

Later From Mexico.

The British Mail Steamer Great Western, from Vera Cruz, arrived at Cat Island, on the 19th, with dates from the city of Mexico to the 13th, Vera Cruz to the 15th, and Tampico to the 13th. She had on board, specie to the amount of $2,298,075, of which $202,129 was consigned to New Orleans.

The news by this arrival possesses no great interest. Revolutionary projects were still hinted at in the newspapers, but they had not assumed any definite shape. The Siglo of the 8th says that a rumor was in circulation the day previous, to the effect that a revolution in favor of Santa Anna had broken out in San Louis, and that it was seconded by Gen. Minton in Guanojuato. The Siglo pronounces the rumor destitute of truth. In Orizaba, something more definite had taken place. It was known that a revolution in favor of Santa Anna was to break out on the 1st, but the diligence and activity of the authorities frustrated the designs of the conspirators, who were arrested and imprisoned.

(Correspondence of the N. O. Picayune.) CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 13, 1848.

The depredations of the Indians in the northern and midland States are becoming every day more and more troublesome especially in Michoacan; and not all the efforts that are being constantly made to repel them than can prevent the robberies and murders of Mexicans by those savages. Indeed, the affair is assuming a very alarming appearance, and none can foresee the result. Desertions in the army are also getting to be frequent; so much so that a circular has been directed to the proprietors of haciendas, instructing them to arrest all deserters whom they may find and forward information of the same. Sr. Florez, Governor of this State, resigned his office shortly since, and in his place Sr. Malo has been appointed. Sr. Malo, though his name signifies evil, has the reputation of being a man in all respects well qualified to fill the high and responsible station of Governor of Mexico. Sr. Florez, it is said, with what truth I know not, was man of much mildness of disposition, and not over disposed to carry out the terms of the law in all cases.

An extra session of the Congress has been called, for the purpose of passing a law to authorize the appointment of commissioners to act in connection with those from the United States, in relation to the formation of the boundary line between the States of New Mexico and California and this Republic. This must be considered a very excellent measure, as the sooner those things are accomplished the less trouble and dispute can arise hereafter. The loan of $600,000,—not $800,000, as I stated to you in my last—which has been authorized to be made by the government, has not yet been effected, nor is it likely either, on the terms allowed. Nobody will lend the Government money on its own security, and it is a matter of very great doubt whether the present Government has the power at all to hypothecate any portion of the next payment that is to be made by the United States.

HUMORS OF LEGISLATION.—A correspondent of one of the Boston papers, upon the recent passage of a law of an arbitrary character, submitted the following, as worthy the consideration of the Legislature:—First; a law to regulate the killing of cats, and the drowning of blind pups. Second; one to prevent the eyes of lobsters from projecting more than one foot. Third; one to prevent the buzzing of flies and hook-billed musquitos. Fourth; to regulate the twist of dog's tails. Fifth; the regulating the color and size of whiskers. Sixth; prescribing the mode in which eels shall be skinned, potatoes roasted, and pea-pods shelled.

CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY voted for General Taylor, according to rumor—having known Gen. Cass while both in Gen. Jackson's cabinet. They also differ, says the same rumor, concerning the right of States to legislate on the slavery question.

THE JEWS.—On the 1st of this month, the decree for the complete emancipation of the Jews of the Roman States came into force. They are thereby declared fit for the exercise of all civil rights. The year 1848 is an amazing one. The changes of the form of Government are, however, less surprising than the abandonment of the Ghetto by the Jews of Rome.

DISCRIMINATE.—The office-holders in power are just now very anxious that Gen. Taylor should DISCRIMINATE in their favor, when the time for appointments comes round. The General in one of his letters, said very properly that he would make no indiscriminate removals from office. The N. Y. Courier and Enquirer notices this anxiety of the present office-holding party, to know upon what principle his 'discrimination' will be exercised, and says:—

We are entitled to our "guess" as well as others; and we hazard the conjecture that he will discriminate with reference to two points: 1, with a primary reference to the ability, faithfulness and integrity of the office-holder, so as to insure a proper discharge of the duties of the office,—and 2, to afford indiscriminate protection to the Whig party!

WHOLESALE EXTERMINATION.—It was stated recently, by Rev. Mr. Chinguy, in a public meeting at Montreal, that he had a list of fifteen families, once among the wealthiest of Montreal, who have all been destroyed by intemperance. Their aggregate fortune a few years ago amounted to $800,000. Now they have disappeared entirely, root and branch, solely through the influence of intoxicating liquors. He had another list of fourteen families, of various occupations, whose aggregate fortunes amounted to $1,200,000, who have also disappeared from the same cause, and another list of five hundred and seventeen families, who resided in fourteen parishes, and were all once comparatively wealthy, but are now destroyed by liquor, except remnants scattered through the States and elsewhere. It is thus that intoxicating liquors destroy the human race.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—A young man named Davis, aged 19 to 20 years, was killed at Carmel, Me., a few days since, by coming in contact with a circular saw. It struck him on the top of the head, cut down between the eye and nose, severed both upper and lower jaws, and by the blood and particles of his brain on the saw, the wound must have been some seven inches in depth. He fell dead without a struggle.

FATHER TAYLOR ON GOV. BRIGGS.—At the close of his service on Sunday afternoon, says the Boston Journal, Father Taylor held up the Governor's Proclamation, appointing a day of Thanksgiving, and said,—"Brethren, I would read this paper, if I had strength enough left to do it. It is very long, and as good as it is long. It ends with the Prayer, "God save the Commonwealth!" Thank God brethren, that was done a week ago!"

THE ALLISON LETTER.—Since the election, the Democrats have abandoned all their former objections to this letter, but have just discovered a new and more formidable one than all the others combined, which is, that there is no pledge in it on the part of General Taylor that he will not run for a second term. They are now disposed to waive all further evil against the Letter, if Gen. Taylor will only supply this omission, as they are afraid he may serve them as he did the Mexicans, and give them "a little more grape."—N. O. Bulletin.
