

from Mr. Bullock's Address before the Worcester (Mass.) Agricultural Society, Progress of Industry and the Harmony of Labor.

This, then, is the grand moral lesson of the hour—the progress of industry and the harmony of labor. That progress is already proved and illustrated when this society remembers, on the one hand what its fathers saw, and what they did, and on the other, casts its eye on the exhibitions, and gathers up the instructions of this day. That harmony in interest and growth, in sentiment and purpose, is substantiated by this present re-union of all the sons of labor at this annual civic triumph. These exhibitions are teaching us that we are all producers and all consumers. These holidays are proving to us that the circle of all business and all pursuits is a charmed circle, and that a single jar anywhere spreads discord and disaster through the whole. There is no such thing here as an isolated interest, nor any such man as an isolated laborer. In the formation and growth of communities, labor divides and sub-divides itself—to the end, not that this pursuit or that may become easier or more honorable than the other, but that each and all may be the more profitable and more productive. Would any say that the divisions and sub-divisions of human invention in the Machinery we have witnessed to-day, with all their nice and varied improvements from year to year, involve any encroachment on the rights of labor? Neither with any more truth would you maintain that any fixed department of human pursuit, whether of the hand or the head, in the field or the shop, in the counting room or the office could be stricken out without imparting disturbance to the whole. There is one harmonious idea running through the whole scheme, and the whole fabric of society, the whole theory and the whole practice of the world—and that is, increased profit and increased production, greater capacity for producing, sustaining, educating, and advancing the race. The small and despised stream which flows through the heart of this city, is a wiser witness and a more liberal philosopher than we.—What growth and unbuilding, and expansion of industry has it not witnessed? It very early beckoned to its banks a scattered, humble, dependant colony of mechanics. It kept them up through prosperous and adverse fortune, till now a score of smoking shafts penetrate the sky, and from the reservoir, in the north, to its southern outlet, its banks are vocal with the axe and hammer, the whirling wire and the building machine, the farming plough and the noisy plane, the fierce glow of the furnace and the heavy working of iron, the whizz of the car shop and the crack of the pistol—while a host of children whom no man can number, look towards it in the morning and in the evening for their daily bread. If I were to call upon this productive rivulet for its testimony, what, think you, it would be? Why, to be sure, that the wire maker and machine builder combined to supply the cotton and woolen mill—that the plough maker furnished his ware for the whole agricultural world—that the iron man, with his five or six scores of hands, was at work for every body—and on to the end of the chapter, concluding with this essential and impressive fact, that as this community has increased from year to year, new churches and schools, a little more counsel and a little more medicine, yet other stores, for the wholesale and retail, more boarding houses and shoe shops, and tailors and hatters, and grocers and dress-makers, were demanded and came in upon us, till the town has become, what we behold it to-day,—all helping one another, and the farmer feeding the whole! I hold him to be a suspicious friend, who would scatter the seeds of dissension where Providence and natural causes have established a coincidence of interest; and against his testimony I place that ever speaking and benevolent stream, as it carries down to the waters of the Blackstone, to be diffused over yet larger communities between this and the Bay of the Narragansetts, that large, universal truth of American life.

YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT.

Dr. Donne, afterwards the celebrated Dean of St. Paul's, when he took possession of the first living to which he was inducted, walked into the yard of the church where he was to officiate. It happened, that as he sauntered along, the sexton was digging a grave, and the doctor stood for a moment to observe his operations. As the man was at work, he threw up a skull, which in some way or other engaged the doctor's attention.—While he examined it, he perceived a headless nail, which perforated the temple, and which convinced him that some dreadful deed must have been perpetrated. Taking up the skull, he demanded of the grave digger to whom it belonged. The man instantly said, that he knew very well—that it belonged to a man who was accustomed to excess in the use of liquor; and who one night, having been guilty of his usual intemperance, had been found dead in his bed in the morning. Dr. Donne then asked, "Had he a wife?" The answer was in the affirmative.—"What character does she bear?" The sexton said, "A very good one, only she was reflected upon for marrying immediately after the death of her husband." This was enough for the doctor, who, upon the pretence of visiting all his parishioners, soon called upon the woman in question; and in the course of conversation he inquired of what sickness her husband died. She gave him precisely the same account as the sexton had given before her. But the doctor produced the skull, and pointing to the place said, "Woman do you know this nail?" The unhappy criminal was struck with horror at the demand and the sight, and instantly avowed that she had been the perpetrator of the deed, which had hurried her husband, in a state of intoxication into the eternal world.

