"CIRCULATE THE DOCUMENTS."

Extra Copies of Clayton's Great Speech.

We have still on hand a large number of extra copies of the Journal containing Senator CLAYTON'S GREAT SPEECH IN DEFENCE OF GEN. TAYLOR, which we will furnish at the low price of $2.00 per hundred.

Clubs and individuals, anxious to advance the cause of the glorious old hero of Buena Vista, and thus do their country some service, can more effectually do so by circulating this speech among the People, than in almost any other way. Single copies at THREE CENTS.

"A Little more Grape!"

A Special Meeting of the Rough and Ready Club will be held next WEDNESDAY evening, AUGUST 23, at the House of Alex. Carmon.

WM. H. PEIGHTAL, President.

H. K. NEFF, Secretary.

E. SUMMERS, Secretary.

Taylor Men!

Don't forget the meeting at the house of Z. Pheasant, in Union township, on Saturday next.

It is desirable that all would attend early, so that ample time can be afforded those from a distance to return to their homes without encroaching upon the Sabbath.

THE MARKETS.—There has been but little change in the markets since our last. The news brought by the Acadia has caused a slight advance.

APPOINTMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.—J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., of this place, has been appointed Deputy Attorney General for Huntingdon county. This is a good appointment, and one that will be universally well received by the People.

Awful Fire in Albany.

A fire broke out in the city of Albany, on Friday last, and before the flames could be arrested five hundred houses were destroyed—the loss estimated at two millions of dollars. Two lives were lost.

Who Doubts It?

One of the Cass orators stated the other night that General Cass, while in France, stood very high with the members of the French Court, Foreign Ministers, and nobility generally.

No one doubts this. Commodore Elliott's letter, published on our first page, will explain the cause. Presents of gold snuff boxes, diamond rings, &c., &c., with a plentiful supply of superior wines, could not fail to secure him the favor of the aristocracy of France.

The Locofocos of this county have nominated the following ticket: Assembly—Robert F. Haslett. Prothonotary—John B. G. ven. Register and Recorder—Jacob Miller. Commissioner—A. P. Owens. Auditor—James Neely. Coroner—Thomas Adams.

The sense of the Convention was taken for Governor and resulted Col. Bigler 21—Judge Black 21. Major J. P. Anderson was appointed delegate to State Convention.

The Globe says "tremendous cheers" for Cass and Butler were given at the close of the Taylor meeting at Roxberry. We mention this to show the citizens of Brady township the true character of the Locofoco organ here.—Such bare-faced falsehoods need no refutation.

Conferee Meeting.

Mifflin County has recommended Saturday next, the 26th inst., as the time and Brown's Mills as the place, for the meeting of the Congressional Conferees of this district, to nominate a candidate for Congress. If the counties have all appointed, we are entirely favorable to meeting at the time and place suggested.

Since the above was in type, we learn that Centre county will not appoint Conferees until Wednesday, the 30th inst. We therefore respectfully suggest, that the Conferees meet at Brown's Mills on Friday, the 1st of September.

The Hanburg Telegraph states that Dr. LUTHER REILY, probably the most influential Locofoco in Dauphin County, and formerly the locofoco Representative in Congress from that District has with a number of his political friends, abandoned Cass and declared in favor of Van Buren!

WHIG COUNTY TICKET.

The Convention which met in this place on Wednesday last, was highly respectable, and represented every township and borough in Huntingdon county.

The utmost harmony and good order prevailed throughout its proceedings. The ticket formed for the support of the People of the county, will be found at the head of our paper. We are truly gratified to find that it meets with universal favor.

A. K. CORNYN, Esq., the candidate for the Legislature, is entirely deserving the distinguished honor conferred upon him. He is deservedly popular with the People. His popularity not being confined entirely to one party.—As an orator, Mr. C. has no superior, and but few equals in the county, or Congressional district.

