

Hon. Millard Fillmore.
We noticed the other day that the Hon. Millard Fillmore, Vice President elect, was in New York, and stopping at the Irving House. On Tuesday evening the Whig General Committee waited upon him in a body to tender him their congratulations upon the gratifying result of the Presidential election, which was done through the Hon. Philip Hone, their chairman, in a neat and pertinent address. Mr. Fillmore responded to the compliment briefly, and from which we make the following extract:

"I can only thank you, in my embarrassment, but I am sure that it is not to me this tribute is rendered, but to the illustrious man under whose name and whose principles we have achieved the brilliant civil victory that the Telegraph for a week past has been sending to us. In that man, and his simplicity, energy and straightforwardness, I have the highest confidence. I have never had the honor of taking him by the hand, or of meeting him face to face, but I have studied well his character, and I feel, therefore, that I know him well—for it is a character plain and open, to be read by everybody, and not of that complex nature that deludes and puzzles the observer. I have no doubt that under his administration you will realize all the high and patriotic expectations that you entertain, and that the country will receive an impetus and a direction, under his honest hands, that will go far, not only to make it flourish, but to make its institutions endure. I look to him with confidence for a restoration of sound republican principles, and for an administration of honest men; and with him, I am sure, we shall have the government of the popular voice—not the expression of the arbitrary will of one man. What the people demand the people will have, and upon them will depend the success of the administration of Zachary Taylor. (Cheers.)"

Some two or three hundred gentlemen and among them many of the leading Whigs of the city, then shook hands with Mr. Fillmore, and spent some time with him in agreeable conversation.

FROM MEXICO.
By the arrival of the British steamer Forth, the N. O. Picayune has received Vera Cruz dates to the 16th inst.—The Picayune says:

We have accounts from an intelligent Mexican that the 9th of this month was fixed upon for a revolutionary outbreak in the city of Mexico, of which the reputed leaders were Gens. Bassadre, Tornel and Almonte. The Government called out the National Guards from their quarters and stationed them in the plaza, and artillery was stationed to protect the square on which the Palace fronts. The attempt was thus thwarted.

Senors D. Augustina Turbe and D. Manuel Parteanoya, and many other officers, have been thrown into prison by the Government. The object of the conspirators was to bring back Santa Anna. All the papers allude to the projects on foot to enable Santa Anna to resume power, and men still predict that not two months will elapse before he is reinstated. Two of his private Secretaries, Senores Arrillaga and Gener, are now in Mexico, having proceeded thither on the last voyage of the Forth. We have no new developments in regard to the Tampico movement. The papers treat all the pretenses of Castilla as shallow and contemptible, regarding his operations as a part of the Sierra Madra project.

AMERICAN LABOR.—The following beautiful tribute to labor is from a speech delivered in Faneuil Hall, Boston, by Daniel Webster:

"I have spoken of labor as one of the great elements of society, the great substantial interest on which we all stand. Not feudal service, but predial toil, not the irksome drudgery by one race of mankind, subjected, on account of color to the control of another race of mankind; but labor, intelligent, manly, independent, thinking and acting for itself, earning its own wages, accumulating those wages into capital, educating childhood, mantaining worship, claiming the right of elective franchise, and helping to uphold the great fabric of the State. That is American labor, and I confess that all my sympathies are with it, and my voice until I am dumb, will be for it."

WELL SAID.—The Union says "a Whig triumph must always be an accident," to which the Alexandria Gazette thus responds: "Well, all we can say is, that in the present instance it has been the most deliberately sought for accident that we ever read or heard talked of; and moreover, it was an accident that our friend of the Union very deliberately endeavored to prevent."

The last Richmond Enquirer, which for months past has decorated its columns with black lines around the names of Taylor and Fillmore, announces that it has taken down the "funeral ticket." Would it not have been more appropriate to have inserted the names of Cass and Butler? Under present circumstances, it seems to us that such a badge would belong to the fitness of things.—North American.

AN OLD GRINDER.—A fragment of a mammoth's tooth has been found at the Sulphur Springs, in Alabama, which weighs eighty and a half pounds. It must have been a monstrous head to hold a jawful of such grinders.

The following appears in the Albany Express: "Wanted—An able-bodied person to hold my wife's tongue, she and I being unable to keep it still."

MARKETS.

PHILA, Nov. 17, 1848.
FLOUR AND MEAL.—The week opened with a better export demand for Flour, and with moderate receipts, sales reach some 7000 barrels at $5.31 1/2 for fair mixed, and $5.37 1/2 for Brandywine and other good straight brands.—Since Wednesday, however, the demand has fallen off and the market closes dull at our quotations. Sales for city use are limited at $5.37 1/2 a 5.50 for good and $5.62 1/2 a $5.80 per bbl for extra and fancy brands. Rye Flour has declined and sales made at $3.75 a 3.87 1/2, principally at the lower rate. Corn Meal—The market is firm, but closes quiet. Sales were to the extent of 3000 bbls at $3 for Penn'a and $3 1/2 for Brandywine.

GRAIN begins to arrive more freely and the receipts of Wheat are larger than for some time past, which has a tendency to depress the market. Sales embrace some 35,000 bushels Penn'a and Southern at 113 a 112 and 111c for reds, and 118 a 115c for white—closing at our lowest figures. Rye—Sales of Penn'a have been making at 66c. Corns—The market has improved owing to the scarcity of old Corn, and sales range at 67 a 70c for flat and round yellow, mostly at 68c; mixed 60 a 63c, and new 56 a 57c—all weight. The week's sales embrace about 45,000 bushels. Oats are dull and about 8000 bushels Southern sold at 28 a 30c, mostly at 29c; Penn'a in limited demand at 33 per bushel.

SEEDS.—There is rather more inquiry for Cloverseed at the close of the week, and sales range at $2.50 a $4.00 per bushel. 100 bushels prime sold at the latter rate. Flaxseed brought $1.25 a $1.30. Timothy Seed—No sale.
