Mrs. Howard." Mrs. W. said she would call Mrs. H., and immediately went up stairs for that purpore.

Mrs. H. soon came down, and upon meeting the stranger, the latter sprang at her and plunged a knife into her neck severing the jugular, and the walked off! Mrs. H. staggered back into the kitchen, the blood gushing from the kitchen, the blood gushing from the wound, cried. "O, Mrs. Wolf, I am killed!" and expired in a short time! Mr. Howard was in the house at the time, and upon being made acquainted with the fscts, he seized a knife, and calling the name of the murderess, rushed down stairs—but she had escaped! The bleeding object of his love was writhing in death before him, and he became frantic.

Pursuit was made for the murderess but she could be found no where. Mr. John L. Scott, member of Council from the second ward, however, met her a short time after the murder, on Fourth street, near Vine, when she called his attention, by showing him a knife recking with blood, and exclaimed—"I have done it!—I killed her!—can I get this much out of Howard!" She was determined in her manner, and her eye had the glare of a maniae! Her hand and arm to the clow were besmeared with blood, and there were some spots upon her face. Mr. S. was so completely confounded by this singular meeting, that he suffered her to pass on. She was arrested at a late hour last night by officer Hulse, Jr., near her residence.—Cincinnut Commercial Feb. 3.

A Woman Bound for California —Romance in Real Life.—About two weeks since a gift.

Cincinnate Commercial Feb. 3.

A Woman Bound for California.—Romance in Real Life.—About two weeks since a girl employed in the Merrimack Mills, Lowell, left her boarding house, stating that she was going to spend some months with her parents in Petrboro, N. II. After an absence of nearly a week, it was discovered that she had gone to this city in male attire, and was making preparations to leave for California. Her parents were immediately informed of these facts, who arrived here on Monday last, and at once commenced search for the missing daughter, who was finally found on board a vessel bound for California. Her hair had been cut off—and with her, monkey jacket and large pants, she made a very fine looking young man. It seems that she had drawn some $200 from the Savings Banks, came to this city, stopped at the Pemberton house, secured a passage to California, purchased pistols, etc., and would have been on her way to the golden banks of the Savramento, had it not been that a girl in the confidence of our heroine, who, fearing the result, informed a relative, and thus exposed her whereabouts.—She was very reluctant to give up the heroic undertaking, which she finally consented to do, and returned with her parents to Peterboro'.—Boston Signal.

Informant Decision.—The Court of Appeals of the Saving of the Saving, not and a session at Anteronal contents of the Saving of the Sav napolis, has sustained the constitutionality of the State law, forbidding the venders of liquors upon the Sabbath. The Sun says:

It was an appeal from a decision of one of the county courts, in which the judgment of the court below was reversed on the ground of informality in the bill of exceptions, there being no proof that the defendant was a retailer of liquor. The court, however, decided that the State had the right under the constitution, to pass the law in question.

ACT A YOUNG WIDOW BY CONGRESS.—The House of Congress, having abolished flogging in the Navy, have followed up the good movement by abolishing the greg ration, which is two gills a day. In place of this the sailor is fo receive four cents. Mr. John A. Rockwell, of Connecticut, has the credit of this act, and Mr. Sawyer of Ohio, the credit of the former. If the Senate confirm these proceedings, we shall soon see a desirable improvement in the character of the Navy.

A young widow who edits a paper in a neighboring state, says: "We do not look so well to-day as usual, on account of the non-arrival of the males."

THE MARKETS.

Philadelphia, Feb. 8, 1849.

The produce market is still dull, the stocks being light, and the receipts very limited. We notice some further small sales of Flour at $5 per bbl. for common brands, and better lots for city use at 25 a 75c. higher. There is nothing doing in Rye Flour or Corn Meal, prices remaining study. The last Sale of Wheat was a lot of prime Penn'a red at 108c per bu., but we quote at 105 a 108c. Further sales of Rye at 67 a 68c., and Corn at 56c. per bu. Oats are dull, and Southern are nominal at 30c.

On Tuesday, 30th uft., in Marietta, Lancaster county, Pa., Romert A. Ransey, aged about 40 years—leaving a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

The deceased was a native of this place. His weeker and two sixters will residulate.

The deceased was a native of this place. His mother and two sisters, still reside here. He was a man of unbiemished moral character; honest, industrious and of good habits, he naturally won the esteem of all who knew him. honest, industrious and of good habits, he naturally won the esteem of all who knew him.—
After arriving at manhood, he removed to Marietta, where he married, and where, for some time previous to his death, he held the office of Lumber Inspector. The good character which took with him from home, he maintained up to the time of his death. He was a kind son and brother; an affectionate and provident husband and father, and an esteemed and valuable member of society. His loss is deeply mourned by his reactives, and regretted by all whe enjoyed his acquaintance.