His speeches are always marked by a chastity and beauty of language which commands the favor of the People, and by a force of argument which invariably carries conviction to their hearts. His nomination will be of immense importance to the Whig party, in maintaining and advancing their cause in the campaign in which we are engaged; and his election will be an advantage and an honor to every citizen of the county. His triumphant election is beyond all doubt.

THEO. H. CREMER, the candidate for Prothonotary, is a man peculiarly fitted for that office. No man in the county is better qualified to fill the place of the present popular and competent incumbent. Mr. C. started in the world as a mechanic—a Printer—and by close application and untiring industry, qualified himself for the practice of the Law. He is known to the People of this county as our predecessor as editor of the Huntingdon Journal; in which capacity he took a high rank among country editors. He is in short, an upright, moral man, a good Whig, and will make an obliging, competent officer. Nothing more is wanted.

MATTHEW F. CAMPBELL, the candidate for Register and Recorder is an honest and intelligent farmer of Henderson township. He has never been an office seeker, but always a devoted, ardent Whig, from principle. He is exceedingly popular among his neighbors, and all who enjoy his acquaintance. We think we can safely say that he is without an enemy. Mr. C. deserves, and will no doubt receive, the entire Whig vote of the county.

WILLIAM HUTCHINSON of Warriorsmark township, is the choice for county Commissioner. A better selection could not have been made. It was, however, impossible for the Convention to make a bad choice from the material presented. Either of the gentlemen named to the Convention would make a good officer. Mr. H. is a farmer, an honest man, and universally esteemed in his neighborhood. He was on the Whig ticket in 1846 for Auditor, and run thirty-two votes ahead of the ticket in his own township, and was the highest man on the ticket in the county.

THOS. W. NEELY, Esq., of Dublin township is the candidate for Auditor. We have no personal acquaintance with Mr. N., but learn that he is a man every way qualified not only for a good Auditor, but for any other office in the gift of the People of the county.

HENRY GRAFIUS, of Alexandria, is the candidate for Coroner. He is an active, intelligent mechanic, and a very efficient, zealous Whig, with the requisite energy and ability to fill any office with credit.

Such, Whigs and Taylor men of Huntingdon county, is but a feeble and inadequate description of the very excellent ticket presented to your consideration. That it will upon examination receive your undivided support we cannot doubt. There is not an incompetent or unworthy man upon it. Rally, then, one and all to its support, and let us roll up such a majority in October as will cheer the hearts of our friends in other parts of the State, and nerve them up for the great battle in November, under the banner of glorious old Rough and Ready.

A Slander.

Inasmuch as the two fellows who published affidavits that Gen. Taylor swore, acknowledged themselves chicken thieves, the Globe, in order to place all on the same footing in point of character, says the volunteers all done so; and that we have placed ourselves in an unenviable position with the volunteers and their friends of this county, by alluding to it. This is a vile slander upon the volunteers from this county, and we believe a great majority from the State.

The volunteers with whom we are acquainted would as much scorn the robbing of a hen roost, as they would the signing of an affidavit grossly libellous of one of the most distinguished heroes of the war in which they have been engaged. If, however, they were compelled to do either, they would consider the former offence vastly less humiliating to them as soldiers than the latter.

The Globe is perfectly welcome to all the capital it can make by defending and applauding chicken thieves and slandersers of the brave old hero who "never surrenders."

Parson Brownlow's paper, the Jonesborough (Tenn.) Whig, refuses to support General Taylor for the Presidency, and still keeps the name of its old favorite, Henry Clay, flying from its mast head.—Huntingdon Globe.

Well, let us see what this same Parson Brownlow, who, according to the above is opposed to Gen. Taylor, says in relation to the election. The following is an extract from a recent letter of Mr. Brownlow's on the subject:

"You can say to your friends that Tennessee will go for Taylor and Fillmore by a majority of five or ten thousand votes—that this District, heretofore Democratic, will give them a majority—and last, though not least, that this county, always Democratic, will go for Taylor and Fillmore."

