours over the three months mentioned in the Constitution. Consequently, an Election for Governor will take place the ensuing October election. The LAW passed by the legislature regulating action under the above provision of the Constitution, we copy here for the benefits of our readers:

From Purdon's Digest, pages 373-4—Election Laws.—Section 24th. "And when such vacancy [that of Governor by death or resignation] occurs within three calendar months before the second Tuesday in October, it shall be the duty of the Speaker of the Senate, or whoever shall be in the exercise of the office of Governor, to issue his writs, [to the Sheriff of the several counties,] required notice of such election, [to fill the vacancy,] on the second Tuesday in October next, after the issuing of the said writ, and in such case said writ shall issue at least three calendar months before the election."

Now, as it is an utter impossibility that the writ can issue from the acting Governor "at least three calendar months before the election," the question has arisen whether there can legally be an election this fall.

The opinion, however, pretty generally adopted, is, that the Constitution is paramount and overrides the law; and we have no doubt Governor JOHNSTON will carry out the spirit and intention of the Constitution, and at once issue his proclamation for an election.—Pa. Telegraph.

SERIOUS OCCURRENCE.—The Pa. Intelligencer says—A company of men were crossing the Harrisburg Bridge on Monday evening last, when from some cause or other, which we could not ascertain, an altercation arose and a desperate conflict ensued. A negro man, who was one of the party, was stabbed in three places, by an Irishman named McConaghy, and who is a brother of Robt. McConaghy, the notorious murderer. The wounds inflicted on the negro are of a serious character, one it is said, having touched his heart.

The Whigs of Cambria county, have nominated JOHN FENLON, Esq., for the Assembly. This is an admirable selection, and one that will be sustained by the voters of Little Cambria in October. Mr. F. will make a leading and influential member.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT!

Resignation of Gov. Shunk.

About one o'clock on Saturday morning last, Gov. SHUNK was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, and lost about a quart of blood before it was arrested. In the morning early he was reported to be in a prostrate condition; but during the day he was reported to be doing better. About 5 o'clock, P. M., however, our community was startled by the rumor (which this time turned out to be true) that he had yielded to the solicitations of his party friends, and RESIGNED, in order that there might be an election this fall, to fill the vacancy, for which, indeed, the resignation was just in time, and nothing to spare.

The following is the Governor's last official act: PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

It having pleased Divine Providence to deprive me of the strength necessary to the further discharge of the duties of your Chief Magistrate, and to lay me on a bed of sickness, from which I am admonished by my physicians, and my own increasing debility, I may, in all human probability, never rise, I have resolved, upon mature reflection, under a conviction of duty, on this day, to restore to you, the trust with which your suffrages have clothed me, in order that you may avail yourselves of the provision of the Constitution, to choose a successor at the next General election. I therefore, hereby, resign the office of Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and direct this, my resignation, to be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In taking leave of you, under circumstances so solemn, accept my gratitude for the confidence you have reposed in me. My prayer is, that peace, virtue, intelligence and religion, may pervade all your borders—that the free institutions you have inherited from your ancestors, may remain unimpaired till the latest posterity—that the same kind Providence, which has already, so signally, blessed you, may conduct you to a still higher state of individual and social happiness—and when the world shall close upon you, as I feel it is soon about to close upon me, that you may enjoy the consolations of the Christian's faith, and be gathered, without a wanderer lost, into the fold of the Great Shepherd above. FR. S. SHUNK.

HARRISBURG, July 9, 1848. The undersigned were present at the execution of the above instrument of writing.

H. BUHLER, W. R. DEWITT.

At the request of Gov. Shunk I have this day handed this paper to the Hon. Jesse Miller, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

JOHN K. FINDLEY, Harrisburg, July 9, 1848. I hereby direct Henry Petriken, Esq., Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, to file this paper in accordance with the direction contained in it, in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

JESSE MILLER, S. C. Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In obedience to your direction, I have filed this instrument of writing, this 9th day of July, 1848, at 20 minutes before six, P. M.

H. PETRIKEN, Dep. Sec. of the Commonwealth. Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The Philadelphia Bulletin, a neutral paper, uses the following language in reference to the efforts made by certain friends of Gov. Shunk to procure this resignation: "The Governor is apparently in the last stage of a distressing illness. Intense and prolonged bodily pain has awakened the sympathy of all whose sensibilities have not been deadened by the atmosphere of politics. And yet, it reports believe, the chamber of suffering is invaded by a set of men who whisper to the sufferer, through a mask of friendship, that he had better resign his office—that a political opponent will occupy his chair for eighteen months in case of his death after the 10th of July; and as that event is evidently not remote, he will oblige his friends and show his devotion to his party, by anticipating the exigency that is soon to occur, by the fiat of a Governor to whom we all must bow."

Can anything more heartless be conceived?—The natural grief for the suffering of a good man is lost sight of in an intense love of party, and a virtual declaration is made that the tears shed for his death will be dried, if he will consent the wishes of politicians, and prevent the possibility of a succession opposed to them.

We have heard of the suffering of his last illness by a set of men who whisper to the sufferer, through a mask of friendship, that he had better resign his office—that a political opponent will occupy his chair for eighteen months in case of his death after the 10th of July; and as that event is evidently not remote, he will oblige his friends and show his devotion to his party, by anticipating the exigency that is soon to occur, by the fiat of a Governor to whom we all must bow."

The Slavery Question.

The question whether Slavery shall or shall not be introduced into new territory acquired by the United States, has been referred by the U. S. Senate to a compromise committee of eight—four from the North and four from the South—two Whigs and two Democrats from each section. This compromise was adopted on motion of Mr. CLAYTON, of Delaware, by a vote 31 to 11.

