THE PEOPLES VETO.

What a glorious veto have the people of Pennsylvania put upon the ruinous measure of their locofoco rulers at Harrisburg and Washington! They have vetoed the British Free Trade Tariff of '46—the Missouri compromise, or any other compromise with Slavery! They have vetoed locofocoism—vetoed Cass—vetoed Polk—vetoed the vetoers! Huza for the triumph of popular over Executive votes!—the sovereignty of the people over the one man power!—R. Journal.

Look at this!

Lewis Cass, while Secretary of war, got up an association with a capital of $200,000, to speculate in Western lands, and when called upon by Francis O. J. Smith and Judge Hubbard who had contributed to the general fund, to render an account of the profits, refused to do so! This was dishonest. Is such a man fit to be placed over the National Treasury?

Pennsylvanians!

REMEMBER that LEWIS CASS voted in favor of the repeal of the Whig Tariff of '42; and in favor of the British Free Trade Tariff of '46.

REMEMBER that LEWIS CASS is the Candidate of the British Free Trade party, and against the protection of American Industry.

Remember 1844.

Friends of the tariff! we call upon you to remember 1844! Pennsylvania was then duped into the support of Polk and Dallas, by representing them in favor of the protection of Home Labor.

The same deception will now be attempted to secure the electoral vote of the State for Lewis Cass. He, too, will be represented as the special friend of Pennsylvania interests, notwithstanding his vote in favor of the repeal of the Tariff of 1812. We warn you not again to be deceived. Be on your guard against another fraud like that of 1844.

Account Current.

The October elections are over. Their results, says the N. Y. Tribune, may be summed up thus:

Whig Governors in all the States that have chosen Governors—Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida—the latter two having never before chosen Whig Governors in an even handed contest.

Whig Legislatures in each of the States, though Ohio is threatened with an anarchical contest.

Whig U. S. Senators in place of Locofocos from Pennsylvania, Florida, and probably Ohio.

A drawn battle in Georgia, which last year chose a locofoco Governor by 1,200 majority.

An unexpected sharp contest in South Carolina, which elects one decided Taylor member of Congress, and two others who at any rate are not for Cass. The Legislature is quite likely to throw away or withhold the vote of the State.

Of these States, only Ohio voted for Clay in '44; Florida was not organized but came in locofoco soon after. The probability now is that a majority of their aggregate votes will be cast for Gen. Taylor. That will do for one month seeing it is not quite November.

Poor Men!

Don't forget that Lewis Cass, while Governor of Michigan, caused a law to be enacted for whipping, at the whipping-post, white men and women, who happened unfortunately to be out of money and unable to get work.

Surrendering.

The election of Taylor is now very generally admitted by candid members of the Locofoco party. A Locofoco friend of ours confessed to us the other day that every indication seemed to warrant the belief that Old Zack would go into the White House by a larger majority than was given to Gen. Harrison in 1840.

Important from Europe.

The Steamer Europa arrived at New York on Wednesday evening in 11 days from Liverpool.

Smith O'Brien, the leader of the Irish insurgents, has been convicted of treason and sentenced to be executed. The verdict of the jury was accompanied by a recommendation of mercy. But little hope, however, was entertained of royal clemency toward him. M'Mannus, another insurgent, had also been found guilty and sentenced.

The Cholera has at length reached England—Out of 25 cases at Edinburg, 20 proved fatal.

The Anglo French mediation in Italy was terminated by an Austrian manifesto declaring the Lombard Venetian kingdom part of the Austrian empire, with a constitutional representation.

In France Cavaignac's Ministry was defeated in a vote of the National Assembly. He refused to accept the resignations of Ministers, deciding to retain power until the Constitution was adopted, which would probably be proclaimed on the 1st proximo. The election of President will probably take place on the 9th. Louis Napoleon's chance for the Presidency is the best. Cavaignac is the candidate of the Moderate party.

A successful revolution has taken place in Vienna, a Republic proclaimed and a Provisional Government appointed. The late minister of war was hung on a lamp-post. The Emperor, with the military, fled to Lintz.

DIED.

On Thursday evening, 26th inst., on board the Packet boat "Wm. Collier," MARY ISABELLA, daughter of Dr. J. H. Fager, of Harrisburg, aged 4 years and 8 months.

How uncertain is life! The deceased was a niece of Mrs. Clark, wife of the editor of this paper. In company with her Grandfather and another friend, she came to Huntingdon about two weeks ago. She had taken a cold, which terminated in a disease of the throat. Her father, not deeming her dangerous, and anxious to have the child with her mother, concluded to take her home. They left this place on Wednesday evening of last week. The above notice tells the rest. The deceased was a very interesting child, and we cannot refrain giving, in connection with her death, the following lines, written by an unknown friend of the family:

Say it is spring in heaven, as now on earth,
That tender buds, should be demanded there?
That from your flowers, of terrestrial birth,
One, all acknowledged lovely, sweet and rare,
Should thus be called and softly borne away,
To open its petals to celestial day?

You have one flower less, and Ie one more!
But yours must know the cold and blight and storm—
His shall be nurtured where no tempest war,
No change nor death may touch the gentle form.
Then do not grieve when more to you are given,
To offer up one bud to bloom in heaven.

Was she the loveliest? give the best to him!
Was she the dearest? fittest for the skies?
Was she the purest? never more may sin
Dim, with its taint, the lustre of her eyes.
Was she the best beloved, the fond, the true?
Give! give the best beloved—it is His due!

On Sunday morning, 29th inst., of inflammation of the Lungs, terminating in Group, ISABELLA FITZON, daughter of Jas. Clark, editor of this paper, aged 2 years and 11 days.

The above records the death of our own dear child. An esteemed friend favors us with the following tribute to her memory:

A TRIBUTE
To the memory of ISABELLA FITZON CLARK, who was old enough to be intelligent; and young enough to be innocent:

Ah, Bella, dead, beloved one!
Ah, whither hast thy spirit gone!
Is there a fairer land on high?
Some brighter world beyond the sky?
Some dearer friends above, than we,
Who fondly love and cherish thee!

Celestial choirs! why did ye call!
From earth to thee, our little all!
Why did ye break the ties apart,
That bound her sweetly, to the heart?

Oh, heav'nly cherubs! send her back,
And let her joyous soul awake,
Allow one fondle—send her here—
We wish, her laughing voice, to hear:
Oh! grant us but one magic tone,
And we will give her back again!

Dear father, mother, mourn me not,
In happy climes, is cast, my lot.
Could you but see the fond embrace,
The smiling welcome in their face,
The angel's kiss, the seraph's love,
The smiling joys of those above,
You would agree that Bella's sprite
Should linger in the heav'nly light.

Be then content, that here I dwell,
Farewell—farewell—for 'till is well."
Huntingdon, 30th Oct. 1848. AMICUS.