Very respectfully, your ob't servant,
W. C. BROWNLOW.

A Taylor Slanderer's Pay.

An authentic statement in the Battery, published at Washington, D. C., sums up the items paid Messrs. Ritchie & Heiss for public printing, which amounts to upwards of $277,000.

Not much wonder Mr. Ritchie can defame such Whigs as ZACHARY TAYLOR, when he is paid nearly $100,000 extra per annum for it.

The Cass Meeting.

The Cass men held a small County Meeting in this borough on Tuesday evening last. After parading around the town with a procession numbering not quite fifty men and boys, preceded with drum and life, and a transparency on which are emblazoned their "principles," viz: "No National Bank," "No Native Americanism," they organized in the Court House by appointing John Porter, Esq., President, assisted by the usual allowance of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The President made a short speech on taking the chair, after which the meeting was addressed by H. N. McAllister, Esq., of Bellefonte, Andrew Parker, Esq., of Millintown, and Maj. T. P. Campbell, Esq., of this place.

Mr. McAllister opposed Gen. Taylor because he is "IGNORANT" and "UNFIT" for the Presidency, having lived in the camp all his life, and been educated there, and never studied the science, the art, or trade of politics, as General Cass did. And he advocated the election of Cass because he was luminous as a loud Lamp in the science of Government, and served his country with distinction under that brave and patriotic General whom the Locofocos, eight years ago, stigmatized as "Granny Harrison!"

Mr. McAllister represented himself as one who is unaccustomed to public political speaking.—Judging from his speech, we presume that such is the fact.

Mr. Parker raised his pompous person upon the stand, and throwing his head around to attract the attention of the audience to his fine, fat, slick, handsome person, commenced by saying, in a tone of voice very much resembling the muttering of far distant thunder, that the "London Times," a Tory paper, put forth a prophecy some time in advance of the Whig Convention in the United States. The prophecy consisted in stating what all the world seemed to know, namely, that the Whigs of the United States would nominate Gen. Taylor, as it was known that he was the only man who could defeat Gen. Cass. Now, whether such a prediction was made by the London Times or not, we consider a matter of no consequence—it is possible it was made, and there was certainly sufficient ground for it. Had not the Legislatures of many of our States then already nominated Gen. Taylor? Had he not been nominated by a public meeting on the Trenton Battle Ground? Was he not recommended and nominated by the Democracy of Pennsylvania in a State Convention at Harrisburg, and by another in the Democratic State of Berks county, and in almost every village and county from the Rio Grande to the Atlantic, and from the Gulf of Mexico to the Bay of Fundy? In short, was not the whole country rising in her majesty and might for the Hero who "NEVER SURRENDERS"? How then could the London Times but foreknow the fulfillment of the whole of its prophecy?

