

Hoover's Ink. HOOPER'S SUPERIOR WRITING INK for sale at this office.

TERMS: The 'HUNTINGDON JOURNAL' is published at the following rates, viz: $1.75 a year, if paid in advance; $2.00 if paid during the year, and $2.50 if not paid until after the expiration of the year.

No subscription taken for less than six months, and no paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the publisher.

Our thanks are due to our old friend PHILIP WEBER, Messenger of the Senate, for a public document. Also to our attentive and indefatigable representative, Col. CORNYN, for many favors.

NEFF & BRO., have just received another splendid assortment of clocks, watches, Jewelry, &c., which they are selling at extremely low rates. See advertisement.

The card of NEFF & MILLER, Surgeon Dentists, will be found in another column. We understand they have procured an entire new set of instruments, and are prepared to attend to all calls in the line of their profession in a manner which cannot fail to give satisfaction.

BUCKS COUNTY INTELLIGENCER.—This valuable paper has recently been enlarged and otherwise improved. It is now the largest weekly published in the interior. If the Whigs of Bucks county possess the intelligence and taste we suppose they do, the Intelligencer cannot fail having a very liberal support.

The Canal. The navigation has opened this year quite early and under most favorable circumstances. Freight boats have been running for some days back, and the first packet of the season is expected to reach this place this evening.

It is said some of the Locooco members of the Legislature declare that they will 'head Gov. Johnston or die.' We guess they'll die, then. Their efforts at heading 'old Bill' will prove about as effectual as the opposition of a certain animal belonging to one Slaymaker to the onward course of the Locomotive.

Collector of Philadelphia. We understand that Hon. A. RAMSEY of Harrisburg, will in all probability, be appointed Collector of the Port of Philadelphia. We hope this may prove to be correct.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

The Reason Why. A leading Locooco member of the House of Representatives, says the Pa. Intelligencer, has given a reason for his opposition to Mr. BALL's project for the completion of the North Branch Canal, and the issue of small notes by the Banks, that it will really be a beneficial measure, and bring the state stocks up; and that in proportion as it will work this beneficially for the interests of the state and the people, will operate disastrously to the interests of the Democratic party.

Spring Election.

The election for Judge, Inspector, &c. in this district on Friday last resulted in a very satisfactory manner to the Whigs. Last fall the majority against Gen. Taylor was 51; on Friday last the Whig candidate for Judge received a majority of 27. Both parties had fixed upon their candidates, and our democratic friends had put themselves to the trouble of holding a meeting at Coups' to organize their forces. As usual they took their candidate for Judge from the ridges; and although the gentleman selected was a great improvement on the candidates usually presented by that party, from that quarter, the democrats from Stone Creek demurred. They considered that the ridges had monopolized the township and district offices long enough.

The Whig candidates being entirely unexceptionable, and the candidate for Judge, Geo. TAYLOR, Esq., known to both parties as an honest, honorable man, who would treat both sides fairly, a number of the Stone Creek democrats resolved to support him. This determination made decidedly "about as much" for the democrats of the ridges, who, notwithstanding they can make nominations without consulting the wishes of the Stone Creek democrats, are unable to elect without their votes. Our success therefore on this occasion is mainly owing to the independence of our Stone Creek friends, and the popularity of our candidates.

We give the vote on the candidates voted for by borough and township. For Judge and Inspector Little Walker votes with this district.

Table with columns: Judge, Boro, Ward, Walker, Total. Lists names and vote counts for various candidates.

Whigs in italics; locos in roman. Borough Officers. The following officers were elected in the borough: Constable—J. G. Houck.

Township Officers. The following officers were elected in Henderson township: Supervisors—John Porter, A. Decker. Overseers—John Snyder, Jas. Fort.

The Legislature. Nothing of a local nature interesting to the people of this county has been acted on by the Legislature during the past week. The most important public bills under consideration, is the completion of the North Branch canal and avoiding the inclined plane on the Columbia railroad.

Gen. Shields. The committee appointed to inquire into the eligibility of Gen. Shields, to a seat in the U. S. Senate have reported adversely and the Senate adopted the report. The election is therefore void, and the whole question goes back to the Legislature of Illinois.

Letter Writers. The Daily News hits off in fine style the tone of oracular infallibility and self-important authority assumed by some of the Washington letter writers. Independent readers throughout the country are both amused and disgusted with the tone assumed by some of these writers recently.

Locooco Divisions. Loud complaints are made by several Locooco presses against the Locooco Canal Commissioners, on account of their late appointments, and grave charges are uttered against them. The Union Times bitterly denounces Messrs. Longstreth and Painter, and accuses them of hypocrisy and inconsistency.

The Merit of Brevity. The Washington Union says—"The new President's inaugural address is the shortest document which has probably ever been delivered by any incoming President."

Our Member. The following resolution, among others, was passed at a recent Whig county meeting in Venango county. The handsome and merited compliment paid to our talented representative, Col. A. K. CORNYN, will be duly appreciated by the constituents of that gentleman in this county.

THE MARKETS. There has been but little change in the markets since our last. Prices are slightly on the decline, and but little is doing.

Two members of the Philadelphia bar have tendered Mr. MEREDITH a public dinner, as a mode of congratulating him on his appointment to the Treasury Department.

THE PHILADELPHIA BAR. On Friday last, at Columbia, Lancaster Co. Pa., on his return from Washington, Hon. JOHN BLANCHARD, Member of Congress from this District, aged 62 years.

MEETING OF THE BAR. At a meeting of the Bar and officers of the Court, held at the Prothonotary's Office in Bellefonte on the morning of the 12th of March 1849, for the purpose of expressing their feelings on the death of the Hon. John Blanchard;

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

Important Bill.

