

EVENING LECTURE OF BETTY JONES.

Well Jones, you are a pretty fellow; here you've come home again as drunk as a biled owl, and you don't know yourself from four dollars and a half. The children are crying for bread, their clothes are worn out, and here I have to slave, slave, the whole blessed day, till I have not a whole rag to my back; and what there is, sticks to me as tight as the skin does to the model artists old Mrs. Smith tells about.

"We must retrench?" Retrench, indeed. I'd like to see what you'd retrench about this house, except vittles and clothes; and I'm sure we've none to spare in them respects. You wouldn't want your own flesh and blood to go naked and hungry, would you? You're too much of a man, if you be an old brute, Jones, for that. If you'd keep to your work, and mind your own business, be steady, and stop your drinking all day, and speering at night, times would be a heap better for us. You ain't the man, Jones, you was when I give you my virgin affections: you don't come into the house modestly, and lift off your hat, and say good evening, Miss Hetty, and draw your chair close up to mine, and then take hold of my hand, and kind of blush, and then hitch up a little closer, and—

"Don't make a fool of myself?" I aint a going to, Jones; but it sorta does my old heart good to call up these remissnesses, and wish it had always been so. But you are as tender hearted as a turtle dove, and just as sensible, when you have any sense, as any body. Set down, Jones, and eat your supper, and tell me all the news a flying—

"You've stopped the paper?" You lie, Jones; you know you lie. You'd a stopped your wind first, you'd a stopped the children's bread, you'd a—

"You couldn't afford it?" Aint you got no conscience, Jones, to let on so? The paper costs you four cents a week, and the printer takes all kind of truck for pay. And here it's Saturday night, and I'd like to know how much money you've thrown away this week. I'll count it up. I'll give you a blessing before I get through. It aint often I catch you at home, and when I do, you'll take it for better or worse, as the saying is. There's a gallon of whiskey on Monday morning, costs 37 1/2 cents; there's a half gallon of beer on Tuesday, costs 18 pence; there's a shilling to treat that old flummix that come along and said he knowed you when you was a boy. The Lord only knows how much you've spent to-day; it must have took a heap of change, for you aint an old sponge, Jones; you don't get drunk on any body's money but your own; and I reckon it must took at least a quarter to make a man drunk enough to stop his paper. Well, now, I'll go and count it all up; three shillings and eighteen pence, and one shilling, and a quarter makes just ninety-four cents. In my opinion, as good as that very sum thrown into the fire, and better, too; and that would a most paid for the paper six months; and I expect the printer needs the money as bad as most folks. There's a power of economy in such doings.—

Why, what would a body know if it wasn't for the paper; and now, too, when there's so many parties, and a body wants to know how to vote.

"Wimmen don't vote?" Well, I know it, and it's a great pity they don't.— They'd revolutionize the world and have a provisionary government everywhere, as they call it; and they'd—they wouldn't kill off all the men, not quite, cause they're useful in their places, mind I tell you, Jones. But, as I was saying about the printer, we must have news: vicy varsey, we must have printers, and if they can live without nothing to eat, then they're the critters that's in advance of the age, for the people of this generation make a god of their bellies according to the best of their knowledge and belief. Another thing: I shouldn't wonder if you stopped the paper and never paid for it; and then you'd get published in the black list, and your poor wife's reputation be ruined, and your children go to the penitentiary. It won't do, Jones; it won't do; and here she broke off, for Jones was asleep.

"Put that right back where you took it from!" as the girl said when her lover snatched a kiss.

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

STOP! STOP! MY DEAR MAN READ THIS if you have got DYSPEPSIA or ANTHRA of suffer from general debility, or any complaint resulting from derangement of the stomach. You would give a good deal to get well, would you not? Then just give a LITTLE, and try Green's Oxygenated Bitters. It is just the thing for you. The Doctor discovered a medicine only after long and careful study—to cure a friend too—not to make money out of it. Look at the evidence of its efficacy and you will be satisfied.

Hon. MRS. LAWRENCE cured of ANTHRA. BRIGHTON, March 16, 1848.

Dr. GREEN—I take great pleasure in informing you of the effects of the medicine called Oxygenated Bitters you had the kindness to send me. For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humored Anthra. I was compelled to sit up one third of the night, without going to bed at all; and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my attendance upon our courts I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, and sleep soundly. I took your medicine according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of the remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable, and I hope its virtues may be widely diffused and its beneficent agency extensively employed.

Respectfully yours, MYRON LAWRENCE. CAWMAK, Pa. June 10, 1848.