But we want to call the attention of the Whigs of this county to the argument which Mr. Parker made on what he was pleased to term "this remarkable prophecy." He said in substance, that there was a great sympathy existing between the London Times and the Whig papers of the United States, and between the two parties which they represent—that their views, their feelings, their desires and their designs were closely allied, and that they combined in their efforts to defeat Gen. Cass and elect Taylor! Now, fellow Whigs, what is this else than calling us all Tories—BRITISH TORIES? Such is the virtual charge of one of the emissaries of Locofocoism while on an electioneering tour after the nomination for Congress. Bear in mind that this is the charge of Col. ANDREW PARKER, the heir apparent to the Locofoco nomination for Congress in this district. It is not necessary to repeat it—you will remember the INSULT on the election day, and for all time to come. And we hold those who applauded and thereby adopted the sentiments responsible for them. Such a charge, coming from a party who destroyed the American Tariff of 1812, and enacted in place of it a Tariff which was applauded in, and ordered to be re-printed by, the British House of Lords—a Tariff that sold the prosperity of the American industrial classes to the nobility and the subjects of England, is too much for any American Patriot to bear. Has it come to this, that the descendants of the heroes of the Revolution—the descendants of those who fought and bled and died in the war of American liberty against British tyranny—and those who in 1814 drove the British from our land and our waters, must be stigmatized as enemies to their country—as TORIES, by a sleek young gentleman who is aspiring to a seat in the Congress of the United States? and all because they think proper to go for General ZACHARY TAYLOR, who has sustained our honor and our flag in many a battle at home and abroad, and against Lewis Cass, the Treasury Leech, and the eulogist of "France, her King and Court!" All true patriots, to whatever party they may belong, will spurn this outrageous insult. Room fails us to follow the gentleman through his whole speech. But we must allude to one or two other remarks that fell from him. He asserted that Gen. Taylor was a "FALSIFIER," and attempted to prove it by garbling one of Gen. Taylor's letters. He said that Gen. Taylor declared in his Richmond letter that he would not "withdraw if Mr. Clay should receive the nomination at Philadelphia." We are under the necessity of informing Mr. Parker that his assertion is not true; no such sentence appears in the letter to which he alluded. Gen. Taylor said in that letter that he had never authorized any one to say that he would withdraw in the event of Mr. Clay's nomination. He also reiterated the old stale charge of "bargain and sale" against Mr. CLAY and the lamented JOHN QUINCY ADAMS; and in effect charged Mr. Adams, one of the purest Patriots of his age, with having gone down to the grave with a falsehood in his mouth! For it is well known that Mr. Adams, in 1844, solemnly denied, over his own signature, that any such bargain and sale had taken place between Mr. Clay and himself! We ask the People of Huntingdon county to remember this also. One thing is worthy of remark, that during Mr. Parker's speech, the Court House thinned out considerably, many honest democrats being doubtless utterly disgusted with his remarks.

We did not stay to hear the speech of Major Campbell, but we are informed that he eclipsed the "big guns" from abroad.

THE ELECTIONS.

NORTH CAROLINA, O. K.—Notwithstanding the blustering of the Locofocos to the contrary, it is now conceded that Manly, Vile, is elected by a majority ranging from 300 to 500. The Whigs will have a majority of at least two on joint ballot.

INDIANA is still in doubt. The Indianapolis Journal says the popular vote is largely Whig, thus showing that the State is good for Old Zach.

ILLINOIS the Whigs gain probably two or three members of Congress.

MISSOURI and Iowa have been carried by the Locofocos.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.—The Whigs of Mifflin county have recommended J. J. CUNNINGHAM for Senator. Their ticket is as follows: Assembly—D. S. Elliott. Sheriff—Wm. T. Bell. Register and Recorder—R. D. Smith. Commissioner—Wm. Creighton.

Samuel Hopper was appointed Representative, and Maj. M. Buoy recommended for Senatorial Delegate to the State Convention.

Shem Zook, J. F. Cottrell and Wm. Ross, are appointed Congressional Conferees, without instructions.

Junata County.

A friend at Millintown informs us that the Whigs of that county have nominated the following ticket:

Assembly—John McLaughlin. Prothonotary—J. M. Sellers. Register and Recorder—Wm. Reader.

C. P. Thompson, Samuel Laird and A. K. McClure are appointed Congressional Conferees, without instructions.

The Cass Party Going.

The New Orleans Bulletin tells the following story good in itself and admirable in its application:

"The present position of the Cass party reminds us of a story we once heard of a farmer, who, one morning let his sheep out of the pen. Having put down the bars, the old man stood by to count them as they hopped over, and began, 'There goes one,'—'there goes two,'—'there goes three,'—'there goes old Eve,'—'there goes a black one,'—'there goes a whole heap,'—'and curse them, there they all go.'"

"So it is with the Cass party. At first we could count the deserters—one, two, three; but it was soon ascertained that the bounds were broken that the bars were down, and the 'old ewes' and the 'black ones' began hopping out very fast, followed so rapidly by whole heaps, as to bid defiance to any attempts to count, and soon poor Cass will have to exclaim, 'Curse them, there they all go.'"