The North Branch Canal—Small Bills &c. The Pa. Intelligencer says—By reference to the proceedings, it will be seen that the bill for completion of the North Branch Canal came up again in the house of Representatives on Saturday last, when an important amendment was submitted by Mr. BALL, and a vote taken which indicates the passage of a bill of such a character as will insure the completion of the work without entailing any additional burden upon the state.

Mr. Ball's amendment proposes appropriating $1,200,000 from the State Treasury for the completion of the Canal—the money to be borrowed from the Banks, who are to pay the amount in three annual installments, each bank to give ten per cent. on its capital stock. The banks have the privilege of issuing notes of one two and three dollars, which are to be counter-signed, and registered, and recorded separately by the Auditor General.

When mutilated notes are presented at the Auditor General's office, new notes, counter-signed and registered as provided for, are to be issued.—The Auditor General is to have the plates finely engraved, so as to prevent counterfeiting and to carry out the provisions of this act, relating to the issue of notes.

Every bank applying for a re-charter, is to pay fifty per cent. on its increased capital stock, to be applied to the payment of the loan or to the sinking fund, and will receive certificates of State Stock, at the following interest: For the first three years, 2 per cent.; for the second 3 per cent.; and afterwards 4 per cent., payable semi-annually.

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 47 to 42—the Democratic members of Wyoming and Bradford voting in the affirmative. It is a project which commends itself to the favor of the friends of the canal, and of the business community of the whole state.

Whether Gen. Taylor and his Cabinet will remove many or few of those they find in offices under their control, we do not know, nor do we greatly care. There are some incumbents of decided worth whom we shall gladly see retained; and there are others who ought at all events to be put out, although their places were to be filled by men of precisely similar politics.

These are, indeed, cordial, generous and manly expressions of public opinion. Mr. Meredith and the Tariff. Some of our Free Trade Locooco contemporaries have hinted, in noticing the appointment of Wm. M. MEREDITH as Secretary of the Treasury, that he was an opponent of protection.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

The Response of the Press.

The Philadelphia Enquirer says, "The Inaugural address of Gen. Taylor has been received with a burst of enthusiastic approbation in all sections of the Union, so far as we are enabled to judge by the public journals that have reached us since its promulgation. The response of the Press, not only Whig, but independent, is most cordial.

The Address of President Taylor, upon taking the oath of office, yesterday, will be read by the whole people. Its great claim upon universal attention no one will dispute, or resist—that is its brevity. No document that has ever emanated from an incumbent of the Presidential chair, has by its peculiar merit ever commended itself so diffusively a popularity.

The New York Commercial. "If there is a citizen of the United States, in the possession of his faculties, who cannot rightly appreciate a state paper so lucid and explicit, there is but one course left for him—to go to school immediately."

The N. Y. Express describes it as a model state paper, and remarks: "It is a plain, straight forward, manly document, yet beautiful and eloquent in expression, unswerving in its declarations, and breathing truth—what is so rare in mere official documents—a high and moral sentiment, which will find a ready endorsement, over and over again, in the hearts of the whole American people."

The N. Y. Sun: "The Inaugural Address of the new President will be read with interest and admiration by every patriot and lover of the country, throughout the Union. Its tone is lofty—its sentiments bold, manly, and American. Gen. Taylor has stamped his character as an Executive with the seal of genuine greatness—agreedness—that will be as memorable in his Presidential career, as are his victories over the Mexicans in his military."

The N. Y. Courier says: "The Inaugural address of President Taylor will be read by every body; and, unless we are very much mistaken, it will be admired by everybody. In style, tone and sentiments it is a model for all papers of this kind—a model, which, it is to be hoped, will be followed in all time to come."

These are, indeed, cordial, generous and manly expressions of public opinion. Mr. Meredith and the Tariff. Some of our Free Trade Locooco contemporaries have hinted, in noticing the appointment of Wm. M. MEREDITH as Secretary of the Treasury, that he was an opponent of protection.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

My Dear Sir—I had the pleasure of receiving, a few days since, your letter on behalf of the Committee, inviting me to be present at the Whig Jubilee in Pottsville, on Saturday next, and regret extremely that my engagements here will prevent me from availing myself of the invitation.

The great majority of the present incumbents of the offices in question have been all their lives the boisterous champions of the doctrine that "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished." They got in on that platform, did all they could to make their offices keep them in, and if Cass had been elected would have stayed in upon it.

Death of Hon. John Blanchard.

The following resolutions of respect for the memory and character of our late representative in Congress, were unanimously passed by the Legislature. They were reported by Mr. Matthias of the Senate, and pending their passage in the House, appropriate remarks were made by Messrs. Meek, of Centre, and Cornyn of Huntingdon.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and immediate connexions of the deceased, in the bereavement they have sustained, and hereby tender them our heartfelt condolence. Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

From the Centre Co. Democrat of the 14th inst.

On Friday last, at Columbia, Lancaster Co. Pa., on his return from Washington, Hon. JOHN BLANCHARD, Member of Congress from this District, aged 62 years.

MEETING OF THE BAR. At a meeting of the Bar and officers of the Court, held at the Prothonotary's Office in Bellefonte on the morning of the 12th of March 1849, for the purpose of expressing their feelings on the death of the Hon. John Blanchard;

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. A. A. Anderson, Mr. DAVID DOUGLASS to Miss MARY A. LLOYD, both of Blair county.

On the 15th inst., by Rev. H. Heckerman, Mr. WILLIAM MEREDITH of Mill Creek, to Miss FRANCES MEREDITH, of Huntingdon.