Messrs. COLLIER & BRO. Gentlemen—In reply to your note as to the effect of the Oxygenated Bitters in my case I would say, that I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia about six years, and have tried many known remedies, but obtained no relief, until a friend recommended the Oxygenated Bitters. . . . I was finally induced to procure two bottles of yours, and I had not taken half a bottle before I felt its effects upon my system, and after the use of the second bottle, I found myself in a state of health as unexpected as it was gratifying. To the afflicted I have no hesitation in recommending the Bitters, as superior to any medicine I have ever heard of for the cure of Dyspepsia.

Very Respectfully yours, MADSON M. LEWIS.

DR. LE ROY'S

Vegetable Universal Ointment. The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system.

LUNNON, July 7, 1846. DR. LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the place of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one, through its admixure with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. In such cases as these, the medicine is not only purgative, but also a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operations of this most excellent of medicines which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.

CLICKENER'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS,

The Only Effectual Purgative, cured within the last year OVER 200,000 PERSONS of the following Complaints: Headache, Giddiness, Rheumatism, Piles, Diarrhea, Soury, Small pox, Jaundice, Pains in the Back, Stomach Weakness, Palpitation of the Heart, Rising in the Throat, Dropsy, Asthma, Fevers of all kinds, Female Complaints, Measles, Salt Rheum, Heartburn, Worms, Cholera Morbus, Coughs, Quinsey, Whooping Cough, Consumption, Fish Liver Complaint, Erysipelas, Deafness, Itchings of the Skin, Colds, Gout, Gravel, Nervous Complaints, and a variety of other diseases arising from impurities of the blood, and obstructions in the organs of digestion.

Experience has proved that nearly every disease originates from impurities of the blood or Derangements of the Digestive Organs; and to secure Health, we must remove those Impurities and restore the blood to its natural state. Therefore, when the slightest derangement of the system is indicated by Costiveness, or any other sign, it admonishes us that superfluities are gathering in the system, which should be immediately removed by an effectual purging. This fact, as stated, is universally known; but people have such an aversion to medicine, that unless the case urgent, they prefer the disease to the cure, generally. Since the invention, however, of Clickener's Vegetable Purgative Pills, his objection does not exist, as they are completely enveloped with a coating of pure white sugar (as distinct from the internal ingredients as a nut shell from the kernel) have no taste of medicine, and are as easily swallowed as bits of candy.—Moreover they neither nauseate or gripe in the slightest degree. They operate equally on all the diseased parts of the system, instead of confining themselves to, and racking any particular region. Thus, for example, if the Liver be affected, one ingredient will operate on that particular organ, and by cleansing it of that excess of Bile it is constantly discharging into the stomach, restore it to its natural state. Another will operate on the Blood, and remove those impurities which have already entered into its circulation; while a third will effectually expel from the system whatever impurities may have been discharged into the stomach; and hence they

The entire truth of the above can be ascertained by the trial of a single box; and their virtues are so positive and certain in restoring Health that the proprietor binds himself to return the money paid for them in all cases where they do not give universal satisfaction.

ASTONISHING CURES.

WM. BROWN, the celebrated Boston cracker baker, 99 Nassau street, Brooklyn, states that his wife has been afflicted with Asthma for 30 years, and could not find permanent relief from the best medical advice which New York and Brooklyn could produce, was induced to try this great remedy. She is now nearly well. His daughter, who was suffering from the same disease tried it, and was also cured by it. Mrs. Bond is now so well that she is able to rise from her bed early in the morning and attend to her usual duties through the day without any annoyance from her distressing malady.

HENRY JACKSON, 13th street, near the Catholic Cemetery, came to the store for the purpose of obtaining a bottle of the Olosoanian, having been afflicted with Asthma for more than 30 years, and was so exhausted on his arrival that he could not speak. He purchased a bottle and red home. Four days afterward he walked from his residence to the office without fatigue, a distance of over two miles, to tell of the wonderful relief which he had experienced from using about one half of one bottle.

Mrs. CONNOR, 35 White street, was so low in the month of December last, that he was given up by his physician. He was persuaded to try the Olosoanian and to his surprise it was so far restored him to health that he is now able to walk about the streets.

Mrs. ATREE, the wife of Wm. H. Attree, James Harman, Esq. and George W. I. and Esq. can all bear testimony from their own experience of the healing properties of this Great Remedy in Consumption of the Lungs.

Mrs. THORNTON, 352 Monroe street, who had been troubled for a great length of time by a severe cough, and raised quantities of blood, was relieved by one bottle of the Olosoanian, and declares it the greatest remedy in the world.

DENNIS KELLY, 26 Water street, was also relieved from the same complaint, although he was very much reduced when he commenced taking it—having been under the care of his physician during the past winter. Although he coughed constantly and was very much troubled with night sweats, two bottles of the remedy enabled him to return to his daily work. He was entirely relieved.

DAVID HENDERSON, 60 Light street, George W. Burnett, formerly of Newark, N. J., Henry Fishon, 199 Rivington