MICHIGAN VS. CASS.

The Boston Atlas publishes the following extract from a letter from Isaac L. Toby, M. D., of Jackson, Michigan, to E. H. Porter, Esq., of Charlemont, a Whig. Dr. Toby was formerly located in Hampshire County, well known as a radical Democrat.—The italicizing is done by the Doctor.

JACKSON, Michigan, June 29th, 1848.

Dear Sir:

"The people of this State are wide awake on politics. There are a great many Anti Cass Democrats. Should or could the election come off this week, he would be defeated in his own State. The Whigs are much better united on their candidate, and feel confident of success."

You know that I am a radical democrat, but I cannot support Gen. Cass for the Presidency. He plays a double game which I despise in any man, and he has no sympathy for the Barburners.

If you have any democrats in your State, reckoning upon the election of Cass you tell them he cannot be elected. Tell this for me—that he cannot carry his own State.

Yours Truly, J. L. TOBEY. E. H. PORTER, Esq., Charlemont, Mass.

OHIO.

The Germans of Cincinnati have organized a Free Soil or Barburners Club. The Signal says it is already 800 strong. Hitherto the Cincinnati Germans have nearly all voted for the regular Locofoco candidates. The formation of this club will make tremendous inroads upon the strength of Locofocoism in the Queen city and in Ohio.

The Cincinnati Signal expresses the conviction that the counties of Butler, Clermont and Hamilton can be carried for Mr. Van Buren, if nominated by the Buffalo Convention. These Counties gave a majority of 3,608, for James K. Polk in 1844.

VAN BUREN IN BRADFORD, Pa.—The Bradford Reporter, the organ of Mr. Wilmot, publishes a call for a Van Buren Meeting at Towanda, signed by over six hundred persons.

Congress.

Congress adjourned on Monday, 14th inst.—The few last days of the session were quite stormy. The bills of a public character generally were passed, amongst them the Oregon Territory bill, with a clause embracing the principle of the Wilmot Proviso incorporated.

The President has signed the bill, and appointed Gen. Shields Governor of the Territory.—It is since understood that the General will not accept.

Taylor Volunteers Proscribed.

An advertisement appears in the N. O. Delta, with a responsible name signed thereto, stating that about 116 men, out of 110,000 work at the Barracks, in that city, were discharged because they would vote for Gen. Taylor! Do you hear that, Volunteers!

OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!!

GREAT TAYLOR AND FILLMORE COUNTY MEETING.

The County meeting of the friends of TAYLOR, FILLMORE and MIDDLESWARTH, held in this borough on Wednesday evening last, was an immense affair. Little or no effort was used to get it up. No hand-bills had been circulated. The only notice given was through the columns of the Journal. Yet, all agree, that it was the largest and most enthusiastic County Meeting ever held in this county. At an early hour in the evening, the beautiful transparencies belonging to the Rough and Ready Club were lit up, and a procession, as if by magic, numbering between TWO and THREE HUNDRED commenced moving in the streets, sending up the most deafening cheers for Old Zach, Fillmore and Middleswarth. It was soon discovered from the size of the procession, and the large number of Taylor men who did not join in it, that it would be utterly impracticable to go into the Court House. A rough staging was therefore erected in the Diamond, where the procession, after marching around the town, halted.

The meeting was then organized, by appointing Gen. S. MILES GREEN, President; Geo. HUDSON, Esq., JAS. MOORE, JOHN MARKS, DAN. TEAGUE, Esq., JOHN CONRAD, Esq., BRICE X. BLAIR, Col. JOHN STEVER, NATHANIEL LYTLE, Esq., SAMUEL COEN, JOHN K. McCABAN, JOHN SHAYER, Esq., JOHN WHITTAKER, Sr., and DANIEL AFRICA, Esq., Vice Presidents; Major Geo. Raymond, John W. Watson, J. W. Mattern and John M. Leech, Secretaries.

