

Latest Foreign News.

New York, May 11. The steamship Hibernia arrived at Halifax on Thursday morning last and was expressed to St. Johns, reaching there early this morning. She brings £83,000 in specie.

The Navigation bill has passed the House of Commons by a majority of 61.

DENMARK. Hostilities still continue to be waged between Denmark and Prussia, without any marked preponderance on either side likely to affect the general issue. A large body of German troops entered Jutland on the 20th ult.

THE AMERICAN STEAMERS.—Information has reached Liverpool prior to the sailing of the Hibernia, that permission has been given by the Danish Government, which would enable the American steamships Herman and Washington, to carry goods to and from Bremen, without search or detention by the blockading squadron.

THE FRENCH EXPEDITION.—Affairs in France continue tranquil. The expedition in aid of Pope Pius, sailed on the 22d ult., and arrived at Civita Vecchia, and would immediately proceed to Rome. It is understood that the Pope will remain in Gaeta until the temper of his revolted subjects is first ascertained.

SARDINIA. The Sardinian Government have rejected the terms offered by Austria, and the two governments are again at issue. The Piedmontese Ministers have given fresh directions to the War Department to prepare for the immediate resumption of hostilities.

AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY. Germany is torn by dissensions. The account from Hungary speaks of fresh disasters to the army of the Imperialist. The accounts however are of a conflicting character.

NAPLES AND SICILY. The war between these two powers still continues. The advantages are all on the side of Naples. In addition to Catania, Soto has surrendered to the Neapolitan troops. Palermo has also prepared to capitulate.

THE MARKETS. The Hibernia brings Liverpool dates down to the 28th ult. Trade in Liverpool has been very dull. The London Money Market is represented as being steady. Consols closed at 92 to 91 1/2. The French funds are firm.

GRAIN.—Wheat has declined 2d to 3d. Flour declined 6d to 9d. We give the following quotations: Western Canal Flour, 23s to 23 1/2d; Philadelphia and Baltimore brands 23 to 23 1/2d.

France and the Pope. By telegraphic despatches of foreign news received at Philadelphia, on the 4th inst., bringing dates from Liverpool to the 21st ult., inclusive, we learn that the French government has "resolved upon the extreme measure of an armed intervention to reinstate Pope Pius IX in his temporal sovereignty at Rome;" and that "a force adequate in number to the emergency, has already been embarked and sailed for Civita Vecchia." This is news indeed.

Whatever comes to America from the once renowned Rome, is read and heard with the liveliest interest; and the above announcement will doubtless, awaken a general anxiety as to the result of this step on the part of France. The aspiration of every republican is, that that country may be restored, without interruption, to its ancient freedom and renown. We believe that her people have the unaffected sympathies of this nation, for we naturally rejoice at what ever promises liberty to Europe.

The accession of Pope Pius IX as temporal and spiritual ruler of the Roman states and church, promised much to universal liberty. By personal concessions on reaching the throne, and the surrender into the hands of his subjects of many of his prerogatives, he was regarded as the friend of popular rights. He gave freedom to the Press, and became its patron; he encouraged learning, and granted privileges to individual and corporate enterprise; he gave them a constitution, and promised largely in favor of national freedom. But they asked more: they asked for the surrender of the temporal sovereignty into their hands. Catching the spirit of the French republicans they rose in strength, and clamorously demanded a democratic government. The Pope and his Cardinals of the Vatican, imagining that these popular outbreaks arose from over indulgence and concession, drew the reins of state more firmly on the refractory. The potency, however, of the popular voice alarmed his Holiness, and with some difficulty he fled to, and found an asylum in Gaeta, where he still remains. Italy is now a republic!

That Republican France,—just emerging from a long reign of tyrants,—should officially take measures to re-establish a Kingdom and monarchy over a people who, following their example thrust them firmly aside, seems strange indeed. We have no sort of objection to the Pope's holding his spiritual sovereignty over the Roman church, and remaining at Rome, in person, to superintend its affairs; but we cannot see what good can result to either Europe or popular rights, by his reinstatement to the triple crown.—Washington Commonwealth.

High Handed Outrage. On Thursday evening, about 9 o'clock, at Philadelphia, a young man, of rather genteel appearance, drove up to the house of Mr. John McCandless, and inquired for Mr. M. He was invited in, taken up into the parlor, and engaged in conversation about the purchase of a farm near Gray's Ferry, respecting which Mr. McCandless had received a note through Blood's dispatch on Monday last, and not liking the appearance of the same, paid no attention to it. The villain advised him to go along with him in his carriage to the Ferry, on Thursday evening, and make the arrangement for the property, which he refused as he was lame, and it was too late, where upon the man rose from his seat, pulled a dirk from his pocket and stabbed him several times in the face, neck, arms, legs and sides, and then ran down stairs, jumped in his vehicle, and drove away at the top of his horse's speed. Mr. McC. is strongly impressed with the idea that the assassin was instigated by another individual to take his life. The individual referred to once paid his addresses to Mrs. McCandless, when the parties all lived in Ireland, and since they came to this country, he has annoyed Mrs. McC., and sent her a letter within the last few months.

THE MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12, 1840. There has been but little done to-day, as both buyers and sellers decline operating until after the receipt of the Hibernia's advices. The only transactions in flour are small lots to the city trade at $4 75 to $5 25 per bl. Rye flour we quote at $2 87 1/2, and corn meal at $2 75 per bl. Grain.—There is very little inquiry for wheat, as prices are comparatively higher than flour, and most of the receipts are going into store; sales of 500 bus. good Southern red at $1 08. Rye.—We quote Pennsylvania at 59 cts. per bus. Corn continues in good demand; sales of 3000 bus. Southern yellow at 61 and 1000 bus. Pennsylvania round yellow at 61 1/2 cts. per 56 lbs. Whiskey.—Sales in both hhd and bbls at 22 cts.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Girard Life Insurance Amnity and Trust Company of Philadelphia. Office No. 159 Chestnut Street. Capital $300,000. CHARTER PERPETUAL.

(CONTINUE) to make Insurances on Lives on the most favorable terms, receive and execute Trusts and receive deposits on interest.

The Capital being paid up and invested, together with accumulated premium fund, affords a perfect security to the insured. The premium may be paid in yearly, half yearly, or quarterly payments.

The Company add a BONUS at stated periods to the insurances for life. This plan of insurance is the most approved of, and is more generally in use, than any other in Great Britain, (where the subject is best understood by the people, and where they have had the longest experience,) as appears from the fact, that out of 117 Life Insurance Companies there, of all kinds, 87 are on this plan.

The first BONUS was appropriated in December 1844, amounting to 10 per cent. on the sum insured under the oldest policies; to 8 3/4 per cent., 7 1/2 per cent., &c. &c. on others, in proportion to the time of standing, making an addition of $100; $87,50; $75, &c. &c. to every 1,000, originally insured, which is an average of more than 50 per cent. on the premiums paid, and without increasing the annual payment of the company.

The operation of the BONUS will be seen by the following examples from the Life Insurance Register of the Company, thus:

Table with 4 columns: Policy, Sum Insured, Bonus or Addition, Amt. of pol. and bonus payable at the party's decease.

Pamphlets containing the table of rates, and explanations of the subject; forms of application and further information can be had at the office, gratis, in person or by letter, addressed to the President or Actuary.