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

STOP! STOP!

MY DEAR MAN READ THIS IF YOU HAD GOT DYSPEPSIA OR ASTHMA OR SUFFERED FROM general debility, or any complaint resulting from derangement of the stomach. You would give a good deal to get well, wouldn't you? Then just give a LITTLE, and try Green's Oxygenated Bitters. It is just the thing for you. The Doctor discovered this medicine only after long and careful study—to cure a friend too—not to make money out of it. Look at the evidence of its efficacy and you will be satisfied. Hon. MYRON LAWRENCE cured of ASTHMA. BACHENSTOWN, March 16, 1848.

Dr. GREEN—I take great pleasure in informing you of the effects of the medicine called Oxygenated Bitters you had the kindness to send me. For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humored Asthma. I was compelled to sit up one third of the night, without going to bed at all; and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my attendance upon our courts I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, and sleep soundly. I took your medicine according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of the remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable, and I hope its virtues may be widely diffused and its beneficent agency extensively employed.

Respectfully yours, MYRON LAWRENCE.

DYSPEPSIA CURED.

CARLETON, Pa. June 10, 1848.

Messrs. Collier & Bro. Gentlemen—In reply to your note as to the effect of the Oxygenated Bitters in my case, I would say, that I have been afflicted with Dyspepsia about six years, and have tried many known remedies, but obtained no relief, until a friend recommended the Oxygenated Bitters. I was finally induced to procure two bottles of you, and I had not taken half a bottle before I felt its effects upon my system, and after the use of the second bottle, I found myself in a state of health as unexpected as it was gratifying. To the afflicted I have no hesitation in recommending the Bitters, as superior to any medicine I have ever heard of for the cure of Dyspepsia. Very Respectfully yours, MADSON M. LEWIS.

The following Certificates have recently been received:

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 10, 1848.

Having made use of the "Oxygenated Bitters" prepared by Dr. Geo. B. Green, of Windsor, Vermont, from knowledge obtained of their efficacy in other cases, we cheerfully recommend them to the public, believing that they will fully sustain the recommendation of the Proprietor. We hope that this valuable remedy may be so generally diffused throughout the country that it may be accessible to all the afflicted.

SAMUEL PHELPS, U. S. Senator from Vermont. JAMES F. SIMMONS, U. S. Senator from Rhode Island.

J. T. MOREHEAD, U. S. Senator and formerly Governor of Kentucky. L. H. ARNOLD, Member of Congress and formerly Governor of R. I.

DR. LE ROY'S

Vegetable Universal Pills, The only known Medicine that at the same time purges, purifies and strengthens the system. LONDON, July 7, 1846.

DR. LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking the places of all others of the same class. These pills are composed of many ingredients, but the two principal ones are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united that they act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging, while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these pills are at the same time tonic and opening; a desideratum long and eagerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do it much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they strengthen; and hence they cause no debility, and are followed by no reaction. Dr. Le Roy's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus make impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debility, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operations of this most excellent of medicines, which never strains or tortures the digestive functions, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; and hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sarsaparilla, united as it is with other ingredients, to remove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally the property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that is natural and sound; and hence a robust state of health is the certain result of their united operations. Price 25 Cents per BOX.

AGENTS.—T. Read & Son, Swoope & Africa, Huntingdon; W. W. Buchanan, Milliken & Kessler, Mill-Creek; S. Hatfield & Son, Juniata Iron Works; Porter & Bucher, Moore & Swoope, H. C. Walker, Alexandria; G. H. Steiner, Waterstreet. [Aug. 31, '47.]