On taking the chair, the President stated the object of the meeting in a few pertinent remarks.

On motion, the chair appointed David Blair, Jas. Clark, Henry Lee, Henry Brewster, and N. Lytle, a committee to draft resolutions.

SAMUEL CALVIN, Esq., of Hollidaysburg was then called for, and addressed the meeting for one hour and half in a speech of great power. He showed, to the satisfaction of every unprejudiced mind, that Gen. Taylor occupied the true American "platform," and that to administer the government according to the true intent and meaning of the Constitution, unswayed by factions or cliques, was all that the interests of the country required. On the other hand he demonstrated as clearly, that the Baltimore "platform," about which the Cass men prate so much, is in the main but a bundle of negations, affirming nothing, save that the WILL OF THE PEOPLE shall be subservient to the ONE MAN POWER! We have not room to properly notice Mr. Calvin's truly able effort. Suffice it to say, that he took up and utterly demolished the positions assumed by Mr. Parker on the previous evening, and presented the position and principles of Gen. Taylor, in a light highly satisfactory to all.

The meeting was further ably addressed by A. K. CORNYN, T. H. CREMER, DAVID BLAIR, A. W. BENEDICT, and J. G. MILES, Esqrs. The latter gentleman took his position in the middle of the street, and for ten or fifteen minutes fired a volley of "grape" into Extra-allowance Cass, which caused the friends of that gentleman to scatter in confusion, and elicited from the friends Old Rough and Ready most tremendous applause.

Mr. BLAIR, from the committee appointed for the purpose, reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted, and the meeting adjourned amidst the most unbounded enthusiasm.

WHEREAS, it has always been the fundamental doctrine of the Whig party that power is a trust for the people, that it is given to Magistrates, not for their own, but for the public advantage;

Therefore Resolved, That the power given by the Constitution to the Executive to interpose his Veto, is a high conservative power, which should never be exercised except in cases of clear violation of the Constitution or manifest haste and want of consideration by Congress.

Resolved, That "the personal opinions of the individual who may happen to occupy the Executive chair, ought not to control the action of Congress upon questions of domestic policy, nor ought his objections to be interposed when questions of Constitutional power have been settled by the various departments of Government and acquiesced in by the people."

Resolved, That "upon the subjects of the tariff, the currency, the improvement of our great highways, rivers, lakes and harbors, the WILL OF THE PEOPLE as expressed through their representatives in Congress ought to be respected and carried out by the Executive."

Resolved, That "swear at all times, and under all circumstances is a national calamity, and should be avoided, if compatible with national honor; that the principles of our government, as well as its true policy, are opposed to the subjugation of other nations, and the dismemberment of other countries by conquest; for in the language of the great Washington, 'why should we quit our own to stand on foreign ground?'"

Resolved, That "this meeting of Democratic Whigs, recognizing the omnipotence of the will of the people upon such a subject, and deeply impressed with the peculiar qualifications of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR for the Presidency, do hereby present him to the people of this State and Union, as the Democratic Whig candidate, and the real candidate of the People for the office of President of the United States at the ensuing Presidential election."

Resolved, That in the attachment of General Taylor to Washington, Jefferson and the early Presidents of the United States, "his known patriotism, and the whole course of his life, we have the best warrant for our firm belief that he will administer the government upon those principles which have formed the policy of every Republican administration, and whose object is the greatest good of the greatest number."

Resolved, That in the character of MILLARD FILLMORE, the Whig candidate for Vice President, the builder of his own fortunes, from the "Pretence in a Clothier's shop to the President of the Senate of the United States, we have a beautiful and glorious illustration of American character and American institutions."

Resolved, That in the civil and political life and conduct of our candidate for Canal Commissioner, NER MIDDLESWARTH, we have a noble specimen of the honest, intelligent Pennsylvania farmer—the incompetency, negligence and corruption on our public works, calls loudly for the economy and honesty of old Ner.

