HOW A MAN LOST HIS WIFE.

Mow a Man Lost His Wife.

"Many a year ago—ob, very many years ago, I enjoyed a week full of North Carolinian hospitality, which was then, as now, cordial, generous, and, better than all, altogether sincere. By the way, Arthur, I never understood why hospitality is so generally, indeed almost universally marked as a southern of character, so distinguished as to imply that the virtue hardly exists anywhere else. Now I have found warm hearts in the devilish old corners of New England; just as warm as in the hot states towards the Gulf; and a Pennsylvania Dutchman has entertained me as royally, in his way to be sure, as ever did an F. F. Virginian. The American people are everywhere hospitable; and it being so, they are rather obedient to an every-day feeling than to an impulse; a feeling too, which has nothing to do with northern or southern climates. Here my uncle stopped. He was busied with memories too sacred to be scattered by any thoughtless speech of mine. An old man's recollections—but he resumed:

"Arthur, I hate fleas. * * * * My host showed me my room. I was fatigued with riding and dancing, and I was soou asleep and dreaming. The ladies left the drawing room before I did; a half a dozen huddled together in one large chamber, as I discovered afterwards, I suppose there were plenty of beds in it, but as for that I neither know nor care. Col. L. came to my room and awakened me. "Jump up quick—I'll show you some fun. Come with me—no one's here." I had neither pantalons nor slippers, but it was a warm night, and the floor was smooth and cool.

DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY,

MY DEAR MAN READ THILL If you have got DYSPERSIA OF ASTURA OF SUffer from general debility, or any complaint resulting from derangement of the stomach. You would give a good deal to get well, would nt you! Then just give a LYTTER, and try Green's Oxygenated Bitters. Its just the thing for you. The Doctor discovered this medicine only after long and careful study—to cure a friend too—not to make money out of it. Look at the evidence of its efficacy and you will be satisfied.

—to cure a friend too—not to make money out of it. Look at the evidence of its efficacy and you will be satisfied.

Hon. MYRON LAWRENCE CURED of ASTHMA.

BRIGHENG—I take great pleasure in informing you of the effects of the medicine called 'cxygenated Bitters you had the kindness to send me. For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humored Asthma. I was compelled to sit up one third of the night, without going to bed at all; and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my attendance upon our courts I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, and sleep soundly. I took your medicine according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of the remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable and I hope its virtues may be wideing diffused and its bentificent agency extensively emp. oyed.

Messrs. Collier & Bro. your note as to the effect of the Oxygenated Bitters in my case I would say, that I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia about six years, and have tried many known remedies, but obtained no relief until a friend recommended the Oxygenated Bitters. * * I was finally induced to procure two bottles of you, and I had not taken half a bottle before I felt its effects upon my satem, and after the use of the second bottle. I found mysef in a state of health as unexpected as it was gratifying. To the afflicted I have no hesitation in recommending the Bitters, as superior to any medicine I have ever heard of for the cure of Dyspepsia.

Very Respectfully yours,

MADSON M. LEWIS,

The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system.

London, July 7, 1846.

Dr. LE ROY'S Pillsare a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the places of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one, through it admix ure with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus those pills are at the same time tonic and opening; a desideratum long and eagerly soughtfor by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no re-action. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderfulinfluence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nause or sickness attending the operations of this most excellent of medicines which nover strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, uniteras manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, uniteras than an internal and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations.
