

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

The steamship Cambria arrived at Boston on Friday last, bringing intelligence from London to the 14th instant. Her news is of considerable interest. Flour had advanced. Ohio was selling at 24s. 6d. to 25s. Philadelphia and Baltimore 24s. The cotton market was dull, and a further decline from 1/4 to 1/2 per lb. had been experienced. England was quiet, but the prospect of a revival of trade was not so flattering. The accounts of poverty and starvation in Ireland are most deplorable. The death of Dr. Croly, by cholera is announced. France was busy, preparing for her elections. The troops in Paris were suffering sadly from the cholera. Count Montemolin, the Spanish pretender, had been betrayed by a peasant, and arrested by the authorities. A body of 250 Londoners recently arrived at Paris, on a visit to the National guard, (hangarier and Cavaignac are to be complemented with the grand cordon of the Legion of Honor.

The people have gained a triumph in Genoa, and Tuscany is preparing to resist the encroachments of Austria. Rome was quiet, though unsettled. The Pope was still at Gaeta. The town of Brescia has been captured by the Austrians, after a great slaughter by the inhabitants. Genoa had been bombarded and set on fire, but at the last accounts, an armistice had been declared, with a view to an arrangement. Palermo and Venice were under blockade, the former by the Neapolitans, and the latter by the Austrians. A sanguinary battle had taken place in Catalonia, in which two generals were killed. A Danish fleet, in attempting to capture the fortress of Eckernford on the 5th inst., were utterly defeated, and a line of battleship and a frigate fell into the hands of the former commander. The line of battleship grounded, and taking fire, exploded with 700 on board. The King of Prussia has refused the imperial crown of Germany. The report of the defeat of General Bem by the Russians, is contradicted. These are among the prominent items. They seem quite enough for one week. The old world it is clear, is yet undergoing the throes and spasms of Revolution.

THE TRAGEDY OF NATIONS.—There is war in almost every quarter of Europe. In Italy the Austrians have destroyed Brescia, the blood of her inhabitants staining the ruins of their churches and their homes. Genoa has been bombarded for twenty-four hours by the Piedmontese troops for revolt and Republicanism. In Spain the old quarrel has resulted in a new battle, with its horrors of dead and wounded, and no great principal to shed lustre on the gloom. Denmark is defeated by Germany, and defeated she has hitherto been the victor—on the sea. In Hungary the Austrians are more decidedly losers than ever. Thirteen hundred of their dead strewn a single field; Puchner has fled to Russian protection in Wallachia, and Bem is master of Transylvania. The King of Prussia refuses the German crown, and all there is uncertainty.—France still plays the part of the spectator, her Government making her false abroad, while by attempts to suppress thought, shackle the Press and gag speech at home, they make ready the new Revolution.

Thus in doubt, struggle, suffering unpeppable, dies the old Order that the new may rise from its ashes. Terrible, incomprehensible is the process, but let us believe that the result will be worth the pain.—N. Y. Tribune.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Girard Life Insurance Annuity and Trust Company of Philadelphia.
 Office No. 159 Chestnut Street.
 Capital $300,000.
 CHARTER PERPETUAL.

CONTINUE to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and receive deposits on interest.
 The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.
 The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to the insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved of, and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people,) and where they have had the longest experience, as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.
 The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. on the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 8 3/4 per cent., 7 1/2 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87.50; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.
 The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

Policy.	Sum Insured.	Bonus or Addition.	Amt. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease.
No. 58	$1,000	$100.00	$1,100.00
" 88	2,500	250.00	2,750.00
" 205	4,000	400.00	4,400.00
" 276	2,000	175.00	2,175.00
" 333	5,000	437.50	5,437.50

Pamphlets containing the table of rates, and explanations of the subject; forms of application and further information can be had at the office, gratis, in person or by letter, addressed to the President or Actuary.

GREEN'S OXYGENATED BITTERS, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

This medicine is an excellent tonic. It imparts health and vigor to the digestive organs and thus strengthens the whole system. Hence it is just the thing for Spring, when so many need something strengthening. Let every one read the following cases, and if you have one or more symptoms like those mentioned, don't fail to try this invaluable medicine.

Severe Case of Dyspepsia.

From R. P. STOW, Esq., Asst. Clerk U. S. House Representatives.
 WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15, 1846.
 DR. GEO. B. GREENS:—Dear Sir—I feel it not only a pleasure, but a duty, to make known to you and to the public, (if you desire it) the surprising effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in relieving me from that most discouraging disorder, Dyspepsia. I have been afflicted for about seventeen years with the usual attendant symptoms, viz: constipation of the bowels, headache, pain in the chest, flatulence, acidity of the stomach, and severe nausea; and for months at a time not the least particle of moisture would appear on the surface of the chest or limbs, and most of the time I was extremely bilious. I have used various remedies, have been strict in my diet, have been dosed with colomet and emetics day after day by physicians, but all to no good purpose. Hearing of the wonderful effects of the "Oxygenated Bitters," in the cure of Dyspepsia, I procured some as a last resort, and used four bottles of the medicine, and find the bad symptoms all removed, and myself once more in the enjoyment of health. None but the Dyspeptic sufferer, who has felt all the horrors of the disease, can at all appreciate the value of the medicine. I most sincerely hope that all will make trial of the medicine, and with me be able to rejoice in the return of health.

Lady Cured of Neuralgia.

From Rev. THOMAS KIDDER, of Vermont.
 WINDSOR, VT., Aug. 8, 1846.
 DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the "Oxygenated Bitters," with which you furnished my wife, has wrought a cure in her case. About two years since, my wife was violently attacked with neuralgia in the face, through the chest, in the wrists and ankles. So violent was the disease, added to a general derangement of the female system, that her strength was completely prostrated, her flesh wasted, and she rendered miserable indeed. I feel grateful for the restoration of her health, and in duty bound to give publicity to the above facts, that others similarly afflicted may know where to seek for cure. Truly your friend,
 THOMAS KIDDER.
 From Hon. MYRON LAWRENCE, of Mass.

"For some twenty years I had suffered severely from humoral Asthma. I was compelled to sit up one-third of the night, and the rest of the time my sleep was interrupted by violent fits of coughing and great difficulty of breathing. In all my attendance upon our courts I never went to bed in Northampton in twenty years but twice, and then was compelled to get up. Now I lie in bed without difficulty, and sleep soundly. I took the "Oxygenated Bitters," according to directions. The violent symptoms immediately abated, and perseverance in the use of the remedy has removed all its troublesome consequences. The value of such a remedy is incalculable, and I hope its virtues may be widely diffused and its beneficent agency extensively employed."
 GREEN & FLETCHER, General Agents, No. 26, South Sixth St., Philadelphia.
 Sold wholesale and retail by THOMAS READ & SON, Huntingdon, Pa.