Resolved, That the Whig Ticket nominated this day, by the County Convention, meets our hearty approbation and shall receive our best support.

After the adjournment a large concourse of People still being present, and anxious, notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, to hear more about Old Zach and the glorious cause in which we are engaged, B. C. LYTLE, the Penn Township Taylor was called for, and responded in a brief, but animated and effective speech, which was most rapturously applauded. We hope to hear from Mr. Lytle again before the campaign closes, for in the language of many who were present, he "talks like a book."

A Threatened Duel.

A flare-up occurred in the U. S. Senate on Saturday the 12th inst. between Senators Butler of South Carolina and Benton of Missouri, in which Mr. Butler charged Benton with dishonorable conduct in giving publicity to the action of the Senate in Executive session, in the case of Gen. Kearney. Benton retorted by giving Butler the lie! Butler challenged and Benton accepted, but the parties were arrested and held to bail in the sun of $5,000 each to keep the peace. The matter is likely to be amicably settled.

THE EXAMPLE OF HENRY CLAY.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says:—We have already announced that the Hon. Henry Clay travelled fifty miles in order to reach Lexington in time to vote, and that he voted the entire Whig ticket. This was conducted every way worthy of the sage of Ashland—the great expounder of Whig principles. The example should not be lost upon our Whig brethren throughout the Union. Henry Clay regarded it as his duty to vote, and therefore, in discharge of that duty, and in unflinching devotion to the Whig cause, and to Whig principles, he subjected himself to the inconvenience of a journey of fifty miles with the object of at once exercising his right as a freeman, and of affording an example to his countrymen throughout the republic. All honor to the great Statesman.—His heart is with the Whig cause now as ever, and all who love and admire Henry Clay, will, influenced by his patriotic course, remember his example at the election in Kentucky, and endeavor to profit thereby.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Delegates from this State to the Buffalo Convention held a meeting at Buffalo on the 10th and resolved to call a Free Soil State Convention, to assemble at Reading, Berks County, on the 13th of September, and nominate an electoral ticket in favor of Van Buren, Adams and the Buffalo Platform. Joseph Neide, of Montgomery, was Chairman, and Dr. E. D. Gazzam, of Pittsburg, was Secretary of the meeting.

GRAND MASS STATE CONVENTION.

The citizens of Pennsylvania, friendly to the election of

GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR

AND

are requested to assemble in Mass. Meeting at HARRISBURG, on THURSDAY, the 31st of AUGUST, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Farmers, Mechanics, and Workingmen: Manufacturers, Traders and Merchants: Men of all pursuits, occupations and professions:

All who regard purity, integrity, fidelity, and capacity as essential elements of a just National Administration:

All who are opposed to hypocrisy, fraud, corruption, false dealing and violence in the conduct of public affairs:

All who are in favor of legislation by the representatives of the people, unchecked by a tyrannous exercise of the VETO power:

All who would rescue the country from the evils which now paralyze its industry and defeat its enterprise:

All who would give adequate protection to American labor, and thus increase the means, extend the enjoyments and elevate the condition of the American laborer:

All who would promote, by judicious encouragement, the development of our own great resources, Agriculture, Manufacturing and Mineral:

All who are true friends of those who dig in the fields, and delve in the mines, and ply at the loom, and toil in the workshops and on the high ways:

All of all classes, creeds and conditions, who desire to secure

are invited to be present.

Come, Pennsylvanians! come from farm, and forge, and furnace, and coalpit, and factory; from village, and town, and city: come and show that you have not forgotten, and that you will not forgive, the base deception of which you have been made the victims: come and show that you are grateful to the hero "who never surrenders" and that you appreciate the man who "asks for no favors and shrinks from no responsibility."

Distinguished orators form all parts of the Union will be there to address you: your friends from all sections of the State will be there to greet you; and you, and they, and we, knowing that "we can't be beat when we all pull together," will rejoice in the assurance of certain victory.

ALEXANDER RAMSEY, Chairman of the State Central Committee.