The committee was elected on Thursday last, and is composed as follows: Mr. Clayton, of Delaware, Chairman; Messrs. Johnson, of South Carolina; Bright, of Indiana; Underwood, of Kentucky; Phelps, of Vermont; Dickinson, of New York; Aitchinson, of Missouri, and Clarke, of Rhode Island.

Huzza for old Huntingdon County!

THE HIGHEST AND THE LONGEST POLE TAKES THE PERSIMMONS!!

Monterey No. 2, nobly stormed and captured—and a glorious flag, for "Old Rough and Ready" gallantly streaming from its superb height!! Some 1300 feet above the "blue waters" of the Little Juniata river, on the North peak of Short mountain, (a broken link of Tussey's our American Chepultepec, floats this magnificent flag. It waves in a pure and pellucid atmosphere—indicative of the cause, and the men it represents—high above contamination and corruption—and shakes its broad folds in the free air of Heaven, inviting the Patriot to take shelter beneath.

On Saturday the 8th instant, a brave squad of young Whigs of the vicinity—a platoon of sound "Rough and Ready" boys—viz: Edward Beigle, Samuel Beigle, Andrew Keith, William W. Sissler, William Gourley, Samuel Peterhoff, Jesse Peterhoff, Jacob Keefer, Joseph Keefer, John Bagaman, of Spruce Creek, and Samuel G. Baker of the borough of Alexandria, all good and true, amidst the rain and storm, scaled these rugged heights, and to the top of a tall tree, nailed this flag of their adoption, and of their country. They left Gray'sport, at the base of the mountain, at 2 o'clock P. M. ascended the peak, accomplished their work, and returned again about dark. When they left the mouth of Spruce Creek, on this hazardous journey, they were jeered and laughed at, by some Locoocos present, who said they could never raise such a flag on such a height!!! Yet, when the "deed was done," say the Boys, "they hung their lips like so many motherless colts!!"

This flag is 12 feet long—6 feet wide, with a streamer of 25 feet long—surmounted by a ball 16 inches in diameter—and bears the inscription, in large characters, of "Taylor and Fillmore." It can be seen from the Vallies on both sides of the mountain, for many miles distant; and the joyous harvest men, in their fields, and the workmen on the rail way, often stop work take off their caps, lift their eyes to the flag, as it gracefully floats on the breeze, and huzza long and lustily for "Old Rough and Ready."

"The tunnel hill," a depressed portion of Short Mountain, is near at hand, and as this "Taylor phalanx," descended from their lofty and daring expedition, they took this route home. Messrs. Carr and Thurlow, the enterprising and gentlemanly contractors of this stupendous job, the Tunnel, on the great Penn'a Central Railroad, with their force of some one hundred men, received them with a salute of thirty guns and eighteen cheers, which was returned with a right good will (so far as the cheering went) making the welkin ring—stirring up old Mrs. Echo, with her hundred voices, and making her cry out "All for Old Buena Vista, and no mistake!!!"

It would really seem that the "Fig is up" with the Cass party. They cannot "stand up and face the music." Their cat-gut scrapers are all confounded.

Their fingers are frozen. Their Bow, it wants rosin. Their strings are all broken. Their Screens will not stand.

Canine Combatants.

"Let dogs delight to bark and bite," &c.—Old Song. Mr. CLARK—Permit me to announce to your numerous readers that, in addition to the exhibitions of the Model Artists' who recently made their debut, and still figure so extensively, in Huntingdon and Vicinity, there will be a grand display of Canine Combats interspersed among the model entertainments during the Dog days, and even longer if the assiduous proprietors secure a sufficiently liberal patronage.

Talk not of Spanish Bull Baitings, or wild beasts of Ephesus! Let the Tilt and Tournament of the ancient Regime and the Cock-fights of London and Mexico all sink into their native insignificance! The Leaders of the Modern Cannibals are determined that nothing in Old or New Time shall be compared with their unrivalled 'Combats.' Whilst Sirius is in the ascendant let the glorious dogma go forth on the wings of the wind, "all Huntingdon is going to the dogs." Already is the town rife with sounds of preparation, a large stock and assortment of raw material has accumulated and the streets are enlivened with petite rehearsals from early dawn till "noon of night," while trusty individuals are ever present around the diamond and corners to give the sick and show fair play among the "groups of varied bark."

Positively no lack of varieties or numbers whatever. Visitors may expect to be astonished with the grand display of "Maugler, Puppy, Whelp and Hound With Cur of low degree."

Not to mention the Bull-dog, Terrier and fiste And pug with curly tail.

It is gratifying to observe the fine demonstrations of the progress of the 'creatures' notwithstanding the very limited training they have received for the last three months. The inhabitants residing near the play-grounds have reason to express their feeling thanks to the managers for the immense diversion they have already experienced. Much credit is deserved for the animation afforded all our Public Meetings, by the Dog-combats mock and real which invariably mention one) at the Citizens' meeting preparatory to the reception of the Volunteers.

The meeting concluded with the very appropriate Tragic-Comico dog-fight, found thus on the Programme, "U. S. Mex.—A combat with music." Nothing serious occurred except perhaps a rope stretched, or a tail loosened in separating the dramatic persons. All this preparation for the Canine combats will account for the lively appearance of our town, which so excites the half suppressed growls of invidious neighbors. Nor will we stult taunt them with the Poet's bravo—

Where's the town go far or near That does not find a rival here!

In conclusion let it be known that the prime time of the whole affair will be when Sirius attains his highest culmination. Then will enter the lists such combatants as will make this terrestrial globe tremble with commotion. The arena will be under the good care of Quip and Snarl-eye and the days of the Canine Combats will conclude with a wild Hydrophobic after-piece accompanied with doggrels of bitten babies.

N. B.—Doggery type prints or impressions struck on fleshy tablets may be expected by visitors.
