Hothedaysburg, Sep. 9th, 1848.

J. F. Cottell—
Gentlement of the State of the S

A Sockbolager.—We find in the Alexandria Gazette, the following letter from Col. J. F. Hamtramck, of the Virginia Regiment, just reterned from Maxico, in reply to one inviting him to attend a public festival given by the "Democratic party of Jefferson in connection with their brethren of the adjoining counties:"

Shepingherstown, Aug. 17, 1818.

Gentlemen—Your letter of this date has this moment been received, inviting me as the late siment of the Virgina Regiment, to a "public stival" given by the "Democratic party of iefferson in connection with their brethren of the adjoining counties."

I thank you kindly, gentlemen, for the invitation, and however gratified I may feel at the greetings and "welcome home" of my fellowizeas, I am constrained to decline your polite invitation, as the "festival" seems to have in the state of the property of t ritation to the meeting. men, respectfully, Your obedient servant, JOHN F. HAMTRAMCK

The Mitchell Club."

The friends of Ireland in Hollidaysburg have organized a Club with the above title. A public meeting of the Club was held in the Court House in that borough on the 6th inst. The Standard thus notices the speeches on the oc-

House in that borough on the oth mist. The Standard thus notices the speeches on the occasion:

"The President (Win. Williams) made some very appropriate remarks, in which he assured the Club that the affairs of Ireland were still in a goad state so as to justify the friends of that presented country to believe, yes, and know, that the day is not far distant when it will be free from foreign laws and foreign tyroate.—The President having concluded called on the Rev. Jours C. Brany, who promptly responded to the call amudst loud applauses, and delivered a truly eloquent speech, in which he traced from the twelfth to the sixteenth century and from the twelfth to the sixteenth century and from the twelfth to the sixteenth century and from English tyrants. The Reviered gentleman having concluded his eloquent and instructing speech left the stand saluted with the most vehement applause; when on motion, Samuri Cauvi, Esq., addressed the Club in a manner that call orth frequent bursts of tremendous approbation. The eloquent speaker was listened to with the greatest attention, and was only interrupted by the frequent tremendous cheers which his chaste language and many noble particle sentiments in behalf of universal freedom justly called forth. He assured the Club that the darkest hour was always that just before the dawn of day, and that the darkest hour of Ireland's misery had continenced, we had just reason to know that the sun of the blarty and independence would soon rise and dispel forever the pastilential English for which for seven thad red gers has darkened that beautiful couring and crushed the energies of her brave and soble people."

A most destructive Fires.

A most destructive fire occurred at Brooklyn, N. Y. on Friday last, devastating an area equal to nearly fitteen acres of the oldest and most central part of the city. The humber of houses and stores destroyed is estimated at between two and three hundred, and the loss cannot be less than one million of dollars. A number of persons were injured and several persons killed by the falling walls. The great spread of the flames is attributed to the scarcity of water in Brooklyn.
