

Wearing the Breeches.
The estimable and respected wife of Arch Duke John, the present Regent of German confederate states, made a conquest of her royal husband while bumping before him on the back of a post horse, in the disguise of a boy. The romantic incident, resulting in her marriage to the brother of an Emperor, and to one of the best and greatest men of modern times, thus befell. We copy from the Home Journal.

In a solitary and isolated post house in the mountains of Styria, an old man and his daughter were left in charge of the establishment, while the post boys, usually in waiting, were employed in gathering in the harvest. The girl sat sewing in the back room. Suddenly there was a great cracking of whips, and a post carriage rolled up rapidly to the door.—The old man, almost helpless from the gout, hobbled into his daughter's room:—

"I am lost," he said, "here is the Arch Duke John, and all my boys are away! What are we to do?"

Without giving her father time to say more, the stout girl ran up stairs to her chamber, slipped on a post-boy's trousers and short tailed coat—a dress in which she had misadvisedly in the holidays—and, by the time the horses were put by the postillion who had come on, she presented herself, seized the whip, jumped into the saddle and trotted rapidly on.—Through the glass windows in front of his carriage, the Arch Duke noticed the trim figure and charming proportions of the new postillion, and soon, by some difference from the ordinary symmetry of post boys, detected the sex.

"You are a girl!" said his royal highness, smilingly, as she unlocked the traces from his carriage at the end of the post.

"There was no postillion at home," she said, blushing, "and your highness could not wait."

In the conversation which ensued, Prince John discovered that she was as intelligent as pretty, and on separating, he said,

"Since you have made yourself a man for me, I must make you a woman."

In these mysterious words was expressed a design, which he soon carried out by demanding from the Emperor his brother's permission to marry her. It was not an easy thing. The romantic folly of the Archduke John was freely laughed at, at court, and it was the opinion of many that he was only amusing himself, and had no serious design of wedlock. The pretty post boy, however, was soon created Baroness de Brandhof, and immediately after married to the Prince.

Humble as was this connection, it probably assured the present position of the Archduke John upon the intermediate eminence he at present occupies, the aristocrats voting for him as the descendant of the royal house of Hapsburg, and the democrats as the son-in-law of the tavern keeper of Styria.

LOCKJAW.—I have noticed lately several deaths by lockjaw, and for the information of all, I will give a certain remedy. When any one runs a nail or any sharp iron in any part of his frame, take a common smoke pipe, fill it with tobacco, light it well, then take a thin cloth or silk handkerchief, place it over the bowl of the pipe, and blow the smoke through the stem into the wound. Two or three pipefuls will be sufficient to set the wound discharging. I have tried it on myself and five others, and found it to give immediate relief. If the wound has been of some days' standing, it will open it again if the tobacco is good. Try it, any one who may have chance to get such a wound.—Baltimore Sun

THE BEST RECOMMENDATION.—Nicholas Biddle, Esq., late President of the Bank of the United States, once dismissed a clerk, because the latter refused to write for him on the Sabbath. The young man, with a mother dependent on his exertions, was thus thrown out of employment, by what some would call an over-nice scruple of conscience. But a few days after, Mr. Biddle being requested to nominate a cashier for another bank, recommended this very individual, and mentioned this incident as proof of his trustworthiness. "You can trust him," said he, "for he wouldn't work for me on Sunday."

DR. LE ROY'S
Vegetable Universal Pills,
The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system.

LONDON, July 7, 1846.

DR. LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the place of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one through it admix with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these pills are at the same time tonic and opening; a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by all men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operations of this most excellent of medicines which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.

Price 25 Cents per Box.

CLICKENER'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS,
The Only Effectual Purgative,
cured within the last year

OVER 200,000 PERSONS
of the following Complaints:

Headache, Giddiness, Rheumatism, Piles, Diarrhea, Scoury, Small pox, Jaundice, Pains in the Back, Inward Weakness, Palpitation of the Heart, Rising in the Throat, Dropsy, Asthma, Fevers of all kinds, Female Complaints, Measles, Salt Rheum, Heartburn, Worms, Cholera Morbus, Coughs, Quinsy, Whooping Cough, Consumption, Fits, Liver Complaint, Erysipelas, Deafness, Itchings of the Skin, Colic, Gout, Gravel, Nervous Complaints, and a variety of other diseases arising from impurities of the blood, and obstructions in the organs of digestion.

Experience has proved that nearly every disease originates from impurities of the blood or derangement of the Digestive Organs; and to secure Health, we must remove those impurities and restore the blood to its natural state. Therefore, when the slightest derangement of the system is indicated by Costiveness, or any other sign, it admonishes us that superfluities are gathering in the system, which should be immediately removed by an effectual purgative. This fact, as stated, is universally known; but people have such an aversion to medicine, that unless the case urgent, they preferred the disease to the cure, generally. Since the invention, however,

Clickener's Vegetable Purgative Pills, his objection does not exist, as they are completely overcome by a coating of pure white sugar (as distinct from the internal ingredients as a nut shell from the kernel) have no taste of medicine, and are as easily swallowed as bits of candy.—Moreover they neither nauseate or grip in the slightest degree. They operate equally on all the diseased parts of the system, instead of confining themselves to, and racking any particular region. Thus, for example, if the Liver be affected, one ingredient will operate on that particular organ, and by cleansing it of that Excess of Bile it is constantly discharging into the stomach, restore it to its natural state. Another will operate on the Blood, and remove those impurities which have already entered into its circulation; while a third will effectually expel from the system whatever impurities may have been discharged into the stomach; and hence they

The entire truth of the above can be ascertained by the trial of a single box; and their virtues are so positive and certain in restoring Health that the proprietor binds himself to return the money paid for them in all cases where they do not give universal satisfaction.

ASTONISHING CURES.

Wm. DODD, the celebrated Boston cracker baker, 99 Nassau street, Brooklyn, states that his wife has been afflicted with Asthma for 30 years, and could not find permanent relief from the best medical advice which New York and Brooklyn could produce, was induced to try this great remedy. She is now nearly well. His daughter, who was suffering from the same disease, tried it, and was also cured by it. Mrs. Dodd is now so well that she is able to rise from her bed early in the morning and attend to her usual duties through the day without any annoyance from her distressing malady.

HENRY JACKSON, 13th street, near the Catholic Cemetery, came to the store for the purpose of obtaining a bottle of the Olossonian, having been afflicted with the Asthma for more than 30 years, and was so exhausted on his arrival that he could not speak. He purchased a bottle and rode home. Four days afterward he walked from his residence to the office without fatigue, a distance of over two miles,
